Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On February 24, 2012, EP Energy Corporation, EP Energy Holding Company and El Paso Brazil, L.L.C. (collectively, the “Sellers”), each a direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of El Paso Corporation (“El Paso”), entered into a Purchase and Sale Agreement (the “Purchase and Sale Agreement”) with EPE Acquisition, LLC, a limited liability company affiliated with Apollo Global Management. L.L.C., Riverstone Holdings LLC, Access Industries, Inc. and other investors (collectively, the “Purchaser”), to sell all of El Paso’s exploration and production assets through the sale of the equity interests (the “EP Energy Sale”) of EP Energy, LLC, El Paso E&P S. Alamein Cayman Company, UnoPaso Exploracao e Producao de Petroleo e Gas Ltda., El Paso Oleo e Gas do Brasil Ltda. and El Paso Brazil Holdings Company (collectively, the “Companies”).

Under the terms of the Purchase and Sale Agreement, the Purchaser shall pay Sellers approximately $7.15 billion payable in cash or other immediately available funds, subject to adjustments for certain items such as cash contributions or distributions, incurrence of indebtedness and title defects. The sale of El Paso’s exploration and production assets is contemplated by the Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Kinder Morgan Merger Agreement”), dated as of October 16, 2011, by and among El Paso and Kinder Morgan, Inc. (“Kinder Morgan”) and certain of their respective subsidiaries. The closing of the EP Energy Sale is conditioned upon the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Kinder Morgan Merger Agreement. Both transactions are expected to be completed in the second quarter of 2012.

The Purchase and Sale Agreement contains customary representations, warranties, covenants and indemnifications relating to the assets and operations of the Companies and the Sellers’ ownership thereof. Consummation of the EP Energy Sale is subject to customary closing conditions, including clearance under the antitrust laws of the United States. There can be no assurance that these closing conditions will be satisfied. The Purchase and Sale Agreement also provides under certain circumstances for the payment of a termination fee by Kinder Morgan of $400 million. Pursuant to the Kinder Morgan Merger Agreement, Kinder Morgan is required to indemnify El Paso and its subsidiaries from any and all costs incurred by El Paso or its subsidiaries arising from or relating to the EP Energy Sale.

El Paso has entered into a guarantee in favor of the Purchaser whereby El Paso absolutely, irrevocably and unconditionally guarantees to the Purchaser the full payment and performance of the Sellers’ obligations under the Purchase and Sale Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Item 8.01. Other Events

On February 24, 2012, Kinder Morgan issued a press release announcing the EP Energy Sale. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated by reference into this Item 8.01.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits.

A more complete description is available in the Registration Statement and the Information Statement/Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

SAFE HARBOR FOR FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Statements in this document regarding the proposed transaction between Kinder Morgan and El Paso, the expected timetable for completing the proposed transactions, future financial and operating results, benefits and synergies of the proposed transactions, future opportunities for the combined company, the expected timetable for completing the sale of El Paso's exploration and production assets, the possible drop-down of assets and any other statements about Kinder Morgan or El Paso managements' future expectations, beliefs, goals, plans or prospects constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Any statements that are not statements of historical fact (including statements containing the words “believes,” “plans,” “anticipates,” “expects,” “estimates” and similar expressions) should also be considered to be forward looking statements. There are a number of important factors that could cause actual results or events to differ materially from those indicated by such forward looking statements, including: the ability to consummate the EP Energy Sale and the proposed transaction contemplated by the Kinder Morgan Merger Agreement; the ability to obtain the requisite regulatory, shareholder approvals and the satisfaction of other conditions to consummation of the transaction; the possibility that financing might not be available on the terms agreed to; the ability to consummate contemplated asset sales; the ability of Kinder Morgan to successfully integrate El Paso’s operations and employees; the ability to realize anticipated synergies and cost savings; the potential impact of announcement of the transaction or consummation of the transaction on relationships, including with employees, suppliers, customers and competitors; the ability to achieve revenue growth; national, international, regional and local economic, competitive and regulatory conditions and developments; technological developments; capital and credit markets conditions; inflation rates; interest rates; the political and economic stability of oil producing nations; energy markets, including changes in the price of certain commodities; weather conditions; environmental conditions; business and regulatory or legal decisions; the pace of deregulation of retail natural gas and electricity and certain agricultural products; the timing and success of business development efforts; terrorism; and the other factors described in Kinder Morgan’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2011 and El Paso’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2010, and El Paso’s most recent quarterly report filed with the SEC. Kinder Morgan and El Paso disclaim any intention or obligation to update any forward-looking statements as a result of developments occurring after the date of this document.
