Economic review

While economic reports remained mixed, the U.S. economy continued to expand during the period from the Fund's commencement of operations on October 27, 2010 through February 28, 2011 (the reporting period). As the reporting period progressed, fears regarding moderating economic growth were replaced with optimism for a strengthening economy in 2011. With investor sentiment improving, rising interest rates negatively impacted some sectors of the fixed-income market. All told, investors who took on additional risk in their portfolios during the reporting period were generally rewarded.

Although the U.S. Department of Commerce continued to report positive U.S. gross domestic product (GDP) growth, the expansion has moderated since peaking at 5.0% in the fourth quarter of 2009. A slower drawdown in business inventories and renewed consumer spending were contributing factors spurring the economy's solid growth at the end of 2009. However, the economy grew at a more modest pace in 2010. According to the Commerce Department, GDP growth was 3.7%, 1.7%, 2.6% and 3.1% during the first, second, third and fourth quarters of 2010, respectively. For calendar 2010 as a whole, the economy expanded 2.9%.

Turning to the job market, the unemployment rate moved lower during the last three months of the reporting period, though it remained elevated. The unemployment rate fell from 9.8% in November 2010 to 9.4% in December and 9.0% in January 2011. It then dipped to 8.9% in February, marking the first time the unemployment rate was below 9.0% since April 2009. This favorable trend, however, did not mean that all was well in the labor market. The U.S. Department of Labor reported in February 2011 that approximately 13.7 million Americans looking for work have yet to find a job, and almost 44% of these individuals have been out of work for more than six months. In addition, while the Federal Reserve Board (Fed) believes that unemployment will continue to decline, it projects that it will remain relatively high, between 7.5% and 8.0% at the end of 2012.

The long-ailing housing market continued to show some signs of strains during the reporting period. Looking back, sales increased in the spring of 2010 largely due to the government's $8,000 tax credit for first-time home buyers. However, this proved to be only a temporary boost, as sales subsequently weakened after the tax credit expired at the end of April. Existing-home sales did rebound somewhat toward the end of 2010 and in January 2011, as mortgage rates remained relatively low. According to the National Association of Realtors (NAR), existing-home sales increased 3.4% in January 2011. However, home sales then declined 9.6% in February and the inventory of unsold homes was an 8.6 month supply at the current sales level, versus a 7.5 month supply in January. In addition, existing-home prices remained disappointingly low, with the NAR reporting that the median existing-home price for all housing types was $156,100 in February 2011, down 5.2% from February 2010.

The manufacturing sector was one area of the economy that remained relatively strong during the reporting period. Based on the Institute for Supply Management's PMI, the manufacturing sector has grown nineteen consecutive months since it began expanding in August 2009. After reaching a six-year peak of 60.4 in March 2010 (a reading below 50 indicates a contraction, whereas a reading above 50 indicates an expansion), PMI data indicated somewhat more modest growth during the next nine months. However, in January 2011, the manufacturing sector expanded at its fastest pace since May 2004, with a reading of 60.8 versus 58.5 for the previous month. There was further strengthening in February, with a reading of 61.4.

IV Western Asset High Yield Defined Opportunity Fund Inc.

Financial market overview

Leading up to the beginning of the reporting period, the financial markets were largely characterized by healthy investor risk appetite and solid results by stocks and lower-quality bonds. The market then experienced a sharp sell-off in mid-November and again in mid-February 2011. During those periods, investors tended to favor the relative safety of U.S. Treasury securities. However, these setbacks proved to be only temporary as risk aversion was generally replaced with solid demand for riskier assets.

Due to signs that certain areas of the economy were moderating in the middle of 2010 (prior to the beginning of the reporting period), the Fed took further actions to spur the economy. At its August 10th meeting, the Fed announced an ongoing program that calls for using the proceeds from expiring agency debt and agency mortgage-backed securities to purchase longer-dated Treasury securities.

In addition, the Fed remained cautious throughout the reporting period given pockets of weakness in the economy. At its meeting in September 2010, the Fed said, "The Committee will continue to monitor the economic outlook and financial developments and is prepared to provide additional accommodation if needed to support the economic recovery. . . . This led to speculation that the Fed may again move to purchase large amounts of agency and Treasury securities in an attempt to avoid a double-dip recession and ward off deflation.

The Fed then took additional action in early November 2010. Citing that "the pace of recovery in output and employment continues to be slow, the Fed announced another round of quantitative easing to help stimulate the economy, entailing the purchase of $600 billion of long-term U.S. Treasury securities by the end of the second quarter of 2011. This, coupled with the Fed's previously announced program to use the proceeds of expiring securities to purchase Treasuries, means it could buy a total of $850 billion to $900 billion of Treasury securities by the end of June 2011. At its meeting in March 2011, the Fed said it "will maintain the target range for the federal funds rate at 0 to 1/4 percent and continues to anticipate that economic conditions, including low rates of resource utilization, subdued inflation trends, and stable inflation expectations, are likely to warrant exceptionally low levels for the federal funds rate for an extended period.

Fixed-income market review

After a solid start for most spread sectors (non-Treasuries), they started to weaken toward the middle of November as financial troubles in Ireland resulted in a re-emergence of the European sovereign debt crisis. While several spread sectors largely regained their footing as the reporting period progressed, others remained weak given ongoing uncertainties in Europe, concerns regarding economic growth in China and its potential impact on the global economy, and geopolitical unrest in Egypt and Libya.

During the reporting period, both short- and long-term Treasury yields fluctuated but, overall, moved higher. When the reporting period began, two- and ten-year Treasury yields were 0.40% and 2.75%, respectively. Treasury yields initially moved lower, with two- and ten-year Treasuries hitting their lows for the reporting period of 0.33% and 2.53%, respectively, on November 4, 2010. Yields then moved sharply higher given expectations for stronger growth in 2011 and the potential for rising inflation. On February 14, 2011, two-year Treasury yields peaked at 0.87%, while ten-year Treasuries peaked at 3.75% on February 8, 2011. Treasury yields then declined as investor risk aversion increased given the uprising in Libya. When the period ended on February 28, 2011, two- and ten-year Treasury yields were 0.69% and 3.42%, respectively. During the reporting period, the Barclays Capital U.S. Aggregate Index^v returned -0.90%.

The U.S. high-yield bond market produced solid results during the reporting period. The asset class posted positive returns during each month except for November 2010, when risk aversion rose sharply. The high-yield market was supported by better-than-expected corporate profits and overall strong investor demand. All told, the Barclays Capital U.S. High Yield 2% Issuer Cap Index^{vi} returned 4.44% during the reporting period.

The emerging market debt asset class performed poorly during the reporting period. Prior to the beginning of the period, emerging market debt had generated strong results given strong economic growth in many emerging market countries, solid domestic demand and generally robust investor demand for the asset class. However, during most of the reporting period, investor concerns regarding interest rate hikes in China and unrest in Tunisia, Egypt and Libya dragged the asset class down. All told, the JPMorgan Emerging Markets Bond Index Global (EMBI Global)^{vii} returned -3.45% during the reporting period.

Performance review

For the period from its commencement of operations on October 27, 2010 through February 28, 2011, Western Asset High Yield Defined Opportunity Fund Inc. returned 6.59% based on its net asset value (NAV)^{viii} and -3.38% based on its New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) market price per share. The Fund's unmanaged benchmarks, the Barclays Capital U.S. High Yield 2% Issuer Cap Index B Component^{ix} and the Barclays Capital U.S. High Yield 2% Issuer Cap Index Caa Component^x, returned 4.58% and 7.34%, respectively, over the same time frame. The Lipper High Current Yield Closed-End Funds Category Average^{xi} returned 5.59% for the period from October 31, 2010 through February 28, 2011. Please note that Lipper performance returns are based on each fund's NAV.

During the reporting period, the Fund made distributions to shareholders totaling $0.44 per share, which may have included a return of capital. The performance table on the following page shows the Fund's total return since its commencement of operations based on its NAV and market price as of February 28, 2011. Past performance is no guarantee of future results.

RISKS: The Fund's investments are subject to credit risk, inflation risk, and interest rate risk. As interest rates rise, bond prices fall, reducing the value of the Fund's share price. The Fund may invest in lower-rated high-yield bonds which are subject to greater credit risk (risk of default) than higher-rated obligations. Investments in foreign securities involve risks, including the possibility of losses due to changes in currency exchange rates and negative developments in the political, economic, or regulatory structure of specific countries or regions. These risks are greater in emerging markets. The Fund may make significant investments in derivative instruments. Derivative instruments can be illiquid, may disproportionately increase losses, and have a potentially large impact on Fund performance.

All investments are subject to risk including the possible loss of principal. Past performance is no guarantee of future results. All index performance reflects no deduction for fees, expenses or taxes. Please note that an investor cannot invest directly in an index.

The information provided is not intended to be a forecast of future events, a guarantee of future results or investment advice. Views expressed may differ from those of the firm as a whole.

- i Gross domestic product (GDP) is the market value of all final goods and services produced within a country in a given period of time.
- ii The Federal Reserve Board (Fed) is responsible for the formulation of policies designed to promote economic growth, full employment, stable prices and a sustainable pattern of international trade and payments.
- iii The Institute for Supply Management's PMI is based on a survey of purchasing executives who buy the raw materials for manufacturing at more than 350 companies. It offers an early reading on the health of the manufacturing sector.
- iv The federal funds rate is the rate charged by one depository institution on an overnight sale of immediately available funds (balances at the Federal Reserve) to another depository institution; the rate may vary from depository institution to depository institution and from day to day.
- v The Barclays Capital U.S. Aggregate Index is a broad-based bond index comprised of government, corporate, mortgage- and asset-backed issues, rated investment grade or higher, and having at least one year to maturity.
- vi The Barclays Capital U.S. High Yield 2% Issuer Cap Index is an index of the 2% Issuer Cap component of the Barclays Capital U.S. Corporate High Yield Index, which covers the U.S. dollar-denominated, non-investment grade, fixed-rate, taxable corporate bond market.
- vii The JPMorgan Emerging Markets Bond Index Global (EMBI Global) tracks total returns for U.S. dollar-denominated debt instruments issued by emerging market sovereign and quasi-sovereign entities: Brady bonds, loans, Eurobonds and local market instruments.
- viii Net asset value (NAV) is calculated by subtracting total liabilities and outstanding preferred stock (if any) from the closing value of all securities held by the Fund (plus all other assets) and dividing the result (total net assets) by the total number of the common shares outstanding. The NAV fluctuates with changes in the market prices of securities in which the Fund has invested. However, the price at which an investor may buy or sell shares of the Fund is the Fund's market price as determined by supply of and demand for the Fund's shares.
- ix The Barclays Capital U.S. High Yield 2% Issuer Cap Index is an index of the 2% Issuer Cap component of the Barclays Capital U.S. Corporate High Yield Index, which covers the U.S. dollar-denominated, non-investment grade, fixed-rate, taxable corporate bond market. Spread duration (unaudited)

Economic Exposure February 28, 2011

Spread duration measures the sensitivity to changes in spreads. The spread over Treasuries is the annual risk-premium demanded by investors to hold non-Treasury securities. Spread duration is quantified as the % change in price resulting from a 100 basis points change in spreads. For a security with positive spread duration, an increase in spreads would result in a price decline and a decline in spreads would result in a price increase. This chart highlights the market sector exposure of the Fund's sectors relative to the selected benchmark sectors as of the end of the reporting period.

Notes to financial statements (unaudited)1. Organization and significant accounting policies

Western Asset High Yield Defined Opportunity Fund Inc. (the Fund) was incorporated in Maryland on July 20, 2010 and is registered as a non-diversified, limited-term, closed-end management investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the 1940 Act). The Fund's primary investment objective is to provide high income. As a secondary investment objective, the Fund will seek capital appreciation. The Fund seeks to achieve its investment objectives by investing, under normal market conditions, at least 80% of its net assets in a portfolio of high-yield corporate fixed income securities with varying maturities. The Fund intends to terminate on or about September 30, 2025 and distribute substantially all of its net assets to stockholders, after making appropriate provisions for any liabilities of the Fund.

The following are significant accounting policies consistently followed by the Fund and are in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). Estimates and assumptions are required to be made regarding assets, liabilities and changes in net assets resulting from operations when financial statements are prepared. Changes in the economic environment, financial markets and any other parameters used in determining these estimates could cause actual results to differ. Subsequent events have been evaluated through the date the financial statements were issued.

(a) Investment valuation. Debt securities are valued at the mean between the last quoted bid and asked prices provided by an independent pricing service, which are based on transactions in debt obligations, quotations from bond dealers, market transactions in comparable securities and various other relationships between securities. Publicly traded foreign government debt securities are typically traded internationally in the over-the-counter market, and are valued at the mean between the last quoted bid and asked prices as of the close of business of that market. Equity securities for which market quotations are available are valued at the last reported sales price or official closing price on the primary market or exchange on which they trade. When reliable prices are not readily available, such as when the value of a security has been significantly affected by events after the close of the exchange or market on which the security is principally traded, but before the Fund calculates its net asset value, the Fund values these securities as determined in accordance with procedures approved by the Fund's Board of Directors. Short-term obligations with maturities of 60 days or less are valued at amortized cost, which approximates fair value.

The Fund has adopted Financial Accounting Standards Board Codification Topic 820 (ASC Topic 820). ASC Topic 820 establishes a single definition of fair value, creates a three-tier hierarchy as a framework for measuring fair value based on inputs used to value the Fund's investments, and requires additional disclosure about fair value. The hierarchy of inputs is summarized below.

18 Western Asset High Yield Defined Opportunity Fund Inc. 2011 Semi-Annual Report

- Level 1 quoted prices in active markets for identical investments

- Level 2 other significant observable inputs (including quoted prices for similar investments, interest rates, prepayment speeds, credit risk, etc.)

- Level 3 significant unobservable inputs (including the Fund's own assumptions in determining the fair value of investments)

The inputs or methodology used for valuing securities are not necessarily an indication of the risk associated with investing in those securities.

The Fund uses valuation techniques to measure fair value that are consistent with the market approach and/or income approach, depending on the type of security and the particular circumstance. The market approach uses prices and other relevant information generated by market transactions involving identical or comparable securities. The income approach uses valuation techniques to discount estimated future cash flows to present value.

The following is a summary of the inputs used in valuing the Fund's assets and liabilities carried at fair value:

ASSETS

Description	Quoted Prices (Level 1)	Other Significant Observable Inputs (Level 2)	Significant Unobservable Inputs (Level 3)	Total

Balance as of February 28, 2011	$1,753,440	$5,100,000	$75,870	$6,929,310
Net change in unrealized appreciation (depreciation) for investments in securities still held at February 28, 2011	$ 82,391	$ 596,595	$75,870	$ 754,856

(b) Repurchase agreements. The Fund may enter into repurchase agreements with institutions that its investment adviser has determined are creditworthy. Each repurchase agreement is recorded at cost. Under the terms of a typical repurchase agreement, the Fund acquires a debt security subject to an obligation of the seller to repurchase, and of the Fund to resell, the security at an agreed-upon price and time, thereby determining the yield during the Fund's holding period. When entering into repurchase agreements, it is the Fund's policy that its custodian or a third party custodian, acting on the Fund's behalf, take possession of the underlying collateral securities, the market value of which, at all times, at least equals the principal amount of the repurchase transaction, including accrued interest. To the extent that any repurchase transaction maturity exceeds one business day, the value of the collateral is marked-to-market and measured against the value of the agreement in an effort to ensure the adequacy of the collateral. If the counterparty defaults, the Fund generally has the right to use the collateral to satisfy the terms of the repurchase transaction. However, if the market value of the collateral declines during the period in which the Fund seeks to assert its rights or if bankruptcy proceedings are commenced with respect to the seller of the security, realization of the collateral by the Fund may be delayed or limited.

(c) Forward foreign currency contracts. The Fund enters into a forward foreign currency contract to hedge against foreign currency exchange rate risk on its non-U.S. dollar denominated securities or to facilitate settlement of a foreign currency denominated portfolio transaction. A forward foreign currency contract is an agreement between two parties to buy and sell a currency at a set price with delivery and settlement at a future date. The contract is marked-to-market daily and the change in value is recorded by the Fund as an unrealized gain or loss. When a forward foreign currency contract is closed, through either delivery or offset by entering into another forward foreign currency contract, the Fund recognizes a realized gain or loss equal to the difference between the value of the contract at the time it was opened and the value of the contract at the time it is closed.

Forward foreign currency contracts involve elements of market risk in excess of the amounts reflected on the Statement of Assets and Liabilities. The Fund bears the risk of an unfavorable change in the foreign exchange rate underlying the forward foreign currency contract. Risks may also arise upon entering into these contracts from the potential inability of the counterparties to meet the terms of their contracts.

(d) Foreign currency translation. Investment securities and other assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated into U.S. dollar amounts based upon prevailing exchange rates on the date of valuation. Purchases and sales of investment securities and income and expense items denominated in foreign currencies are translated into U.S. dollar amounts based upon prevailing exchange rates on the respective dates of such transactions.

The Fund does not isolate that portion of the results of operations resulting from fluctuations in foreign exchange rates on investments from the fluctuations arising from changes in market prices of securities held. Such fluctuations are included with the net realized and unrealized gain or loss on investments.

Net realized foreign exchange gains or losses arise from sales of foreign currencies, including gains and losses on forward foreign currency contracts, currency gains or losses realized between the trade and settlement dates on securities transactions, and the difference between the amounts of dividends, interest, and foreign withholding taxes recorded on the Fund's books and the U.S. dollar equivalent of the amounts actually received or paid. Net unrealized foreign exchange gains and losses arise from changes in the values of assets and liabilities, other than investments in securities, on the date of valuation, resulting from changes in exchange rates.

Foreign security and currency transactions may involve certain considerations and risks not typically associated with those of U.S. dollar denominated transactions as a result of, among other factors, the possibility of lower levels of governmental supervision and regulation of foreign securities markets and the possibility of political or economic instability.

(e) Loan participations. The Fund may invest in loans arranged through private negotiation between one or more financial institutions. The Fund's investment in any such loan may be in the form of a participation in or an assignment of the loan. In connection with purchasing participations, the Fund generally will have no right to enforce compliance by the borrower with the terms of the loan agreement related to the loan, or any rights of off-set against the borrower and the Fund may not benefit directly from any collateral supporting the loan in which it has purchased the participation.

The Fund assumes the credit risk of the borrower, the lender that is selling the participation and any other persons interpositioned between the Fund and the borrower. In the event of the insolvency of the lender selling the participation, the Fund may be treated as a general creditor of the lender and may not benefit from any off-set between the lender and the borrower.

(f) Credit and market risk. The Fund invests in high-yield and emerging market instruments that are subject to certain credit and market risks. The yields of high-yield and emerging market debt obligations reflect, among other things, perceived credit and market risks. The Fund's investment in securities rated below investment grade typically involve risks not associated with higher rated securities including, among others, greater risk related to timely and ultimate payment of interest and principal, greater market price volatility and less liquid secondary market trading. The consequences of political, social, economic or diplomatic changes may have disruptive effects on the market prices of investments held by the Fund. The Fund's investment in non-U.S. dollar denominated securities may also result in foreign currency losses caused by devaluations and exchange rate fluctuations.

(g) Counterparty risk and credit-risk-related contingent features of derivative instruments. The Fund may invest in certain securities or engage in other transactions, where the Fund is exposed to counterparty credit risk in addition to broader market risks. The Fund may invest in securities of issuers, which may also be considered counterparties as trading partners in other transactions. This may increase the risk of loss in the event of default or bankruptcy by the counterparty or if the counterparty otherwise fails to meet its contractual obligations. The Fund's investment manager attempts to mitigate counterparty risk by (i) periodically assessing the creditworthiness of its trading partners, (ii) monitoring and/or limiting the amount of its net exposure to each individual counterparty based on its assessment and (iii) requiring collateral from the counterparty for certain transactions. Market events and changes in overall economic conditions may impact the assessment of such counterparty risk by the investment manager. In addition, declines in the values of underlying collateral received may expose the Fund to increased risk of loss.

The Fund has entered into master agreements with certain of its derivative counterparties that provide for general obligations, representations, agreements, collateral, events of default or termination and credit related contingent features. The credit related contingent features include, but are not limited to, a percentage decrease in the Fund's net assets or NAV over a specified period of time. If these credit related contingent features were triggered, the derivatives counterparty could terminate the positions and demand payment or require additional collateral.

As of February 28, 2011, the Fund held forward foreign currency contracts with credit related contingent features which had a liability position of $141,959. If a contingent feature in the master agreements would have been triggered, the Fund would have been required to pay this amount to its derivatives counterparties.

(h) Security transactions and investment income. Security transactions are accounted for on a trade date basis. Interest income, adjusted for amortization of premium and accretion of discount, is recorded on the accrual basis. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date. Foreign dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date or as soon as practicable after the Fund determines the existence of a dividend declaration after exercising reasonable due diligence. The cost of investments sold is determined by use of the specific identification method. To the extent any issuer defaults or a credit event occurs that impacts the issuer, the Fund may halt any additional interest income accruals and consider the realizability of interest accrued up to the date of default or credit event.

(i) Distributions to shareholders. Distributions from net investment income for the Fund, if any, are declared quarterly and paid on a monthly basis. Distributions of net realized gains, if any, are declared at least annually. Distributions are recorded on the ex-dividend date and are determined in accordance with income tax regulations, which may differ from GAAP.

(j) Compensating balance arrangements. The Fund has an arrangement with its custodian bank whereby a portion of the custodian's fees is paid indirectly by credits earned on the Fund's cash on deposit with the bank.

(k) Federal and other taxes. It is the Fund's policy to comply with the federal income and excise tax requirements of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the Code), as amended, applicable to regulated investment companies. Accordingly, the Fund intends to distribute its taxable income and net realized gains, if any, to shareholders in accordance with timing requirements imposed by the Code. Therefore, no federal or state income tax provision is required in the Fund's financial statements.

Management has analyzed the Fund's tax position and has concluded that as of February 28, 2011, no provision for income tax is required in the Fund's financial statements. The Fund's federal and state income and federal excise tax returns for tax years for which the applicable statutes of limitations have not expired are subject to examination by Internal Revenue Service and state departments of revenue.

Under the applicable foreign tax laws, a withholding tax may be imposed on interest, dividends and capital gains at various rates.

(l) Reclassification. GAAP requires that certain components of net assets be reclassified to reflect permanent differences between financial and tax reporting. These reclassifications have no effect on net assets or net asset value per share.

2. Investment management agreement and other transactions with affiliates

Legg Mason Partners Fund Advisor, LLC (LMPFA) is the Fund's investment manager. Western Asset Management Company (Western Asset), Western Asset Management Company Pte. Ltd. (Western Singapore), Western Asset Management Company Ltd (Western Japan) and Western Asset Management Company Limited (Western Asset Limited) are the Fund's subadvisers. LMPFA, Western Asset, Western Singapore, Western Japan and Western Asset Limited are wholly-owned subsidiaries of Legg Mason, Inc. (Legg Mason).

LMPFA provides administrative and certain oversight services to the Fund. The Fund pays LMPFA an investment management fee, calculated daily and paid monthly, at an annual rate of 0.80% of the Fund's average daily net assets.

LMPFA delegates to Western Asset the day-to-day portfolio management of the Fund. Western Singapore, Western Japan and Western Asset Limited provide certain advisory services to the Fund relating to currency transactions and investments in non-U.S. dollar denominated debt securities. For its services, LMPFA pays Western Asset 70% of the net management fee it receives from the Fund. In turn, Western Asset pays each of Western Singapore, Western Japan and Western Asset Limited a fee for its services at no additional expense to the Fund. Each of Western Singapore, Western Japan and Western Asset Limited receives a fee from Western Asset, payable monthly, in an amount equal to an annual rate of 0.56% of the Fund's average daily net assets related to the Fund's assets that Western Asset allocates to Western Singapore, Western Japan and Western Asset Limited, respectively, to manage.

LMPFA has agreed to pay (i) all the Fund's organizational costs and (ii) the Fund's offering costs, other than sales load, in excess of $0.04 per common share.

During the period ended February 28, 2011, LMPFA reimbursed organization expenses amounting to $65,000.

All officers and one Director of the Fund are employees of Legg Mason or its affiliates and do not receive compensation from the Fund.

Board approval of management and subadvisory agreements (unaudited)

At an in-person meeting of the Board of Directors (the Board) of Western Asset High Yield Defined Opportunity Fund Inc. (the Fund) on August 11 and 12, 2010 (the Organizational Meeting), the Board received a proposal from Legg Mason, Inc. (Legg Mason) to launch a non-diversified, closed-end management investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the 1940 Act). As part of this proposal, the Board at the Organizational Meeting considered the initial approval for a two-year period of the Fund's management agreement (the Management Agreement), pursuant to which Legg Mason Partners Fund Advisor, LLC (the Manager) provides the Fund with investment advisory and administrative services. At the Organizational Meeting, the Board also approved subadvisory agreements (individually, a Subadvisory Agreement and collectively, the Subadvisory Agreements) with the Manager's affiliates, Western Asset Management Company (Western Asset), Western Asset Management Company Pte. Ltd. in Singapore (Western Asset Singapore), Western Asset Management Company Ltd in Japan (Western Asset Japan) and Western Asset Management Company Limited in London (Western Asset London). Western Asset, Western Asset Singapore, Western Asset Japan and Western Asset London collectively are hereinafter referred to as the Subadvisers and Western Asset Singapore, Western Asset Japan and Western Asset London collectively are hereinafter referred to as the Non-U.S. Subadvisers. The Subadvisers provide subadvisory services to the Fund pursuant to the Subadvisory Agreements. The Manager and the Subadvisers are wholly-owned subsidiaries of Legg Mason. The Directors of the Board who are not interested persons as defined in the 1940 Act (the Independent Directors) of the Fund were assisted in their review by Fund counsel and independent legal counsel and met with independent legal counsel in executive session at the Organizational Meeting separate from representatives of the Manager and Western Asset. At the Organizational Meeting, the Independent Directors received information (the Contract Approval Information) from the Manager and Western Asset relevant to their review of the Management Agreement and the Subadvisory Agreements. A presentation was made by the Manager and Western Asset at the Organizational Meeting regarding the Fund and the services to be provided by the Manager and the Subadvisers pursuant to the Management Agreement and the Subadvisory Agreements.

The discussion below covers both investment advisory and administrative functions rendered by the Manager, each such function being encompassed by the Management Agreement, and the investment subadvisory functions rendered by the Subadvisers.

Nature, extent and quality of the services to be provided to the fund under the management agreement and the subadvisory agreements

The Board received and considered information regarding the nature, extent and quality of the respective services to be provided to the Fund by the Manager under the Management Agreement and by the Subadvisers under the Subadvisory Agreements. The Board also considered the Manager's supervisory responsibilities under the Management Agreement in respect of the Subadvisers and Western Asset's supervisory responsibilities under its Subadvisory Agreement with the Manager (the "Western Asset Subadvisory Agreement") in respect of the Non-U.S. Subadvisers. The Board noted that the Fund is newly organized and had no operating history but took into consideration its knowledge gained and information received at regular meetings throughout the year related to the services rendered by the Manager in its management of other funds under the supervision of the Board, including the Manager's coordination and oversight of the activities of subadvisers and other service providers to those funds and Western Asset's coordination and oversight of services provided to those funds by the Non-U.S. Subadvisers. The Board reviewed information received from the Manager and the Fund's Chief Compliance Officer (the "CCO") regarding the compliance policies and procedures established by the Manager and the Subadvisers pursuant to the 1940 Act and reviewed the compliance programs and capabilities of the Manager and the Subadvisers with the CCO.

As a newly-organized fund, the Fund had no historical performance information available at the time of the Organizational Meeting for the Board to consider in its evaluation of the terms and conditions of the Management Agreement and the Subadvisory Agreements. The Board reviewed the investment objectives and policies of the Fund with the Manager and Western Asset and the qualifications, backgrounds and responsibilities of the senior personnel of the Fund and the portfolio management team that would be primarily responsible for the day-to-day portfolio management of the Fund. The Board members discussed with representatives of the Manager and Western Asset the Subadvisers' experience and capabilities. The Board also considered, based on its knowledge of the Manager and the Manager's affiliates, the financial resources available to be employed by Legg Mason for the benefit of the Fund.

The Board also considered the division of responsibilities of the Manager and the Subadvisers under the Management Agreement and the Subadvisory Agreements, respectively, including the Manager's coordination and oversight of services provided to the Fund by the Subadvisers and others and Western Asset's coordination and oversight of services provided by the Non-U.S. Subadvisers. The Management Agreement permits the Manager to delegate certain of its responsibilities, including its investment advisory responsibilities, provided that the Manager in each case will supervise the activities of the delegee. Pursuant to this provision of the Management Agreement, the Manager does not provide day-to-day portfolio management services to the Fund. Rather, management of Fund assets is provided by Western Asset pursuant to the Western Asset Subadvisory Agreement. The Western Asset Subadvisory Agreement permits Western Asset to delegate certain of Western Asset responsibilities, including its investment subadvisory duties thereunder, provided that Western Asset in each case will supervise the activities of the delegee. Pursuant to this provision of the Western Asset Subadvisory Agreement, each Non-U.S. Subadviser helps provide certain subadvisory services to the Fund pursuant to a separate Subadvisory Agreement with Western Asset.

The Board concluded that, overall, it was satisfied with the nature, extent and quality of the respective services expected to be provided by the Manager under the Management Agreement and by the Subadvisers under the Subadvisory Agreements.

Management fees, expense ratios and profitability

The Board reviewed and considered the proposed contractual management fee (the Contractual Management Fee) payable by the Fund to the Manager under the Management Agreement in light of the nature, extent and quality of the management services expected to be provided by the Manager and the Subadvisers to the Fund. The Contractual Management Fee is an annual fee, payable monthly, in an amount equal to 0.80% of the Fund's average daily net assets. The Board noted that the Manager, and not the Fund, is responsible for payment of the contractual subadvisory fees (the Contractual Subadvisory Fees) and, accordingly, that the retention of Western Asset would not increase the fees and expenses to be incurred by the Fund. Similarly, the Board noted that Western Asset, and not the Fund, is responsible for payment of the Contractual Subadvisory Fees to the Non-U.S. Subadvisers and, accordingly, that the retention of the Non-U.S. Subadvisers would not increase the fees and expenses to be incurred by the Fund. The Board also noted that the Manager will provide the Fund with regulatory compliance and administrative services, office facilities and officers (including the chief financial, chief legal and chief compliance officers), and that the Manager will coordinate and oversee the provision of services to the Fund by other fund service providers, including the Subadvisers.

The Board received and considered information comparing the Contractual Management Fee on a gross basis with those of a group of comparable funds and investment vehicles. The Board obtained confirmation from the Manager that the fees and expenses of the Fund are in line with those of comparable funds and investment vehicles. The Manager discussed the expected expense ratio of the Fund and the costs of organization. The Manager discussed with the Board the Fund's proposed underwriting arrangements. Among other things, underwriters were to receive a sales load of 4.50% of the offering price of each share. The Board noted a proposal by the Manager to pay (i) all of the Fund's organizational expenses, and (ii) the Fund's offering expenses (other than sales load) in excess of $0.04 per share. As a newly-organized fund, the Board noted that the Fund had no historical profitability information available for the Board to consider at the time of the Organizational Meetings, but the Board received and reviewed with the Manager pro forma information regarding the projected profitability to the Manager of its services to the Fund. The profitability to the Subadvisers was not considered to be a material factor in the Board's consideration since their Contractual Subadvisory Fees are paid by the Manager, in the case of Western Asset, and by Western Asset, in the case of the Non-U.S. Subadvisers. Under the circumstances, the Board concluded that the profitability to the Manager projected in the pro forma information was reasonable but did not give such information significant weight in its evaluations.

Economies of scale

The Manager stated that as the Fund's assets increase over time, the Fund and its shareholders should realize economies of scale as certain expenses, such as fixed fund fees, become a smaller percentage of overall assets. However, the Board noted that the Manager, in the Contractual Management Fee, incorporates no breakpoints to reflect the potential for reducing the Contractual Management Fee as assets grow. The Board considered that, as a newly-organized fund, there was uncertainty regarding the ability of the Fund to attract assets and the rate of asset growth that will be achieved. In light of the uncertainties as to the growth of assets, the Board concluded that the Contractual Management Fee structure is appropriate at this time.

Taking all of the above into consideration, the Board determined that the Contractual Management Fee was reasonable in light of the expense information presented and the nature, extent and quality of the services expected to be provided under the Management Agreement and the Subadvisory Agreements, respectively.

Other benefits to the manager

The Board considered other benefits expected to be received by the Manager and its affiliates, including the Subadvisers, as a result of the Manager's relationship with the Fund. In light of the expected costs of providing investment management and other services to the Fund and the Manager's commitment to the Fund, the other ancillary benefits that the Manager and its affiliates expect to receive were not considered excessive.

Based on their discussions and considerations, including those described above, the Board, including the Independent Directors, approved the Management Agreement and each of the Subadvisory Agreements.

No single factor reviewed by the Board was identified by the Board as the principal factor in determining whether to approve the Management Agreement and each of the Subadvisory Agreements.

Dividend reinvestment plan (unaudited)

Unless you elect to receive distributions in cash (i.e., opt-out), all dividends, including any capital gain dividends, on your Common Stock will be automatically reinvested by American Stock Transfer & Trust Company LLC, as agent for the stockholders (the Plan Agent), in additional shares of Common Stock under the Fund's Dividend Reinvestment Plan (the Plan). You may elect not to participate in the Plan by contacting the Plan Agent. If you do not participate, you will receive all cash distributions paid by check mailed directly to you by American Stock Transfer & Trust Company LLC, as dividend paying agent.

If you participate in the Plan, the number of shares of Common Stock you will receive will be determined as follows:

(1) If the market price of the Common Stock on the record date (or, if the record date is not a NYSE trading day, the immediately preceding trading day) for determining stockholders eligible to receive the relevant dividend or distribution (the determination date) is equal to or exceeds 98% of the net asset value per share of the Common Stock, the Fund will issue new Common Stock at a price equal to the greater of (a) 98% of the net asset value per share at the close of trading on the NYSE on the determination date or (b) 95% of the market price per share of the Common Stock on the determination date.

(2) If 98% of the net asset value per share of the Common Stock exceeds the market price of the Common Stock on the determination date, the Plan Agent will receive the dividend or distribution in cash and will buy Common Stock in the open market, on the NYSE or elsewhere, for your account as soon as practicable commencing on the trading day following the determination date and terminating no later than the earlier of (a) 30 days after the dividend or distribution payment date, or (b) the record date for the next succeeding dividend or distribution to be made to the stockholders; except when necessary to comply with applicable provisions of the federal securities laws. If during this period: (i) the market price rises so that it equals or exceeds 98% of the net asset value per share of the Common Stock at the close of trading on the NYSE on the determination date before the Plan Agent has completed the open market purchases or (ii) if the Plan Agent is unable to invest the full amount eligible to be reinvested in open market purchases, the Plan Agent will cease purchasing Common Stock in the open market and the Fund shall issue the remaining Common Stock at a price per share equal to the greater of (a) 98% of the net asset value per share at the close of trading on the Exchange on the determination date or (b) 95% of the then current market price per share.

Common Stock in your account will be held by the Plan Agent in non-certificated form. Any proxy you receive will include all shares of Common Stock you have received under the Plan.

You may withdraw from the Plan (i.e., opt-out) by notifying the Plan Agent in writing at P.O. Box 922, Wall Street Station, New York, NY 10269-0560 or by calling the Plan Agent at 1-888-888-0151. Such withdrawal will be effective immediately if notice is received by the Plan Agent not less than ten business days prior to any dividend or distribution record date; otherwise such withdrawal will be effective as soon as practicable after the Plan Agent's investment of the most recently declared dividend or distribution on the Common Stock. The Plan may be amended or supplemented by the Fund upon notice in writing mailed to stockholders at least 30 days prior to the record date for the payment of any dividend or distribution by the Fund for which the termination is to be effective.

Upon any termination, you will be sent a certificate or certificates for the full number of shares of Common Stock held for you under the Plan and cash for any fractional share of Common Stock. You may elect to notify the Plan Agent in advance of such termination to have the Plan Agent sell part or all of your Common Stock on your behalf. You will be charged a service charge and the Plan Agent is authorized to deduct brokerage charges actually incurred for this transaction from the proceeds.

There is no service charge for reinvestment of your dividends or distributions in Common Stock. However, all participants will pay a pro rata share of brokerage commissions incurred by the Plan Agent when it makes open market purchases. Because all dividends and distributions will be automatically reinvested in additional shares of Common Stock, this allows you to add to your investment through dollar cost averaging, which may lower the average cost of your Common Stock over time. Dollar cost averaging is a technique for lowering the average cost per share over time if the Fund's net asset value declines. While dollar cost averaging has definite advantages, it cannot assure profit or protect against loss in declining markets.

Automatically reinvesting dividends and distributions does not mean that you do not have to pay income taxes due upon receiving dividends and distributions. Investors will be subject to income tax on amounts reinvested under the Plan.

The Fund reserves the right to amend or terminate the Plan if, in the judgment of the Board of Directors, the change is warranted. There is no direct service charge to participants in the Plan; however, the Fund reserves the right to amend the Plan to include a service charge payable by the participants. Additional information about the Plan and your account may be obtained from the Plan Agent at 6201 15th Avenue, Brooklyn, New York 11219 or by calling the Plan Agent at 1-888-888-0151.
