Bankruptcy Code by Torch Offshore, Inc. (the "Company") and certain of its wholly owned subsidiaries affiliates (the "Bankruptcy Filing"), the Company is in default under a credit agreement with Regions Bank and Export Development Canada (the "Lenders") to finance the conversion of the Midnight Express (the "Finance Facility"). As a result of this default, the obligations of the Lenders have terminated and all borrowings by the Company and its subsidiaries, together with accrued interest, are immediately due and payable in the amount of approximately $79.0 million.

The ability of the Lenders to seek remedies to enforce their rights under this agreement are stayed as a result of the Bankruptcy Filing and the Lenders' rights of enforcement are subject to the applicable provisions of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code.

Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

The Company received notification from The NASDAQ Stock Market ("NASDAQ") that the Company's common stock will be delisted from the NASDAQ National Market, in accordance with Marketplace Rules 4300 and 4450(f). The Company expects to make a request for a hearing with the NASDAQ Listing Qualifications Panel on this matter that will stay the delisting pending the hearing and a determination by the NASDAQ Listing Qualifications Panel. There can be no assurance that the NASDAQ Listing Qualifications Panel will grant the Company's request for continued listing.

In addition, as a result of the Bankruptcy Filing, the fifth character "Q" has been added to the Company's trading symbol effective as of January 12, 2005. The Company's trading symbol is now TORCQ.

A copy of the press release, dated January 12, 2005, announcing the notification of delisting from NASDAQ is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Torch Offshore Receives Delisting Notification from NASDAQ

New Orleans, Louisiana USA, January 12, 2005

Torch Offshore, Inc. (NASDAQ: TORC) (the "Company") announced today that it has received notice from the staff of The NASDAQ Stock Market ("NASDAQ") that the Company's common stock will be delisted from the NASDAQ National Market, in accordance with Marketplace Rules 4300 and 4450(f). The Company has the right and expects to appeal NASDAQ's determination to a NASDAQ Listing Qualifications Panel. NASDAQ will notify the Company when a hearing on the Company's appeal will be held. According to NASDAQ's rules, the delisting process will be stayed until the NASDAQ Listing Qualifications Panel makes a decision on the Company's appeal. The Company cannot predict the outcome of such appeal.

In addition, as a result of the Company's previously announced filing for reorganization under Chapter 11 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code on January 7, 2005, the fifth character "Q" has been added to the Company's trading symbol effective as of January 12, 2005. The Company's trading symbol is now TORCQ.

Established in 1978, Torch Offshore, Inc. is involved in offshore pipeline installation and subsea construction for the oil and natural gas industry. Torch Offshore, Inc. is expanding beyond its established shallow water niche market in order to serve the industry's worldwide growing needs in the deep waters.

Any statements made in this news release, other than those of historical fact, about an action, event or development, which the Company hopes, expects, believes or anticipates may or will occur in the future, are forward-looking statements under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. The forward-looking statements in this news release include statements about the Company's appeal for a hearing to the NASDAQ Listing Qualifications Panel and the delisting of the Company's stock from the NASDAQ.
