CF INDUSTRIES INCREASES OFFER FOR TERRA INDUSTRIES BY $4.75 CASH PER SHARE

Fully Financed $45.91 Per Share Offer Represents Premium of Over 50%

DEERFIELD, IL, December 7, 2009 CF Industries Holdings, Inc. (NYSE: CF) announced today that it has increased its offer for Terra Industries Inc. (NYSE: TRA) by $4.75 in cash per share. CF Industries is now offering to acquire Terra for $36.75 in cash and 0.1034 of a share of CF Industries common stock for each Terra share. The offer has a value of $45.91, based on the CF Industries closing price as of Friday, December 4, 2009. The $36.75 cash portion of the offer includes the $7.50 per share dividend declared by Terra.

We have made a compelling offer, which represents more than a 50% premium to what we believe would be the unaffected trading price for Terra, said Stephen R. Wilson, chairman, president and chief executive officer of CF Industries. It is time to sign a merger agreement and put these two great companies together.

The following letter was sent to the Terra Board of Directors last Friday afternoon:

Attention: Henry R. Slack, Chairman of the Board
Michael L. Bennett, President and Chief Executive Officer

Dear Members of the Board:

It is clear that Terra Industries stockholders want and expect a transaction now. To that end, we are increasing our offer by $4.75 per share in cash. Our new offer is $36.75 per share in cash ($29.25 net of the $7.50 dividend), plus 0.1034 of a share of CF Industries common stock.

Edgar Filing: TERRA INDUSTRIES INC - Form 425

Our offer has a value of $38.41 per Terra share (net of the $7.50 dividend) based on our closing price today, and represents a premium of over 50% to what we believe is Terra's unaffected share price after payment of the dividend. That premium is substantially above historical and recent transaction premiums. Our offer also represents a multiple of 10X estimated EBITDA for 2009.

Our offer is not subject to financing and CF Industries has satisfied all antitrust regulatory conditions required to close the transaction. We have provided a form of merger agreement that we are prepared to enter into. The merger agreement has a go-shop period and we would agree to a break-up fee of $1 per Terra share, plus expense reimbursement.

Our offer is subject only to confirmatory due diligence and entering into the merger agreement. Our advisors are providing a due diligence list to your advisors and we believe due diligence could be completed over this coming weekend.

We are prepared to meet immediately and to sign a merger agreement before the market opens on Monday, December 7th.

Sincerely,

Stephen R. Wilson
