PART III — NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

j2 Global Communications, Inc. (the "Company") is unable to file its annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005 by the deadline prescribed under Securities and Exchange Commission rules and regulations.

The delay is the result of an ongoing review of the pricing of services provided to j2 Global by one of its subsidiaries. This review by the Company and its independent auditor, Deloitte & Touche LLP, needs to be completed to finalize the Company's tax provision for fiscal 2005 and could not be completed by the filing deadline without unreasonable effort or expense.

The Company does not expect that there will be any changes to its previously released fiscal 2005 revenues of $143.9 million and pre-tax income of $74.6 million and is unaware of any other issues that would impact its previously announced 2005 financial results.

The work to date on the review indicates that the Company's provision for income taxes would need to be increased by $1.9 million or more for fiscal 2005. This would result in an increase in the Company's tax rate for fiscal 2005 from 28.7% to 31.2% or more. This change would reduce the Company's previously announced fiscal 2005 net earnings per share of $2.08, by $0.07 or more. This change in the Company's tax provision would likely cause the Company to report a "material weakness" in its internal controls over financial reporting.

The Company has not yet determined what impact, if any, there will be to its previously announced estimated tax rate of 27% for fiscal 2006.
