On June 3, 2008, we announced that James R. Tobin, our President and Chief Executive Officer, will be extending his tenure with us for the foreseeable future.

In addition, we announced the appointment of Fredericus A. Colen, age 55, as President of our Cardiac Rhythm Management group. Mr. Colen was previously Executive Vice President, Operations and Technology, of our CRM group. Mr. Colen joined BSC in 1999 as Vice President of Research and Development and in February 2001, he was promoted to Senior Vice President, Cardiovascular Technology. Before joining Boston Scientific, he worked for several medical device companies, including Guidant Corporation and St. Jude Medical. Mr. Colen was educated in The Netherlands and Germany and holds the U.S. equivalent of a Master's Degree in Electrical Engineering with a focus on medical technology from the Technical University of Aachen, Germany.

We also announced the retirement of Paul A. LaViolette as our Chief Operating Officer and a member of our Executive Committee effective as of June 30, 2008, at which time Mr. LaViolette will become Senior Advisor through December 31, 2008. Pursuant to a Transition and Separation Agreement (the "Separation Agreement"), he will continue to be paid at his current annual base salary until December 31, 2008 and will be eligible to receive a 2008 bonus equal to 90% of his annual base salary, or $675,000, under our 2008 Performance Incentive Plan. In addition, the Company will consider the possibility of awarding Mr. LaViolette a bonus based on his leadership in connection with FDA related matters through December 31, 2008.

Subject to Mr. LaViolette entering into a Release Agreement following his termination of employment with the Company on December 31, 2008, we will pay Mr. LaViolette a 2009 Separation Payment of $5,440,500 on the Company's first regular payroll date after the Release Agreement becomes effective and a 2010 Separation Payment of $1,813,500 in January 2010, provided Mr. LaViolette has complied with all requirements in the Separation Agreement and the Release Agreement.

The Company will continue making premium payments on behalf of Mr. LaViolette, plus tax gross-up payments, pursuant to the executive life insurance arrangement for Mr. LaViolette that the Company has funded. During his tenure as Senior Advisor, the Company will reimburse Mr. LaViolette for up to $15,000, plus a tax gross up, in payments to a qualified financial planning advisor. In addition, Mr. LaViolette's participation in our Executive Allowance Plan will cease on June 30, 2008; accordingly, we will make a final pro rated payment of $12,500 to Mr. LaViolette under the Plan in July 2008.
