Press Release Regarding Offering of Senior Notes Due 2022

On November 12, 2014, SM Energy Company (the Company) issued a press release announcing that it had commenced its offering of an expected $400 million aggregate principal amount of senior notes due 2022 (the Senior Notes). The notes offering is being made solely to qualified institutional buyers, as defined in Rule 144A under the Securities Act, and to certain non-U.S. persons, as defined in Regulation S under the Securities Act. A copy of the press release is furnished as Exhibit 99.1 to this report.

Disclosure of Certain Information

The Company is offering the Senior Notes pursuant to a preliminary confidential offering memorandum dated November 12, 2014 (the Preliminary Offering Memorandum). The Preliminary Offering Memorandum contains the following information regarding the outstanding balance under the Company s credit facility, which has not been previously disclosed.

As of October 31, 2014, the Company had approximately $563 million of indebtedness outstanding under its credit facility. The Company is currently in discussion with its credit facility lenders regarding a potential amendment to its credit facility to extend the maturity date of the facility, increase the lender commitments thereunder and alter the pricing grid. However, any such amendment remains subject to the negotiation and execution of a definitive amendment agreement, and there can be no assurance that an amendment agreement will be approved or executed.
