PRESS RELEASE For immediate release

Molson Issues Tentative Timetable Relating to Shareholder Vote for Molson Coors Merger

Montréal, September 27, 2004 Molson is issuing today a tentative and very broad timetable, with the objective of informing shareholders of the next steps relating to the proposed Molson Coors merger transaction.

The first step in the shareholder approval process was accomplished on September 17th with the filing by Coors of a preliminary proxy circular with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) in the U.S. That event marked the beginning of a process during which there will be several milestone dates.

September 17th: Filing by Coors of the preliminary Proxy Circular with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) in the U.S. for their review and clearance.

Edgar Filing: COORS ADOLPH CO - Form DEFA14A

Assuming the Proxy Circular is cleared by the SEC and becomes final by mid-November, the procedure for the plan of arrangement proposal will then be submitted to the Québec Superior Court for an interim ruling. The following would thereafter be the likely timetable.

Period from November 8th to November 19th:

Filing of final Proxy Circular

Submission of final Proxy Circular to and hearing by Québec Superior Court for interim order (date to be confirmed)

Printing and mailing to Molson shareholders (date to be confirmed)

Week of December 13th

Special Meeting of Molson shareholders (date to be confirmed)

Week of December 20th

Québec Superior Court final order (assuming shareholder approval)

Week of December 27th

Closing of transaction (assuming shareholder approval)

It is important to view this schedule as tentative, as it is based on several assumptions, including the timing of SEC review and clearance, and scheduling of a Québec Superior Court hearing. These two events are key in the timing of the following steps including the mailing to shareholders and the scheduling of a Special Meeting at which shareholders will vote on the proposed transaction. Should the proxy approval by the SEC take longer or should the scheduling of the Québec Superior Court date be later than anticipated, the timeline as suggested above will be affected. Molson will confirm and post on its website the key dates and the timetable, as they become final.
