BYLAWS OF PARK CITY GROUP, INC.

ARTICLE I. OFFICES

ss. 1.1. Business Office. The Principal office of the corporation shall be located at any place either within or outside the State of Nevada as designated in the corporation's most current Annual Report filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Nevada. The corporation may have such other offices, either within or without the State of Nevada as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time. The corporation shall maintain at its principal office a copy of certain records, as specified in ss. 2.13 of Article II.

ss. 1.2. Registered Office. The registered office of the corporation, required by ss. 78.090, Nevada Revised Statutes, shall be located within the State of Nevada and may be, but need not be, identical with the principal office of the corporation. The address of the registered office may be changed from time to time.

ARTICLE II. SHAREHOLDERS

ss. 2.1. Annual Shareholder Meeting. The annual meeting of the shareholders shall be held at such time and on such date as shall be fixed by the Board of Directors, for the purpose of electing directors and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting.

ss. 2.2. Special Shareholder Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders, for any purpose or purposes, described in the notice of meeting, may be called by the president, or by the Board of Directors or by the Chairman of the Board of Directors, and shall be called by the President at the request of the holders of not less than one-tenth of all outstanding votes of the corporation entitled to be cast on any issue at the meeting.

ss. 2.3. Place of Shareholder Meeting. The Board of Directors may designate any place, either within or outside of the State of Nevada as the place of meeting for any Annual or any Special Meeting of the Shareholders.

ss. 2.4. Notice of Shareholder Meeting.

A. Required Notice. Written notice stating the place, day and hour of any Annual or Special shareholder meeting shall be delivered not less than 10 nor more than 60 days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Board of Directors, or other persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record, entitled to vote at such meeting and to any other shareholder entitled by the Nevada Revised Statutes or the Articles of Incorporation to receive notice of the meeting. Notice shall be deemed to be effective at the earlier of: (1) when deposited in the United States mail, addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer books of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid;

(2) on the date shown on the return receipt if sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, and the receipt is signed by or on behalf of the addressee; (3) when received; or (4) 5 days after deposit in the United States mail, if mailed postpaid and correctly addressed to an address other than that shown in the corporation's current record of shareholders.

B. Adjourned Meeting. If any shareholder meeting is adjourned to a different date, time, or place, notice need not be given of the new date, time, and place, if the new date, time, and place is announced at the meeting before adjournment and such new date is within thirty (30) days from the originally scheduled meeting date. If a new record date for the adjourned meeting is, or must be fixed then notice must be given pursuant to the requirements of paragraph (a) of this ' 2.4, to those persons who are shareholders as of the new record date.

C. Waiver of Notice. The shareholder may waive notice of the meeting (or any notice required by the Act, Articles of Incorporation, or Bylaws), by a writing signed by the shareholder entitled to the notice, which is delivered to the corporation (either before or after the date and time stated in the notice) for inclusion in the minutes or filing with the corporate records. A shareholder's attendance at a meeting:

1. waives objection to lack of notice or defective notice of the meeting, unless the shareholder at the beginning of the meeting objects to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting;
2. waives objection to consideration of a particular matter at the meeting that is not within the purpose or purposes described in the meeting notice, unless the shareholder objects to considering the matter when it is presented.

D. Contents of Notice. The notice of each Special Meeting of Shareholders shall include a description of the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called. Except as provided in this ss. 2.4(d), or as provided in the corporation's Articles of Incorporation, or otherwise in the Nevada Revised Statutes, the notice of an Annual Shareholder Meeting need not include a description of the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called.

If a purpose of any shareholder meeting is to consider either: (1) a proposed amendment to the Articles of Incorporation (including any Restated Articles requiring shareholder approval); (2) a plan of merger or share exchange; (3) the sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the corporation's property; (4) the dissolution of the corporation; or (5) the removal of a director, the notice must so state and be accompanied by respectively a copy or summary of the: (1) Articles of Amendment; (2) Plan of Merger or Share Exchange; or (3) transaction for disposition of all the corporation's property. If the proposed corporate action created dissenters' rights, the notice must state that shareholders are, or may be entitled to assert dissenters' rights, and must be accompanied by a copy of the Nevada Revised Statutes dealing with dissenters' rights. If the corporation issues, or authorizes the issuance of shares for promissory notes or for promises to render services in the future, the corporation shall report in writing to all the shareholders the number of shares authorized or issued, and the consideration received with or before the notice of the next shareholder meeting. Likewise, if the corporation indemnifies or advances expenses to a director, this shall be reported to all the shareholders with or before notice of the next shareholder's meeting.

ss. 2.5. Fixing of Record Date. For the purpose of determining shareholders of any voting group entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders, or shareholders entitled to receive payment of any distribution or dividend, or in order to make a determination of shareholders for any other proper purpose, the Board of Directors may fix in advance a date as the record date. Such record date shall not be more than 60 days prior to the date on which the meeting or the particular action, requiring such determination of shareholders is to be taken. If no record date is so fixed by the Board for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of, or to vote at a meeting of shareholders, or shareholders entitled to receive a share dividend or distribution, the record date for determination of such shareholders shall be at the close of business on:

1. With respect to an Annual Shareholder Meeting or any Special Shareholder Meeting called by the Board of Directors or any person specifically authorized by the Board or these Bylaws to call a meeting, the day before the first notice is delivered to shareholders;
2. With respect to a Special Shareholder's Meeting demanded by the shareholders, the date the first shareholder signs the demand;
3. With respect to the payment of a share dividend, the date the board authorizes the share dividend;
4. With respect to actions taken in writing without a meeting (pursuant to Article II, ss. 2.11), the date the first shareholder signs a consent;
5. And with respect to a distribution to shareholders, (other than one involving a repurchase or reacquisition of shares), the date the Board authorizes the distribution.

When a determination of shareholders entitled to vote at any meeting of shareholders has been made as provided in this section, such determination shall apply to any adjournment thereof unless the Board of Directors fixes a new record date which it must do if the meeting is adjourned to a date more than 120 days after the date fixed for the original meeting.

ss. 2.6. Shareholder List. The officer or agent having charge of the stock transfer books for shares of the corporation shall make a complete record of the shareholders entitled to vote at each meeting of shareholders thereof, arranged in alphabetical order, with the address of and the number of shares held by each. The list must be arranged by voting group (if such exists, see Art. II. ss. 2.7) and within each voting group by class or series of shares. The shareholder list must be available for inspection by any shareholder, beginning two business days after notice of the meeting is given for which the list was prepared and continuing through the meeting. The list shall be available in the corporation's principal office or at a place identified in the meeting notice in the city where the meeting is to be held. A shareholder, his agent, or attorney is entitled on written demand to inspect and, subject to the requirements of ss. 2.13 of this Article II, to copy the list during regular business hours and at his expense, during the period it is available for inspection. The corporation shall maintain the shareholder list in written form or in another form capable of conversion into written form within a reasonable time.

ss. 2.7. Shareholder Quorum and Voting Requirements. If the Articles of Incorporation or the Nevada Revised Business Corporation Act provides for voting by a single voting group on a matter, action on that matter is taken when voted upon by that voting group.

Shares entitled to vote as a separate voting group may take action on a matter at a meeting only if a quorum of those shares exists with respect to that matter. Unless the Articles of Incorporation, the Bylaws, or the Nevada Revised Business Corporation Act provide otherwise, a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter by the voting group constitutes a quorum of that voting group for action on that matter.

If the Articles of Incorporation or the Nevada Corporation Act provide for voting by two or more voting groups on a matter, action on that matter is taken only when voted upon by each of those voting groups counted separately. Action may be taken by one voting group on a matter even though no action is taken by another voting group entitled to vote on the matter.

Once a share is represented for any purpose at a meeting, it is deemed present for quorum purposes for the remainder of the meeting and for any adjournment of that meeting unless a new record date is or must be set for that adjourned meeting.

If a quorum exists, action on a matter (other than the election of directors) by a voting group is approved if the votes cast within the voting group favoring the action exceed the votes cast opposing the action.

ss. 2.8. Proxies. At all meetings of shareholders, a shareholder may vote in person, or by a proxy which is executed in writing by the shareholder or which is executed by his duly authorized attorney-in-fact. Such proxy shall be filed with the Secretary of the corporation or other person authorized to tabulate votes before or at the time of the meeting. No proxy shall be valid after 11 months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided in the proxy. A shareholder may appoint a proxy by transmitting or authorizing the transmission of a telegram, teletype, telecopy or other electronic transmission.

ss. 2.9. Voting of Shares. Unless otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation, each outstanding share shall be entitled to one vote upon each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders.

Except as provided by specific court order, no shares held by another corporation, if a majority of the shares entitled to vote for the election of directors of such other corporation are held by the corporation, shall be voted at any meeting or counted in determining the total number of outstanding shares at any given time for purposes of any meeting. Provided, however, the prior sentence shall not limit the power of the corporation to vote any shares, including its own shares, held by it in a fiduciary capacity.

Redeemable shares are not entitled to vote after notice of redemption is mailed to the holders and a sum sufficient to redeem the shares has been deposited with a bank, trust company, or other financial institution under an irrevocable obligation to pay the holders the redemption price on surrender of the shares.

Edgar Filing: PARK CITY GROUP INC - Form 8-K

ss. 2.10. Corporation's Acceptance of Votes.

A. If the name signed on a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment corresponds to the name of a shareholder, the corporation if acting in good faith, is entitled to accept the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment and give it effect as the act of the shareholder.

B. If the name signed on a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment does not correspond to the name of its shareholder, the corporation, if acting in good faith, is nevertheless entitled to accept the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment and give it effect as the act of the shareholder if:

1. the shareholder is an entity and the name signed purports to be that of an officer or agent of the entity;
2. the name signed purports to be that of an administrator, executor, guardian, or conservator representing the shareholder and, if the corporation requests, evidence of fiduciary status acceptable to the corporation has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment;
3. the name signed purports to be that of a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy of the shareholder and, if the corporation requests, evidence of this status acceptable to the corporation has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment;
4. the name signed purports to be that of a pledgee, beneficial owner, or attorney-in-fact of the shareholder and, if the corporation requests, evidence acceptable to the corporation of the signatory's authority to sign for the shareholder has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment; or
5. two or more persons are the shareholder as co-tenants or fiduciaries and the name signed purports to be the name of at least one of the co-owners and the person signing appears to be acting on behalf of all the co-owners.

C. The corporation is entitled to reject a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment if the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes, acting in good faith, has reasonable basis for doubt about the validity of the signature on it or about the signatory's authority to sign for the shareholder.

D. The corporation and its officer or agent who accepts or rejects a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment in good faith and in accordance with the standards of this section, are not liable in damages to the shareholder for the consequences of the acceptance or rejection.

E. Corporate action based on the acceptance or rejection of a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment under this section is valid unless a court of competent jurisdiction determines otherwise.

Edgar Filing: PARK CITY GROUP INC - Form 8-K

ss. 2.11. Action Without Meeting by Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the shareholders may be taken without a meeting if one or more consents in writing, setting forth the action, shall be signed by the holders of outstanding shares having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take the action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted. If written consents of less than all the shareholders have been obtained, notice of such shareholder approval by written consent shall be given at least ten (10) days before the consummation of the action authorized by such written consent to those shareholders entitled to vote who have not consented in writing and to any non-voting shareholders. Such notice shall contain or be accompanied by the same material that would have been required if a formal meeting had been called to consider the action. A consent signed under this section has the effect of a vote at a meeting and may be described as such in any document.

ss. 2.12. Voting for Directors. Unless otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation, directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast by the shares entitled to vote in the election at a meeting at which a quorum is present. Shareholders do not have a right to cumulate their votes.

ss. 2.13. Shareholder's Rights to Inspect Corporate Records.

A. Minutes and Accounting Records. The corporation shall keep as permanent records minutes of all meetings of its shareholders and Board of Directors, a record of all actions taken by the shareholders or board of directors without a meeting, and a record of all actions taken by a committee of the Board of Directors. The corporation shall maintain appropriate accounting records.

B. Absolute Inspection Rights of Records Required at Principal Office. If he gives the corporation written notice of his demand at least five business days before the date on which he wishes to inspect and copy, a shareholder (or his agent or attorney) has the right to inspect and copy, during regular business hours any of the following records, all of which the corporation is required to keep at its principal office:

1. its Articles or Restated Articles of Incorporation and all amendments to them currently in effect;
2. its Bylaws or Restated Bylaws and all amendments to them currently in effect;
3. resolutions adopted by its Board of Directors creating one or more classes or series of shares, and fixing their relative rights, preferences, and limitations, if shares issued pursuant to those resolutions are outstanding;
4. the minutes of all shareholders' meetings, and records of all action taken by shareholders without a meeting, for the past three years;
5. all written communications to shareholders generally within the past three years, including the financial statements furnished for the past three years to the shareholders;
6. a list of the names and business addresses of its current directors and officers; and

In the event there are more than three shareholders, the number of directors which shall constitute the whole Board of Directors shall be determined by resolution of the stockholders or the resolution of the Board of Directors, but in no event shall be less than three. The number of directors may be decreased at any time either by the shareholders or by a majority of the directors then in office, but only to eliminate vacancies existing by reason of the death, resignation, removal or expiration of the term of one or more directors. Each director shall hold office until the next annual meeting of shareholders or until removed. However, if his term expires, he shall continue to serve until his successor shall have been elected and qualified or until there is a decrease in the number of directors. Directors need not be residents of the State of Nevada or shareholders of the corporation.

ss. 3.3 Nomination by Stockholders. No stockholder shall be permitted to nominate a candidate for election as a director at any annual meeting, unless such stockholder shall provide in writing, not later than one hundred twenty days before the first anniversary of the preceding annual meeting of the stockholder to the Nominating Committee of the board of directors or, in the absence of such committee, to the secretary of the corporation, information about such candidate which, were such candidate a nominee for the board of directors from whom the corporation solicited proxies, would be required to be disclosed in the proxy materials pursuant to which such proxies would be solicited as set forth in Items 7-8 of Schedule 14A promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission, or any successor provisions.

Any director may waive notice of any meeting. Except as provided in the next sentence, the waiver must be in writing, signed by the director entitled to the notice, and filed with the minutes or corporate records. The attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business and at the beginning of the meeting (or promptly upon his arrival) objects to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting, and does not thereafter vote for or abstain to action taken at the meeting. A director participating in a meeting by this means is deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

A director who is present at a meeting of the Board of Directors or a committee of the Board of Directors when corporate action is taken is deemed to have assented to the action taken unless: (1) he objects at the beginning of the meeting (or promptly upon his arrival) to holding it or transacting business at the meeting; or (2) his dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting; or (3) he delivers written notice of his dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the corporation immediately after adjournment of the meeting. ss. 3.9. Director Action Without a Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors or of any committee of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting, if all members of the Board of Directors or committee, as the case may be, consent to the action in writing, and the written consents are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board of Directors or committee.

ss. 3.10. Removal of Directors. The shareholders may remove one or more directors at a meeting called for that purpose if notice has been given that a purpose of the meeting is such removal. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date (by reason of a resignation effective at a later date) may be filled before the vacancy occurs but the new director may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

The term of a director elected to fill a vacancy expires at the next shareholders' meeting at which directors are elected. However, if his term expires, he shall continue to serve until his successor is elected and qualifies or until there is a decrease in the number of directors.

ss. 3.12. Director Compensation. Unless otherwise provided by resolution of the Board of Directors, each director may be paid his expenses, if any, of attendance at each meeting of the Board of Directors, and may be paid a stated salary as director or a fixed sum for attendance at each meeting of the Board of Directors or both. No such payment shall preclude any director from serving the corporation in any capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

ss. 3.13. Director Committees.

ARTICLE V. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS, OFFICERS, AGENTS AND EMPLOYEES

ss. 5.1. Indemnification of Officers and Directors,. The corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director or officer of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

The corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director or officer of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and except that no indemnification shall be made with respect to any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the court shall deem proper.

To the extent that a person who is a director or officer of the corporation, or who is a director or officer of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise in which he is serving at the request of the corporation, has been successful in the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in this Article V, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith.

Any indemnification under this Article V (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the corporation only upon determination that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in this Article V. Such determination shall be made (a) by the board of directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceedings, or (b) if such a quorum is not attainable, or, even if attainable a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel and a written opinion, or (c) by the stockholders.

Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding as authorized by the board of directors upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation as authorized in this Article IX.

ss. 5.2. Indemnification of Employees and Agents Persons who are not directors or officers of the corporation but who are employees or agents of the corporation or who are serving at the request of the corporation as employees or agents of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or enterprise may be indemnified to the extent authorized at any time or from time to time by the board of the corporation, upon a determination that indemnification of the employee or agent is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct this Article V.

Such determination shall be made (a) by the board by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or (b) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable, a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (c) by the stockholders.

ss. 5.3. Non-Exclusive. The indemnification provided by this Article V shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which any person is indemnified, may be entitled under any agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in some other capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

For the purposes of this Article V, references to "the corporation" include in addition to the resulting corporation, any constituent corporation (including any constituent of a constituent) absorbed in a consolidation or merger which, if its separate existence had continued, would have had power and authority to indemnify its officers, directors and employees or agents, so that any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of such constituent corporation, or is or was serving at the request of such constituent corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, shall stand in the same position under the provisions of this Article IX with respect to the resulting or surviving corporation as he would have with respect to such constituent corporation if its separate existence had continued.

The invalidity or enforceability of any provision of this Article V shall not effect the validity or enforceability of any other provision hereof.

ss. 5.4. Insurance. The board of directors may cause the corporation to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, or as its representative in a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against such person and incurred in any such capacity or arising out of such status, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person.

ss. 5.5. Advance Expenses for Directors. If a determination is made, following the procedures of the Nevada Revised Statutes that the director has met the following requirements; and if an authorization of payment is made, following the procedures and standards set forth in the Nevada Revised Statutes, then unless otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation, the company shall pay for or reimburse the reasonable expenses incurred by a director who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of the proceeding if:

- (1) The director furnishes the corporation a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described in ss. 5.1 of this Article V.
- (2) the director furnishes the corporation a written undertaking, executed personally or on his belief, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that he did not meet the standard of conduct (which undertaking must be in unlimited general obligation of the director but need not be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment); and
- (3) a determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under ss. 5.1 of this Article V or under the Nevada Revised Statutes.

surrendered and canceled, except that in case of a lost, destroyed, or mutilated certificate a new one may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the corporation as the Board of Directors may prescribe.

ss. 6.2. Shares Without Certificates.

A. Issuing Shares Without Certificates. Unless the Articles of Incorporation provide otherwise, the Board of Directors may authorize the issue of some or all the shares of any or all of its classes or series without certificates. The authorization does not affect shares already represented by certificates until they are surrendered to the corporation.

Unless the corporation has established a procedure by which a beneficial owner of shares held by a nominee is to be recognized by the corporation as the owner, the person in whose name the shares stand on the books of the corporation shall be deemed by the corporation to be the owner thereof for all purposes.

ss. 6.4. Restrictions on Transfer of Shares Permitted. The Board of Directors (or shareholders) may impose restrictions on the transfer or registration of transfer of shares (including any security convertible into, or carrying a right to subscribe for or acquire shares). A restriction does not affect shares issued before the restriction was adopted unless the holders of the shares are parties to the restriction agreement or voted in favor of the restriction. A restriction on the transfer or registration of transfer of shares may be authorized:

- (1) to maintain the corporation's status when it is dependent on the number or identity of its shareholders'
- (2) to preserve exemptions under federal or state securities law;

- (2) obligate the corporation or other persons (separately, consecutively, or simultaneously) to acquire the restricted shares;
- (3) require the corporation, the holders or any class of its shares, or another person to approve the transfer of the restricted shares, if the requirement is not manifestly unreasonable;
- (4) prohibit the transfer of the restricted shares to designated persons or classes of persons, if the prohibition is not manifestly unreasonable.

A restriction on the transfer or resignation of transfer of shares is valid and enforceable against the holder or a transferee of the holder if the restriction is authorized by this section and its existence is noted conspicuously on the front or back of the certificate or is contained in the information statement required by ss. 6.2 of this Article VI with regard to shares issued without certificates. Unless so noted, a restriction is not enforceable against a person without knowledge of the restriction.

Edgar Filing: PARK CITY GROUP INC - Form 8-K

The board of directors may direct a new certificate or certificates to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the corporation alleged to have been lost or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming the certificate of stock to be lost or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate or certificates, the board of directors may, in its discretion and as a condition precedent to the issuance thereof, require the owner of such lost or destroyed certificate or certificates, or his legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as it shall require and/or give the corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost or destroyed.
