Magyar Telekom files for delisting from NYSE

Budapest October 20, 2010 Magyar Telekom (Reuters: NYSE: MTA.N, BÉT: MTEL.BU and Bloomberg: NYSE: MTA US, BÉT: MTELEKOM HB), the leading Hungarian telecommunications service provider announces, that it has today provided written notice to the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) of its intention to delist its American Depositary Shares (ADSs) from the Exchange. Furthermore, the Company plans to file the related Form 25 with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) on November 2, 2010. Magyar Telekom expects the delisting to become effective on or about November 12, 2010, from which time the Company's ADSs will no longer be traded on the NYSE.

As announced earlier, the main purpose of the delisting is to reduce complexity in financial reporting and administrative costs. Following the delisting, the Company currently plans to maintain its American Depositary Receipt program on a Level I basis.

The Company remains committed to serving its investor base in the United States; however at the same time it remains committed to meeting the criteria for deregistering its securities and terminating its reporting obligations under the applicable U.S. securities laws and regulations as soon as reasonably possible. Consequently, the Company's aim is to meet the applicable criteria for deregistration of its securities and if for any reason it does not meet the criteria for deregistration following the delisting, the Company may decide in the future to take further actions.

The Company will maintain its primary listing on the Budapest Stock Exchange and will continue to make English translations of its annual reports, financial statements and investor releases available on its website at www.telekom.hu where a question-and-answer document is also available that addresses frequently asked questions regarding the delisting of its securities from the NYSE.

Magyar Telekom reserves the right, for any reason, to delay the filings or to withdraw them prior to their effectiveness, and to otherwise change its plans in this regard.
