REGIS CORPORATION ANNOUNCES AGREEMENT TO MERGE WITH ALBERTO-CULVER'S SALLY BEAUTY

Edgar Filing: REGIS CORP - Form 425

-Transforms Regis into $4.5 Billion Professional Beauty Products Distribution and Services Company-

MINNEAPOLIS, January 10, 2006 Regis Corporation (NYSE:RGS) today announced that it has entered into an agreement whereby a subsidiary of Regis Corporation will merge with the Sally Beauty Company business unit of Alberto-Culver Company (NYSE:ACV). Prior to the merger, Sally Beauty will be spun off by Alberto-Culver to its stockholders, and upon the merger each share of Sally Beauty will be converted into the right to receive 0.6 newly issued shares of Regis Corporation. As part of the transaction, Regis Corporation will also assume $400 million in debt. The transaction is expected to be completed in late spring or early summer of 2006 subject to the satisfaction of customary closing conditions, including obtaining the approval of shareholders of both Regis Corporation and Alberto-Culver, expiration of the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvement Act, the obtaining of a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service and the approval for listing on the New York Stock Exchange of the Regis Corporation common stock to be issued in the merger.

The combined company will remain headquartered in Minneapolis and will retain the name Regis Corporation. Following the completion of the merger, Paul D. Finkelstein, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Regis Corporation, will continue to serve as Chief Executive Officer of the combined company.

Sally Beauty Company, Inc., the world's number one marketer of professional beauty supplies, is comprised of 2,419 Sally Beauty Supply stores, 822 Beauty Systems Group stores and a direct sales force of 1,244. In the fiscal year ended September 30, 2005, Sally Beauty Company, Inc. generated revenue of approximately $2.25 billion and pre-tax operating earnings of approximately $224 million.

This is a compelling transaction for the collective shareholders, customers and associates of Regis Corporation and Alberto-Culver, commented Paul D. Finkelstein, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Regis Corporation. The combined company offers powerful distribution capabilities and considerable opportunities for operating efficiencies, both of which will benefit our customers. For our shareholders and associates, combining Regis Corporation and Sally Beauty Company creates a strong company capable of achieving double-digit top and bottom-line growth for many years to come.

Upon closing, Regis Corporation intends to raise its annual dividend 125 percent to $0.36 per share. Stockholders of Alberto-Culver will own approximately 54.5 percent of the shares of the combined company. The transaction is intended to be tax-free to the stockholders of Alberto-Culver.

Excluding the amortization of intangibles, one-time integration and transaction costs, and a one-time write-up of inventory, the transaction is expected to be breakeven to slightly accretive for Regis Corporation in fiscal year 2007, and approximately three percent accretive in fiscal year 2008.

The board of directors of the combined company will be comprised of ten directors, four designated by each of Regis Corporation and Alberto-Culver and two new, jointly designated, directors. Howard B. Bernick, President and Chief Executive Officer of Alberto-Culver, will resign from that position and will join the combined company's board of directors as its non-executive Chairman. Gary Winterhalter will join the senior management team at the combined company serving as President of Sally Beauty Company.

Regis Corporation and Alberto-Culver will host a joint conference call today, January 10, 2006, at 9:30 a.m. CST. The dial-in numbers for the call are 800-219-6110 (domestic) or 303-262-2052 (international). The number for the replay of the conference call is 800-405-2236 and will be available until Thursday, January 12, 2006. The pass code is 11050797#.

The call and a replay will also be available on the internet at www.alberto.com, www.regiscorp.com and www.earnings.com.

This press release contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the federal securities laws, including statements concerning anticipated future events and expectations that are not historical facts. These forward-looking statements are made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. The forward looking statements in this document reflect management's best judgment at the time they are made, but all such statements are subject to numerous risks and uncertainties, which could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in or implied by the statements herein. Such forward-looking statements are often identified herein by use of words including, but not limited to, may, believe, project, forecast, expect, estimate, anticipate and plan. In addition, the following could affect the Company's actual results and cause such results to differ materially from those expressed in forward-looking statements. These factors include competition within the personal hair care industry, which remains strong, both domestically and internationally, and price sensitivity; changes in economic condition; changes in consumer tastes and fashion trends; labor and benefit costs; legal claims; risk inherent to international development (including currency fluctuations); the continued ability of the Company and its franchisees to obtain suitable locations for new salon development; governmental initiatives such as minimum wage rates, taxes and possible franchise legislation; the ability of the Company to successfully identify and acquire salons and beauty schools that support its growth objectives; the ability of the Company to complete the merger with Sally Beauty Company; the ability to integrate the acquired business; the ability of the Company to maintain satisfactory relationships with suppliers; or other factors not listed above. The ability of the Company to meet its expected revenue growth is dependent on salon and beauty school acquisitions, new salon construction and same-store sales increases, all of which are affected by many of the aforementioned risks. Additional information concerning potential factors that could affect future financial results is set forth in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended June 30, 2005 and included in Form S-3 Registration Statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on June 8, 2005. We undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. However, your attention is directed to any further disclosures made in our subsequent annual and periodic reports filed or furnished with the SEC on Forms 10-K, 10-Q and 8-K and Proxy Statements on Schedule 14A.
