Dear C&J Energy Services Employees,

I am pleased to share with you that another important milestone has been reached in our pending transaction to combine C&J with the completion and production services business of Nabors Industries. This afternoon we completed the SEC review process and filed with the SEC the proxy statement that will be mailed to C&J stockholders regarding this transaction. With this critical accomplishment, we are now moving into the next stage to obtain stockholder approval at a special meeting of C&J stockholders to be held on Friday, March 20, 2015. At this time, we anticipate that we will close this transaction during the week of March, 23, 2015, following approval by C&J stockholders.

Any calls you receive from the media, should be directed to Danielle Foley (713-325-6090), C&J's Associate General Counsel. As we have requested before, please do not answer any questions or give any commentary about this transaction to any member of the media.

I am excited to be another step closer to closing this transformative transaction. I am confident that the immediate increases in scale, capabilities, resources, geographic footprint and customer base that this combination provides will better position us to manage through any downturn and enable us to capitalize on future market opportunities. I look forward to integrating our operations and welcoming all of our new employees into the C&J family.

In closing, I want to again thank each of you for your hard work, commitment and support. C&J's success is a direct result of your dedication to excellence. Thank you!

Sincerely,

Josh Comstock
