Certain statements contained in this Current Report on Form 8-K are forward-looking statements within the meaning of federal securities laws and ARC Document Solutions, Inc. (the "Company") intends that such forward-looking statements be subject to the safe-harbor created thereby.

Such statements that are not purely historical by nature, including those statements regarding the Company's future business plans, are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 regarding future events and the Company's future results that are based on current expectations, estimates, forecasts, and projections about the industries in which we operate and the beliefs and assumptions of the Company's management. They are neither statements of historical fact nor guarantees or assurances of future performance. Therefore, we caution you against relying on any of these forward-looking statements. Words such as "may," "should," "intends," "plans," "expects," "anticipates," "targets," "goals," "projects," "believes," "seeks," "estimates," or variations of such words and similar expressions, or the negative of such terms, may help identify such forward-looking statements. Any statements that refer to projections of the Company's future financial performance, the Company's anticipated growth and trends in its businesses, and other characterizations of future events or circumstances, are forward-looking.

Factors that could cause actual results to differ from expectations stated in forward-looking statements include, among others, the factors described in the "Risk Factors" section in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2012, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, and other periodic filings and prospectuses.

You should not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date made. All subsequent written or oral forward-looking statements attributable to the Company or any person acting on behalf of the Company are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements contained or referred to in this section.
