Item 4.01. Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant.

On November 13, 2009, the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of Overstock.com, Inc. (the "Company") dismissed Grant Thornton LLP ("Grant Thornton") as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm prior to Grant Thornton completing its review of the financial statements for the three and nine-month periods ended September 30, 2009.

Grant Thornton was engaged as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm on March 23, 2009, and consequently Grant Thornton had not performed an audit or issued a report on the Company's financial statements.

The decision to dismiss Grant Thornton was approved by the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors.

Grant Thornton was not engaged to (and did not) serve as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm during any part of the Company's most recent fiscal years ended December 31, 2008 and 2007. Except for the following, through November 13, 2009, there were no disagreements with Grant Thornton on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to Grant Thornton's satisfaction, would have caused Grant Thornton to make reference to the subject matter of such disagreements in connection with its report on the Company's consolidated financial statements for the year ending December 31, 2009:

On October 1, 2009, the Company received a comment letter from the Division of Corporation Finance of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") regarding the Company's 2008 Form 10-K/A and June 30, 2009 Form 10-Q. In consultation with both its prior independent registered public accounting firm, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP ("PWC") and its then current independent registered public accounting firm, Grant Thornton, the Company prepared and submitted to the SEC its responses to the comment letter on October 16, 2009 and October 21, 2009. The SEC reviewed the Company's responses, and on November 3, 2009 the SEC responded with a follow-up comment letter which requested additional information or clarification regarding, among other matters, a fulfillment partner overpayment (which the Company recovered and recognized $785,000 as income in 2009 as it was received), fulfillment partner under billings (which the Company recovered and recognized $580,000 as income in 2009 as it was received), overbillings by a freight carrier in 2008 (which the Company recognized $301,000 in income in 2009 when the refunds were received) and an adjustment related to redeemable shares of the Company's common stock (which the Company reclassified $705,000 in 2009 from stockholder's equity to redeemable common stock).

When the fulfillment partner underbillings and overpayments were originally discovered, the Company determined that the recovery of such amounts was not assured, and that consequently the potential recoveries constituted a gain contingency. Accordingly, the Company determined that the appropriate accounting treatment for the potential recoveries was to recognize their benefit only when such amounts became realizable (i.e., an agreement had been reached with the other party and cash had been received from future sales).

The Company then began to assemble information in response to the SEC's November 3, 2009 comment letter, again in consultation with its prior and then current independent registered public accounting firms. During such consultation, the Company was informed by Grant Thornton, that upon further consultation and review within the firm, Grant Thornton had revised its earlier position and that the Company should revise its financial statements to reflect the recovery as an asset in the financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2008 as opposed to recognizing the amount when recovered during 2009. On November 13, 2009, as detailed in Item 4.02 below, Grant Thornton advised the Company that disclosure should be made or action should be taken to prevent future reliance on its March 31, 2009 financial statements and June 30, 2009 financial statements filed in those respective Form 10-Q s. The Company and its prior independent registered public accounting firm, PWC, continue to believe the amount was properly recognized in the first quarter of 2009 and consequently believes that those prior financial statements may be relied upon.

The Audit Committee of the Company s Board of Directors has discussed the subject matter of the disagreement described above with Grant Thornton.

The Company has authorized Grant Thornton to respond fully to the inquiries of a successor independent registered public accounting firm related to the disagreement described above.

The Company has provided Grant Thornton with a copy of the above disclosures prior to its filing with the SEC and requested Grant Thornton to furnish the Company with a letter addressed to the SEC stating whether or not Grant Thornton agrees with the above statements. The Company intends to file Grant Thornton s response once it receives the response.

The Company has not yet engaged a successor independent registered public accounting firm. The Company will file a Report on Form 8-K to report its engagement of a successor independent registered public accounting firm as required by Item 4.01 of Form 8-K.

Item 4.02 Non-Reliance on Previously Issued Financial Statements or a Related Audit Report or Completed Interim Review

(b) On November 13, 2009, after the Audit Committee dismissed Grant Thornton, Grant Thornton delivered a letter to the Company stating that it believed disclosure should be made or action should be taken to prevent future reliance on the Company s interim financial statements for the quarters ended March 31, 2009 and June 30, 2009 included in the Company s Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the respective periods. The Company believes that the reason for Grant Thornton s letter was the matter relating to the disagreement between Grant Thornton and the Company described in Item 4.01 of this Report on Form 8-K, which is hereby incorporated by reference. As described in Item 4.01, the Audit Committee of the Company s Board of Directors discussed the disagreement with Grant Thornton.

The Company has provided a copy of the disclosures it is making in response to this Item 4.02 to Grant Thornton, and has requested that Grant Thornton furnish a letter to the Company as promptly as possible addressed to the Commission stating if Grant Thornton agrees with the statements made by the Company in response to this Item 4.02 and, if not, stating the respects in which it does not agree. The Company intends to file Grant Thornton s response once it receives the response.
