A Focus on Retention in 2018

Overview

Our executive compensation program is designed to balance the need to incentivize executives to focus on building long-term value for stockholders, while at the same time acknowledging it is imperative to retain our executives, particularly in this critical stage of our business and at a time when our stock price has been volatile. Leading to 2018 and throughout the year, we encountered challenges resulting from restructuring of our business, including significant management transition and critical business plan implementation. 2018 was also marked by a significant decline in the trading price of our common stock. This led both to heightened concerns regarding our ability to retain and motivate employees, as well as the need for a significantly greater number of shares to be granted as equity awards to our employees than anticipated earlier in the year when our stock price was higher, requiring us to seek and obtain stockholder approval to increase the number of shares available for issuance under our 2015 Plan. As a result, our 2018 executive compensation program evolved throughout the year to put a greater focus on our need to motivate and retain our key executives during this difficult transition period, which we believe was accomplished through the following:

Revisions to 2018 Cash Bonus Plan: Due to business challenges that we encountered throughout the year, the Compensation Committee, which we refer to as the Committee for purposes of this section, approved revisions to the corporate financial and operational objectives, or the Corporate Performance Objectives and corresponding revisions to certain MBOs for the second part of 2018 in order to preserve the retention benefits of the 2018 Cash Bonus Plan. We sought to encourage the motivation and retention of our NEOs by appropriately re-aligning the incentives of our NEOs with our updated financial outlook and strategic objectives as of August 2018, which tied their incentive compensation to objectives which our NEOs could reasonably achieve.

Time-Based Vesting under our 2018 Annual Stock Option and Cash Awards: We encountered compensation-related challenges due to the lack of available shares under our 2015 Plan, the need to seek stockholder approval to increase the number of shares available for issuance under our 2015 Plan and ongoing concerns regarding availability of shares due to the decrease in our stock price. As a result, for 2018, we issued awards with time-based vesting in the form of approximately 18% stock options (vesting on the first anniversary of the grant date) and 82% cash (vesting over the following two years in equal, annual installments).

Retention Value of Contractual RSU Awards: Each of Mr. Mahboob and Dr. Thompson was granted time-based RSU awards aimed at providing additional retention value, pursuant to contractual arrangements that we entered into with them.

A more detailed discussion of each of these features is set forth below.

Revisions to 2018 Cash Bonus Plan

The 2018 Cash Bonus Plan was designed to align plan participants with our business goals and strategies and to reward plan participants for their individual contributions to our achievement of those goals and strategies. As adopted in January 2018, the 2018 Cash Bonus Plan was intended to be utilized to calculate the cash bonuses payable to our NEOs with respect to the performance period from January 1, 2018 through December 31, 2018. However, in August 2018, the Committee adopted a revised 2018 Cash Bonus Plan that was utilized to calculate the cash bonuses payable to participants for the performance period from August 1, 2018 through December 31, 2018, or the Second Measurement Period. The initially-approved plan continued to be utilized to calculate the cash bonuses payable to participants with respect to the performance period from January 1, 2018 through July 31, 2018, or the First Measurement Period.

The revisions to the 2018 Cash Bonus Plan consisted of adjustments to the Corporate Performance Objectives, including global sales and expenses, or the Financial Objectives, as well as quality and compliance goals, and new product development goals within specific time periods, or the Operational Objectives, which together comprised 70% of the actual cash bonus opportunity under the 2018 Cash Bonus Plan for our participating NEOs. The changes reflected in the Corporate Performance Objectives for the Second Measurement Period as against the First Measurement Period were appropriately reflected in the MBOs of our participating NEOs. For example, Mr. Mahboob's MBO achievement for the Second Measurement Period was determined with reference to the revised global sales and expenses goals set forth for such period. The target cash bonus percentages for 2018 for each participating NEO remained unchanged.

The Committee believes that it is imperative that each element of our compensation program consider our current financial condition and projected operating results in its design. Accordingly, the Committee considered the revisions to the Corporate Performance Objectives and corresponding revisions to certain MBOs to be necessary in light of our actual and projected financial performance as of August 2018, as well as the implementation of fundamental changes to our strategic direction announced at that time. The Committee was mindful of the appropriateness of avoiding purely discretionary bonuses in its commitment to promote our strong pay-for-performance philosophy. In order to meet both its goals to promote retention and pay for performance, the Committee chose to keep the original 2018 Cash Bonus Plan in place with respect to the First Measurement Period, and to make changes only for the Second Measurement Period. Had the objectives not been revised, the targets not been achieved and payments not been made under the 2018 Cash Bonus Plan, this would have had a material impact on our ability to retain our NEOs. The revisions to the Corporate Performance Objectives and corresponding revisions to certain MBOs were designed to further the objectives of our executive compensation program, to appropriately align the incentives of our NEOs with our updated financial outlook and strategic objectives as of August 2018, and to encourage the motivation and retention of our NEOs by tying incentive compensation to objectives which our NEOs could reasonably achieve.

Time-Based Vesting under our 2018 Annual Stock Option and Cash Awards Promotes Retention

In furtherance of our compensation philosophy, we endeavor to make annual grants of equity to our NEOs. For 2018, the Committee determined the timing and level of equity grants based on a number of factors, including the availability of shares under our 2015 Plan, further changes to the trading price of our common stock, and the expected timing of implementation of a stock option exchange program with certain eligible employee option holders. However, due to a lack of available shares in the share reserve under our 2015 Plan, we had to delay making annual equity grants for 2018 until we received stockholder approval for an increase in the shares available for issuance under our 2015 Plan, which we received at a Special Meeting of Stockholders held on December 21, 2018. As a result, as of December 21, 2018, there were sufficient shares authorized under our 2015 Plan to grant the 2018 Annual Stock Option and Cash Awards, which were comprised of 18% equity, in the form of stock options, and 82% cash, as the overall share authorization was still limited.

Issuing a portion on our equity awards in the form of options with time-based vesting serves to promote executive retention because the options vest over a service period and are not directly correlated with Company performance milestones, which may not be achieved despite the expenditure of significant effort by the executive. For 2018, the time-based options granted to our NEOs vest on the first anniversary of the grant date, subject to an NEO's continued employment with us during that time. The 82% cash component of our annual awards was designed to promote retention because the awards have long-term vesting provisions which provide that they are payable as to 41% of the award amount on June 30, 2020 and the remaining 41% on June 30, 2021, subject to an NEO's continued employment with us during that time.

Retention Value of Contractual RSU Awards

In early December 2018, we entered into contractual arrangements with Mr. Mahboob and Dr. Thompson based on individual performance and a determination that prior equity grants did not have intended retention value due to the decline in our stock price and additional market considerations. Due to a lack of available shares in the plan reserve under our 2015 Plan, the grant of these 2018 Contractual Retention Awards was conditioned upon the availability of additional shares under our 2015 Plan (and in some cases, the satisfaction of other conditions), for which we solicited and received approval of our stockholders at a Special Meeting of Stockholders held on December 21, 2018. The RSU awards promote retention because they have long-term vesting conditions which require an NEO to remain employed with us to vest with respect to, and realize the value of, the award. Certain awards granted to Mr. Mahboob vest as to 100% of the underlying shares of common stock on the third anniversary of the grant date, which means that he will not realize any value from those awards unless he remains employed with us for three full years or unless certain performance criteria is achieved prior to that time, which accelerates vesting. The other RSU awards vest annually on the anniversaries of the grant date over either two or three years subject to our NEOs' continued employment with us. See the section below entitled "2018 Contractual Retention and Promotion Awards" for additional information.

Continued Focus on Pay for Performance

For 2018, we continued to focus on a strong pay-for-performance alignment by providing a significant portion of the overall compensation opportunity for our NEOs in the form of performance-based compensation, including performance-based cash bonuses which are correlated with the achievement of specific Company and individual performance objectives, as well as equity compensation which aligns the interests of our NEOs with those of our stockholders. This performance-based compensation is designed to encourage the achievement of performance goals that we believe are critical to our long-term growth. We believe our 2018 compensation program design was successful in striking the appropriate balance between achieving pay-for-performance alignment, and supporting retention during this critical stage of our business. The specific components of our executive compensation program that we believe best highlight how we implemented our pay-for-performance philosophy are set forth below.

Significant Portion of Total Compensation is At-Risk

In furtherance of our pay-for-performance philosophy, the Committee annually reviews both the amount of, and the mix between, guaranteed pay and at-risk pay for our executive officers and seeks to establish appropriate performance objectives for the at-risk pay so as to ensure our performance criteria align with our financial and operational objectives, are appropriately challenging to achieve, and mitigate our overall compensation-related risk.

A significant portion of an executive's total compensation opportunity in 2018 was provided in the form of compensation that was at-risk rather than guaranteed. We offer certain standard compensation elements that provide guaranteed payments, such as base salary and limited employee benefits. However, our executive compensation mix in 2018 was weighted toward at-risk pay. In general, at-risk pay involves compensation awards that only vest or become payable subject to the achievement of specific performance conditions, or the value of which is correlated to our stock price (or a combination of both), such as the following:

• 2018 Cash Bonus Plan Awards: Only vest upon the achievement of pre-determined Company performance objectives and individual MBOs; and

• Time-Based Stock Options: Result in value to our NEOs only to the extent they remain in our employ as of the applicable vesting date(s) and the market price of our common stock appreciates over the option term.

2018 Cash Bonus Plan Awards

Our cash bonus program demonstrates our strong pay-for-performance alignment because the amount of cash bonus payout actually realized by our NEOs is determined based upon achievement relative to Company and individual performance objectives, which may result in payouts that are lower than the target bonus amounts. The Committee believes choosing the right performance criteria for performance-based awards is critical for properly motivating our executives, aligning their interests with those of our stockholders and advancing our pay-for-performance philosophy. In particular, it is crucial that the performance criteria be reconsidered each year, and even throughout the year, as was done in 2018, as our business strategy and market evolve to ensure they provide the appropriate barometer of our growth and success, and motivate the achievement of our objectives in line with how we currently view the business.

After taking into account the achievement of the various Corporate Performance Objectives relative to the target amounts, 69.8% of the target bonus that is tied to the Corporate Performance Objectives was achieved. With respect to the MBOs, the Committee determined that between 86.1% and 105.6% of the MBO portion of the bonus opportunity was earned by our participating NEOs. Accordingly, the adoption of our 2018 Cash Bonus Plan placed a significant portion of our NEO's overall compensation opportunity at risk, and the failure to achieve the target levels of performance (and in some cases the threshold levels of performance) with respect to certain Corporate Performance Objectives and MBOs resulted in reduced bonus payouts to our NEOs compared to the 2018 target bonus amounts.

Time-Based Stock Options

We granted time-based stock options to all of our NEOs as part of our 2018 Annual Stock Option and Cash Awards, and to Mr. Onopchenko as part of his promotion bonus. Options inherently contain a performance component because the awards are granted with an exercise price equal to fair market value on the grant date and only have value to the recipient to the extent the value of our common stock increases during the option term.

Compensation Philosophy

We strive to establish compensation policies and programs that will effectively align our compensation program design to our business strategy, while attracting and retaining executives with the talent necessary to lead our Company. We also seek to strengthen the mutuality of interests between our executives and our stockholders in order to motivate our executives to maximize stockholder value. Finally, we emphasize a strong pay-for-performance alignment by providing a significant portion of the overall compensation opportunity in the form of performance-based compensation that is at-risk.

Primary Goals of our Compensation Program

The primary goals of our executive compensation policies and programs are as follows:

GOAL	HOW OUR PROGRAM ACHIEVES THAT GOAL
Attract and Retain Executives	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Attract executives who have the background and experience required to lead us forward and provide the best opportunity to achieve sustained growth and success. • Retain our knowledgeable and talented executives by offering compensation that is competitive among our peer group companies and our industry generally. • Offer a significant portion of the total compensation opportunity in the form of performance-based compensation that is at-risk instead of guaranteed.
Pay-for-Performance	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ensure performance-based compensation is directly correlated with the achievement of pre-established Company financial and operational objectives that the Committee believes are important to our long-term success. • Provide meaningful incentives for achieving Company financial and operational objectives that the Committee believes are important for achieving our strategic objectives.
Reward Achievement	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Effectively align our compensation program design to our business strategy. • Align the interests of our executives with those of our stockholders by tying a significant portion of compensation to performance objectives which the Committee believes are likely to result in the creation of long-term stockholder value.

Governance Practices that Strengthen our Compensation Philosophy

Our executive compensation program has significant governance components that we believe further strengthen our compensation philosophy and reduce compensation-related risk, including as follows:

Role of Compensation Committee

The Committee has the overall responsibility for reviewing, approving and evaluating our executive compensation policies and programs. In particular, the Committee is responsible for approving the compensation and benefits paid to our directors and executive officers, and for administering our equity compensation plans and the awards granted under our plans. In discharging its responsibility to ensure that our executive compensation program is effectively designed in light of our compensation philosophy, the Committee regularly assesses each element of our compensation policies and considers changes to our compensation program. The Committee, which is comprised solely of independent directors under the applicable SEC rules and NASDAQ Listing Rules, reviews and approves all elements of compensation for our NEOs and other executive officers.

Compensation Consultant and Peer Group

Compensation Consultant

The Committee receives assessments and advice regarding our compensation policies and programs from Radford, a third-party compensation consultant. Radford provides information on competitive pay practices and trends in our industry, and makes recommendations regarding the formulation of our peer group, as well as the design and structure of our compensation program. While we are not obligated to retain an independent compensation consultant, the Committee believes that the use of an independent compensation consultant provides additional assurance that our executive compensation program is competitive, is consistent with our objectives and pay practices in our industry generally, and is reflective of our compensation philosophy.

In accordance with applicable SEC rules, when selecting Radford, the Committee assessed Radford's independence, taking into consideration the following factors: (i) the provision of other services to us by Radford, (ii) the amount of fees received from us by Radford, as a percentage of Radford's total revenue, (iii) Radford's policies and procedures that are designed to prevent conflicts of interest, (iv) any business or personal relationship of the individual compensation consultants or Radford with any member of the Committee or any of our executive officers and (v) any ownership of our common stock by the individual compensation consultants. Furthermore, Radford does not provide any additional services to us or our management, other than the services that are provided to the Committee in Radford's capacity as our compensation consultant. Following the consideration of these factors, and such additional factors as the Committee deemed appropriate under the circumstances, the Committee made an affirmative determination that Radford's services did not create any conflict of interest and that Radford is independent, and unanimously approved the engagement of Radford.

The decision to engage Radford was made by the Committee, and Radford reports directly to the Committee. The Committee has the authority to direct, terminate or continue Radford's services. While members of our management regularly communicate with representatives of Radford, our management did not recommend the engagement of Radford and does not direct or oversee the retention or activities of Radford with respect to our executive compensation program.

The Committee principally engages Radford for the purpose of recommending and evaluating a set of peer group companies, compiling competitive market data from our peer group and our industry generally, and assessing the compensation program for our executives as compared to those of our peer group. The Committee meets regularly with Radford throughout the year, carefully reviews and assesses the materials provided by Radford, and engages in thorough deliberations with Radford and management regarding our compensation program and potential changes.

Peer Group

Each year, Radford compiles a list of medical device companies that are generally similar to our Company based upon a number of metrics, including revenue, market capitalization, number of employees, industry focus and competition for executive talent. As part of the peer review process, Radford carefully examines both the individual comparison metrics and the specific proposed peer group companies to ensure alignment with our current size and profile. The Committee reviews the proposed list of peer group companies and, following discussion with Radford and management, approves the set of peer group companies

Our peer group remained the same for 2018 as our peer group for 2017, and consisted of the following 17 companies:

Use of Peer Group in Setting Executive Compensation

In 2018, the Committee engaged Radford to gather and analyze compensation information from our peer group and other competitive market data to assist it in assessing our executive compensation program. For comparison purposes, Radford presents a summary of the peer group data in a manner that generally reflects compensation paid, both on an aggregate basis and with respect to individual elements of compensation, within the 25th, 50th and 75th percentiles by our peer group companies. In making compensation decisions, the Committee typically compares total compensation, as well as each element of compensation, paid to our executives against the compensation paid to executives within our peer group. In addition, in order to gain a broader perspective on overall market trends and practices, the Committee regularly reviews data from both targeted and broader-based compensation surveys.

The peer group compensation data and compensation surveys are used as an initial guideline in making compensation decisions for our executives, including with respect to both the target level of total compensation and the overall structure of our executive compensation program. Historically, the Committee has targeted approximately the 50th percentile of our peer group for purposes of setting total compensation, as well as for each element of compensation. However, while the peer group compensation data is a significant factor in the Committee's evaluation, it also considers a variety of additional factors when making executive compensation decisions, including retention concerns, tenure and experience, level of responsibility, our recent and projected performance, individual performance, industry practices and general economic conditions. For further discussion of the most relevant factors affecting the compensation decisions for 2018, see the section above entitled "A Focus on Retention in 2018".

Attract and Retain Executives

• Provide our NEOs with a guaranteed base level of income that is competitive within our peer group and is commensurate with their respective titles, skills, levels of responsibility and contributions to our Company.

• Balance the levels of guaranteed pay with at-risk pay to properly manage our compensation-related risk.
 • Generally target base salaries between the 35th and 50th percentile of our peer group, but may be above or below that range depending on individual factors.

• No specific vesting conditions associated with payment.

• Changes from year to year are generally based on a review of peer group data, changes in duties and responsibilities, individual performance, contributions to the achievement of our strategic objectives and Company performance.

Actual base salaries paid to each NEO in 2018 are set forth under the "Salary" column of the Summary Compensation Table.

2018 Cash Bonus Plan Awards

In January 2018, the Committee approved the adoption of a cash bonus plan that was initially intended to be utilized to calculate the cash bonuses payable to our NEOs with respect to the performance period from January 1, 2018 through December 31, 2018. In August 2018, the Committee adopted a revised cash bonus plan that was utilized to calculate the cash bonuses payable to participants for the performance period from August 1, 2018 through December 31, 2018, or the Second Measurement Period, since we had taken specific actions resulting in reduced revenues pursuant to our restructuring plan to create efficiencies and strengthen a foundation for driving longer term stockholder value. The initially-approved plan continued to be utilized to calculate the cash bonuses payable to participants with respect to the performance period from January 1, 2018 through July 31, 2018, or the First Measurement Period. We sought to encourage the motivation and retention of our NEOs by appropriately re-aligning the incentives of our NEOs with our updated financial outlook and strategic objectives as of August 2018, which tied their incentive compensation to objectives which our NEOs could reasonably achieve. The following table provides summary information regarding the cash bonus awards granted to our NEOs during 2018:

Mr. McDermott's participation and ultimate payout under the 2018 Cash Bonus Plan was governed by a Severance Agreement and General Release entered into between us and Mr. McDermott on February 21, 2018, in connection with his retirement as our CEO, pursuant to which he was paid a bonus based on our estimated, projected ⁽³⁾performance for 2018 using applicable information readily and reasonably available as of June 30, 2018 to extrapolate the extent to which our estimated 2018 performance is or would be sufficient to result in achievement of his target bonus for 2018, prorated for the number of days of 2018 preceding June 30, 2018, resulting in a payout of $199,000. As a result of this and footnote (2) above, "participating NEO" as used herein for purposes of the 2018 Cash Bonus Plan refers only to Messrs. Hayden and Mahboob and Dr. Thompson.

Performance Objectives

Cash bonuses may be earned under the 2018 Cash Bonus Plan based on our achievement of pre-established Corporate Performance Objectives, and by plan participants based on their individual achievement of pre-determined MBOs. The percentage of the target cash bonus for each NEO that is subject to the Corporate Performance Objectives and the MBOs is set forth in the table below:

NAME	CORPORATE PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES MBOS
	(% OF BONUS OPPORTUNITY)	(% OF BONUS OPPORTUNITY)
John Onopchenko	-	-
John McDermott	100%	0%
Vaseem Mahboob	70%	30%
Matthew Thompson M.D.	70%	30%
Jeremy Hayden	70%	30%

The cash bonuses for 2018 were payable as follows with respect to the Corporate Performance Objectives:

• Approximately 50% based upon achievement of the Corporate Performance Objectives for the First Measurement Period; and

• Approximately 50% based upon achievement of the Corporate Performance Objectives for the Second Measurement Period.

Corporate Performance Objectives for the First Measurement Period

The Corporate Performance Objectives comprise 70% of the total bonus opportunity for each of our participating NEOs. With respect to the First Measurement Period, the following table summarizes the individual components of the Corporate Performance Objectives, including the relative weighting of each component; the specific performance levels required to achieve the threshold, target and maximum payouts amounts; and the payout percentages that result from performance at the threshold, target and maximum performance levels.

New Product Development ⁽¹⁾	20%	February 2019 and April 2019	75%	December 2018 and February 2019	100%	October 2018 and December 2018

Financial Objectives for the First Measurement Period

The portion of the cash bonus opportunity that relates to the Financial Objectives could be earned based on our actual performance relative to the target amounts established by the Committee.

• Global sales represented 40% of the bonus opportunity within the Corporate Performance Objectives.

• Total operating expenses represented 10% of the bonus opportunity within the Corporate Performance Objectives.

Achievement of both of these objectives at the threshold amount would result in payment at 50% of target, at the target amount would result in payment at 100% of target, and at the maximum amount would result in payment at 150% of target. The Committee determined our actual achievement of the Corporate Performance Objectives by reference to our audited financial statements for 2018, as adjusted by the Committee for certain non-recurring items.

Non-Financial Objectives for the First Measurement Period

The portion of the cash bonus opportunity that relates to the Non-Financial Objectives could be earned based on our actual performance relative to specified goals established by the Committee.

• The quality goal represented 30% of the bonus opportunity within the Corporate Performance Objectives.

- The new product development goal initially represented 20% of the bonus opportunity within the Corporate Performance Objectives, but was later removed from the objectives for the First Measurement Period, and instead performance with respect to this objective was only measured in the Second Measurement Period.

Achievement of both of these objectives at the threshold amount would result in payment at 75% of target, at the target amount would result in payment at 100% of target, and at the maximum amount would result in payment at 125% of target.

For performance levels for the Corporate Performance Objectives in between the threshold and target amount, or between the target and maximum amount, the Committee adopted a sliding scale to determine the payout amount for that component.

Corporate Performance Objectives for the Second Measurement Period

With respect to the second measurement period, the following table summarizes the individual components of the Corporate

Performance Objectives, including the relative weighting of each component; the specific performance levels required to achieve the threshold, target and maximum payouts amounts; and the payout percentages that result from performance at the threshold, target and maximum performance levels.

Financial Objectives
Global Sales	30%	$150M	25%	$160M	100%	-
Operating Expenses	20%	-	-	$165M	100%	$155M
Non-Financial Objectives
Quality	25%	-	-	Successful	100%	-
Compliance	15%	-	-	Completed	100%	-
New Product Development	10%	-	-	December 2018	100%	October 2018

Financial Objectives for the Second Measurement Period

The portion of the cash bonus opportunity that relates to the Financial Objectives could be earned based on our actual performance relative to the target amounts established by the Committee.

Global sales represented 30% of the bonus opportunity within the Corporate Performance Objectives. Achievement of this objective at the threshold amount would result in payment at 25% of target and at the target amount would result in payment at 100% of target. No maximum amount was set.

Operating expenses represented 20% of the bonus opportunity within the Corporate Performance Objectives. Achievement of this objective at the target amount would result in payment at 100% of target, and at the maximum amount would result in payment at 150% of target. No threshold amount was set.

The Committee determined our actual achievement of the Corporate Performance Objectives by reference to our audited financial statements for 2018, as adjusted by the Committee for certain non-recurring items.

For performance levels for the Financial Objectives in between the threshold and target amount (only with respect to global sales), or between the target and maximum amount (only with respect to operating expenses), the Committee adopted a sliding scale to determine the payout amount for that component.

Non-Financial Objectives for the Second Measurement Period

The portion of the cash bonus opportunity that relates to the Non-Financial Objectives could be earned based on our actual performance relative to specified goals established by the Committee.

The quality goal represented 25% of the bonus opportunity within the Corporate Performance Objectives. Payment at 100% of target could be achieved if the quality goal was successfully achieved. Otherwise, no payment would be made.

The compliance goal represented 15% of the bonus opportunity within the Corporate Performance Objectives. Payment at 100% of target could be achieved if the compliance goal was completed. Otherwise, no payment would be made.

The new product development goal represented 10% of the bonus opportunity within the Corporate Performance Objectives. Achievement of this objective at the target amount would result in payment at 100% of target, and at the maximum amount would result in payment at 125% of target. No threshold amount was set.

Management by Objectives (MBOs)

The MBOs comprise 30% of the total bonus opportunity for each of our participating NEOs. These objectives are established by the Committee and communicated to our NEOs and individualized to each NEO based on title and responsibility level. In particular, for 2018 the MBOs related to functional and cross-functional objectives designed to promote achievement of the Corporate Performance Objectives, including financial management goals, enterprise risk management objectives, product development milestones and leadership initiatives. The changes reflected in the Corporate Performance Objectives for the Second Measurement Period as against the First Measurement Period were appropriately reflected in the MBOs of our participating NEOs. For example, Mr. Mahboob's MBO achievement for the Second Measurement Period was determined with reference to the revised global sales and expenses goals set forth for such period.

Calculation of Bonus Payout

First Measurement Period

Consistent with the application of the bonus payout formula described above for the first measurement period, and in furtherance of our pay-for-performance philosophy, the Committee determined that 19.7% of the Corporate Performance Objective portion of the bonus opportunity was earned with respect to the first measurement period, which reflects that:

- we achieved the global sales objective at the threshold level;
- we achieved the total operating expenses objective between the target and maximum levels;
 - we did not achieve the quality objective at the threshold level;
 - and
- we did not measure achievement of the new product developments objective, as performance with respect to this objective was only measured in the Second Measurement Period.

Second Measurement Period

Consistent with the application of the bonus payout formula described above for the second measurement period, and in furtherance of our pay-for-performance philosophy, the Committee determined that 50.1% of the Corporate Performance Objective portion of the bonus opportunity was earned with respect to the first measurement period, which reflects that:

- we achieved the global sales objective between the threshold and target levels;
- we achieved the operating expenses objective at the maximum level;
- we achieved the target quality objective;
- we achieved the target compliance objective; and
- we did not achieve the new product development objective.

Overall Result at Year End

As a result, each of our participating NEOs earned 69.8% of the total bonus opportunity under the 2018 Cash Bonus Plan that was based on achievement of the Corporate Performance Objectives. Further, our participating NEOs achieved and earned between 86.1% and 105.6% of the total bonus opportunity under the 2018 Cash Bonus Plan that was based on achievement of the MBOs, which reflects the successful execution of several critical management initiatives.

The actual payments made to each participating NEO pursuant to the 2018 Cash Bonus Plan are set forth in the "Non-Equity Incentive Plan" column of the Summary Compensation Table.

2018 Annual Stock Option and Cash Awards

Our intention in early 2018 was to make annual grants of equity to our NEOs consistent with our historical practices and our compensation philosophy. However, we encountered challenges in making our customary equity grants as a result of the lack of shares available for issuance under our 2015 Plan, which was partially due to the decrease in our stock price, leading to the need for a significantly greater number of shares to be granted as equity awards to our employees than we had anticipated earlier in the year when our stock price was higher. Throughout the year, the Committee also considered the expected timing of implementation of a stock option exchange program with certain eligible employee option holders in determining the appropriate level of equity grants, but the stock option exchange program was ultimately deemed not to be in our best interests or those of our stockholders for 2018, and was not implemented.

As a result of these factors, we had to delay making annual equity grants for 2018 until we received stockholder approval for an increase in the shares available for issuance under our 2015 Plan, which we received at a Special Meeting of Stockholders held on December 21, 2018. As of December 21, 2018, there were sufficient shares authorized under our 2015 Plan to grant equity awards for 2018, though the overall share authorization remained limited. Due to these circumstances, the 2018 equity awards were granted at the end of the year, and took the form of the 2018 Annual Stock Option and Cash Awards, which, given the limited shares available for issuance under the 2015 Plan, were comprised of 18% equity, in the form of stock options, and 82% cash to make up the rest of the value of the equity awards that would have been granted had we had sufficient shares authorized.

The following table provides summary information regarding the annual stock option and cash awards granted to our NEOs during 2018:

The cash portion is also only available to an NEO if he remains in our employ over the vesting term.

- Time-based vesting promotes retention of executives during this critical stage of our business restructuring.
- Awards granted to each NEO determined by review of Radford report and exercise of discretion by the Committee.

2018 Contractual Retention and Promotion Awards

In connection with our efforts to hire, promote, retain and motivate certain executives during 2018, we entered into certain offer letters and employment agreements (and other similar arrangements) as a result of which we were contractually obligated to issue certain equity awards and make certain retentive cash bonus payments. The following table provides information regarding additional contractual equity awards granted, and cash payments made to our NEOs during 2018 as retention awards or promotion awards:

Terms

Attract and Retain Executives:

• Retain and encourage our NEOs to remain focused on our business and the interests of our stockholders when considering strategic alternatives.

• The employment of our NEOs is "at will", meaning we can terminate them at any time and they can terminate their employment with us at any time.

• Take into account the time it is expected to take a separated executive to find a job with a similar title and level of responsibility.

• In the event of a termination of employment due to an involuntary termination, prior to a change in control, our NEOs will receive: (i) a cash severance payment in an amount equal to six months of base salary for Mr. Hayden, 12 months for each of Mr. Mahboob and Dr. Thompson and 24 months for Mr. Onopchenko, (ii) a cash payment equal to 100% of the target cash bonus for which the NEO would be eligible based on the date of termination, and (iii) continued health insurance benefits for six months following termination.

• Intended to ease an NEOs transition due to an unexpected employment termination.

• In the event of an involuntary termination upon, or within 24 months following, a change in control, our NEOs will receive: (i) a cash severance payment in an amount equal to 18 months of base salary for the year in which the termination occurs (24 months in the case of Mr. Onopchenko), (ii) a cash payment in an amount equal to 100% of the target cash bonus for the year in which the termination occurs (150% in the case of Mr. Onopchenko), and

- These provisions are considered a typical component of a competitive executive pay package for executives among our peer group.

(iii) continued health insurance benefits for 18 months following termination. In addition, all outstanding equity awards will vest without regard to a termination of employment.

- For additional information about the severance and change of control provisions in our employment agreements, see the section entitled "Potential Payments upon Termination or Change in Control".

Other Compensation-Related Topics

Role of CEO in Compensation Decisions

The Committee solicits the input of our CEO in determining compensation for our NEOs other than himself, particularly with respect to salary, cash bonus opportunity and equity awards. While our CEO participates in the deliberations regarding compensation for our other NEOs, he does not participate in, and is not present at, any deliberations regarding his own compensation. The Committee considers the information provided by our CEO, as well as information provided by Radford, to make compensation decisions for our NEOs.

Compensation Risk Considerations

In assessing our overall compensation policies and practices, the Committee also considers how such policies and practices may encourage risk-taking by employees. The Committee conducts a compensation risk analysis at least annually, but also takes into account compensation-related risks each time it grants compensation awards throughout the year. In conducting these assessments, the Committee considers a number of factors including the following:

• Our compensation program consists of both guaranteed pay and at-risk pay, and the Committee reviews this mix annually.

• Peer group and industry compensation data is reviewed regularly to ensure alignment with our compensation program and market competitiveness.

• We seek to pay our executives' target total compensation at the 50th percentile compared to our peer group.

• Our performance-based awards are earned based on the achievement of multiple Company and individual performance objectives.

• Our performance-based awards are subject to maximum award amounts to limit the potential compensation amount associated with any particular award.

• Our executive compensation program encourages executive retention through long-term vesting provisions.

• We have adopted stock ownership policies, which encourage executives to have a significant, long-term equity position in our Company.

• Our cash and equity incentive awards are subject to our Clawback Policy.

• Our Insider Trading Policy prohibits our NEOs and other executive officers from hedging the economic interest in our securities, and from pledging our securities.

• Our severance and change in control benefits are designed to attract and retain executives without providing excessive benefits.

In considering these matters, the Committee concluded that it does not believe that our compensation program is reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on us.

Clawback Policy

Though the SEC has not yet finalized rules implementing the requirement for adoption of a clawback policy as contemplated by the Dodd-Frank Act, we have voluntarily adopted a Clawback Policy which we believe reinforces our pay-for-performance philosophy and contributes to a Company culture that emphasizes integrity and accountability in financial reporting.

Pursuant to our Clawback Policy, in the event we are required to prepare an accounting restatement of our financial statements as a result of our material noncompliance with any financial reporting requirement under the federal securities laws, our board of directors will require reimbursement or forfeiture of any excess performance-based cash or equity incentive compensation received by any of our executive officers during the three completed fiscal years immediately preceding the date on which we are required to prepare the accounting restatement. Our Clawback Policy applies all incentive compensation granted to covered employees after the date on which the policy was adopted.

Tax and Accounting Considerations

Among the factors it considers when making executive compensation decisions, the Committee considers the anticipated tax and accounting impact to us (and to our executives and other employees) of various payments, equity awards and other benefits.

In particular, the Committee considers the impact of the provisions of Section 162(m) of the Code. That section generally limits the deductibility of compensation paid by a publicly-held company to "covered employees" for a taxable year to $1.0 million, except for certain "performance-based compensation" payable pursuant to written contracts that were in effect on November 2, 2017 and that are not modified in any material respect on or after that date. "Covered employees" generally include our CEO, CFO and other highly compensated executive officers. Thus, our tax deduction with regard to compensation of these officers is limited to $1.0 million per taxable year with respect to each such officer. With respect to cash and equity awards that were in effect on November 2, 2017, and that are not modified in any material respect on or after that date, the Committee is mindful of the benefit to us and our stockholders of the full deductibility of compensation and have taken steps so that both the cash incentive and stock option awards that we granted may qualify for aforementioned exception to non-deductibility under Section 162(m) of the Code. However, awards that we granted that were intended to qualify as "performance-based compensation" may not necessarily qualify for such exemption under Section 162(m) of the Code, and the Committee may determine that the modification of such awards may ultimately be in our best interests and those of our stockholders, whether to meet contractual obligations or otherwise. With respect to cash incentive and equity awards that we may grant in the future, we do not anticipate that the $1.0 million deduction limitation set forth in Section 162(m) of the Code will have a material impact on our results of operations.

The Committee also considers the impact of Section 409A of the Code, and in general, our executive plans and programs are designed to comply with the requirements of that section so as to avoid possible adverse tax consequences that may result from noncompliance.

Our change in control and severance arrangements do not provide for excise tax gross-up payments.

Although we review and consider the tax and accounting laws, rules and regulations that may impact our executive compensation program, we believe it is not in the best interests of our stockholders to restrict the Committee's discretion and flexibility in developing appropriate compensation programs and thus also consider the competitiveness of our program in our market and the importance to our stockholders of incentivizing and rewarding executives for reaching desired performance levels and other goals.

PAYMENTS UPON TERMINATION OR CHANGE IN CONTROL

Employment Agreements

We typically enter into employment agreements with each of our executive officers and other senior management personnel. Our current employment agreements with our NEOs generally provide that in the event of a separation from service due to termination by us other than for cause, death or disability, or the NEO's resignation for good reason, which we refer to collectively as an "involuntary termination", prior to a change in control of our Company, our NEO will receive (i) the portion of the then-current base salary that was accrued and unpaid through the date of termination, (ii) payments for any accrued and unpaid PTO through the date of termination, (iii) a cash severance payment in an amount equal to 6 months of the then-current base salary for Mr. Hayden, 12 months of the then-current base salary for each of Mr. Mahboob and Dr. Thompson, and 24 months of the then-current base salary for Mr. Onopchenko, payable in a lump sum within 60 days following termination, (iv) a cash payment equal to 100% of the target cash bonus for which the NEO would be eligible for the year in which such termination occurred, payable in a lump sum within 60 days following termination, (v) continued health insurance benefits for 6 months for Messrs. Hayden and Mahboob and Dr. Thompson following termination and 18 months for Mr. Onopchenko following termination and (vi) payment for reasonable outplacement services for 12 months following termination, in an aggregate amount not to exceed $10,000. All outstanding equity awards granted to Mr. Mahboob and Dr. Thompson under our equity incentive plans that have solely time-based vesting requirements will become fully vested as to all underlying shares of common stock upon an involuntary termination prior to a change in control. All outstanding equity awards granted to Mr. Onopchenko under our equity incentive plans that vest within 12 months following an involuntary termination prior to a change in control will become vested. No equity awards held by Mr. Hayden will be subject to any accelerated vesting upon an involuntary termination prior to a change in control.

In the event of an involuntary termination upon or within 24 months following a change in control, Mr. Onopchenko will be entitled to receive, in addition to items (i), (ii) and (vi) above as applicable to Mr. Onopchenko, (a) a cash severance payment in an amount equal to 24 months of the then-current base salary, payable in a lump sum within 60 days following termination and (b) a cash payment in an amount equal to 150% of his target cash bonus, payable in a lump sum within 60 days following termination.

In the event of an involuntary termination upon or within 24 months following a change in control, Messrs. Hayden and Mahboob and Dr. Thompson will be entitled to receive, in addition to items (i), (ii) and (vi) above, (a) a cash severance payment in an amount equal to 18 months of the then-current base salary, payable in a lump sum within 60 days following termination, (b) a cash payment equal to 100% of the target cash bonus for the year in which the termination occurs, payable in a lump sum within 60 days following termination, and (c) continued health insurance benefits for 18 months following termination.

In addition, upon a change in control transaction, the employment agreements with each of our NEOs provide for accelerated vesting of all outstanding equity awards regardless of whether a termination of employment occurs.

McDermott Severance Agreement

Mr. McDermott stepped down from his role as Chief Executive Officer in May 2018. In connection with Mr. McDermott's separation from our Company, we entered into a Severance Agreement and General Release with Mr. McDermott on February 21, 2018, or the McDermott Severance Agreement.

The McDermott Severance Agreement provided that Mr. McDermott would receive (i) any salary that was accrued but was not paid as of his separation date, (ii) payment for accrued and unpaid PTO through his separation date, (iii) a cash severance payment in an amount equal to 18 months of his base salary, payable in a lump sum within 60 days following his separation date, (iv) a prorated cash payment equal to his target bonus for 2018, (v) accelerated vesting of certain previously granted RSUs, (vi) continued vesting and exercisability of certain previously issued stock options, subject to certain conditions, (vii) a cash payment representing the cost of group medical insurance coverage for up to 18 months following his separation date, and (viii) payment for reasonable outplacement services for 12 months following his separation date, in an aggregate amount not to exceed $10,000. In addition, the McDermott Severance Agreement provides for the acceleration of vesting of certain previously issued stock options in certain circumstances.

Mr. McDermott's receipt of the aforementioned payments and benefits was conditioned upon, (i) the effectiveness of a general release of claims in favor of us (and certain affiliates and related parties) that is included within the McDermott Severance Agreement, and (ii) Mr. McDermott's compliance with certain confidentiality, non-competition, non-solicitation, non-disparagement and other standard covenants.

SEVERANCE AND CHANGE IN CONTROL PAYMENTS

The following table summarizes the amounts that would have become payable to each of our NEOs pursuant to the various employment agreements described above, assuming each NEO experienced an involuntary termination of employment as of December 31, 2018, both prior to and after the occurrence of a change in control transaction. If a change in control transaction was to occur on a different date, the payments to be made and value to be realized by our NEOs could be materially different.

In connection with a termination of employment as a result of death or disability, or by an NEO without good reason, we shall not have any obligations to the NEO except that the NEO shall be entitled to receive base salary through the date of termination, payments for accrued and unpaid PTO through the date of termination, and unreimbursed business expenses through the date of termination.

(1) The executive is entitled to receive a payment equal to base salary for 24 months both "Prior to Change in Control" and "After Change in Control."

(2) "Prior to Change in Control" this amount equals 100% of the target bonus for 2018 and assumes the target level of performance was achieved. "After Change in Control" this amount equals 150% of the target bonus for 2018, which would have become payable regardless of Company performance relative to the target performance level.

"Prior to Change in Control" includes the fair market value of the outstanding equity awards granted to Mr. Onopchenko under our equity incentive plans that will become vested and exercisable within 12 months of December 31, 2018. "After Change in Control" includes the fair market value of all unvested equity awards outstanding as of December 31, 2018, which will vest in full upon a change in control. Fair market value was calculated based on the number of equity awards for which vesting would have been accelerated, multiplied by the closing price of our common stock on December 31, 2018, which was $7.16 per share (and for stock options is calculated as the difference between such closing price and the relevant exercise prices).

- (4) Represents continuation of COBRA payments for 18 months both "Prior to Change in Control" and "After Change in Control." COBRA Payments may be extended for an additional six months in limited circumstances.
- (5) "Prior to Change in Control" the executive is entitled to receive a payment equal to base salary for 12 months. "After Change in Control" the executive is entitled to receive a payment equal to base salary for 18 months.
- (6) "Prior to Change in Control" this amount equals 100% of the target bonus for 2018 and assumes the target level of performance was achieved. "After Change in Control" this amount equals 100% of the target bonus for 2018, which would have become payable regardless of Company performance relative to the target performance level.

"Prior to Change in Control" includes the fair market value of the outstanding equity awards granted to the executive under our equity incentive plans that solely have time-based vesting requirements, which will vest upon an involuntary termination of employment. "After Change in Control" includes the fair market value of all unvested equity awards outstanding as of December 31, 2018, which will vest in full upon a change in control. Fair market value was calculated based on the number of equity awards for which vesting would have been accelerated, multiplied by the closing price of our common stock on December 31, 2018, which was $7.16 per share (and for stock options is calculated as the difference between such closing price and the relevant exercise prices).

"Prior to Change in Control" represents continuation of COBRA payments for six months. "After Change in Control" represents continuation of COBRA payments for 18 months. COBRA payments may be extended for an additional six months in limited circumstances.

"Prior to Change in Control" the executive is entitled to receive a payment equal to base salary for six months. "After Change in Control" the executive is entitled to receive a payment equal to base salary for 18 months.

"Prior to Change in Control" there are no outstanding equity awards that would accelerate or continue to vest following the date of termination. "After Change in Control" includes the fair market value of all unvested equity awards outstanding as of December 31, 2018, which will vest in full upon a change in control. Fair market value was calculated based on the number of equity awards for which vesting would have been accelerated, multiplied by the closing price of our common stock on December 31, 2018, which was $7.16 per share (and for stock options is calculated as the difference between such closing price and the relevant exercise prices).

DIRECTOR COMPENSATION PROGRAM

Overview

Pursuant to our director compensation program, our non-employee directors each receive an annual cash retainer for service on our board of directors and an additional cash retainer for service on each committee on which the director is a member. The chair of each committee typically receives a higher cash retainer for such service, which is in lieu of, and not in addition to, the cash retainer paid for committee member service. In addition, on the date of each annual meeting, each non-employee director who will continue in office following the annual meeting generally receives an RSU award with a fixed value, with the number of shares subject to the award determined based on the closing price on the grant date. The Chairman of the Board or Lead Independent Director typically receives an additional RSU award. All of the annual RSU awards generally vest as to 100% of the underlying shares on the one year anniversary of the grant date.

The Compensation Committee regularly assesses our director compensation program and reviews information and analysis provided by Radford, our independent compensation consultant.

Annual Director Compensation

For 2018, following a review of peer group director compensation data provided by Radford, and careful deliberation by the Compensation Committee, during which it took into account a number of factors, including the significant reduction in the trading price of our common stock, the potentially significant dilutive impact of the issuance of RSU awards to non-employee directors (in light of the reduced stock price), our restructuring and strategic market repositioning, our recent and projected financial performance, as well as potential perceptions of stockholders and other market participants regarding our executive and non-employee director compensation programs, our board of directors approved changes to our non-employee director compensation program for 2018. Most notably, our board of directors believed it was prudent, and in the best interests of stockholders, to approve approximately an 18% reduction in the value of the annual RSU award granted to each non-employee director as compared to 2017. The reduction is only expected to apply to non-employee director compensation for 2018. Non-employee directors also receive reimbursement for certain travel expenses and other out-of-pocket costs.

For 2018, the annual fees paid and awards granted to non-employee directors for service on our board of directors, and for service on each committee on which the director is a member for 2018 were as follows:

Position	Annual Cash Retainer Paid for Members	Annual Cash Retainer for Chair ⁽¹⁾	Annual RSU Awards ($)
Board of Directors	$ 36,000	$ —	$ 90,000
Chairman of the Board or Lead Independent Director	$ —	$ —	$ 45,000 ⁽²⁾
Audit Committee	$ 8,100	$ 18,000	$ —
Compensation Committee	$ 5,400	$ 11,700	$ —
Governance Committee	$ 4,500	$ 8,100	$ —

(1) Cash retainers for the chair of each committee are in lieu of, and not in addition to, the cash retainers paid for committee member service

(2) The RSU grant to the Chairman of the Board or Lead Independent Director is in addition to the RSU grant for serving on the board of directors.

Director Onboarding Grants

In addition to the annual compensation described above, each person who first becomes a non-employee director, whether elected by our stockholders or appointed by our board of directors, has historically been granted an RSU award in the amount of $200,000, with the number of shares subject to the award determined based on the closing price on the grant date. This onboarding RSU award typically vests as to 25% of the shares on each anniversary of the grant date, such that all of the shares are vested on the fourth anniversary of the grant date. The board of directors intends to revisit the aggregate value of these onboarding grants for future director nominees depending on the prevailing stock price, the potential dilutive impact of such grants on stockholders and other factors.

One-Time Equity Grant to Chairman of the Board

In May 2018, following the recommendation of Radford, the Compensation Committee approved a one-time grant of time-based RSUs with a fair market value equal to $213,000 to Mr. Lemaitre. The number of shares subject to the grant was based on the closing price of our common stock on the grant date. This grant was made in consideration of the significant additional responsibilities undertaken by Mr. Lemaitre on behalf of the Company during the first half of 2018, including with respect to assistance rendered in connection with our Chief Executive Officer transition. These RSUs were issued pursuant to our 2015 Plan and are subject to time-based vesting such that 100% of the shares shall vest on the first anniversary of the grant date.

⁽²⁾ Amounts shown in this column do not necessarily reflect the actual value received or to be received by our non-employee directors. Instead, the amounts shown reflect the grant date fair values of equity awards computed in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 718. For a discussion of valuation assumptions used to determine the grant date fair value of the awards, see Note 4 to our consolidated financial statements included in our annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2018. In accordance with applicable SEC rules, the amounts reported exclude the impact of estimated forfeitures related to service-based vesting conditions.

CEO PAY RATIO

General

Presented below is the ratio of the annual total compensation of our current Chief Executive Officer, Mr. Onopchenko, to the annual total compensation of our median employee (excluding our Chief Executive Officer), which is referred to as the "CEO Pay Ratio". The CEO Pay Ratio has been calculated in a manner consistent with the applicable SEC rules and regulations, which we collectively refer to as the SEC Pay Ratio Rules. We believe the CEO Pay Ratio presented represents a reasonable estimate based upon the facts and circumstances described below.

Determination of Median Employee

In identifying our median employee for the purpose of calculating the CEO Pay Ratio, or our Original Median Employee, we initially calculated the annual total cash compensation of each of our employees as of December 31, 2017, or the Original Measurement Date. For this purpose, annual total cash compensation included base salary or hourly wages, cash incentive awards and commissions, as well as comparable elements of cash compensation paid to employees in non-U.S. jurisdictions. As permitted by the SEC Pay Ratio Rules, these amounts were calculated using our internal human resources records. Compensation amounts were annualized for new hire permanent employees who did not work for us for the entire year, and we did not apply any cost-of-living adjustments as part of the calculations.

We selected our Original Median Employee from among 648 full-time, part-time, temporary and seasonal workers who were employed and not on leaves of absence on the Original Measurement Date. As of that date, the total number of our employees was 655, of which 596 were U.S. employees and 59 were non-U.S. employees. However, as permitted by the SEC Pay Ratio Rules, we excluded three employees from Thailand, two employees from Singapore and two employees from Canada (which constitute all of our employees from those respective jurisdictions) pursuant to the de minimis exemption for foreign employees. Except for these foreign employees, we did not exclude from the calculation of our Original Median Employee any other employees pursuant to any other permitted exceptions.

Pursuant to the SEC Pay Ratio Rules, once our Original Median Employee has been determined, we are permitted to continue to rely upon the same median employee for up to three years, and to calculate the annual total compensation for that median employee each year during that three year period. However, where there has been a change in the individual circumstances of our Original Median Employee, we are permitted to select a different median employee whose compensation is substantially similar to our Original Median Employee based on the application of the same compensation measure used to select our Original Median Employee.

During 2018, our Original Median Employee received an equity grant with a grant date fair value that was materially higher than similarly-situated employees. We determined that, if we were to rely on the annual total compensation paid to our Original Median Employee for 2018, it would have the potential to significantly reduce the CEO Pay Ratio (all else equal) because of the significant value of the equity grant. As a result, for 2018, we determined it was appropriate to select a different median employee whose annual total compensation for 2017 was substantially similar to that of our Original Median Employee on the Original Measurement Date. This new median employee, which we refer to as our "New Median Employee," was selected using the same compensation data and calculation methodology used to select our Original Median Employee. Notwithstanding the selection of our New Median Employee, we do not believe our overall employee population or compensation arrangements have changed in a manner that would significantly affect our pay ratio disclosure.

Determination of Chief Executive Officer Compensation

Mr. McDermott served as our Chief Executive Officer until May 2018, at which time he stepped down and Mr. Onopchenko was promoted to Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Onopchenko also served as our Chief Operating Officer during 2018 until his promotion to Chief Executive Officer. Accordingly, while we did not have a single person serve as our Chief Executive Officer for 2018, Mr. Onopchenko did serve as one of our executive officers for the entire year.

In general, the SEC Pay Ratio Rules require that the annual total compensation for the Chief Executive Officer for a particular year be calculated in a manner consistent with the Summary Compensation Table. However, where a company did not have a single person serving in the capacity of Chief Executive Officer for the entire year, the SEC Pay Ratio Rules provide alternative approaches to the calculation of the annual total compensation, which necessarily require the company to make certain assumptions and subjective determinations regarding the calculation.

For the purposes of calculating the CEO Pay Ratio for 2018, we have elected to take the approach of annualizing the total compensation for Mr. Onopchenko. However, because Mr. Onopchenko served as one of our executive officers for all of 2018, the annual total compensation for Mr. Onopchenko for 2018 is already set forth in the Summary Compensation Table, which reflects the aggregate amount of compensation earned by Mr. Onopchenko for 2018. We believe this amount reflects a reasonable approximation of the annualized amount of compensation Mr. Onopchenko would have earned had he served as our Chief Executive Officer for all of 2018. In other words, the annual total compensation amount shown in the Summary Compensation Table for Mr. Onopchenko for 2018 already reflects an "annualized" compensation amount since he served as one of our executive officers for the full year. We believe this circumstance is different from a situation in which, for example, the Chief Executive Officer is hired from outside the company and is not paid by the company for the full year, which may require that the annual total compensation paid to the Chief Executive Officer be adjusted from the amount set forth in the Summary Compensation Table to reflect an annualized amount.

CEO Pay Ratio Calculation

The annual total compensation for our Chief Executive Officer for 2018, as set forth in the Summary Compensation Table, was $2,198,207. The annual total compensation for our New Median Employee for 2018 was $113,320. Accordingly, the CEO Pay Ratio for 2018 was approximately 19.4 to 1.
