PART I

[Item 1]

BUSINESS

GENERAL

Edgar Filing: CHINA RESOURCES DEVELOPMENT INC - Form 10-K

The Company was incorporated as Magenta Corp. on January 15, 1986, in the State of Nevada. The Company was formed to acquire businesses that would provide a profit to the Company. The Company had no operating business until control of it was acquired in December, 1994, by the former shareholders of Billion Luck, who exchanged all of the issued and outstanding shares of capital stock of Billion Luck for 108,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock. As a result of the acquisition, the former shareholders of Billion Luck acquired 90% of the issued and outstanding shares of the then outstanding Common Stock of the Company, and the Company became the owner of all the outstanding shares of capital stock of Billion Luck.

Billion Luck was incorporated in the British Virgin Islands on December 14, 1993. HARC was established in Hainan Province, the People's Republic of China, by Billion Luck, Guilinyang Farm, and the Farming Bureau. Pursuant to an approval document dated March 16, 1997, issued by the Hainan Provincial Securities Management Office, the name of HARC was changed from "Hainan Agricultural Resources Company Limited" to "Hainan Zhongwei Agricultural Resources Company Limited." Pursuant to another approval document dated October 9, 2001, the name of HARC was changed to "Hainan Cihui Industrial Company Limited."

HARC is a Chinese company incorporated on June 28, 1994, with a registered capital of Rmb100 million (US$12.08 million). Billion Luck made a cash contribution of Rmb56 million (US$6.76 million) to purchase a 56% interest in HARC. The remaining interests in HARC were acquired by Guilinyang Farm (5%) for a cash contribution of Rmb5 million (US$0.60 million) and by the Farming Bureau (39%) through the contribution of its interests in two of its subsidiaries, First Supply and Second Supply, which were valued at Rmb39 million (US$4.71 million). Pursuant to an agreement dated January 31, 1994, between Billion Luck, Guilinyang Farm, and the Farming Bureau, the parties thereto agreed to establish HARC to act as the holding company of First Supply and Second Supply. Pursuant to an Agreement for the Sale and Purchase of Share in HARC dated April 30, 1998 between Guilinyang Farm and the Company, the Company purchased 5,000,000 shares, representing 5% of the total issued and outstanding share capital of HARC, from Guilinyang Farm for consideration of Rmb7 million (US$0.85 million). On April 30, 2001, Billion Luck, through its nominees, acquired the remaining 39% equity interest in HARC from the Farming Bureau for total consideration of Rmb129.4 million (US$15.6 million). Following the acquisitions, HARC became an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company.

Before January 1, 2000, the Company's two primary businesses were the marketing and distribution of natural rubber and the procurement of production materials, supplies and other agricultural products. The Company, through HARC, First Supply and Second Supply, purchased natural rubber produced by the Hainan State Farms and sold the natural rubber to customers throughout the PRC, such as tire manufacturers, rubber processing plants, and import and export companies. As part of its risk management strategy, the Company, through HARC, First Supply and Second Supply, entered into commodity futures contracts to hedge against the exposure to price risk associated with existing inventories and certain firm commitments for the purchase of natural rubber. The Company also entered into natural rubber commodity futures contracts that were not specific hedges, in anticipation of a rise or fall in the price of natural rubber, based on their knowledge of the supply and demand situation with respect to natural rubber in the PRC. In addition, First Supply and Second Supply procured, for the Farming Bureau, the Hainan State Farms and other affiliated customers, many types of production materials, such as automobiles, farm equipment, fuel, and chemicals, as well as for other customers unaffiliated with the Farming Bureau. Pursuant to a Shareholders' Agreement on Business Restructuring dated March 3, 2000 among the Company, Billion Luck and the Farming Bureau, the natural rubber distribution business and the procurement of materials and supplies business of HARC, First Supply and Second Supply ceased effective as of January 1, 2000. ORGANIZATIONAL AND MANAGEMENT STRUCTURE OF HARC

During the first quarter of 2000, HARC undertook a restructuring plan, including cessation of the operations of its two primary businesses, the marketing and distribution of natural rubber and the procurement of production materials, supplies and other agricultural products, which were originally conducted through its subsidiaries, First Supply, Second Supply and Sales Centre. Under the restructuring plan, the operations of First Supply, Second Supply and Sales Centre ceased and the assets, liabilities and staff related thereto were conveyed to the Farming Bureau, effective as of January 1, 2000. The purchase price was the book value or the fair value of the net assets transferred, as determined by an independent valuer, as of December 31, 1999, whichever was lower. After the restructuring plan, First Supply, Second Supply and Sales Centre became dormant.

In connection with the restructuring, HARC established several new lines of businesses, including supermarket operations (through Zhuhai Zhongwei) and the sale of processed timber wooden blocks (through Hainan Weilin). However, the scale of operation of the new businesses remained relatively small in 2000 and 2001. In light of economic conditions, lack of productivity and unprofitable operations, the Company ceased timber processing operations in connection with the disposition of its 58% interest in Hainan Weilin to the Farming Bureau on April 30, 2001.

HARC has a two-tier structure, consisting of a board of directors and a supervisory committee. The board of directors is responsible for the day-to-day management of and all major decisions relating to HARC (except decisions that may be made by HARC's shareholders during a general meeting of the shareholders). The board of directors is also responsible for exploring business opportunities and making investment decisions. The supervisory committee is responsible for supervising the board of directors and the senior management of HARC in order to prevent the abuse of rights and infringement of the interests of HARC and its shareholders and employees. Among other responsibilities, members of the supervisory board attend meetings of the board of directors and observe HARC's managers to ensure that their acts do not contravene any laws or regulations or HARC's articles of association or the resolutions of HARC's shareholders in meetings thereof. As of December 31, 2001, the board of directors and the supervisory board were made up of 5 and 3 members, respectively.

As of December 31, 2001, the Company's only active operations consisted of its supermarket business.

INDUSTRY SEGMENTS

In conformity with Item 101(b) of Regulation S-K, the following table sets forth the audited historical financial information related to Industry Segments (amounts in thousands). For the year ended December 31, 1999, the Company had two main reportable segments, marketing and distribution of natural rubber and the procurement of production material, supplies and other agricultural products businesses, ceased as of January 1, 2000. The reportable segments for the year ended December 31, 2000 were supermarket operations and sale of processed timber, the latter of which ceased as of April 30, 2001. Notwithstanding the cessation of natural rubber operations in early 2000, during the year ended December 31, 2001, the Company engaged in trading of natural rubber occasionally, depending on market conditions. See Financial Statements and Notes included therein attached as Appendix A hereto.

SUPERMARKET OPERATIONS

The Company, through Zhuhai Zhongwei, has been engaged in the supermarket operations since the fourth quarter of 1999. The supermarket which Zhuhai Zhongwei operates is located in Zhuhai City of Guangdong Province. The supermarket sells more than 10,000 consumer products to customers in the PRC.

Zhuhai Zhongwei maintains numerous suppliers for its sources of consumer products, and no single supplier accounted for more than 10% of total purchases of consumer products in 1999, 2000 and 2001. For the year ended December 31, 2001, Zhuhai Zhongwei had approximately 130 suppliers which supplied a wide variety of products, including fresh meat, fruits and grocery, sanitary products, canned drink and food, snacks, frozen food, fast food, cigarettes, phone cards, wine, etc. The value of total purchases of consumer products was approximately Rmb571,000 (US$69,000), Rmb4.3 million (US$519,000) and Rmb4.9 million (US$592,000) in 1999, 2000 and 2001, respectively. The top five suppliers accounted for approximately 28%, 24% and 18% of total purchases in 1999, 2000 and 2001, respectively. Zhuhai Zhongwei has not entered any long-term purchase arrangement with any supplier. However, Zhuhai Zhongwei does not anticipate that it will incur difficulties in the sourcing of its products. All purchases were made locally in Renminbi on either a cash basis or open account basis payable within 7 to 30 days.

Zhuhai Zhongwei targets the residents of Zhuhai City as its customers and, due to the nature of retail business, no single customer accounted for more than 5% of total revenues from the sales of consumer products in 1999, 2000 and 2001. All sales from the supermarket operations are paid in Renminbi, on a cash basis.

The retailing business is not seasonal in nature, although a slightly higher proportion of sales are recorded in summer when cold drinks and fresh fruits are in larger demand.

Zhuhai Zhongwei faces severe competition in its supermarket operations. There are several large chain supermarkets in Zhuhai City, all of which operate in larger quarters and offer greater products choice. Accordingly, these supermarkets generally offer competitive prices to their customers due to bulk purchases and economy of scale. Zhuhai Zhongwei also faces competition from convenience stores. As the supermarket which Zhuhai Zhongwei operates is located in an upscale residential area where the residents seek higher quality products and services, management believes that the competitive advantages of Zhuhai Zhongwei rest on its ability to source high quality products and provide better services.

As at December 31, 2001, Zhuhai Zhongwei had a total of 31 employees as follows:

Accounting, administration and management	6
Purchasing and supplies	16
Cashier	4

PROCESSED TIMBER

The Company, through Hainan Weilin, engaged in the processing and sale of timber with an annual production capacity of 5,000 cubic meters. The processing factory operated from early 2000 through October 2000 at only one third of its full capacity. Due to the high cost of production, in part due to limited sources of supply of raw materials, and generally poor market condition, the Company formally ceased processed timber operations following the disposition of its 58% interest in Hainan Weilin to the Farming Bureau in April 2001.

INTERNET BUSINESS

The Company has entered information technology market through its acquisition of an 80% equity interest in Silver Moon on June 30, 2000. The principal business of Silver Moon, and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Medi-China, is the provision of online Internet healthcare content, with a focus on Chinese herbal medicine and therapies. In light of the global economic downturn and pessimism towards the technology section for Internet related products and services, management is aware that Silver Moon and Medi-China will have to wait patiently for a full economic recovery. In view of the uncertainty lying ahead, the Company has adopted a cautious and prudent approach to control costs and minimize risks. Currently, the Company has no plan to put in extra resources to the website, hoping to maintain only sufficient resources to ride through the fragile economic situation, and to be ready to grasp potential opportunities when the e-commerce industry stabilizes and demonstrates signs of revival.

PRC LEGAL SYSTEM

Since 1979, many laws and regulations addressing economic matters in general have been promulgated in the PRC. Despite development of its legal system, the PRC does not have a comprehensive system of laws. In addition, enforcement of existing laws may be uncertain and sporadic, and implementation and interpretation thereof inconsistent. The PRC judiciary is relatively inexperienced in enforcing the laws that exist, leading to a higher than usual degree of uncertainty as to the outcome of any litigation. Even where adequate law exists in the PRC, it may be difficult to obtain swift and equitable enforcement of such law, or to obtain enforcement of a judgment by a court of another jurisdiction. The PRC's legal system is based on written statutes and, therefore, decided legal cases are without binding legal effect, although they are often followed by judges as guidance. The interpretation of PRC laws may be subject to policy changes reflecting domestic political changes. As the PRC legal system develops, the promulgation of new laws, changes to existing laws and the pre-emption of local regulations by national laws may adversely affect foreign investors. The trend of legislation over the past 20 years has, however, significantly enhanced the protection afforded foreign investors in enterprises in the PRC. However, there can be no assurance that changes in such legislation or interpretation thereof will not have an adverse effect upon the business operations or prospects of the Company.

The activities of the Company's principal subsidiaries in China are by law subject, in some cases, to administrative review and approval by various national, provincial, and local agencies of the Chinese government. In particular, the realization of the Company's future investment plans in China will also be subject to PRC government approvals.

PROPERTIES

The Company's administrative offices, supermarket, timber processing factory and other facilities of HARC and its principal subsidiaries are located in Hong Kong, Hainan, Zhuhai and Shenzhen in the PRC.

Pursuant to an office sharing agreement dated September 1, 2000, the Company's head office in Hong Kong is shared on an equal basis between the Company and Anka Consultants Limited, a private Hong Kong company which is owned by certain directors of the Company. The lease is for a period of 2 years from September 1, 2000 to August 31, 2002. The total area of the office is approximately 230 square meters. For the years ended December 31, 2000 and 2001, the Company paid rental expenses to Anka Consultants Limited amounted to HK$46,000 (US$6,000) and HK$276,000 (US$35,000), respectively. The office sharing agreement also provides that the Company share certain costs and expenses in connection with its use of the office.

In 1994, the Farming Bureau entered into a rental agreement with HARC with respect to the rental of a portion consisting of 532 square meters of a building in Hainan, in which HARC's offices were located. Such rental agreement was for a period of 10 years at an annual rental of Rmb170,240 (US$20,560) payable in equal semi-annual installments. On July 1, 2001, pursuant to mutual agreement, both parties agreed to terminate the rental agreement. On May 30, 2001, a rental agreement was entered into between HARC and Haikou Nanyang Building Co. Ltd., an unaffiliated third party, with respect to the rental of office space in Hainan with a total gross area of 138 square meters. The rental agreement is for a period of 1 year from June 4, 2001 to June 3, 2002 at a monthly rental of Rmb4,131 (US$499). HARC plans to renew the lease for another year upon its termination in June 2002.

The structure and building in respect of the supermarket which the Company operates is owned by Zhuhai Zhongwei, the Company's wholly-owned subsidiary, with a total gross area of 720 square meters. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF RESULTS OF OPERATIONS AND FINANCIAL CONDITION

The following discussion should be read in conjunction with the Consolidated Financial Statements of the Company and related Notes thereto, and other financial information included elsewhere herein. The financial statements of the Company are prepared in conformity with U.S. GAAP.

OVERVIEW

THE COMPANY

The Company, through HARC, First Supply and Second Supply, previously engaged in marketing and distribution of natural rubber and rubber products produced by the Hainan State Farms and non-state farms in the PRC, procurement of production materials and supplies, including chemicals, farm equipment and machinery, automobiles and other commodities for use primarily by the Hainan State Farms and other unaffiliated customers, and trading in natural rubber commodity futures contracts. Pursuant to a Shareholders' Agreement on Business Restructuring dated March 3, 2000, among the Company, Billion Luck and the Farming Bureau, the natural rubber distribution business and the procurement of materials and supplies business ceased effective as of January 1, 2000. Pursuant to an Assets and Staff Transfer Agreement dated March 3, 2000, among the Farming Bureau, HARC, First Supply, Second Supply and Sales Centre, the assets, liabilities and staff related to the ceased businesses were transferred to the Farming Bureau effective as of January 1, 2000. The restructuring resulted in the discontinuation of substantially all of the existing operations of the Company as of December 31, 1999. In the fourth quarter of 1999 and the first quarter of 2000, the Company undertook several new lines of businesses as part of the restructuring, including its new supermarket operations and the processed timber operation. On April 30, 2001, the Company, through its nominees, acquired a 39% equity interest in its 61%-owned subsidiary, HARC, from the Farming Bureau. Following the acquisition, HARC became an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company. Concurrent with the acquisition, HARC entered into several agreements with the Farming Bureau to dispose of certain assets, including its 58% interest in Hainan Weilin. Thereafter, the Company formally ceased its timber processing operation. Because of the restructuring undertaken and the acquisition and disposition of assets by the Company, operating results of prior years are not indicative of the operating results that may be expected in future years.

Edgar Filing: CHINA RESOURCES DEVELOPMENT INC - Form 10-K

The Statements under "Results of Operations" and "Liquidity and Capital Resources" relate to the operations and financial condition of the Company and its subsidiaries.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The following table shows the selected consolidated income statement data of the Company and its subsidiaries for each of the three fiscal years ended December 31, 1999, 2000 and 2001. The Company had sales of Rmb4.1 million (US$494,000) and gross loss of Rmb157,000 (US$19,000) on natural rubber operations in 2001. As a result of a decline in the natural rubber market in the second half of 2001, the Company sold all of its rubber inventories in late 2001, and a loss was recorded.

The timber processing factory had been operated from early 2000 through October 2000 at one third of its

Edgar Filing: CHINA RESOURCES DEVELOPMENT INC - Form 10-K

Due to the high cost of production, as a result of limited sources of supply of raw materials, and the poor market condition, the Company decided to formally cease processed timber operations in 2001. The sale of processed timber had a gross loss of Rmb503,000 (US$61,000) or 36.1% on sales for the year ended December 31, 2000.

The decrease was mainly due to a reduction of salary and rental expenses in HARC resulting from the relocation to a smaller office in mid-2001 and the reduction of headcounts.

Net financial income decreased from Rmb7.9 million (US$951,000) in 2000 to Rmb1.3 million (US$157,000) in 2001. The significant decrease was mainly attributable to interest income earned of Rmb11 million (US$1.3 million) in 2000 from a short term loan granted to an unaffiliated third party. The interest income was partly offset by a realized currency exchange loss amounted to Rmb3.8 million (US$459,000), arising from the conversion of Renminbi to Hong Kong dollars. The decrease in interest income earned in 2001 was mainly due to the decrease in cash and cash equivalents.

Income taxes consist of PRC federal income tax computed at 15% on assessable income for foreign investment enterprises operating in Hainan.

SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Our financial statements reflect the selection and application of accounting policies which require management to make significant estimates and assumptions. We believe that the following are some of the more significant judgment areas in the application of our accounting policies that currently affect our financial condition and results of operations.

IMPAIRMENT OF INTANGIBLE ASSETS

Whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying values of our intangible assets may be impaired, management performs an analysis to determine the recoverability of the asset's carrying value. Intangible assets consisted of acquired website technology which was amortized on the straight-line basis over two years. Management's analysis indicated that the carrying value of the acquired website technology was not recoverable from future cash flows. The Company therefore wrote off the balance of unamortized acquired website technology of Rmb2,936,000 (US$355,000) as of December 31, 2001 to the statement of operations.

DEFERRED TAX ASSETS

The Company is required to assess the ultimate realization of deferred tax assets generated from net operating loss carryforwards. This assessment takes into consideration of the availability and character of future taxable income. As management estimates that there will be no taxable income generated for the foreseeable future, no deferred tax assets are recognized in the financial statements.

REVENUE RECOGNITION

Revenue from product sales is recognized at the point of sale for retail sales and upon the delivery of goods for other sales, when all performance obligations have been completed and is reasonably assured collectibility. Rental income is recognized on the straight-line basis over the lease terms. Dividend income is recognized upon the establishment of the right to receive such payment.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

The Company's and its subsidiaries' primary liquidity needs are to fund inventories and operating expenses, and to expand business operations. The Company has financed its working capital requirements through internally generated cash and advances from a former vice president.

Net cash provided by/(used in) operating activities was (Rmb42 million) (US$5.1 million), Rmb2.6 million (US$314,000) and Rmb12 million (US$1.4 million) in fiscal 1999, 2000 and 2001, respectively. Net cash flows from the Company's operating activities are attributable to the Company's income and changes in operating assets and liabilities, Net cash provided by operating activities in 2001 included approximately Rmb57 million (US$6.9 million) of cash proceeds from the disposal of marketable securities.

The Company had a working capital surplus of approximately Rmb18 million (US$2.2 million) as of December 31, 2001, compared to that of approximately of Rmb79 million (US$9.6 million) as of December 31, 2000. The decrease was mainly attributable to the Company paying approximately Rmb36 million (US$4.3 million) cash and foregoing approximately Rmb14 million (US$1.7 million) in receivables due from the Farming Bureau as partial consideration for the minority interest of HARC. Net cash used in investing activities in 2001 mainly attributable to the consideration paid for the minority interest of HARC as stated above and Rmb22 million (US$2.6 million) loans advanced to third parties, of which Rmb6 million (US$725,000) was repaid before December 31, 2001.

Except as disclosed above, there have been no significant change in the financial condition and liquidity during the year. The Company believes that internally generated funds will be sufficient to satisfy its anticipated working capital needs for at least the next 12 months.

FACTORS RELATING TO FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Factors that could cause our actual results of operations to differ materially from those contained in forward looking statements include the following:

RISKS ASSOCIATED WITH FOREIGN OPERATIONS

- o Our principal subsidiaries operate in the People's Republic of China, and are, by law, subject to administrative review by various national, provincial and local agencies of the Chinese government - governmental oversight and/or changes to existing rules and regulations could adversely affect our results of operations.
- o The Company's operations and financial results could be adversely affected by economic conditions and changes in the policies of the PRC government, such as changes in laws and regulations (or the interpretation thereof), including measures which may be introduced to regulate or stimulate the rate of economic growth. The rate of deflation of the PRC economy, based on published consumer price information, was 2.6 percent for 1998, 3.0 percent for 1999 and 0.4 percent for 2000. The PRC government has taken certain measures to stimulate domestic demand and consumption. There can be no assurance that these measures will be successful.
- o All of the Company's sales and purchases are made domestically and are denominated in Renminbi. Accordingly, the Company and its subsidiaries do not have material market risk with respect to currency fluctuation. As the reporting currency of the Company's consolidated financial statements is also Renminbi, there is no significant translation difference arising on consolidation. However, the Company may suffer exchange loss when it converts Renminbi to other currencies, such as Hong Kong dollars or United States dollars.
- o The Company's interest income is sensitive to changes in the general level of Renminbi and Hong Kong dollars interest rates. In this regard, changes in interest rates affect the interest earned on the Company's cash equivalents. As of December 31, 2001, the Company's cash equivalents are mainly Renminbi and Hong Kong Dollar deposits with financial institutions, bearing market interest rates without fixed term.
- o While we are a Nevada corporation, our officers and directors are non-residents of the United States, our assets are located in the PRC and our operations are conducted in the PRC; therefore, it may not be possible to effect service of process on such persons in the United States, and it may be difficult to enforce any judgments rendered against us or such persons.

GENERAL RISKS OF OPERATIONS

- o We have discontinued many of our operations and we are currently dependent upon the success of one line of business - our supermarket operations; while our supermarket operations generate operating revenues, those revenues are not sufficient to offset expenses, resulting in continued losses from operations.
- o Unless we are able to reduce expenses, increase our profit margins and/or acquire profitable operations, we will likely continue to incur losses and investors in our shares may be unable to recoup their investment.
- o We intend to investigate and evaluate potential acquisition candidates; however, we may be unable to acquire business operations that prove to be profitable; we will continue to incur administrative and professional expenses in connection with our evaluation and acquisition of business operations, without corresponding revenues from those operations prior to acquisition.
- o As of December 31, 2001, the Company had short-term investments in marketable securities in the Hong Kong stock market and Nasdaq market with a total market value of Rmb5.7 million (US$694,000). These investments expose the Company to market risks that may cause the future value of these investments to be lower than the original cost of such investments at the time of purchase.
- o The market for our common stock is not active and the limited trading volume in our shares could result in substantial market volatility in the price for our shares.
- o Our supermarket operations face competition from larger, more capitalized companies than ours and we may be unable to compete successfully.

-19-

- o We do not intend to pay dividends for the foreseeable future - we intend to reinvest earnings from operations, if any, back into our operations.

QUARTERLY RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

STOCK OPTIONS

The Company adopted a Stock Option Plan (the "Plan") as of March 31, 1995. The Plan allows the Board of Directors, or a committee thereof at the Board's discretion, to grant stock options to officers, directors, key employees, consultants and affiliates of the Company. Initially, 24,000 shares of common stock could be issued and sold pursuant to options granted under the Plan. "Incentive Stock Options" within the meaning of Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), may be granted to employees, including officers, whether or not they are members of the Board of Directors, and nonqualified stock options may be granted to any such employee or officer and to directors, consultants, and affiliates who perform substantial services for or on behalf of the Company or its subsidiaries.

The Board of Directors, or a committee appointed by the Board (the "Committee"), is vested with authority to (i) select persons to participate in the Plan; (ii) determine the form and substance of grants made under the Plan to each participant, and the conditions and restrictions, if any, subject to which grants will be made; (iii) interpret the Plan; and (iv) adopt, amend, or rescind such rules and regulations for carrying out the Plan as it may deem appropriate. The Board of Directors has the power to modify or terminate the Plan and from time to time may suspend, and if suspended may reinstate, any or all of the provisions of the Plan except that (i) no modification, suspension, or termination of the Plan may, without the consent of the grantee affected, alter or impair any grant previously made under the Plan; and (ii) no modification shall become effective without prior consent of the shareholders of the Company that would (a) increase the maximum number of shares reserved for issuance under the Plan, except for certain adjustments allowed by the Plan; or (b) change the classes of employees eligible to participate in the Plan.

The Plan provides that the price per share deliverable upon the exercise of each Incentive Stock Option shall not be less than 100% of the fair market value of the shares on the date the option is granted, as the Committee determines. In the case of the grant of any Incentive Stock Option to an

The price per share deliverable upon the exercise of each nonqualified stock option shall not be less than 80% of the fair market value of the shares on the date the option is granted, as the Committee determines.

Options may be exercised in whole or in part upon payment of the exercise price of the shares to be acquired. Payment shall be made in cash or, in the discretion of the Committee, in shares previously acquired by the participant or in a combination of cash and shares of Common Stock. The fair market value of shares of Common Stock tendered on exercise of options shall be determined on the date of exercise.

As of July 1, 1995, pursuant to the recommendation of a committee of disinterested persons appointed by the board of directors in accordance with the terms of the Plan, the board of directors granted options to certain officers, directors, employees and consultant to purchase 24,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock: All of the stock options were issued in accordance with the terms of the Plan at an exercise price of US$378 (the fair market value of the Common Stock as of July 1, 1995) and would have been exercisable beginning on July 1, 1996, and until July 1, 2005.

CHINA RESOURCES DEVELOPMENT, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Edgar Filing: CHINA RESOURCES DEVELOPMENT INC - Form 10-K

(Amounts in thousands, except share and per share data)

1. ORGANIZATION AND PRINCIPAL ACTIVITIES

China Resources Development, Inc. (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (collectively the "Group") were principally engaged in the distribution of natural rubber, procurement of materials and supplies and the distribution of other agricultural products in the People's Republic of China (the "PRC") through December 31, 1999.

Pursuant to a business restructuring as detailed in note 3 to the consolidated financial statements, the Group discontinued all the above operations effective on January 1, 2000. In the fourth quarter of 1999, the Group established several new lines of business, including the operation of a supermarket and processed timber operations in the PRC. In addition, as described in note 4, during 2000, the Group acquired an 80% interest in an entity which provides health care information through an Internet website.

Notwithstanding the cessation of natural rubber operations in early 2000, the Group was engaged in trading of natural rubber occasionally during 2001, depending on market conditions. Pursuant to the business acquisitions and disposition of assets as detailed in note 4 to the consolidated financial statements, the Group discontinued the timber processing operations effective on April 30, 2001. The Group continues to consider other new investment opportunities.

Information on the Group's operations by segment are included in note 28 to the consolidated financial statements.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Principles of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("US GAAP") and include the accounts of the Company and its subsidiaries. Significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated on consolidation.

(b) Use of estimates

The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in conformity with US GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(c) Cash and cash equivalents

The Group considers all highly liquid investments and cash deposits with financial institutions with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

At December 31, 2000 and 2001, cash and cash equivalents included foreign currency deposits equivalent to RMB5,872 (US$223 and HK$3,799) and RMB5,418 (US$65 and HK$4,601), respectively.

(Amounts in thousands, except share and per share data)

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

(d) Marketable securities

 Equity securities that are bought and held principally for the purpose of selling them in near term are classified as trading securities and reported at fair value, with unrealized gains and losses included in current operations.

(e) Inventories

 Inventories are primarily comprised of finished goods and are stated at the lower of cost or market. Cost is determined using the first-in, first-out method.

(f) Property and equipment

 Property and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Expenditures for routine repairs and maintenance are expensed as incurred.

Depreciation is calculated on the straight-line basis to write-off the cost less estimated residual value of each asset over its estimated useful life. Estimated useful lives used for this purpose are as follows:

Buildings
Leasehold improvements	Over the terms of
Machinery, equipment and motor vehicles	10 -
Fixtures and furnitures	10 -

(g) Investments

 Investments in companies that are 20% to 50% owned, and over which the Group is in a position to exercise significant influence but does not control the financial and operating decisions, are accounted for by the equity method.

All other equity investments, not being a subsidiary and which do not have a readily determinable fair value, are accounted for by the cost method, unless there has been an other-than-temporary impairment in value, in which event they are written-down to their net realizable value.

(h) Intangible assets

 Intangible assets consist of acquired website technology which are amortized on the straight-line basis over two years.

Edgar Filing: CHINA RESOURCES DEVELOPMENT INC - Form 10-K

Intangible assets are periodically reviewed for impairment based on an assessment of future operations. Accumulated amortization was RMB2,841 and RMB9,469 at December 31, 2000 and 2001, respectively.

(i) Retirement benefits

The contributions to the retirement plans of employees under defined contribution retirement plans are charged to earnings as services are provided.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

(j) Stock-based compensation

The Group has elected to follow Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees" ("APB 25"), and related interpretations in accounting for its employee stock options, because the Group believes the alternative fair value accounting provided for under Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation" ("SFAS 123"), requires the use of option valuation models that were not developed for use in valuing employee stock options. Under APB 25, because the exercise price of the Group's employee stock options equals the market price of the underlying stock on the date of grant, no compensation expense is recognized. For disclosure purposes, pro forma information in accordance with SFAS 123 has been included in note 16.

In accordance with SFAS 123, except for transactions with employees that are within the scope of APB 25, all transactions in which services are received and the consideration given is the issuance of equity instruments are accounted for based on the fair value of the consideration received or the fair value of the equity instruments issued. The cost of such services is charged to the consolidated statement of operations over the respective service period.

(k) Revenue recognition

Revenue from product sales is recognized at the point of sale for retail sales and upon the delivery of goods for other sales, when all performance obligations have been completed and is reasonably assured of collectibility. Rental income is recognized on the straight-line basis over the lease terms. Dividend income is recognized upon the establishment of the right to receive such payment.

(l) Income taxes

The Group uses the asset and liability method of accounting for income taxes. Under the asset and liability method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the estimated future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. This method also requires the recognition of future tax benefits such as net operating loss carry forwards, to the extent that realization of such benefits is more likely than not. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled.

(m) Loss per share

Basic and diluted loss per share are calculated in accordance with SFAS 128, "Earnings per Share".

(n) Advertising costs

All advertising costs are charged to the profit and loss account as incurred.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

(o) Foreign currency translation

The functional currency of substantially all the operations of the Group is Renminbi ("RMB"), the national currency of the PRC. The financial statements of subsidiary operations with functional currency other than RMB have been translated into RMB in accordance with SFAS 52, "Foreign Currency Translation". All balance sheet accounts have been translated using the exchange rates in effect at the balance sheet date. Statements of operations amounts have been translated using the weighted average exchange rate for the year. Translation gains and losses are included as a component of stockholders' equity.

Transactions denominated in currencies other than RMB are translated into RMB at the applicable rates of exchange prevailing at that date. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in other currencies at the balance sheet date are translated into RMB at the applicable rates of exchange at the balance sheet dates. The resulting exchange gains or losses are credited or charged to the consolidated statements of operations.

The financial statements are stated in Renminbi. The translation of amounts from RMB into US$ is included solely for the convenience of the reader and has been made at the rate of exchange quoted by the People's Bank of China on December 31, 2001 of US$1.00 = RMB8.28, and accordingly, differs from the underlying foreign currency amounts. No representation is made that the RMB amounts could have been, or could be, converted into US$ at that rate on December 31, 2001 or at any other date.

(p) Reverse stock split

On May 28, 1999, the Company's shareholders approved a ten-to-one reverse split of the Company's common stock (the "Reverse Stock Split"). With the par value unchanged at US$0.001 per share, the Reverse Stock Split was effected by a transfer to the additional paid-in capital account. All references in the consolidated financial statements referring to share, stock option and per share amounts of the common stock of the Company have been adjusted retroactively for the Reverse Stock Split.

(q) Written call

Premiums on options written by the Group are recorded as liabilities and the option is adjusted to the current fair value at the balance sheet date. Premiums received from writing options that are treated by the Group on the expiration date as realized gains from investments. The difference between the premiums and the amount paid on effecting a closing purchase transaction, is also treated as a realized gain, or, if the premium is less than the amount paid for the closing purchase transaction, as a realized loss. The Group as writer of options bears the market risk of an unfavorable change in the price of the security underlying the written option.

(r) Reclassifications

Certain amounts in prior years have been reclassified to conform to the current year presentation.

3. DISCONTINUED OPERATION AND BUSINESS RESTRUCTURING

In the fourth quarter of 1999, the Group initiated a plan to restructure its business in Hainan, the PRC. On March 3, 2000, the board of directors of the Company approved a business restructuring involving Hainan Zhongwei Agricultural Resources Company Limited ("HARC"), a 61%-owned subsidiary of the Company, and certain subsidiaries of HARC (the "Restructuring"). The Restructuring resulted in the discontinuation of substantially all of the then existing operations of the Group as of December 31, 1999, including its two principal lines of business, the distribution of natural rubber and the procurement of materials, supplies and other agricultural products (collectively the "Operating Subsidiaries").

On March 3, 2000, HARC and certain of its subsidiaries (the "HARC Subsidiaries") entered into an Assets and Staff Transfer Agreement with the Hainan Farming Bureau (the "Farming Bureau"), a division of the Ministry of Agricultural of the PRC and a 39% minority shareholder of HARC, pursuant to which the HARC Subsidiaries would transfer all the assets, liabilities and staff related to the Rubber and Procurement Operations to the Farming Bureau, effective from January 1, 2000 (the "Transfer"). The consideration for the net assets transferred was determined based on the lower of their net book value or their fair value, as determined by an independent professional valuer, as of December 31, 1999. Based on the valuation, there were no material differences between the fair value and the net book value (as determined under US GAAP) of those assets and liabilities as of December 31, 1999, and, therefore, no gain or loss was recognized upon the Transfer.

4. BUSINESS ACQUISITIONS AND DISPOSITION OF ASSETS

On June 30, 2000 the Group entered into an acquisition agreement ("Acquisition") to acquire an 80% equity interest in Silver Moon Technologies Limited ("Silver Moon"), a British Virgin Islands corporation which was incorporated on March 24, 2000, for a consideration of US$1,500 (RMB12,420) by issuing 244,897 shares of the Company's unregistered restricted common stock of US$0.001 par value to Silver Moon's former sole equity owner, E-link Investment Limited ("E-link"). The principal activities of Silver Moon and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Zhongwei Medi-China.com Limited (formerly known as Sky Creation Technology Limited), a Hong Kong company, is providing healthcare content on the Internet which focuses on Chinese herbal medicine and therapies.

The transaction was accounted for as a purchase; the cost of the acquisition exceeds the fair value of the net assets acquired by RMB12,405 which was classified as acquired website technology and was being amortized over two years. In the fourth quarter of 2001, management determined that the website's functionality was inadequate for the Company's intended purpose in view of the fact that no revenue was generated during 2001 from the site and none is anticipated in the foreseeable future. Consequently, an impairment charge was recorded for the entire unamortized balance in the amount of RMB2,936.

Silver Moon did not report any revenue through the date of acquisition by the Group. Pro forma net loss and net loss per share for the year ended December 31, 2000, assuming the acquisition had been consummated as of January 1, 2000, are RMB30,286 and RMB36.15, respectively.

During 2001, the Group recognized a loss of RMB 16,001 on the exchange of: (i) cash of RMB36,000; (ii) its 13% equity interest in Xilian Timber Mill; (iii) its 58% equity interest in Hainan Weilin Timber Limited Liability Company ("Hainan Weilin"); and (iv) HARC's 5.3% interest in Hainan Sundiro Motorcycle Co. Ltd. for the Farming Bureau's 39% equity interest in HARC, computed based on the carrying value of assets exchanged. The results of operations and losses previously allocated to the minority shareholder of HARC have been included from the date of the exchange. In addition, as a result of this transaction, the Group ceased timber processing operations.

No undistributed earnings of the Group's foreign subsidiaries were available at December 31, 2000 and 2001. Upon distribution of those earnings in the form of dividends or otherwise, the Group would be subject to U.S. income taxes. Determination of the amount of unrecognized deferred U.S. income tax liability is not practicable because of the complexities associated with its hypothetical calculation.

Edgar Filing: CHINA RESOURCES DEVELOPMENT INC - Form 10-K

At December 31, 2001, the Group had net operating loss carry forwards ("NOLs") of approximately RMB22 million for U.S. income tax purposes that expire in various years through 2021. At December 31, 2001, the Group's subsidiaries in the PRC had NOLs amounting to approximately RMB3 million for PRC income tax purposes that expire in 2006.

During the year ended December 31, 2000, the balance of the deposit was fully withdrawn and the actual return exceeded the guaranteed return by RMB12,253, which was fully repaid in 2001.

16. STOCK OPTIONS

The Group adopted a stock option plan (the "Plan") as of March 31, 1995. The Plan allows the Board of Directors, or a committee thereof at the Board's discretion, to grant stock options to officers, directors, key employees, consultants and affiliates of the Group. Initially, 24,000 shares of common stock of the Group, after adjusting for the Reverse Stock Split in 1999, were permitted to be issued and sold pursuant to options granted under the Plan. All of the stock options were issued in accordance with the terms of the Plan on July 1, 1995 to certain officers, directors, employees and consultants of the Group at an exercise price of US$37.8 (RMB314.5) per share (the fair market value of the common stock as of July 1, 1995) and are exercisable from July 1, 1996 to July 1, 2005. On May 20, 1996, pursuant to a "Unanimous Written Consent" of the committee appointed pursuant to the Plan and a resolution of a special meeting of the Board of Directors of the Group, the exercise price was changed to US$42.0 (RMB348.6) per share (the fair market value of the common stock as of May 20, 1996), after adjusting for the Reverse Stock Split in 1999 and 1996. By virtue of that action, the outstanding options were then exercisable beginning on May 20, 1997 until May 20, 2006.

On December 30, 1996, the Plan was amended to increase the number of shares of common stock issuable under the Plan to 20% of the Group's outstanding common stock, as determined at the time of granting of the stock options. Such shares may represent authorized but unissued shares as well as repurchased or forfeited shares for any grant under the Plan that was expired or unexercised. Further amendments were made to give the Board of Directors the ability to set a holding period of less than one year for non-qualified stock options.

Pursuant to a special resolution of the Board of Directors on June 15, 2001, all stock options outstanding as of June 15, 2001 were canceled and 163,000 new stock options were granted to officers, directors and key employees of the Group at an exercise price of US$2.95 (RMB24.4) per share (the fair market value of the common stock as of June 15, 2001). The options are exercisable from December 15, 2001 to June 14, 2004.

Pro forma information regarding net income and earnings per share is required by SFAS 123, and has been determined as if the Group had accounted for its stock options under the fair value method of that statement. The fair value for these options was estimated at the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option pricing model with the following weighted average assumptions for 1995, 1996 and 2001, respectively: risk-free interest rates of 6.50%, 6.78% and 4%; no dividend yield; volatility factors of the expected market price of the Company's common stock of 141.38%, 42.13% and 129.6%; and a weighted average expected life of the options of 6 years, 6 years and 3 years, respectively.

The Black-Scholes option pricing model was developed for use in estimating the fair value of traded options which have no vesting restrictions and are fully transferable. In addition, option valuation models require the input of highly subjective assumptions including the expected stock price volatility. Because the Company's stock options have characteristics significantly different from those of traded options, and because changes in the subjective input assumptions can materially affect the fair value estimate, in the management's opinion, the existing models do not necessarily provide a reliable single measure of the fair value of its stock options.

20. CONCENTRATION OF RISK

Concentration of credit risk:

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Group to significant concentration of credit risk consist principally of cash deposits, short term loans receivable, amounts due from the Farming Bureau and related companies and cost method investments.

(i) Cash and cash deposits

The Group maintains its cash and cash deposits primarily with various PRC government authorized financial institutions. The Group performs periodic evaluations of the relative credit standing of those financial institutions that are considered in the Group's investment strategy.

(ii) Short term loans receivable

One of the loans of RMB8,487 is secured by a corporate guarantee granted by the holding company of the debtor, which is a company listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange. The Group carefully assesses the recoverability of other loans not guaranteed or secured by collateral.

20. CONCENTRATION OF RISK (continued)

(iii) Amounts due from the Farming Bureau and related companies

The Farming Bureau has guaranteed the recoverability of a substantial portion of the amounts due from related companies, all of which are State-owned entities controlled by the Farming Bureau. The Group carefully assesses the recoverability of those balances not guaranteed by the Farming Bureau and generally does not require collateral. There were no receivables from the Farming Bureau at December 31, 2001.

(iv) Cost method investments

The Group's cost method investments consist of interests in unlisted shares/equity of PRC companies in which the Group does not have a significant influence over their operating and financial policies.

21. FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The following methods and assumptions were used by the Group in estimating its fair value disclosures for financial instruments:

(i) Cash and cash equivalents

The carrying amount reported in the consolidated balance sheets for cash and cash equivalents approximate their fair value.

(ii) Marketable securities

The carrying amount reported in the consolidated balance sheets for marketable securities represents their fair values. The fair values for marketable securities are based on quoted market prices.

(iii) Short term loans receivable, accounts payable, other payables and margin loan

The carrying amounts reported in the balance sheet for short term loans receivable, accounts payable, other payables and margin loan approximate their fair values.

(iv) Amounts due from/to the Farming Bureau and related companies

The fair values of amounts due from/to the related companies cannot be determined due to their related party nature of those balances.

Edgar Filing: CHINA RESOURCES DEVELOPMENT INC - Form 10-K

(v) Cost method investments

The Group believes that the carrying amounts represents the Group's best estimate of current economic values of these investments.

24. COMMITMENTS (continued)

(b) Machinery

Pursuant to a purchase agreement dated July 10, 1999, the Group was obligated to purchase machinery totaling RMB2,600. A deposit of RMB1,560 was paid.

In January 2001, the purchase agreement was canceled and the related deposit was repaid in the form of 49% of interest in a subsidiary of the Group having a fair value of RMB901 and cash of RMB712.

25. FOREIGN CURRENCY EXCHANGE

The RMB is not freely convertible into foreign currencies.

Effective from January 1, 1994, a single rate of exchange is quoted daily by the People's Bank of China (the "Unified Exchange Rate"). However, the unification of the exchange rates does not imply convertibility of RMB into US$ or other foreign currencies. All foreign exchange transactions continue to take place either through the Bank of China or other banks authorized to buy and sell foreign currencies at the exchange rates quoted by the People's Bank of China.

26. RETIREMENT BENEFITS

As stipulated by the PRC regulations, the Operating Subsidiaries participated in a defined contribution retirement plan (the "Retirement Plan") administered by a State-owned insurance company controlled by the Farming Bureau. The Operating Subsidiaries were required to make contributions to the Retirement Plan at a rate of 21% of the aggregate of basic salaries, allowances and bonuses of its existing staff. All staff of the Operating Subsidiaries were covered under the Retirement Plan and upon retirement, the retired staff are entitled to a monthly pension payment borne by the above-mentioned insurance company under the Retirement Plan. The Operating Subsidiaries were not responsible for any payment beyond the contributions to the Retirement Plan as noted above.

The amount of contributions paid by the Group on behalf of the Operating Subsidiaries, which were charged to the consolidated statements of operations, amounted to RMB262 for the year ended December 31, 1999. 28. SEGMENT FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The Group was principally engaged in the distribution of natural rubber, the procurement of materials and supplies, and the distribution of other agricultural products in the PRC for the year 1999 presented in the consolidated financial statements.

Description of products by segment

 In 1999, the Group had two reportable segments: (i) rubber and (ii) materials, supplies and other agricultural products. As more fully described in note 3, effective January 1, 2000, the Group disposed of these operations. The reportable segments in 2000 were supermarket operations and processed timber. Accordingly, the segment results in 1999 were restated. The Group's materials, supplies and other agricultural products division primarily sold materials, supplies and other agricultural products to farms, manufacturers and other distributors in the PRC. The Group's supermarket division primarily sold foods and grocery products to customers in the PRC. And the Group's timber division primarily sold processed timber wooden blocks to manufacturers and other distributors in the PRC. As more fully described in note 4, effective April 30, 2001, the Group disposed of its timber processing operations.

Measurement of segment profit or loss and segment assets

The Group evaluates performance and allocates resources based on profit or loss from operations before interest, gains and losses on the Group's investment portfolio, and income taxes. The accounting policies of the reportable segments are the same as those described in the summary of significant accounting policies. Intersegment sales and transfers between reportable segments are not material to any period presented.

Factors management used to identify the Group's reportable segments

The Group's reportable segments are business units that offer different products. The reportable segments are each managed separately because they distribute distinct products.
