Our examination was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included examining, on a test basis, evidence about the Fund's compliance with those requirements and performing such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. Included among our procedures were the following tests performed as of June 30, 2012 and with respect to agreement of security purchases and sales, for the period from May 31, 2012 (the date of our last examination), through June 30, 2012:

8. Review of the BNY Mellon Asset Servicing Report on Controls Placed in Operation and Tests of Operating Effectiveness ("SOC 1 Report") for the period from July 1, 2011 to June 30, 2012 and noted no relevant findings were reported in the areas of Asset Custody and Control.

We believe that our examination provides a reasonable basis for our opinion. Our examination does not provide a legal determination on the Fund's compliance with specified requirements.

In our opinion, management's assertion that the Dreyfus High Yield Strategies Fund complied with the requirements of subsections (b) and (c) of Rule 17f-2 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 as of June 30, 2012, and from May 31, 2012 through
