Such forward-looking statements include statements about our expectations, beliefs or intentions regarding actions contemplated by this Information Statement, our potential business, financial condition, results of operations, strategies or prospects. You can identify forward-looking statements by the fact that these statements do not relate strictly to historical or current matters. Rather, forward-looking statements relate to anticipated or expected events, activities, trends or results as of the date they are made and are often identified by the use of words such as “anticipate,” “believe,” “continue,” “could,” “estimate,” “expect,” “intend,” “may,” or “will,” and similar expressions or variations. forward-looking statements relate to matters that have not yet occurred, these statements are inherently subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause our actual results to differ materially from any future results expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements. Many factors could cause our actual activities or results to differ materially from the activities and results anticipated in forward-looking statements. These factors include those described under the caption “Risk Factors” included in our other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”), including the disclosures set forth in Item 1A of our Form 10-K for the year ended June 30, 2010, filed with the SEC on September 29, 2010. Stockholder Actions

We are disseminating this Information Statement to notify you that Michael D. Herman, Hermanco, LLC, Debra Herman, R.V. Bailey, and Rick D. Kasch (collectively the “Voting Stockholders”), stockholders representing more than a majority of the voting power of the Company’s outstanding shares of Common Stock, delivered written consent to the Company effective on November 3, 2010 to take certain actions as follows (collectively the “Stockholder Actions” and each a “Stockholder Action”):

 - b. Amend Article IV of the Company’s Restated Certificate of Incorporation to provide that the capital stock of the Company be increased to 110,000,000 shares, including 100,000,000 shares of common stock and 10,000,000 shares of preferred stock, each with a par value of $0.005 per share.

Vote Required

We are not seeking consent, authorizations, or proxies from you. The Delaware General Corporation Law permits the holders of a corporation's outstanding stock representing a majority of that corporation's voting power to approve and authorize corporate actions by written consent as if such actions were undertaken at a duly called and held meeting of stockholders.

On November 9, 2010 (the "Record Date"), there were 21,778,866 shares of the Company's common stock (the "Common Stock"), issued and outstanding, of which the Voting Stockholders held approximately 73.6%, or 16,038,420 shares. Each share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote. No other classes of stock of the Company are issued and outstanding.

The written consent satisfies the stockholder approval requirement for the Stockholder Actions. Accordingly, no other Board or stockholder approval is required in order to effect the Corporate Actions.

Effective Date

The Stockholder Actions were unanimously approved by the Board of Directors by written consent dated October 31, 2010 but delivered on November 3, 2010. Thereafter, the Stockholder Actions were approved by stockholders representing more than a majority of the voting power of the Company's outstanding shares of common stock.

This Information Statement is being made available on or about November 10, 2010 to the Company's stockholders of record as of the Record Date. The Stockholder Actions will be effective on or after December 21, 2010, a date that is more than 40 calendar days after the notice of Internet Authority of this Information Statement is first sent to our stockholders. In the case of the Stockholder Actions described in paragraphs (a) through (g), the effective date will be when the Second Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation and/or when any of the individual amendments to the Company's current Certificate of Incorporation are filed with the Delaware Secretary of State (which date may occur later due to administrative issues with respect to the filing requirements or at a time in the discretion of the Board of Directors). All amendment to the Company's Certificate of Incorporation approved by the stockholders remain subject to the final approval of the Board of Directors, and in its discretion the Board of Directors will authorize the filing of any amendments with the Delaware Secretary of State.

The expenses of distributing this Information Statement will be borne by the Company, including expenses in connection with the preparation and mailing of this Information Statement and all documents that now accompany or may in the future supplement it. The Company contemplates that brokerage houses, custodians, nominees, and fiduciaries will forward this Information Statement to the beneficial owners of the Company's common stock held of record by these persons and the Company will reimburse them for their reasonable expenses incurred in this process.

Dissenters' Rights of Appraisal

Under the Delaware General Corporation Law Company dissenting stockholders, if any, are not entitled to appraisal rights with respect to the Stockholder Actions.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

The following questions and answers are intended to respond to frequently asked questions concerning Stockholder Actions. These questions do not, and are not intended to, address all the questions that may be important to you. You should carefully read the entire Information Statement, as well as its appendices and the documents incorporated by reference.

Question 1. Why are you not holding a meeting of the stockholders to approve the Stockholder Actions?

Answer: We are not holding a meeting of the stockholders because of the time involved and the cost of a meeting which, when including legal, accounting, transfer agent, mailing, printing, and other costs can exceed $100,000. Furthermore, we are planning to hold a meeting in July 2011 for the purpose of the election of directors and to take other actions appropriate at that time. It is also our belief that these Stockholder Actions are sufficiently important to the Company that they should be accomplished as soon as possible, rather than waiting for the next stockholders' meeting.

Question 2. Why are you not soliciting proxies or a stockholder vote on these matters?

Answer: We are not soliciting proxies or any stockholder vote because, pursuant to Section 228 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the "DGCL") pursuant to which the Company is incorporated, stockholders holding a majority of the voting power are entitled to approve these matters. We believe that the Stockholder Actions are consistent with commonly found provisions in the certificate of incorporation of Delaware corporations and the 2010 Stock Incentive Plan is consistent with plans of that sort adopted by other companies. We also believe that the change in our tax fiscal year is appropriate so that our accounting and tax fiscal years are coincident. Consequently, the Board did not believe it necessary to solicit proxies or a stockholder vote on the Stockholder Actions.

Question 3. Why are you changing the Company's name to Enservco Corporation?

Answer: In June 2009 the Company completed the sale of its remaining assets to Venoco, Inc. During the fiscal year ended June 30, 2010 and until the Company acquired Dillco Fluid Service, Inc. ("Dillco") on July 27, 2010 through a merger transaction (as reported in a Form 8-K filed on July 28, 2010), the Company was not engaged in business operations. Unlike the Company's activities prior to the sale of its assets to Venoco, following the acquisition of Dillco, the Company is not engaged in mineral exploration operations. We believe that the name "Enservco" better describes the Company's activities in providing oil field services to the oil and gas industry ("energy services").

Question 4. Why are you increasing the capital stock of the Company to 110,000,000 shares, including 100,000,000 shares of common stock and 10,000,000 shares of preferred stock?

Answer: At the present time, the Company's authorized capital stock consists of 50,000,000 shares of common stock and no class of preferred stock. Including options and warrants that have been granted, more than one-half of the authorized common stock is either outstanding or issuable upon exercise of options and warrants. In the Company's opinion, this leaves us limited flexibility should the Company seek to acquire other companies in the oil field service business (or other businesses) or to raise additional capital through the issuance of common stock or securities that are convertible into share of common stock.

The Company also believes that it is important to it to authorize a class of preferred stock which can be issued by the Board in different series (generally referred to as "blank check preferred"). This is flexibility that most companies (but not the Company) have from their incorporation. While preferred stock can be used to delay or prevent hostile takeover of the Company, it is not the Company's current intent to use it in that manner. We are not aware of any effort to undertake a hostile takeover of the Company at the present time and, because of the concentration of stock ownership in a few people (primarily Mr. and Mrs. Herman); any such attempt would likely be futile.

Question 5. Do you have any plans to issue additional shares of common stock or any shares of preferred stock as a result of the increase in capitalization?

Answer: We do not have any current plans to issue any shares of common stock or preferred stock. However, going forward, the Board of Directors may deem it in the best interests of the Company and our stockholders to issue additional shares of common stock or preferred stock, and, by obtaining stockholder approval of the increase in authorized capital the Company has greater flexibility to do so.

Question 6. Why are you eliminating the provision by which directors are classified into three classes elected at three subsequent meetings of stockholders?

Answer: First of all, because of the paucity of annual meetings in the recent past, the Company has not given practical effect to its ability to classify its directors. Secondly, under modern corporate governance principles and the rules of stock exchanges, a classified board is less favored, and it is preferred that directors be elected each year at the Company's stockholders' meeting. Having a classified board can be utilized as an anti-takeover device, and by eliminating the classified board we are eliminating the effect of a classified board that may discourage or prevent a hostile takeover. As noted above, we are not aware of any effort to undertake a hostile takeover of the Company at the present time and, because of the concentration of stock ownership in a few people (primarily Mr. and Mrs. Herman); any such attempt would likely be futile.

Question 7. Why are you amending Article VII of the Company's Restated Certificate of Incorporation to correct the cross reference from Article V to Article VIII, and to add the following sentence at the end of such Article VII: "Any repeal or modification of Article VIII shall be prospective only, and shall not affect, to the detriment of any director, any limitation on the personal liability of a director of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification."

Answer: The cross reference was added to the Company's certificate of incorporation by amendment in January 1982. As added, it referred to Article VI entitled "Initial Directors" and contained provisions relating to the management of the Board. There is no need for those provisions to require a super-majority for repeal or modification of those provisions, some of which are not even contained in the Second Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation. Typically such a super-majority requirement applies to the indemnification provisions (permitted by §145 of the DGCL and made mandatory as described below) and the limitation of liability provisions (permitted by §102(b)(7) of the DGCL and modified as described below). The cross reference change corrects this error.

The second part of the amendment is to clarify that any change to the indemnification provisions and the limitation of liability provisions is prospective only. The Company does not believe that it is fair to persons serving as officers or directors of the Company to risk a future change in those provisions applying retroactively.

Question 8. Why are you amending the limitation of liability provisions found in Article VII of the Company's Restated Certificate of Incorporation?

Answer: The limitation of liability provision was adopted by the Company's stockholders in 1987 and effectuated by filing an amendment to the Company's certificate of incorporation on March 2, 1987. The language used at that time (which was shortly after the DGCL was amended to permit such a limitation of liability in §102(b)(7)) was sufficient at the time, but since then practice has evolved to more accurately describe the limitation of liability. We believe that the limitation of liability provisions, which are commonly adopted by Delaware corporations, are necessary to protect our directors from liability for exercise of their business judgment where there has been no breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Company or its stockholders, where the director has acted or failed to act in good faith and in manners which do not involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, which do not arise for wrongful distributions under Section 174 of the DGCL, and which do not result from any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. We believe that without a better worded provision addressing the requirements of DGCL §102(b)(7), it may be more difficult to attract and retain the highest quality directors.

Question 9. Why are you adding provisions to the certificate of incorporation discussing indemnification of officers, directors, and agents?

Answer: Section 145 of the DGCL permits a Delaware corporation to indemnify its officers, directors, and agents in certain circumstances, but only provides for mandatory indemnification if the person has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding. Thus mandatory indemnification would not be available if, as is the case with most lawsuits, litigation were settled between the parties without any judicial determination. This limited right to mandatory indemnification is generally not satisfactory to the caliber of directors that the Company has and hopes to attract to its board of directors. The Company's bylaws provide a mandatory indemnification right in Section 5.01, and the Company has entered into indemnification agreements with its current directors, but practice among Delaware corporations is to include it in the certificate of incorporation as well.

It is important to note that indemnification is not an open invitation but is qualified by a number of statutory provisions, including the requirement that the person seeking indemnification has acted in good faith and in a manner that the person reasonably believed to have been in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and (if there are allegations of criminal conduct) that the person had no reasonable cause to believe that the person's conduct was criminal. The statute goes on to state that the termination of any action by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith or in a manner that the person reasonably believed to have been in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation or (if convicted of criminal conduct) that the person had reasonable cause to believe that the person's conduct was criminal.

The new provision being added to the Certificate of Incorporation also makes it clear, as the Company believes should be the case, that the ability of the Company to indemnify persons should be as broad as possible. The Company believes that these protections are necessary to attract good personnel to serve on the Company's board of directors and as officers, employees, and agents of the Company.

Question 10. Why are you adding provisions to the certificate of incorporation discussing the advancement of expenses to officers, directors, and agents?

Answer: Indemnification discussed in response to Question 9, above, is backward-looking; that is, a person is only entitled to indemnification after the termination of the action. Litigation is extremely expensive and may have been brought by a plaintiff against individuals in an effort to gain a settlement advantage. Section 145(e) of the DGCL provides specifically that Delaware corporations, such as the Company, may advance expenses in certain circumstances, including requiring an undertaking from the person receiving the advance that he or she will repay the amount of the advance if it is ultimately determined that the person is not entitled to be indemnified. We believe that the Company's right and obligation to advance expenses should be as broad as possible.

Question 11. Why do you not simply rely on directors' and officers' liability insurance?

Answer: We believe that directors' and officers' liability insurance is a solution to the indemnification and advancement of expenses question, but there are deductibles and exclusions that may be applicable. Thus we believe that directors' and officers' liability insurance is only a partial solution which should be complemented by the indemnification and advancement of expenses provisions.

Question 12. Are any of the other conforming amendments to the Company's Second Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation material?

Answer: As a number of cases have made clear over the years, materiality is in the eyes of the beholder and must be judged on all of the facts and circumstances. You will have to review the Second Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation and determine whether, in your judgment, the other changes are material to you. The Second Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation of Enservco Corporation is attached hereto as Annex B for your convenience.

Question 13. Why are you changing the Company's fiscal year to the calendar year for all purposes?

Answer: Through June 30, 2010, the Company's fiscal year for tax and financial accounting purposes was June 30. As a result of the July 2010 completion of the acquisition of Dillco, Dillco became the "accounting acquirer" and Dillco's fiscal year became the Company's fiscal year. Dillco's fiscal year was the calendar year (ending on December 31). Consequently, although in September 2010, the Company filed its annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2010, the Company will also be required to file an annual report on Form 10-K for its new fiscal year ended December 31, 2010. Nevertheless, unless changed for tax purposes, the Company would be in the anomalous position of having a 12/31 fiscal year for accounting purposes and a 6/30 fiscal year for tax purposes. We believe that will create hardship and unnecessary expense.

Question 14. Why did the Voting Stockholders approve the Company's 2010 Stock Incentive Plan?

Answer: The Board of Directors had approved the Company's 2010 Stock Incentive Plan (the "2010 Plan") at its meeting on July 27, 2010. The 2010 Plan permits the granting of equity-based awards to our directors, officers, employees, consultants, independent contractors and affiliates. As described in the first section of the 2010 Plan itself, the purpose of the 2010 Plan is to promote the interests of the Company and its stockholders by aiding the Company in attracting and retaining employees, officers, consultants, independent contractors and directors capable of assuring the future success of the Company, to offer such persons incentives to put forth maximum efforts for the success of the Company's business and to afford such persons an opportunity to acquire a proprietary interest in the Company.

The Board did not adopt the 2010 Plan subject to stockholder approval, but stockholder approval is required to obtain certain tax benefits under §422 of the Internal Revenue Code and is required by various stock exchanges. Although the Company's common stock is not currently listed on any stock exchange, the Company is attempting to meet the corporate governance requirements for such stock exchanges where it can reasonably do so.

Question 15. Does any executive officer or director of the Company have any substantial interest (direct or indirect) in the Stockholder Actions?

Answer: The question with respect to "substantial direct or indirect interest" in the Stockholder Actions is subject to interpretation and judgment. To the extent that the amendments to the certificate of incorporation included in the Second Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation provide clarity and certainty to the limitation of liability, indemnification rights, the right to advancement of expenses, and the prohibition of a retroactive denial of such benefits, as described above, each director and executive officer will be benefitted, and the benefit may be considered by some to be substantial. Each director and executive officer is also subject to receiving awards under the 2010 Plan and where the recipient is also an employee, as a result of stockholder approval the Company will be able to award such person incentive stock options which have certain tax advantages. This ability to receive incentive stock options also may be considered to be a benefit, which may be considered by some to be substantial. Note that the Company has awarded options under the 2010 Plan without stockholder approval and may award further options in the future. Additionally, to the extent that certain of the Stockholder Actions have anti-takeover implications as described above (even though the Company is not aware of any pending takeover threat), these may be perceived as potentially benefitting insiders.

Question 16. When will the Company hold its next annual meeting of stockholders for the election of directors?

Answer: As announced in the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2010, the Company plans to hold its annual meeting on or about July 19, 2011. Under the rules of the SEC, that date may be advanced or delayed by up to 30 days without the requirement that the Company make any further announcement. We expect to consider the election of directors and other matters at that meeting. The Company expects to continue to hold annual meetings in subsequent years, as well. As discussed above, although the Company's common stock is not currently listed on any stock exchange, the Company is attempting to meet the corporate governance requirements for such stock exchanges where it can reasonably do so, and holding annual meetings in the future is (in the Company's opinion) a prudent way to proceed.

Question 17. Will the Company solicit proxies for the contemplated 2011 meeting discussed in Question 16?

Answer: Based on the situation as it currently exists, it is unlikely that the Company will solicit proxies to vote at that meeting. Stockholders will be entitled to attend that meeting and vote in person, or appoint another person their proxy to vote on their behalf (provided any proxy solicitation is accomplished in compliance with the Exchange Act and the SEC's rules and regulations thereunder). If the Company does not solicit proxies for the next annual meeting, the Company will distribute an information statement pursuant to Regulation 14C prior to that meeting.

Narrative Disclosure to Summary Compensation Table

Historically, Aspen's Board of Directors, acting in lieu of a compensation committee, reviewed the total direct compensation programs for Aspen's executive officers. During fiscal 2010, the salary and other benefits payable to Mr. Bailey were set forth in an employment agreement, which is discussed below. The portions of Mr. Bailey's compensation that were discretionary included the stock option that was granted to Mr. Bailey in February 2010 (which did not vest until the closing of the Merger Transaction and then only vested because Aspen met a specific performance goal), and the Company's non-payment to Mr. Bailey of any bonus or other special compensation.

In the past, Aspen has considered salaries and compensation for its executives. Aspen has done this by evaluating their responsibilities, experience and the competitive marketplace. Aspen has not used compensation consultants in the past, and the Company has no plans to use a compensation consultant in the near future. To the extent that the Company's board (or compensation committee when one is formed) determines it appropriate to use a compensation consultant, it will seek one with no other ties to Enservco and thus "independent."

In the past, Aspen has considered (and going forward the Company expects to consider) the following factors in determining our executive officers' base salaries and compensation levels:

1. The executive's leadership and operational performance and potential to enhance long-term value to the Company's stockholders;
2. The Company's financial resources, results of operations, and financial projections;
3. Performance compared to the financial, operational and strategic goals established for the Company;
4. The nature, scope and level of the executive's responsibilities;
5. Competitive market compensation paid by other companies for similar positions, experience and performance levels; and
6. The executive's current salary, the appropriate balance between incentives for long-term and short-term performance.

Historically, Aspen's management reviewed the base salary, annual bonus and long-term compensation levels for other employees of Aspen, and the Company expects this practice to continue going forward. The entire Board of Directors remains responsible for significant changes to, or adoption, of new employee benefit plans. Historically, the primary compensation of Aspen's executive officers has been comprised of a base salary, option awards, and compensation through Aspen's former amended royalty and working interest plan, each of which is described below.

Cash Compensation Payable to Named Executive Officers. Historically, Aspen's named executive officers received a base salary payable in accordance with Aspen's normal payroll practices and pursuant to agreements between each executive officer and Aspen. Aspen believes that the base salaries paid to its executive officers were reasonable when agreed upon, and were less than those that are received by comparable officers with comparable responsibilities in similar companies.

Stock Option Plan Benefits – Aspen's officers and directors have historically been eligible to be granted options, and Aspen expects this to continue going forward. Aspen (and the Company) believes that option grants are a mechanism to help align the interest of its officers, directors, employees and consultants with that of Aspen and its stockholders. Historically, Aspen has not granted options to its officers on regular intervals, but instead has periodically granted options to its executive officers (and other employees and consultants) at times determined to be appropriate by the Board of Directors.

Through its 2010 fiscal year (which ended June 30, 2010), Aspen had one formal equity compensation plan the “2008 Equity Plan.” On February 27, 2008, Aspen’s Board granted options to purchase 775,000 shares of common stock at an exercise price of $2.14 per share, including an option to purchase 200,000 shares to Mr. Bailey. One third of the shares underlying the option were to vest on each September 30, of 2008, 2009, and 2010 if certain company-wide performance conditions are met. These performance objectives are based on oil and natural gas reserves, production, and net income for Aspen’s fiscal years ended June 30, 2008, 2009 and 2010. To the extent they vest, the options expire February 27, 2013. As a result of Aspen’s decreased business operations during fiscal 2009 and 2010, no portions of the options vested during those fiscal years, and in total 163,760 options expired.

Pursuant to the 2008 Equity Plan, on February 15, 2010, Aspen’s Board of Directors granted options to certain employees and consultants. The options were granted to persons who had (and were expected to) remain with Aspen and have provided valuable services to Aspen, and to help further align interests of the recipients with those of the Aspen and its stockholders. In total, Aspen granted options to acquire 350,000 shares of its common stock. Included in the persons receiving options were the persons then serving as Aspen’s executive officers and as members of its Board of Directors, including 100,000 options to Mr. Bailey. The options granted on February 15, 2010 have an exercise price equal to $0.4125, which was equal to 125% of the closing price of the Aspen’s common stock on February 17, 2010. The options, to the extent vested, expire on February 15, 2015. All of the options granted vest upon a “change of control” (which term is defined in each recipient’s option agreement), and then only if Aspen has working capital of at least $3,000,000 on the date of the change of control event. Further, unless a given option recipient is terminated for cause the options will not expire following the termination of each recipient’s relationship (whether an employee, consultant or director) with Aspen. On July 27, 2010, the Company’s Board determined that the vesting criteria for these options was met and deemed all of these options vested.

Other Compensation/Benefits. The amounts reflected in the column labeled “other compensation” in the Summary Compensation Table predominately consist of compensation paid from Aspen’s former “Amended Royalty and Working Interest Plan” in fiscal 2009 and from benefits received from our 401(k) plan and medical reimbursement plans in fiscal 2010.

Amended Royalty and Working Interest Plan. Aside from their base salaries, the largest element of the compensation of Aspen’s executive officers historically was realized from Aspen’s “Amended Royalty and Working Interest Plan” (the “Plan”) by which Aspen assigned overriding royalty interests or other interests in oil and natural gas properties or in mineral properties. This plan was intended to provide additional compensation to Aspen’s personnel involved in the acquisition, exploration and development of oil or natural gas or mineral prospects. All Aspen employees (including officers and consultants) were eligible to participate in the Plan. Inasmuch as Aspen did not engage in the oil and natural gas industry during fiscal 2010 and much of 2009, no assignments were made under this plan during Aspen’s fiscal 2010 or 2009. The Company does not expect to continue to utilize the Plan in the future.

The allocations for royalty under the Plan for employees were based on a determination by management whether there was any “room” for royalties in a particular transaction. In some specific cases management believed that an oil or natural gas property or project was sufficiently burdened with existing royalties so that no additional royalty burden could be allocated to Aspen employees for that property or project. In other situations a determination was made that there were royalty interests available for assignment to employees and consultants. The determination of whether royalty interests were available and how much to assign to employees and consultants (usually less than 3%) was made on a case-by-case basis by members of management. Aspen never granted any overriding royalty interests in its former Montana oil properties (which properties we sold in February 2009). During fiscal 2010 Mr. Bailey did not receive any payments under the Plan, but received payments of $43,234 in fiscal 2009.

Other Elements of Compensation and Benefits

Aspen’s executive officers also historically received certain other benefits, although these benefits did not constitute a large portion of their overall compensation. The Company expects this practice to continue going forward.

Aspen had a Profit-Sharing 401(k) Plan which all employees were eligible to participate in immediately upon being hired to work at least 1,000 hours per year and having attained age 21. Aspen adopted an amendment to the Profit-Sharing 401(k) Plan effective July 1, 2005 pursuant to which Aspen made matching contributions equal to 50% of the participant’s elective deferrals. During fiscal 2009, Aspen contributed $25,125 to the plan (including $10,000 to R. V. Bailey’s plan). During fiscal 2010, Aspen contributed $20,000 to the plan (including $10,000 to R. V. Bailey’s plan). These amounts are included in the column labeled “All Other Compensation” in the Aspen Summary Compensation table, above. After the end of Aspen’s 2010 fiscal year, steps have been taken to terminate this plan.

In fiscal 2009, Mr. Bailey purchased a vehicle from Aspen. Pursuant to Mr. Bailey’s September 2004 employment agreement, he purchased his vehicle from Aspen for $500, significantly below the fair market value of that vehicle. The difference between the purchase price paid by Mr. Bailey when he acquired his vehicle from Aspen for $500 and the fair market value of that vehicle ($23,781) is also included in “Other Compensation” for Mr. Bailey.

Employment Agreements with Aspen’s named executive officers. Aspen previously entered into employment agreements with its named executive officers, including Mr. Bailey. Mr. Bailey’s employment agreement expired on July 31, 2010 and he ceased receiving his salary compensation under that agreement on that date. The material terms of the employment agreement pursuant to which Mr. Bailey served as Aspen’s Chief Executive Officer during fiscal 2010 are summarized as follows:

Effective May 1, 2003, and as amended September 21, 2004, Aspen entered into an employment agreement with R. V. Bailey (the "2003 Agreement"). The pertinent provisions of the 2003 Agreement included an employment period ending May 1, 2009, and an annual salary of $60,000 per year from January 1, 2007, ending May 1, 2009. Effective January 1, 2009, and as amended July 21, 2009, Aspen entered into a new employment agreement with Mr. Bailey (the "2009 Agreement") pursuant to which both parties agreed that the 2003 Agreement was terminated as of January 1, 2009. The pertinent provisions of the 2009 Agreement included an employment period ending December 31, 2009 with a salary of $120,000 per year. On multiple occasions during fiscal 2010 (and again in July 2010) Aspen agreed to extend the term of Mr. Bailey's employment agreement, with the final of these extensions expiring on July 31, 2010. The 2009 Agreement provided that Mr. Bailey was eligible to participate in Aspen's stock options and royalty interest programs. During the term of the agreement, and in lieu of health insurance, Aspen paid Mr. Bailey a monthly allowance to cover items as prescriptions, medical and dental coverage for him and his dependents and other expenses not covered in the agreement. To the extent that Mr. Bailey did not provide documentation accounting for the expenditure of this amount for medical reimbursement purposes, it is treated as compensation to him.

Effective August 1, 2010 the only cash compensation Mr. Bailey is expected to receive from Company will be any directors' fees he is paid as further described below.

Events Subsequent to June 30, 2010

Effective July 27, 2010 the Company closed the Merger Transaction, and appointed new executive officers on that same date. Also, effective July 27, 2010 the Company entered into employment agreements with Mr. Herman (the Company's current Chief Executive Officer and Chairman) and Mr. Kasch (the Company's current Chief Financial Officer). On August 23, 2010, Aspen appointed Bob Maughmer as the Company's President and Chief Operating Officer, and later entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Maughmer.

The material terms of the employment agreements entered into with Mr. Herman, Mr. Kasch, and Mr. Maughmer are summarized below.

Michael Herman Employment Agreement – Mr. Herman's employment agreement is for a term through June 30, 2013. The agreement provides for no base salary. However, Mr. Herman is eligible for an annual discretionary cash bonus based on Mr. Herman's performance and the performance of the Company as a whole, with any bonus ultimately to be determined by the Board of Directors. Mr. Herman is entitled to receive standard employment benefits and a car allowance of $1,000 per month. If Mr. Herman is terminated without cause he will be entitled to health benefits for a period of eighteen months. The employment agreement also contains other standard provisions contained in agreements of this nature including confidentiality and non-competition provisions.

Rick Kasch Employment Agreement – Mr. Kasch’s employment agreement is for a term through June 30, 2013. The agreement provides for an annual salary of $180,000 through June 30, 2011 and then automatic increases of 5% effective on each July 1 during the term of the agreement. Pursuant to the agreement the Company granted Mr. Kasch an option to acquire 300,000 shares of Company common stock, with an exercise price of $0.49 (which is equal to the closing sales price of the Company’s common stock two days after Aspen filed its Current Report on Form 8-K reporting the closing of the Merger Transaction). The option is exercisable for a five year term, and one third of the options vested immediately upon grant with the remaining portion of the option to vest on a pro-rata basis on each of the first two anniversary dates of the option grant. Mr. Kasch is also entitled to standard employment benefits and the use of a Company automobile or alternatively a car allowance of at least $1,000 per month. The employment agreement also contains other standard provisions contained in agreements of this nature including confidentiality and non-competition provisions.

Mr. Kasch’s employment agreement also provides for severance compensation if his employment is terminated for the following two reasons:

1. A termination without cause - If Mr. Kasch is terminated without cause he will be entitled to all salary that would have been paid through the remaining term of the agreement, or if the agreement is terminated without cause during the final eighteen months of the agreement term Mr. Kasch will be entitled to receive a lump sum payment equal to eighteen months of his base salary. Additionally, if Mr. Kasch is terminated without cause, he will be entitled to health benefits for a period of eighteen months; and
2. A termination upon a change of control event or a management change - If Mr. Kasch resigns within ninety days following a change of control event or a management change (being the person to whom he directly reports) he will be entitled to a severance payment equal to eighteen months of his base salary with the amount being paid either in a lump sum payment or in accordance with the Company’s payroll practices. Further, Mr. Kasch will be entitled to health benefits for a period of eighteen months.

Bob Maughmer Employment Agreement – On September 6, 2010 Enservco entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Maughmer, Enservco’s President and Chief Operating Officer. The employment agreement provides that Mr. Maughmer will be paid an annual salary of $225,000. On July 1 of each year that the employment agreement is in effect Mr. Maughmer’s salary will be increased by at least 5%. Mr. Maughmer is eligible to receive a discretionary annual bonus based on Mr. Maughmer’s performance and the Company’s financial condition. Mr. Maughmer is also entitled to standard employment benefits and a monthly car allowance of at least $1,000. Mr. Maughmer’s employment agreement is for a three year term and will not be automatically renewed at the end of that term. Instead, Mr. Maughmer will become an employee at will at the end of the initial term of the agreement unless otherwise agreed by Mr. Maughmer and the Company. If Mr. Maughmer’s employment is terminated without cause during the term of the agreement Mr. Maughmer will be entitled to his base salary through the remainder of the term of the agreement.

Risk/Reward Issues

The Board of Directors does not believe that the current structure of the Company's compensation policies promotes unnecessary or inappropriate short-term or long-term risks. The cash compensation paid to the Company's executive officers consists of fixed salaries and possible performance bonuses. These performance bonuses (if any) will be granted in hindsight by the Board of Directors based on operational and financial performance.

In the future, the Board may base the vesting of stock options and perhaps cash bonuses on specific performance criteria that will be determined in advance based on the Company's prior year performance as reflected in its financial statements included within its annual report on Form 10-K.

INFORMATION ABOUT COMPENSATION PLANS AS TO WHICH ACTION IS TO BE TAKEN

The Voting Stockholders approved the Company's 2010 Stock Incentive Plan (the "2010 Plan"), as outlined herein. The purpose of the 2010 Plan is to promote the interests of the Company and its stockholders by aiding the Company in attracting and retaining employees, officers, consultants, independent contractors and directors capable of assuring the future success of the Company, to offer such persons incentives to put forth maximum efforts for the success of the Company's business and to afford such persons an opportunity to acquire a proprietary interest in the Company. The 2010 Plan will enable the Company to continue to compensate such persons through various equity-based arrangements and provide them with opportunities for stock ownership in the Company, thereby aligning the interests of such persons with the Company's stockholders.

The 2010 Plan

The Board and the Voting Stockholders approved the 2010 Plan to, among other things, reserve 3,500,000 shares of common stock for issuance under the 2010 Plan through December 31, 2011. Beginning on January 1 of each subsequent year that the 2010 Plan is in effect, the aggregate number of shares that may be issued under the 2010 Plan shall be adjusted to equal 15% of the Company's issued and outstanding shares of common stock, calculated as of January 1 of the respective year. Such shares included within the 2010 Plan may be either authorized but unissued shares or shares re-acquired and held in treasury.

Additionally, the maximum number of shares that may be awarded under the 2010 Plan pursuant to grants of restricted stock, restricted stock units and stock awards is 2,000,000 shares.

The following is a summary of the principal features of the 2010 Plan. This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the 2010 Plan, which is included as Annex C to this Information Statement.

Description of the 2010 Plan

The 2010 Plan permits the granting of equity-based awards to our directors, officers, employees, consultants, independent contractors and affiliates. Equity-based awards are determined by the Compensation Committee (or, in the absence thereof, the entire Board of Directors) and are granted only in compliance with applicable laws and regulatory policy.

Administration

The Compensation Committee (or, in the absence thereof, the entire Board of Directors) will administer the 2010 Plan and will have full power and authority to determine when and to whom awards will be granted, and the type, amount, form of payment and other terms and conditions of each award, consistent with the provisions of the 2010 Plan. In addition, the Compensation Committee (or, in the absence thereof, the entire Board of Directors) can specify whether, and under what circumstances, awards to be received under the 2010 Plan or amounts payable under such awards may be deferred automatically or at the election of either the holder of the award or the Compensation Committee (or, in the absence thereof, the entire Board of Directors). Subject to the provisions of the 2010 Plan, the Compensation Committee (or, in the absence thereof, the entire Board of Directors) may amend or waive the terms and conditions, or accelerate the exercisability, of an outstanding award. The Compensation Committee (or, in the absence thereof, the entire Board of Directors) has authority to interpret the 2010 Plan and establish rules and regulations for the administration of the 2010 Plan. Since the Company does not have a Compensation Committee, the 2010 Plan will be administered by the Board of Directors. Should the Board of Directors appoint a Compensation Committee, it will take over the administration of the 2010 Plan. When used herein, the term "Compensation Committee" refers to the Board of Directors as a whole until such time as the Board appoints a Compensation Committee.

The Compensation Committee may delegate its powers and duties under the 2010 Plan to one or more directors (including a director who is also an officer of the Company), except that it may not delegate its powers to grant awards to executive officers or directors who are subject to Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), or in a way that would violate Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code. In addition, the Compensation Committee may authorize one or more officers of the Company to grant stock options under the 2010 Plan, provided that stock option awards made by these officers may not be made to executive officers or directors who are subject to Section 16 of the Exchange Act. The Board may also exercise the powers of the Committee at any time, so long as its actions would not violate Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Eligible Participants

Any employee, officer, consultant, independent contractor or director providing services to the Company or any of its affiliates, who is selected by the Committee, is eligible to receive an award under the 2010 Plan.

As of October 14, 2010, three officers, 72 employees (including the three officers), and three non-employee directors of the Company were considered to be within the group of eligible persons who could receive awards under the 2010 Plan.

Shares Available For Awards

The aggregate number of shares of our common stock that may be issued through December 31, 2011 under all equity-based awards made under the 2010 Plan is 3,500,000 million shares of common stock. Beginning on January 1, 2012 and on January 1 of each subsequent year that the 2010 Plan is in effect, the aggregate number of Shares that may be issued under the 2010 Plan shall be adjusted to equal 15% of the Company's issued and outstanding Shares, calculated as of January 1 of the respective year. The maximum number of shares that may be awarded under the 2010 Plan pursuant to grants of restricted stock, restricted stock units and stock awards is 2,000,000.

The Compensation Committee may adjust the number of shares and share limits described above in the case of a stock dividend or other distribution, including a stock split, merger or other similar corporate transaction or event, in order to prevent dilution or enlargement of the benefits or potential benefits intended to be provided under the 2010 Plan.

If an award is terminated without the issuance of any shares or if shares covered by an award are not purchased or are forfeited, then the shares previously set aside for such award will be available for future awards under the 2010 Plan. If an award is payable only in cash and does not entitle the holder to receive or purchase shares, then the award will not be counted against the aggregate number of shares available under the 2010 Plan.

Types of Awards and Terms and Conditions

The 2010 Plan permits the granting of:

- stock options (including both incentive and non-qualified stock options);
- stock appreciation rights (“SARs”);
- restricted stock and restricted stock units;
- performance awards of cash, stock, other securities or property;
- other stock grants; and
- other stock-based awards.

Awards may be granted alone, in addition to, in combination with or in substitution for, any other award granted under the 2010 Plan or any other compensation plan. Awards can be granted for no cash consideration or for any cash or other consideration as may be determined by the Compensation Committee or as required by applicable law. Awards may provide that upon the grant or exercise thereof, the holder will receive cash, shares of our common stock, other securities or property, or any combination of these in a single payment, installments or on a deferred basis. The exercise price per share under any stock option and the grant price of any SAR may not be less than the fair market value of our common stock on the date of grant of such option or SAR except to satisfy legal requirements of foreign jurisdictions or if the award is in substitution for an award previously granted by an entity acquired by the Company. Determinations of fair market value under the 2010 Plan will be made in accordance with methods and procedures established by the Compensation Committee.

Incentive stock options must expire no later than 10 years after the date of grant or, for persons who own more than 10% of the total voting power of all classes of stock, no later than five years after the date of grant. The term of all other awards shall be determined by the Compensation Committee.

Stock Options. The holder of an option is entitled to purchase a number of shares of our common stock at a specified exercise price during a specified time period, all as determined by the Compensation Committee. The option exercise price may be payable either in cash or, at the discretion of the Compensation Committee, in other securities or other property having a fair market value on the exercise date equal to the exercise price.

Stock Appreciation Rights. The holder of an SAR is entitled to receive the excess of the fair market value (calculated as of the exercise date or, at the Compensation Committee's discretion, as of any time during a specified period before or after the exercise date) of a specified number of shares of our common stock over the grant price of the SAR. SARs vest and become exercisable in accordance with a vesting schedule established by the Compensation Committee.

Restricted Stock and Restricted Stock Units. The holder of restricted stock will own shares of our common stock subject to restrictions imposed by the Compensation Committee (including, for example, restrictions on the right to vote the restricted shares or to receive any dividends with respect to the shares) for a specified time period determined by the Compensation Committee. The holder of restricted stock units will have the right, subject to any restrictions imposed by the Compensation Committee, to receive shares of our common stock, or a cash payment equal to the fair market value of those shares, at some future date determined by the Compensation Committee.

Performance Awards. The Compensation Committee may grant awards under the Plan that are intended to qualify as "performance-based compensation" within the meaning of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code. A performance award may be payable in cash or stock and will be conditioned solely upon the achievement of one or more objective performance goals established by the Committee in compliance with Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code. Subject to the terms of the 2010 Plan, the performance goals to be achieved during any performance period, the length of any performance period, the amount of any performance award granted, the amount of any payment or transfer to be made pursuant to any performance award and any other terms of and conditions of any performance award shall be determined by the Compensation Committee.

Stock Awards. The Compensation Committee may grant unrestricted shares of our common stock, subject to terms and conditions determined by the Compensation Committee and the limitations in the 2010 Plan.

Other Stock-Based Awards. The Compensation Committee is also authorized to grant other types of awards that are denominated or payable in, valued in whole or in part by reference to, or otherwise based on or related to our common stock, subject to terms and conditions determined by the Compensation Committee and the limitations in the 2010 Plan.

Duration, Termination and Amendment. Unless discontinued or terminated by the Board, the 2010 Plan will expire on July 27, 2020. No awards may be made after that date. However, unless otherwise expressly provided in an applicable award agreement, any award granted under the 2010 Plan prior to expiration may extend beyond the expiration of the 2010 Plan through the award's normal expiration date.

The Board may amend, alter, suspend, discontinue or terminate the 2010 Plan at any time, although stockholder approval must be obtained for any action that would increase the number of shares of our common stock available under the 2010 Plan, increase the award limits under the 2010 Plan, permit awards of options or SARs at a price less than fair market value, permit repricing of options or SARs or cause Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code to become unavailable with respect to the 2010 Plan. Stockholder approval is also required for any action that requires stockholder approval under the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission, the NYSE Amex or any other securities exchange or the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority that are applicable to the Company.

Prohibition on Repricing Awards

Without the approval of the Company's stockholders, the Compensation Committee will not reprice, adjust or amend the exercise price of any options or the grant price of any SAR previously awarded, whether through amendment, cancellation and replacement grant or any other means, except in connection with a stock dividend or other distribution, including a stock split, merger or other similar corporate transaction or event, in order to prevent dilution or enlargement of the benefits, or potential benefits intended to be provided under the 2010 Plan.

Transferability of Awards

Unless otherwise provided by the Compensation Committee, awards under the 2010 Plan may only be transferred by will or by the laws of descent and distribution.

Federal Income Tax Consequences

The following is a summary of the principal U.S. federal income tax consequences generally applicable to awards under the 2010 Plan. The following description applies to U.S. citizens and residents who receive awards under the 2010 Plan. Participants who are neither U.S. citizens nor residents but who perform services in the United States may also be subject to U.S. federal income tax under some circumstances. In addition, former citizens or long-term residents of the United States may be subject to special expatriate tax rules, which are not addressed in this summary.

Grant of Options and SARs. The grant of a stock option (either an incentive stock option or a non-qualified stock option) or SAR is not expected to result in any taxable income for the recipient.

Exercise of Incentive Stock Options. The holder of an incentive stock option generally will have no taxable income upon exercising the option (except that an alternative minimum tax liability may arise). If stock is issued to the optionee pursuant to the exercise of an incentive stock option, and if no disqualifying disposition of such shares is made by such award holder within two years after the date of grant or within one year after the transfer of such shares to such award holder, then (1) upon the sale of such shares, any amount realized in excess of the option price will be taxed to such optionee as a long-term capital gain and any loss sustained will be a long-term capital loss, and (2) we will not be entitled to a deduction for federal income tax purposes.

If the stock acquired upon the exercise of an incentive stock option is disposed of prior to the expiration of either holding period described above, generally (1) the optionee will realize ordinary income in the year of disposition in an amount equal to the excess (if any) of the fair market value of such shares at exercise (or, if less, the amount realized on the disposition of such shares) over the option price paid for such shares, and (2) we will be entitled to deduct such amount for federal income tax purposes if the amount represents an ordinary and necessary business expense. Any further gain (or loss) realized by the optionee will be taxed as short-term or long-term capital gain (or loss), as the case may be, and will not result in any deduction by us.

Exercise of Non-Qualified Stock Options and SARs. Upon exercising a non-qualified stock option, the optionee must recognize ordinary income equal to the excess of the fair market value of the shares of our common stock acquired on the date of exercise over the exercise price, and we generally will be entitled at that time to an income tax deduction for the same amount. Upon exercising a SAR, the amount of any cash received and the fair market value on the exercise date of any shares of our common stock received are taxable to the recipient as ordinary income and generally are deductible by us.

Disposition of Acquired Shares. The tax consequence upon a disposition of shares acquired through the exercise of an option or SAR will depend on how long the shares have been held and whether the shares were acquired by exercising an incentive stock option or by exercising a non-qualified stock option or SAR. Generally, there will be no tax consequence to us in connection with the disposition of shares acquired under an option or SAR, except that we may be entitled to an income tax deduction in the case of the disposition of shares acquired under an incentive stock option before the applicable incentive stock option holding periods set forth in the Internal Revenue Code have been satisfied.

For an Award that is payable in shares of our common stock that are restricted as to transferability and subject to substantial risk of forfeiture, unless a special election is made pursuant to Section 83(b) of the Code, the holder of the Award must recognize ordinary income equal to the excess of (x) the fair market value of the shares of our common stock received (determined as of the first time the shares became transferable or not subject to substantial risk of forfeiture, whichever occurs earlier) over (y) the amount (if any) paid for the shares of our common stock by the holder. The Company will be entitled at that time to a tax deduction for the same amount if and to the extent that amount satisfies general rules concerning deductibility.

Special Rules. Special rules may apply in the case of individuals subject to Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act. In particular, unless a special election is made pursuant to Section 83(b) of the Code, shares of our common stock received pursuant to the exercise of an option or SAR may be treated as restricted as to transferability and subject to a substantial risk of forfeiture for a period of up to six months after the date of exercise. Accordingly, the amount of any ordinary income recognized, and the amount of the Company's tax deduction, may be determined as of the end of such period.

Deductibility of Executive Compensation Under Code Section 162(m). Section 162(m) of the Code generally limits to $1,000,000 the amount that a publicly-held corporation is allowed each year to deduct for the compensation paid to each of the corporation's chief executive officer and the corporation's other four most highly compensated executive officers. However, "qualified performance-based qualified compensation" is not subject to the $1,000,000 deduction limit. In general, to qualify as performance-based compensation, the following requirements need to be satisfied: (1) payments must be computed on the basis of an objective, performance-based compensation standard determined by a committee consisting solely of two or more "outside directors," (2) the material terms under which the compensation is to be paid, including the business criteria upon which the performance goals are based, and a limit on the maximum bonus amount which may be paid to any participant pursuant with respect to any performance period, must be approved by a majority of the corporation's stockholders and (3) the committee must certify that the applicable performance goals were satisfied before payment of any performance-based compensation.

The 2010 Plan has been designed to permit grants of options and SARs issued under the 2010 Plan to qualify under the performance-based compensation rules so that income attributable to the exercise of a non-qualified stock option or an SAR may be exempt from the $1,000,000 deduction limit. Grants of other Awards under the 2010 Plan may not so qualify for this exemption. The 2010 Plan's provisions are consistent in form with the performance-based compensation rules, so that if the committee that grants options or SARs consists exclusively of members of the board of directors of the Company who qualify as "outside directors," and the exercise price (or deemed exercise price, with respect to SARs) is not less than the fair market value of the shares of common stock to which such grants relate, the compensation income arising on exercise of those options or SARs should qualify as performance-based compensation which is deductible even if that income would be in excess of the otherwise applicable limits on deductible compensation income under Code Section 162(m).

2010 Plan Benefits

The following table presents certain information with respect to options we have granted under the 2010 Plan for services rendered during the fiscal year ending December 31, 2010 to certain of our officers and directors. Future grants under the 2010 Plan will be determined by the Compensation Committee and may vary from year to year and from participant to participant and are not determinable at this time.

Stock Options Granted Under the 2010 Plan

Name and Position	Number of Shares	Value*
Robert Maughmer, President (1)	1,000,000	$30,000
Rick D. Kasch, Chief Financial Officer (2)	300,000	$9,000
Gerard P. Laheney, Director (2)	200,000	$6,000
Kevan Hensman, Director (2)	25,000	$750
Executive Group (2 persons)	1,300,000	$39,000
Non-Executive Director Group (2 persons)	225,000	$6,750
Non-Executive Officer Employee Group (1450,000 person)		$13,500

* The value of the options is based on the closing price of the Company's common stock on October 14, 2010 ($0.52 per share) less the exercise price, times the number of shares subject to the option, to the extent vested. This does not include any deduction for the costs of exercise and sale of the underlying shares should the holder choose to do so and thus does not likely reflect the value of the options to the holder.

(1) On August 23, 2010, and upon his assuming the positions of President and Chief Operating Officer, the Company granted Mr. Maughmer an option to purchase 1 million shares of Company common stock. The option has a five year term and is exercisable at $0.49 per share. One third of the options vested on August 23, 2010, one third is scheduled to vest on August 23, 2011, and the final one third is scheduled to vest on August 23, 2012.

(2) On July 27, 2010, each of Rick D. Kasch, Gerard Laheney and Kevan Hensman were granted options as described in the foregoing table. The option granted to Mr. Kasch entitles him to purchase 300,000 shares of Company common stock, of which 100,000 vested on grant, and 100,000 will vest on each of the first and second anniversaries of grant. The options granted to Mr. Hensman (an option to purchase 25,000 shares) and Mr. Laheney (an option to purchase 200,000 shares) vested in full as of July 30, 2010 (the date the exercise price was determined). All options granted on July 27, 2010, have a five year term, and have an exercise price equal to $0.49 (the closing price of Aspen common stock on the second business day after Aspen filed its Current Report on Form 8-K reporting the completion of the Merger Transaction).

Currently the Company has only a single class of capital stock authorized – its common stock. There are currently 50,000,000 shares of common stock authorized and no authorized shares of preferred stock. Included among the Stockholder Actions is an amendment to increase our authorized common stock to 100,000,000 shares, and to authorize 10,000,000 shares of preferred stock.

Common Stock

The Voting Stockholders have voted to increase the number of shares of the Company's $0.005 par value common stock from 50,000,000 shares to 100,000,000 shares. With fewer than 24,000,000 shares available for issuance for capital raising, acquisitions, and other possible uses of our capital, the Company does not believe that it had sufficient shares of common stock available to accomplish its business objectives over the next several years. Consequently, the Board of Directors recommended and the Voting Stockholders approved an increase in the number of shares of common stock we are authorized to issue to 100,000,000. We anticipate that this will give us:

- Significant flexibility for future financing transactions by making a sufficient number of shares of authorized capital available for general corporate purposes, such as capital raising transactions (although no future financing transactions using shares of our common stock are contemplated at the present); and
- Significant flexibility for future business acquisition activity, if any (although no business acquisitions are contemplated at the present).

Subject to preferences that may be applicable to any preferred stock outstanding at the time (no preferred stock is currently issued and outstanding), the holders of outstanding shares of common stock are entitled to receive dividends from assets legally available at such times and in such amounts as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

Each holder of common stock is entitled to one vote for each share of common stock held on all matters submitted to a vote of stockholders.

Cumulative voting for the election of directors is not required by the DGCL and is specifically denied in the Second Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation (as it was in the prior certificates of incorporation, including the original certificate of incorporation filed on February 28, 1980).

The common stock is not entitled to preemptive rights and is not subject to conversion or redemption. Upon the Company's liquidation, dissolution or winding up, the remaining assets legally available for distribution to stockholders, after payment of claims of creditors and payment of liquidation preferences, if any, on outstanding preferred stock, are distributable ratably among the holders of the common stock and any participating preferred stock outstanding at that time. Each outstanding share of common stock is fully paid and nonassessable.

Preferred Stock

Prior to the filing of the Second Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, the Company does not have a class of preferred stock authorized. Consequently, there are no shares of preferred stock issued and outstanding.

The Voting Stockholders have voted to authorize 10,000,000 shares of $0.005 par value preferred stock as a separate class from common stock. By authorizing the preferred stock, the Board of Directors would be authorized to establish series of preferred stock and fix the designation, powers, preferences and rights of the shares of each such class or series and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof without any further vote or action by our stockholders. Any shares of preferred stock so issued would have priority over our common stock with respect to dividend or liquidation rights unless the certificate of designation for such preferred stock specifically states that the preferred stock so designated will be treated equivalently to the common stock with respect to those features. The ability to issue preferred stock may be useful in future financing transactions or in certain business acquisitions, although the Company has no plans at the present time to designate or issue any shares of preferred stock.

Our Board presently does not intend to seek stockholder approval prior to the issuance of shares of any class of authorized stock or series thereof, unless otherwise required by law or applicable stock exchange rules.

Anti-Take Over Effects

The increase in our authorized capital and any future issuance of preferred stock may have the effect of delaying, deferring or preventing a change in our control without further action by our stockholders and may adversely affect the voting and other rights of the holders of our Common Stock. The issuance of shares of preferred stock, or the issuance of rights to purchase such shares, could be used to discourage an unsolicited acquisition proposal. For instance, the issuance of common stock or a series of preferred stock might impede a business combination by including class voting rights that would enable a holder to block such a transaction. In addition, under certain circumstances, the issuance of preferred stock could adversely affect the voting power of holders of our common stock. Although our Board of Directors is required to make any determination to issue preferred stock based on its judgment as to the best interests of our stockholders, our Board could act in a manner that would discourage an acquisition attempt or other transaction that some, or a majority, of our stockholders might believe to be in their best interests or in which such stockholders might receive a premium for their stock over the then market price of such stock. Further, the increase in our authorized capital is being effected for the reasons stated above and is not the result of management's knowledge of an effort to accumulate the issuer's securities or to obtain control of the issuer by means of a merger, tender offer, solicitation or otherwise.

Except for the possibility of the future issuance of shares of common stock and/or preferred stock, neither the Company's charter nor its By-laws presently contain any provisions having anti-takeover effects and this proposal is not a plan by management to adopt a series of amendments to the Company's Articles of Incorporation or By-laws to institute an anti-takeover provision. The Company does not have any plans or proposals to adopt other provisions or enter into other arrangements that may have material anti-takeover consequences.

C. Other Provisions Applicable To Preferred Stock And Common Stock

1. Cumulative voting shall not be allowed in elections of directors or for any other purpose.

2. No holders of shares of Preferred Stock or Common Stock of the Corporation shall be entitled, as such, to any preemptive or preferential right to subscribe to any unissued stock or any other securities which the Corporation may now or hereafter be authorized to issue. The Board of Directors of the Corporation, however, in its discretion by resolution, may determine that any unissued securities of the Corporation shall be offered for subscription solely to the holders of Preferred Stock or Common Stock of the Corporation, or solely to the holders of any class or classes of such stock, which the Corporation may now or hereafter be authorized to issue, in such proportions based on stock ownership as said board in its discretion may determine.

3. The Board of Directors may restrict the transfer of any of the Corporation's stock issued by giving the Corporation or any stockholder "first right of refusal to purchase" the stock, by making the stock redeemable, or by restricting the transfer of the stock under such terms and in such manner as the directors may deem necessary and as are not inconsistent with the laws of the State of Delaware. Any stock so restricted must carry a conspicuous legend noting the restriction and the place where such restriction may be found in the records of the Corporation.

The affairs of the Corporation shall be governed by a board of not less than three (3) nor more than (9) directors, who shall be elected in accordance with the By-laws of the Corporation. The organization and conduct of the Board shall be in accordance with the following:

1. The exact number of directors shall be fixed from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors. All members of the Board of Directors shall be elected at each Annual Meeting of Shareholders in each year to serve until the next Annual Meeting of Shareholders and until their successors shall be elected and shall qualify. The directors shall have the power from time to time and at any time, when the shareholders are not assembled at a meeting, to increase or decrease their own number within the maximum and minimum limitations specified therein, by resolution of the Board of Directors. If the number of directors be increased, any additional directors may be elected by a majority of the directors in office at the time of the increase.
2. The directors of the Corporation need not be residents of Delaware and shall not be required to hold shares of the Corporation's capital stock.
3. Meetings of the Board of Directors, regular or special, may be held within or without Delaware upon such notice as may be prescribed by the By-laws of the Corporation. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver by him of notice of such meeting unless he attends only for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business thereat on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.
4. A majority of the number of directors at any time constituting the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the act of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors.
5. By resolution adopted by a majority of the Directors at any time constituting the Board of Directors, the Board of Directors may designate two or more directors to constitute an Executive Committee or one or more other committees each of which shall have and may exercise, to the extent permitted by law or in such resolution, all the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the Corporation; but the designation of any such committee and the delegation of authority thereto shall not operate to relieve the Board of Directors, or any member thereof, of any responsibility imposed on it or him by law.

ARTICLE VI

Regulatory Provisions

The following additional provisions are inserted for the management of the business and for the conduct of the affairs of the Corporation and creating, defining, limiting and regulating the powers of the Corporation, the directors and the stockholders, or any class of stockholders:

1. Officers. The officers of the Corporation shall consist of a president, one or more vice presidents and may be prescribed by the By-laws of the Corporation, a secretary and a treasurer, each of whom shall be elected by the Board of Directors at such time and in such manner as may be prescribed by the By-laws of the Corporation. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person except the offices of president and secretary.

Special meetings of the stockholders of the Corporation may be called by the president of the Corporation, the Board of Directors, or by the record holders or holders of at least ten percent (10%) of all shares entitled to vote at the meeting. At any meeting of the stockholders, except to the extent otherwise provided by law, the quorum shall consist of a majority of the shares entitled to vote at the meeting; and, if a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of a majority of shares represented by the meeting and entitled to vote thereat shall be the act of the stockholders unless the vote of a greater number is required by law.
3. Voting. When, with respect to any acts to be taken by stockholders of this corporation, the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware requires the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon, or of any class or series, such action to be taken by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote on such action.
4. By-laws. The initial By-laws of the Corporation shall be adopted by its Board of Directors. Subject to repeal or change by action of the stockholders, the power to alter, amend, or repeal the By-laws or to adopt new By-laws shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VII

Limitation on Director Liability and Indemnification; Advancement of Expenses

1. Limitation on Liability. The directors of the Corporation shall be entitled to the benefits of all limitations on the liability of directors generally that are now or hereafter become available under the General Corporation Law of Delaware. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, no director of the Corporation shall be liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability:

- (a) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its stockholders,
- (b) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law,
- (c) under Section 174 of the General Corporation Law of Delaware, or
- (d) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

2. Indemnification.

(a) Right to Indemnification. The Corporation shall indemnify and hold harmless, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law as it presently exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than said law permitted the Corporation to provide prior to such amendment), any person (a 'Covered Person') who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to, or is otherwise involved in, any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative in nature (a 'proceeding'), by reason of the fact that such Covered Person, or a person for whom he or she is the legal representative, is or was, at any time during which this Section (2)(a) of Article VII is in effect (whether or not such Covered Person continues to serve in such capacity at the time any indemnification or payment of expenses pursuant hereto is sought or at the time any proceeding relating thereto exists or is brought), a director or officer of the Corporation, or has or had agreed to become a director of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, trustee, employee or agent of another corporation, limited liability company, partnership, joint venture, employee benefit plan, trust, nonprofit entity or other enterprise, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, trustee, employee or agent or in any other capacity while serving as a director, officer, trustee, employee or agent, against all liability and loss suffered (including, without limitation, any judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) and expenses (including attorneys' fees), actually and reasonably incurred by such Covered Person in connection with such proceeding to the fullest extent permitted by law, and such indemnification shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, trustee, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of his or her heirs, executors and administrators; provided however, that, except as provided in Section (2)(b) of this Article VII, the Corporation shall be required to indemnify a person in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person only if the proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the Board of Directors. The right to indemnification conferred in this Section (2)(a) of Article VII and such rights as may be conferred in the Bylaws of the Corporation shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by a Covered Person in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition, in accordance with the Bylaws of the Corporation. The rights conferred upon Covered Persons in this Section (2)(a) of Article VII shall be contract rights that vest at the time of such person's service to or at the request of the Corporation and such rights shall continue as to a Covered Person who has ceased to be a director, officer, trustee, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators. The Corporation may, by action of the Board of Directors, provide indemnification to employees and agents of the Corporation with the same (or lesser) scope and effect as the foregoing indemnification of directors and officers.

(b) Right of Claimant to Bring Suit. In accordance with the By-laws of the Corporation, if a claim for indemnification under Section (2)(a) of this Article VII is not paid in full within sixty (60) days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation, the Covered Person making such claim may at any time thereafter file suit to recover the unpaid amount of such claim and, if successful in whole or in part, shall be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting such claim.

(c) Non-Exclusivity of Rights. In accordance with the Bylaws of the Corporation, the right to indemnification and the payment of expenses incurred in defending a proceeding in advance of its final disposition conferred any Covered Person by Section (2)(a) of this Article VII:

(i) shall not be exclusive of any other rights which such Covered Person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, provision of this Certificate of Incorporation, the Bylaws, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise and

(ii) cannot be terminated by the Corporation, the Board of Directors or the stockholders of the Corporation with respect to a Covered Person's service occurring prior to the date of such termination.

3. Advancement of Expenses. In addition to the right to indemnification conferred above and to the fullest extent permitted by law, an indemnitee shall also have the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses (including attorney's fees) incurred in defending a proceeding for which indemnification is to be provided by the Corporation pursuant to Section 145 of the General Corporation Law of Delaware as set forth in the foregoing Section of Article VII in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an "advancement of expenses"); provided, however, that, if the General Corporation Law of Delaware requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee in his or her capacity as a director or officer (and not in any other capacity in which service was or is rendered by such indemnitee, including, without limitation, service to an employee benefit plan) shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking, by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this paragraph or otherwise.

4. Purchase of Insurance. The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance, at its expense, on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, or is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, limited liability company, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against any liability, expense or loss asserted against such person and incurred by such person in any such capacity, or arising out of such person's status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power or the obligation to indemnify such person against such liability, expense or loss under the provisions of the Bylaws of the Corporation or the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware. To the extent that the Corporation maintains any policy or policies providing such insurance, each such person shall be covered by such policy or policies in accordance with its or their terms to the maximum extent of the coverage thereunder for any such person.

Article VIII

Amendments to Article VII

1. The provisions of Article VII of this Certificate of Incorporation shall not be modified, revised, altered, amended, repealed or rescinded, in whole or in part, except by the affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds of all of the shares of stock outstanding and entitled to vote thereon and two-thirds of the outstanding stock of each class entitled to vote thereon as a class. Any repeal or modification of Article VII shall be prospective only, and shall not affect, to the detriment of any director, any limitation on the personal liability of a director of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

2. Except as provided in Section 1 of this Article VIII, the Corporation reserves the right to amend or repeal any provision contained in this Certificate of Incorporation in the manner prescribed by the laws of the State of Delaware and all rights conferred upon stockholders are granted subject to this reservation.

- (i) designate Participants;
- (ii) determine the type or types of Awards to be granted to each Participant under the Plan;
- (iii) determine the number of Shares to be covered by (or the method by which payments or other rights are to be determined in connection with) each Award;

- (v) amend the terms and conditions of any Award or Award Agreement and accelerate the exercisability of any Option or waive any restrictions relating to any Award;

Unless otherwise expressly provided in the Plan, all designations, determinations, interpretations and other decisions under or with respect to the Plan, any Award, or any Award Agreement shall be within the sole discretion of the Committee, may be made at any time and shall be final, conclusive and binding upon any Eligible Person and any holder or beneficiary of any Award. The Company intends that Awards under the Plan shall avoid application of Section 409A of the Code and thereby avoid any adverse tax results thereunder. The Committee shall administer and interpret the Plan and all Award Agreements in a manner consistent with this intent. In this regard, if any provision of the Plan or an Award Agreement would result in adverse tax consequences under Section 409A of the Code, the Committee may amend that provision (or take any other action reasonably necessary) to avoid any adverse tax results and no action taken to comply with Section 409A of the Code shall be deemed to impair or otherwise adversely affect the rights of any holder of an Award or beneficiary thereof.

(b) Delegation. The Committee may delegate its powers and duties under the Plan to one or more Directors (including a Director who is also an officer of the Company) or a committee of Directors, subject to such terms, conditions and limitations as the Committee may establish in its sole discretion; provided, however, that the Committee shall not delegate its powers and duties under the Plan

(c) Power and Authority of the Board»

. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the Board may, at any time and from time to time, without any further action of the Committee, exercise the powers and duties of the Committee under the Plan, unless the exercise of such powers and duties by the Board would cause the Plan not to comply with the requirements of Section 162(m) of the Code.

(d) Previously Granted Options. There are outstanding options for the purchase of Shares granted by the Company to Eligible Persons pursuant to the Company's existing stock option plans (the "Pre-Existing Plan"). Options which are outstanding under the Pre-Existing Plan as of the effective date of this Plan shall continue to be exercisable and shall be governed by and be subject to the terms of the Pre-Existing Plan and the stock option agreements evidencing their issuance. The number of Shares that may be issued under the Plan shall not be reduced by (i) the number of Shares subject at such time to options granted and outstanding under the Pre-Existing Plan, or (ii) the number of Shares issued under the Pre-Existing Plan after the effective date of this Plan.
