Item 8.01 Other Events.

On August 25, 2014, Protective Life Corporation, a Delaware corporation (Protective or the Company), issued its Definitive Proxy Statement, which was amended on August 27, 2014 (the Proxy), regarding a proposal that the Company s stockholders vote to adopt the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of June 3, 2014 (the Merger Agreement) among the Company, The Dai-ichi Life Insurance Company, Limited, a kabushiki kaisha organized under the laws of Japan (Dai-ichi), and DL Investment (Delaware), Inc., a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Dai-ichi, pursuant to which DL Investment (Delaware), Inc. will merge into and with the Company (the Merger), with the Company surviving the Merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of Dai-ichi. Among other things, the Proxy contained: (i) information in the Background of the Merger section as to (a) discussions between representatives of Dai-ichi and John D. Johns, the Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, (b) a debt offering contemplated by the Company, (c) the Board s discussions with regard to Dai-ichi s revised non-binding proposal received by the Company on March 26, 2014, (d) the Company s engagement of Morgan Stanley & Co. LLC (Morgan Stanley) as its financial advisor, and (e) the Company s retainer of Milliman, Inc. to act as the Company s actuarial advisor; (ii) information in the Opinion of Morgan Stanley & Co. LLC section as to (a) a comparable company analysis performed by Morgan Stanley, and (b) a precedent transaction analysis performed by Morgan Stanley; (iii) information in the Financial Projections section as to (a) New Business Projections prepared by management, and (b) the embedded value model (the EV Model) prepared by management; and (iv) information in the Litigation Related to the Merger section as to putative class action lawsuits filed in the Circuit Court of Jefferson County, Alabama and the Chancery Court of the State of Delaware challenging the Merger.

Except as otherwise set forth below, the information in the Proxy remains unchanged and is incorporated by reference as relevant in this Form 8-K. Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Proxy.

This filing supplements those disclosures with the following related information:

Background of the Merger

At the conclusion of the meeting that occurred on January 14, 2014 between certain Dai-ichi executives and executives of the Company in Birmingham, Alabama, a representative of Dai-ichi expressed to Mr. Johns that, in the event of an acquisition, Dai-ichi would seek to retain the Company s key executive officers, including Mr. Johns.

With respect to the contemplated debt offering that the Company decided to postpone on March 6, 2014, the proposed uses of the proceeds of that offering were to reduce outstanding indebtedness under the Company s existing revolving credit facility, with the remainder of the net proceeds, if any, for other general corporate purposes.

After receipt of the March 26, 2014 non-binding proposal from Dai-ichi, the Board discussed the fact that Mr. Johns had potential interests in the Merger that are in addition to his interests as a Protective stockholder and determined that the interests of Mr. Johns are substantially aligned with those of the Company s stockholders. The Board also discussed whether to form a committee of the Board to facilitate negotiations with Dai-ichi regarding the terms of a Merger, and determined that the entire Board should be involved in discussions regarding a potential Merger.

Edgar Filing: PROTECTIVE LIFE CORP - Form 8-K

The Board discussed the fact that Morgan Stanley had, in the past, performed work for Dai-ichi with respect to a stock offering and a bond offering, which the Board concluded, based on the timing of that work and the fees received, was not material for purposes of the Board's determination to retain Morgan Stanley as the Company's financial advisor. Those offerings occurred in 2010 and 2011, respectively, and the fees that Morgan Stanley earned from that work amounted to a small fraction of Morgan Stanley's potential fee in connection with the proposed transaction.

The Board did not perceive there to be a conflict of interest between Milliman acting as the Company's and Dai-ichi's actuarial advisor because Milliman did not participate in, or advise the Company with regard to, negotiations over price or terms of the Merger Agreement.

Opinion of Morgan Stanley & Co. LLC

With respect to the comparable company analysis performed, Morgan Stanley reviewed and compared selected publicly traded U.S.-based life and annuity companies having a market capitalization of more than $2 billion and that have certain similar business and operating characteristics. Morgan Stanley analyzed the ratio of stock price to estimated earnings per share, or EPS, which is referred to below as the P/E Ratio, for calendar year 2014.

The multiples observed by Morgan Stanley for the publicly traded companies reviewed were as follows:

Company	2014 P/E Ratio
Aflac Incorporated	9.8x
CNO Financial Group, Inc.	13.0x
Genworth Financial, Inc.	11.6x
Lincoln National Corporation	8.7x

StanCorp Financial Group, Inc.	11.7x
Symetra Financial Corporation	11.0x

Edgar Filing: PROTECTIVE LIFE CORP - Form 8-K

With respect to the precedent transactions analysis performed by Morgan Stanley, transactions were selected that had a value exceeding $1 billion, which were announced between December 2001 and March 2014 and involved life and annuity companies. For each transaction selected, Morgan Stanley noted the (i) ratio of stock price to estimated EPS based on the price per share consideration paid in the transaction and the target company's next twelve months estimated EPS, or Forward P/E Ratio, and (ii) P/BV Ratio, based on the price per share consideration paid in the transaction and the target company's most recently reported book value prior to the announcement of the transaction.

For each of the transactions reviewed, the Forward P/E Ratio and P/BV Ratio observed were as follows:

Date Announced	Target	Acquiror	Forward P/E Ratio	P/BV Ratio
March 2014	Wilton Re Holdings Limited	Canada Pension Plan Investment Board	10.2x	1.31x
March 2010	American Life Insurance Company	MetLife, Inc.	9.9x	1.16x
July 2006	AmerUs Group Co.	Aviva PLC	13.7x	1.74x
October 2005	Jefferson-Pilot Corporation	Lincoln National Corporation	13.5x	2.24x

Financial Projections

With respect to the projections (the New Business Projections) that management prepared for the after-tax statutory earnings estimated to be derived from certain currently marketed life and annuity products to be written during the ten-year period between December 31, 2013 and December 31, 2023 and provided to Dai-ichi as well as the Company's financial advisor, the New Business Projections reflected assumptions of interest rates on corresponding assets that ranged from 2.75% to 6%.

With respect to the EV Model that management provided to Dai-ichi as well as the Company's financial advisor, the EV Model used discount rates ranging from 8%-12%, which range was selected by management in consultation with the Company's financial advisor, based upon their view of the current range of return expectations of investors in the life insurance sector. The management initiatives reflected in the second version of the EV Model included the refinancing of certain indebtedness, the refinancing of certain excess reserves and other liability management efforts.

Litigation Related to the Merger

With respect to the putative class action lawsuit filed in the Circuit Court of Jefferson County, Alabama, captioned Edelman v. Protective Life Corporation, et al., Case No. 01-CV-2014-90247400, on September 5, 2014, the court held a hearing to address motions to dismiss the lawsuit filed on behalf of the Company, the members of the Company's Board, and DL Investment (Delaware), Inc. On September 19, 2014, the court granted those motions and dismissed the lawsuit in its entirety and with prejudice, pending a possible appeal by the plaintiff.

Edgar Filing: PROTECTIVE LIFE CORP - Form 8-K

With respect to the three putative class action lawsuits filed in the Court of Chancery for the State of Delaware, captioned Martin v. Protective Life Corporation, et al., Civil Action No. 9794-CB, Leyendecker v. Protective Life Corporation, et al., Civil Action No. 9931-CB, and Hilburn v. Protective Life Corporation, et al., Civil Action No. 9937-CB, on August 1, 2014, the Delaware Court of Chancery granted an order of consolidation and appointment of co-lead counsel, consolidating the three lawsuits for all purposes under the caption In re Protective Life Corporation Stockholders Litigation, C.A. No. 9794-CB, and designating the Hilburn Complaint as the operative complaint (the Delaware Action). On September 24, 2014, the Company, each of the members of the Company's Board, Dai-ichi, and DL Investment (Delaware), Inc. entered into a Memorandum of Understanding (the MOU) with the plaintiffs in the Delaware Action, which sets forth the parties' agreement in principle for a settlement of the Delaware Action. As set forth in the MOU, the Company, the members of the Company's Board, Dai-ichi, and DL Investment (Delaware), Inc. have agreed to the settlement solely to eliminate the burden, expense, distraction, and uncertainties inherent in further litigation, and without admitting any liability or wrongdoing. The MOU contemplates that the parties will seek to enter into a stipulation of settlement providing for the certification of a mandatory non opt-out class, for settlement purposes only, that includes any and all record and beneficial owners of shares (excluding the members of the Company's Board and their immediate family members, any entity in which any member of the Company's Board has a controlling interest, and any successors in interest thereto) who held shares at any time during the period beginning on June 3, 2014, through the date of consummation or termination of the proposed merger, including any and all of their respective successors in interest, successors, predecessors in interest, representatives, trustees, executors, administrators, heirs, assigns, or transferees, immediate and remote, and any person or entity acting for or on behalf of, or claiming under, any of them, together with their predecessors, successors and assigns, and a global release of claims relating to the Merger as set forth in the MOU. The claims in the Delaware Action will not be released until such stipulation of settlement is approved by the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware. There can be no assurance that the parties will ultimately enter into a stipulation of settlement or that the court will approve such settlement even if the parties were to enter into such stipulation. The settlement will not affect the consideration to be received by the Company stockholders in connection with the Merger.

As part of the settlement, the Company agreed to make certain additional disclosures related to the Merger, which are set forth in this Form 8-K. These additional disclosures should be read in conjunction with the disclosures contained in the Proxy, which in turn should be read in its entirety. As contemplated by the MOU, the release to be contained in the stipulation is in consideration of the additional disclosures in this Form 8-K. Nothing in this Form 8-K or any stipulation of settlement shall be deemed an admission of the legal necessity or materiality of any of the disclosures set forth in this Form 8-K.
