_____, 2004

Dear Shareholder:

You are invited to attend a special meeting of the shareholders of ParkerVision, Inc. ("ParkerVision") to be held at the Marriott Hotel, 1501 International Parkway, Lake Mary, Florida on , 2004 at a.m., local time, to consider and vote upon a proposal to sell substantially all of the assets and business of our video products division, including our PVTV and CameraMan related assets and business (the "Video Division") for $12.5 million in cash, subject to adjustment. The board of directors of ParkerVision has approved this sale.

At this meeting, you will be asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to approve and adopt an Asset Purchase Agreement, dated as of February 25, 2004, by and among ParkerVision, as seller, and each of Thomson Broadcast & Media Solutions, Inc. ("TBM"), and Thomson Licensing, S.A. ("TL" and, together with TBM, "Purchasers"), as purchasers. Each of TBM and TL are affiliates of Thomson S.A., a leading global provider of integrated technology and service solutions for entertainment and media companies through its Technicolor, Grass Valley, Thomson and RCA brands ("Thomson"). The Asset Purchase Agreement is attached to the Proxy Statement enclosed herewith as Appendix A.

The sale of the Video Division will enable us to focus all of our resources and efforts on our wireless division (the "Wireless Division") and will provide us with working capital for the development of our wireless business and products. We believe that our Wireless Division's proprietary technologies embody industry advances that can be significantly commercialized in the near term and that our Wireless Division now provides far greater growth potential for ParkerVision than the Video Division.

Wells Fargo Securities, LLC, an investment banking firm retained by our board of directors, has opined that the consideration to be received by us through the sale of the Video Division is fair to ParkerVision from a financial point of view. A copy of Wells Fargo Securities' opinion is attached to the Proxy Statement enclosed herewith as Appendix B.

AFTER CAREFUL CONSIDERATION, OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS HAS APPROVED THE SALE OF THE VIDEO DIVISION AND DETERMINED THAT IT IS FAIR AND IN THE BEST INTERESTS

Edgar Filing: PARKERVISION INC - Form PREM14A

OF PARKERVISION AND OUR SHAREHOLDERS. CONSEQUENTLY, THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT SHAREHOLDERS VOTE "FOR" THE SALE OF THE VIDEO DIVISION.

I, and certain other members of my family and affiliates of ParkerVision, have agreed to vote our shares in favor of the sale of the Video Division.

Because the Video Division historically has generated substantially all our revenues, the Video Division sale could be deemed a sale of substantially all of our assets under Florida corporate law and we are accordingly hereby seeking approval of our shareholders for the Video Division sale as a sale of all or substantially all of our assets. Our shareholders shall not be entitled to appraisal rights under Chapter 607, Florida Statutes, with respect to the Video Division sale.

Attached to this letter you will find a formal Notice of Special Meeting, a Proxy Statement, a proxy card and various attachments. Collectively, these documents more fully describe the Asset Purchase Agreement and the Video Division sale pursuant to such agreement. IN ORDER TO HELP US ACHIEVE OUR STRATEGIC GOALS THROUGH THE SALE OF THE VIDEO DIVISION, PLEASE COMPLETE AND RETURN THE PROXY WITH YOUR VOTE IN FAVOR OF THE VIDEO DIVISION SALE AS SOON AS POSSIBLE.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Parker
Chairman and Chief Executive Officer

YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT REGARDLESS OF THE NUMBER OF SHARES YOU OWN. TO VOTE YOUR SHARES, YOU MAY USE THE ENCLOSED PROXY CARD OR ATTEND THE SPECIAL MEETING IN PERSON. WHETHER OR NOT YOU PLAN TO ATTEND THE SPECIAL MEETING, YOU ARE URGED TO SIGN, DATE AND RETURN THE ENCLOSED PROXY IN THE ENVELOPE PROVIDED. THE EXECUTION OF YOUR PROXY WILL NOT AFFECT YOUR RIGHT TO VOTE IN PERSON IF YOU ARE PRESENT AT THE MEETING. FAILURE TO RETURN A PROPERLY EXECUTED PROXY CARD OR VOTE AT THE SPECIAL MEETING WILL HAVE THE SAME EFFECT AS A VOTE AGAINST THE APPROVAL OF THE ASSET PURCHASE AGREEMENT AND THE VIDEO DIVISION SALE.

NOTICE OF SPECIAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS
TO BE HELD [_____, 2004 _____]

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a special meeting of the shareholders of ParkerVision, Inc., will be held at the Marriott Hotel, 1501 International Parkway, Lake Mary, Florida on [_____, _____, 2004 at ____] a.m. local time, for the following purposes:

- o To consider and vote on a proposal to approve the Asset Purchase Agreement, dated as of February 25, 2004, by and among ParkerVision, as seller, and each of Thomson Broadcast & Media Solutions, Inc. ("TBM") and Thomson Licensing, S.A. ("TL" and, together with TBM, "Purchasers"), as purchasers, and the sale of our video products division ("Video Division") contemplated by the Asset Purchase Agreement (the "Video Division Sale"); and

- o To transact such other business as may properly come before the special meeting or any adjournments thereof.

Our transfer books will not be closed for the special meeting. Only shareholders of record at the close of business on _____, 2004 will be entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the meeting and any adjournments thereof. Our shareholders shall not be entitled to any appraisal rights in connection with the Video Division Sale under Chapter 607, Florida Statutes.

The above matters are more fully described in the accompanying Proxy Statement and you are urged to read it carefully. In particular, you should carefully consider the discussion entitled "Risk Factors" in the attached Proxy Statement. Historically, substantially all our revenues have been generated by our Video Division. Revenues generated by our Wireless Division have been nominal to date. Accordingly, the Video Division Sale could be deemed a sale of substantially all of the assets of ParkerVision.

Edgar Filing: PARKERVISION INC - Form PREM14A

SUMMARY OF TERMS OF ASSET AGREEMENT AND PROPOSED TRANSACTION

Asset Purchase Agreement and the Video Division Sale
(see pages 7 through 13 generally)

If the Asset Purchase Agreement is a shareholdings and the Video Division consummated, substantially all the assets of our Video Division will be sold to Purchasers. At closing, TBM will directly employ a majority of the employees who currently work in the Video Division.

Purchasers

TL will purchase the intellectual property and TBM will purchase the other assets of the Video Division. Each of the Purchasers is Thomson, a leading provider of technology solutions for integrated entertainment companies through its Technicolor, General Thomson and RCA brands.

Asset not being sold (see page 7)

The assets used in the current or proposed sale of our wireless division (the "Wireless Assets") relating to our general corporate operations, our real property and all cash shall be retained by us and shall not be sold in the Video Division Sale.

Retention of liabilities (see page 7)

Other than post-closing liabilities, outstanding contractual liabilities, and liabilities of our Video Division will be assumed by Purchasers and instead will be retained by us.

Purchase price (see page 8)

The purchase price for the assets of the Video Division will be $12.5 million, subject to adjustments provided in the Asset Purchase Agreement. TBM, an affiliate of Thomson, has no payment obligations of Purchasers under the Asset Purchase Agreement.

Holdback (see page 8)

In order to secure our indemnification obligations under the Asset Purchase Agreement, 10% of the purchase price shall be held back by Purchasers at closing and shall be paid to us, to the extent not compromised by our indemnification obligations, on the date of the closing.

Use of proceeds (see page 20)

All of the purchase price received by us shall be retained for use as working capital for the Wireless Division and general corporate operations.

Reasons for the Video Division Sale
(see page 16)

Our board of directors has determined that the long-term objective of maximizing shareholder value is best served by focusing our efforts on our Wireless Division. The Video Division Sale is integral to this strategy and is consistent with ParkerVision's significant capital raising efforts.

Closing conditions (see page 10)

The Asset Purchase Agreement contains certain conditions, including the approval of the Video Division Sale by our shareholders, the satisfaction of certain specific covenants and the receipt of certain consents.

The closing (see page 7)

The closing of the Video Division Sale will occur within five business days following the receipt of a written waiver of the conditions set forth in the Asset Purchase Agreement, unless the parties agree on a different date. We currently expect the closing to occur on or about July 5, 2004.

No-shop obligations (see page 9)

Prior to the closing, we may not solicit or accept offers from any third party for the purchase of the Video Division. If we receive an unsolicited offer to purchase the Video Division for cash or other consideration more favorable than the Video Division Sale, we are entitled to terminate the Asset Purchase Agreement. If we receive such an offer, we are obligated to so act pursuant to our fiduciary duties under Florida corporate law. We will notify you of any Superior Offer no later than 10 business days prior to termination of the Asset Purchase Agreement.

The Asset Purchase Agreement may be terminated in certain situations, including by the affirmative vote of the shareholders of ParkerVision Inc. If the Video Division Sale has not been closed prior to July 5, 2004 or the other party is in breach of the Asset Purchase Agreement, we elect to accept a Superior Offer, we may terminate the Asset Purchase Agreement and pay the termination fee described below.

Termination fees (see page 11)

If we terminate the Asset Purchase Agreement in connection with a Superior Offer to sell the Video Division to another party, fail to obtain the approval prior to July 5, 2004 or elect to accept the Asset Purchase Agreement because the Video Division Sale has not been closed prior to July 5, 2004, the Asset Purchase Agreement is terminated for the enumerated reasons, we must pay the termination fee of $1,000,000 in cash or shares (at our election).

If the Asset Purchase Agreement is terminated in certain circumstances, during the term of the Asset Purchase Agreement, such termination, if we receive an offer from a third party to sell or license the assets of the Video Division, Purchasers will receive a right of first refusal to purchase or license the assets of the Video Division.

Transition Agreements (see page 10)	In connection with the closing of the Video Division Sale, we have entered into a Transition Agreement whereby we will assist TBM in the operations of the Video Division for a six-month transition period following the closing. We will receive compensation for the cost of the transition, and in some instances, cost-plus.
Interest of certain persons in the Video Division Sale (see page 13)	As part of the Video Division Sale, we have transferred certain assets, including our Jacksonville, Florida headquarters, to the Video Division during the transition period.
Voting agreement (see page 13)	Each of our executive officers and directors owns shares of our common stock and/or options to purchase shares of our common stock. By virtue of their ownership, these persons will receive proceeds from the Video Division Sale as any other shareholder of ParkerVision.

Appraisal rights (see page 21)	Consummation of the Video Division Sale will have federal and state income tax consequences for ParkerVision, although these are not expected to be substantial.
	Our shareholders will not be entitled to appraisal rights with respect to the Video Division Sale under Chapter 607, Florida Statutes.

GENERAL INFORMATION ABOUT THE SPECIAL MEETING

DATE, PLACE AND TIME OF THE SPECIAL MEETING

The meeting will be held at _____ a.m. local time, on _____, 2004. The special meeting will take place at the Marriott Hotel, 1501 International Parkway, Lake Mary, Florida. This Proxy Statement, the attachments hereto and the enclosed form of proxy are first being sent to our shareholders on or about _____, 2004.

VOTE REQUIRED; RECORD DATE; OUTSTANDING SHARES

The Asset Purchase Agreement and the Video Division Sale can only be approved by the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock of ParkerVision. Our board of directors has fixed the close of business on _____, 2004 as the record date for determination of shareholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the annual meeting. As of the record date, we had issued and outstanding 17,959,504 shares of common stock, par value $.01 per share, our only class of voting securities outstanding. Each of our shareholders is entitled to one vote for each share of common stock registered in his or her name on the record date.

AGREEMENTS TO VOTE

Jeffrey Parker, our chairman of the board and chief executive officer, Todd Parker, president of our Video Division and a director, Stacie Wilf, our corporate secretary and certain members of their immediate family and certain affiliates, together with William Sammons, a director of the Company, own an aggregate of 4,931,747 shares, or 27.5% of the currently outstanding shares of common stock (without giving effect to any options to purchase common stock they may own) and each of them has agreed to vote all of his or her shares "FOR" approval of the Asset Purchase Agreement and the Video Division Sale in connection with the special meeting. Accordingly, their votes, combined with the affirmative vote of the holders of an additional 4,048,006 shares, will be sufficient to approve the proposal at the special meeting.

VOTING OF PROXIES

Proxies in the form enclosed are solicited by and on behalf of our board of directors. The persons named in the proxy have been designated as proxies by our board of directors. Any proxy given pursuant to this solicitation and received in time for the meeting will be voted as specified in the returned proxy. If no instructions are given, proxies returned by shareholders will be voted "FOR" the proposal to approve the Asset Purchase Agreement and the Video Division Sale.

Once given, your proxy may be revoked only by written notice received by our corporate secretary at any time prior to the voting at the meeting, by submitting a subsequent proxy or by attending the special meeting and voting in person.

QUORUM REQUIREMENT; ABSTENTIONS; AND BROKER NON-VOTING

The presence, in person or by proxy, of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast at the meeting will constitute a quorum at the meeting. A proxy submitted by a shareholder may indicate that all or a portion of the shares represented by his or her proxy are not being voted ("shareholder withholding") with respect to a particular matter. Brokers may not be permitted to vote stock ("broker non-vote") held in street name in the absence of instructions from the beneficial owner of the stock. The shares subject to a proxy that are not being voted because of either shareholder withholding or broker non-vote will not be considered shares present and entitled to vote on the matter and will not be counted for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum.

Since the Asset Purchase Agreement and the Video Division Sale can only be approved by the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the outstanding common stock of ParkerVision, abstentions from voting, shareholder withholding or broker non-voting will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal.

PROXY SOLICITATION

We will bear the cost of the solicitation of proxies from our shareholders and the cost of printing and mailing this Proxy Statement. In addition to solicitation by mail, our directors, officers and employees may contact our shareholders to solicit their proxies. Those directors, officers and employees will not be paid any additional compensation for doing so.

Edgar Filing: PARKERVISION INC - Form PREM14A

ADJOURNMENT

Any decision to adjourn the meeting would be made by a vote of the shareholders present in person or by proxy at the meeting. It is the intention of the persons named in the proxy, unless otherwise specifically instructed in the proxy, to vote in favor of adjournment if a quorum is not present. If a quorum is present, but insufficient votes have been cast in favor of a proposal to approve it, proxies will be voted in favor of adjournment only if the board of directors determines that adjournment and the additional solicitation of proxies is reasonable and in the best interests of shareholders. In making this determination the board would consider:

- o the nature of the proposal;
- o the votes already cast as a percentage of the vote required;
- o the percentage of negative votes cast; and
- o the nature of any further solicitation that might be made.

PROPOSAL: APPROVAL AND ADOPTION OF THE ASSET PURCHASE AGREEMENT AND APPROVAL OF THE PROPOSED TRANSACTION

At the special meeting, you will be asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to approve and adopt the Asset Purchase Agreement and Video Division Sale. Purchasers will purchase substantially all the assets of our Video Division following approval of the Asset Purchase Agreement and the Video Division Sale by our shareholders and satisfaction of the other customary conditions to closing.

THE ASSET PURCHASE AGREEMENT

The following summary of the Asset Purchase Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Asset Purchase Agreement, which is attached as Appendix A to this Proxy Statement and is incorporated by reference herein. All shareholders are urged to read the Asset Purchase Agreement in its entirety. Defined terms that are not expressly defined in the following summary have the meanings provided in the Asset Purchase Agreement.

General

On February 25, 2004, ParkerVision entered into the Asset Purchase Agreement with Purchasers. Purchasers are affiliates of Thomson, a leading provider of technology and service solutions for integrated entertainment and media companies. Thomson provides end-to-end solutions to content creators, video network operators and manufacturers and retailers through its Technicolor, Grass Valley, THOMSON and RCA brands. The Video Division Sale is expected to close in the second quarter of 2004 following approval of our shareholders at the special meeting.

Assets being sold

In the Video Division Sale, we would sell to Purchasers substantially all the assets of our Video Division, excluding certain contracts and incidental properties. Generally, the assets to be sold are those used in connection with and relating to our PVTV and CameraMan products and services, including patents, patent applications, tradenames, trademarks and other intellectual property, inventory, specified design, development and manufacturing equipment, and obligations under outstanding contracts for products and services. We will retain all liabilities of the Video Division other than certain liabilities arising after closing under the terms of contracts that comprise a portion of the assets being acquired ("Post-Closing Contractual Liabilities").

Excluded assets

The assets used in the current or proposed operations of our Wireless Division, assets relating to our general corporate and management functions, our real property and all receivables and cash shall be retained by us and shall not be sold in the Video Division Sale. These retained assets will be the foundation of our operations following the closing of the Video Division Sale.

Consideration

The purchase price for the assets of the Video Division will be $12.5 million, subject to adjustment upon verification of the book value of the certain tangible and current assets that will be transferred, minus certain liabilities (warranty reserves, deferred income and amounts required to satisfy certain assumed liabilities). Thomson Inc., an affiliate of Thomson, has agreed to guarantee the payment obligations of Purchasers under the Asset Purchase Agreement.

The upward adjustment to the purchase price, if any, cannot exceed $2.75 million. We currently believe that the adjustment will be approximately $1.5 million. The actual amount of the adjustment will be determined within 45 days after the closing and will be paid when the final valuation is agreed upon.

In order to secure our indemnification obligations to Purchasers under the Asset Purchase Agreement, $1.25 million of the purchase price will be held by Purchasers until the first anniversary of the closing. This amount will earn interest until paid.

Representations

ParkerVision has made customary representations and warranties to Purchasers with respect to the assets being acquired, our overall business and the business of the Video Division. These include representations relating to:

- o the corporate status and authority of ParkerVision,
- o the financial statements of ParkerVision and the Video Division,
- o the non-contravention of outstanding contracts and obligations of ParkerVision, laws and regulations affecting the business and arising because of the transaction,
- o the inventory and personal property of the Video Division,
- o the intellectual property owned by or licensed to ParkerVision and used by the Video Division,
- o certain employee-related matters,

Edgar Filing: PARKERVISION INC - Form PREM14A

- o taxes and insurance matters relating to ParkerVision and the Video Division,
- o the sufficiency of the assets to operate the Video Division after the sale,
- o the adequacy of the title to the assets being sold,
- o the material contracts of the Video Division,
- o government approvals and compliance with applicable laws, including FCC compliance,

- o products, services and related warranties,
- o customers, suppliers and distributors,
- o the operations of the Video Division since January 1, 2004, including any material adverse change since that date,
- o the general conduct of the Video Division, and
- o various other matters.

Covenants

ParkerVision has entered into numerous customary covenants under the Asset Purchase Agreement. These include obligations to:

- o solicit the approval of the Asset Purchase Agreement and the Video Division Sale from our shareholders,
- o operate the Video Division in the ordinary course until the closing,
- o take all necessary action to be able to transfer the assets, including obtaining approvals under various contracts and from regulatory bodies and making various assignments, and
- o use all commercially reasonable efforts to fulfill the conditions within our control to complete the sale of the Video Division.

We have agreed not to initiate or solicit or take any action designed to encourage or facilitate any inquires or offers with respect to the Video Division from, or discuss such inquiries and offers with, any other parties, unless required under corporate law fiduciary duties after receiving a bona fide, written, unsolicited cash offer which the board of directors determines is superior to the terms of the Asset Purchase Agreement, and subject to payment of a termination fee as described below.

We also agreed not to compete with the business of the Video Division for five years after the closing. In addition, during such period, we are generally obligated to refrain from soliciting Purchasers' employees or otherwise interfering in the relationships between Purchasers and their employees.

We also agreed not to seek legal recourse against Purchasers in respect of any intellectual property that will be transferred or should have been transferred in connection with the Video Division.

Employees of Video Division

Edgar Filing: PARKERVISION INC - Form PREM14A

TBM is obligated to offer, prior to closing of the Video Division Sale, employment to a certain number of our employees who currently work in our Video Division. A condition to Purchasers' obligations to close the Video Division Sale is the acceptance of the offers by a prescribed number of employees. The offers of employment must be on terms no less favorable to such employees than have been agreed to by TBM and ParkerVision. The parties also have agreed upon the components of a retention plan intended to promote acceptance of the offers of employment, including the buyback of certain accrued benefits and cash and equity incentives.

Other agreements

Under a Transition Services Agreement, to be entered into upon Closing, we will provide Purchasers' employees with training in the Video Division's business, products and services, contract manufacturing to Purchasers and certain general administrative functions. We will also provide services and resources relating to the transitioning of the business of the Video Division into TBM's operations. The transition phase will last for up to six months after the closing. We will be reimbursed at cost and at cost-plus depending on the service and length of time it is being provided.

Under a Sublease, to be entered into upon Closing, we will provide the Purchasers' employees with office space at our headquarters in Jacksonville, Florida. The term of the Sublease will run concurrently with the transition phase contemplated by the Transition Services Agreement.

Purchasers also will be granted a license to use the "ParkerVision" name for a limited time in connection with the transition and integration of the Video Division into the operations of the Purchaser.

Conditions to closing

There are a number of customary conditions to be satisfied in order to close. These include the following:

- o accuracy of representations and warranties in all material respects at closing,
- o absence of materially adverse changes in the business of the Video Division,
- o satisfactory performance of various covenants,
- o absence of any pending litigation which seeks to materially restrain, modify or invalidate the Video Division Sale,
- o receipt of required consents, including those relating to various suppliers and customers,
- o continued approval by the board of directors of the Video Division Sale and receipt of the vote of our shareholders approving the Asset Purchase Agreement and the Video Division Sale, and

- o TBM's offer of employment to a certain number of employees of the

Edgar Filing: PARKERVISION INC - Form PREM14A

Video Division and the acceptance of same by a prescribed percentage thereof.

Termination

The Asset Purchase Agreement may be terminated in the following circumstances (subject to payment of a termination fee in certain instances as described below):

- o by mutual consent,
- o by the non-breaching party, after a material breach by the other party,
- o by either party, after issuance of certain orders enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the transaction,
- o by either party, if the closing has not occurred by July 9, 2004,
- o by Purchasers, if the shareholders of ParkerVision have not approved the Asset Purchase Agreement and the Video Division Sale by July 5, 2004,
- o by Purchasers, if the board of directors of ParkerVision fails to recommend or it withdraws, modifies or amends in any respect adverse to Purchasers its approval or recommendation of the Asset Purchase Agreement and the Video Division Sale, or the board of directors approves an alternative acquisition proposal,
- o by ParkerVision, upon receipt by ParkerVision of a Superior Offer for the assets which the directors are bound to accept under their fiduciary duty to ParkerVision and the shareholders, and following prior notice by ParkerVision to Purchasers, and
- o by Purchasers, subject to certain limitations, if there is a material adverse change in the business, financial condition or prospects of the Video Division.

In the event of a termination for breach, the non-breaching party may seek damages from the breaching party.

Termination Fees

If the Asset Purchase Agreement is terminated as a result of the:

- o withdrawal of our board of directors' recommendation for the transaction,
- o issuance of an order enjoining or prohibiting the Video Division Sale,
- o acceptance of a Superior Offer,

11

- o failure to close by July 9, 2004, where ParkerVision acts to terminate, or
- o failure to obtain our shareholder approval by July 5, 2004

then, ParkerVision will be obligated to pay a fee of $1,000,000 in cash, or at its election only in the case of the last two items above, by the issuance of that number of shares of common stock of ParkerVision with an equivalent value to the cash amount. If we issue our common stock, we will register the shares for re-offer and resale by Purchasers, and also have agreed to a make-whole provision to assure Purchasers of getting at least $1,000,000 from its sale of the shares within a certain period of time.

Right of first refusal

Purchasers will receive a right of first refusal for one year after termination of the Asset Purchase Agreement, if such termination occurs in any of the following circumstances:

- o acceptance of a Superior Offer that ultimately is not closed by ParkerVision,
- o withdrawal of the recommendation of our board of directors for the Video Division Sale,
- o failure to obtain shareholder approval by July 5, 2004
- o failure to close the Video Division Sale by July 9, 2004, where ParkerVision acts to terminate, or
- o court order or similar directive enjoining or prohibiting the Video Division Sale.

The right of first refusal will be triggered by any written proposal from a third party to acquire the business of the Video Division, to acquire all or a material portion of the assets being sold under the Asset Purchase Agreement, or to exclusively license all or a material portion of the intellectual property of the Video Division.

Indemnification

The Asset Purchase Agreement provides that each party must indemnify the other for damages incurred as a result of the breach of their respective representations and warranties and failure to observe their covenants. In general, the representations and warranties will survive for 18 months after the closing and will not be affected by any investigation by the other party. Each party is obligated to indemnify the other up to $4,000,000, once a threshold of $150,000 in damages is achieved. ParkerVision also must indemnify Purchasers against intellectual property claims for an unlimited period of time, without any minimum threshold, and with a separate maximum of $5,000,000.

We shall also indemnify Purchasers with respect to other specific items without time or amount limitations. These items include, but are not limited to:

- o the liabilities of the Video Division that are not being assumed by Purchasers,
- o the failure to comply with any applicable bulk sales requirements,
- o breaches under the Transition Services Agreement, and
- o costs of replacement of third-party software necessary to conduct the business of the Video Division that is not transferable or assignable in the Video Division Sale.

Purchasers shall also indemnify us with respect to certain specific items without time or amount limitations. These items include, but are not limited to:

Edgar Filing: PARKERVISION INC - Form PREM14A

- o the limited liabilities of the Video Division being assumed by Purchasers, such as the Post-Closing Contractual Liabilities,
- o the failure to pay back any amounts of the purchase price held back at closing when and as due,
- o the failure to pay any adjustment to purchase price when and as due, and
- o breaches under the Transition Services Agreement.

VOTING AGREEMENT

Jeffrey Parker, our chief executive officer and chairman of the board, Todd Parker, president of our Video Division and a director, Stacie Wilf, our corporate secretary, and certain members of their immediate family and certain of their other affiliates, together and William Sammons, a director, have each entered into a Voting Agreement with Purchasers, dated February 25, 2004. Collectively, these persons and entities own an aggregate of 4,931,747 shares, representing 27.5% of the outstanding shares of our common stock and each of them has agreed to vote "FOR" the adoption of the Asset Purchase Agreement and the approval of the Video Division Sale. Each of these persons and entities has appointed Purchasers as their proxies with respect to the voting of their shares at the special meeting if they do not act in accordance with the Voting Agreement.

INTERESTS OF MANAGEMENT

Except in their capacity as shareholders or holders of options to buy common stock of ParkerVision, no director or executive officer of ParkerVision or any of their affiliates has any substantial interest, direct or indirect, in the Video Division Sale, nor will any such person derive any extra or special benefit.

BACKGROUND OF THE VIDEO DIVISION SALE

The following summarizes our operating divisions and the events and reasons leading to our decision to sell our Video Division and focus our resources and efforts on our Wireless Division.

Our Business Divisions

WIRELESS DIVISION. We have developed radio frequency transceivers based on what we believe to be an entirely new electronic circuit configuration and design. We market these under the names Direct2Data or D2D. We believe our D2D technology enables the creation of practical, high performance transceivers that reduce or eliminate transmission and receiving problems when compared to fundamental circuit configurations based on solutions developed over fifty years ago. Transceiver products using the current widely accepted radio technology have inherent transmission and receiving limitations. These limitations compromise the overall performance of the transceivers, use more power to drive them, are more expensive to manufacture and must be larger in size (which also means heavier) to function at levels similar to products using the D2D technology. Wireless products employing D2D technology, when compared to other products, have the ability to function at farther distances, with fewer dead zones, with increased connection reliability, may be manufactured less expensively, and use less power to drive them.

Edgar Filing: PARKERVISION INC - Form PREM14A

In September and December 2003, we introduced our first D2D-based products, which include a wireless local area networking card, a wireless four-port router and a wireless universal serial bus adaptor. We promote and sell our wireless consumer products on our website and through an Internet based retailer. We are exploring additional channels of commercial product distribution. We also are marketing our designs and semiconductor products to product manufacturers for integration into their products.

VIDEO DIVISION. The Video Division encompasses our automated live television production systems, marketed under the tradename PVTV(TM), and automated video camera control systems, marketed under the tradename CameraMan(R). ParkerVision provides training, support and other services related to these products.

PVTV systems are marketed to broadcasters in the US and Canada and are designed specifically to meet the needs of studio production markets. The PVTV product line combines a professional television broadcast video production system that integrates video, audio, teleprompter, machine control, character generators and still stores and control functions. PVTV systems, at the election of the customer, also may incorporate ParkerVision camera systems. With the PVTV system, broadcasters are able to economize resources by maximizing their production capabilities with many fewer employee operators.

The CameraMan systems permit non-professional video users to create professional-quality video communications. We principally market the CameraMan systems to educational and videoconferencing segments of the commercial market and to the broadcast and professional video user.

Pre-signing activities

In 2002, our board of directors and management began to evaluate our business divisions, assets, prospects and costs in an effort to maximize the potential of our company and shareholder value. The declining sales of the CameraMan products, the time frame for achieving sales of the PVTV products, the impact of the recession and Iraqi war on budget commitments by television broadcasters and the continued losses of the Video Division were considered. Also taken into consideration were the commercial potential represented by the technology of our Wireless Division and the expenses and resources that would be required to realize this potential.

Management sought advice with respect to its efforts to maximize company potential and shareholder value and, in this regard, consulted with and interviewed several corporate strategists and investment banking firms. In March 2003, ParkerVision engaged Wells Fargo Securities, LLC to assist ParkerVision in the development of our corporate strategies, including with respect to our Video Division.

In order to strengthen our capital position and fund the ongoing research and development costs associated with our Wireless Division as well as our other operations, we consummated a private placement in November 2003, selling 2,310,714 shares of common stock at $8.75 per share for an aggregate purchase price of approximately $20.2 million. Wells Fargo Securities served as sole placement agent for the transaction. Wells Fargo Securities was paid fees and expenses of $1,243,124 from the gross proceeds of this offering.

Through the efforts of Wells Fargo Securities, in April 2003, we began preliminary discussions with representatives of the Purchasers. In connection with these discussions, we signed a mutual confidentiality agreement on May 23, 2003. Thereafter, during the period from May 2003 to December 2003, executives and technical personnel of Purchasers and ParkerVision had two face-to-face meetings and several telephonic conferences with respect to the prospects of the Video Division and the design, manufacturing, marketing and support capabilities of the Video Division.

As a result of the preliminary due diligence investigations by the Purchasers and the discussions, the Purchasers made an offer to acquire the assets of the Video Division in a written term sheet delivered to ParkerVision on December 9, 2003. From December 10, 2003 to December 17, 2003, Purchasers and ParkerVision discussed the offer terms and signed a definitive letter of intent on December 18, 2003.

There were further discussions in early January 2004 between Jean Marc Hoffer and John Stuckey, representatives of Purchasers, and Jeffrey Parker and Todd Parker, officers of ParkerVision, during which several of the original terms of the Video Division Sale were modified.

Immediately thereafter, counsel for the Purchasers commenced their "due diligence" review and drafting the acquisition agreements.

From January 27, 2004 through January 30, 2004, management of Purchasers and ParkerVision met in New York for the preliminary negotiation of the transaction documents. Present at these meetings were Jean Marc Hoffer, John Stuckey, Jeff Rosica and Tom Collins of the Purchasers, and Jeffrey Parker, our chief executive officer and chairman of the board, and Todd Parker, president of our Video Division and a director. Counsel for each of the parties also was present.

On January 28, 2004, the board of directors of ParkerVision met to receive a report of the face-to-face negotiations and respond to several provisions of the transaction documents being proposed. The board authorized continued negotiations, subject to certain parameters.

During the period from February 2, 2004 to February 24, 2004, the parties and counsel negotiated and finalized the transaction documents by telephonic conferences, exchange of written transaction documents, memoranda and emails. During this time, ParkerVision provided Purchasers with additional due diligence documentation and disclosure and prepared the disclosure schedules to the Asset Purchase Agreement which clarified the representations and warranties being made by ParkerVision.

On February 17, 2004, the board met to consider the transaction documents. Counsel for ParkerVision and management reviewed the terms of the transaction documents. The representative of Wells Fargo Securities reviewed the terms and fairness of the Video Division Sale with our board of directors.

On February 24, 2004, the board of directors convened again to evaluate the Video Division Sale and the transaction documents. For this meeting, the board was provided with the final forms of transaction documents and the supporting data in respect of the draft fairness opinion to be rendered by Wells Fargo Securities. At this meeting, the board of directors approved the Asset Purchase Agreement, the various ancillary transaction agreements and the Video Division Sale.

On February 25, 2004, Purchasers and ParkerVision entered into the Asset Purchase Agreement and Thomson Inc. delivered its guarantee of the Purchasers' payment obligations thereunder. Simultaneously, certain shareholders of ParkerVision executed and delivered the Voting Agreement to Purchasers.

Edgar Filing: PARKERVISION INC - Form PREM14A

On February 26, 2004, Thomson and ParkerVision jointly announced the execution of the agreements through press releases.

Reasons for the Video Division Sale

ParkerVision has offered video products since 1990 and these products were the original core of our business. In 1995, we started our Wireless Division, which made what we believe to be important technological advances in wireless and chip architecture technologies. During the ensuing years, we engaged in significant research and obtained extensive patent protection related to these wireless technology advances and, in the fourth quarter of 2003, we began selling the first products based on our wireless technologies. Although revenues for our Wireless Division have been insignificant to date, we believe this division has significant growth potential far greater than that of the Video Division.

As a result of the sale of our Video Division, we will be able to focus all of our resources and attention on our wireless technologies and products and will obtain at least an additional $12.5 million in cash for use in our Wireless Division's operations.

Our board approved the Video Division Sale and the Asset Purchase Agreement based on a number of factors, including the following:

- o the consideration is all cash, which provides certainty of value compared to a transaction involving receipt of stock or other non-cash consideration, especially in light of the volatility of the stock market;

- o the cash consideration provides us with proceeds that are immediately usable in the continued rollout of our initial wireless products;
- o the opinion of Wells Fargo Securities that the purchase price is fair to ParkerVision from a financial point of view; and
- o the need to generate sufficient capital resources to continue our operations with a focus on our Wireless Division.

OPINION OF WELLS FARGO

Under an engagement letter dated as of March 3, 2003, ParkerVision retained Wells Fargo Securities to provide it with advisory services with respect to the maximization of the value of the company, including its Video Division.

In March 2003, ParkerVision authorized Wells Fargo Securities to prepare a selling memorandum with respect to the Video Division. This memorandum was prepared and five potential purchasers were approached, including Thomson. Ultimately, the other four parties declined to proceed, with Thomson electing to proceed. Thomson submitted a letter of intent to ParkerVision in December 2003, which subsequently was negotiated to a draft Asset Purchase Agreement.

At the meeting of ParkerVision's board of directors on February 17, 2004, Wells Fargo Securities rendered its oral opinion, subsequently confirmed in writing, to the effect that, as of February 25, 2004 and subject to and based upon the assumptions and other considerations set forth in its written opinion, the purchase price to be paid to ParkerVision in the Video Division Sale was fair to ParkerVision from a financial point of view.

The full text of the written opinion of Wells Fargo Securities, dated as of February 25, 2004, is attached as Appendix B to this Proxy Statement. The opinion sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the scope of the review undertaken by Wells Fargo Securities in rendering its opinion. Wells Fargo Securities' opinion is necessarily based on economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. Events occurring after the date hereof could materially affect this opinion. Wells Fargo Securities was not requested to consider, and its opinion does not address, the relative merits of the Video Division Sale as compared to any alternative business strategies that might exist for ParkerVision. Wells Fargo Securities' opinion is, in any event, limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the purchase price in the Video Division Sale and does not address ParkerVision's underlying business decision to affect the Video Division Sale. Wells Fargo Securities has not undertaken to update, revise or reaffirm this opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring after the date hereof. The summary of the opinion of Wells Fargo Securities set forth in this document is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion.

In connection with rendering its opinion, Wells Fargo Securities reviewed, among other things:

- o a draft of the Asset Purchase Agreement and exhibits thereto substantially similar to the final forms;

- o the financial statements of the Video Division and other historical financial information provided by ParkerVision that we deemed relevant;
- o audited financial statements of ParkerVision for the years 2002, 2001, 2000 and 1999 and other historical financial information provided by ParkerVision that we deemed relevant;
- o certain financial analyses and forecasts of the Video Division prepared by and reviewed with management of ParkerVision and the views of senior management of ParkerVision regarding the Video Division's past and current business operations, results thereof, financial condition and future prospects;
- o a comparison of certain financial information for the Video Division with similar publicly available information for certain other publicly traded companies;
- o the financial terms of recent business combinations deemed generally relevant to their analysis; and
- o such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as Wells Fargo Securities considered relevant.

Wells Fargo Securities' opinion did not in any manner address the prices at which ParkerVision's common stock will actually trade following the consummation of the Video Division Sale. Wells Fargo Securities expressed no opinion or recommendation as to how the shareholders of ParkerVision should vote at the shareholders' meeting to be held in connection with the Video Division Sale.

Edgar Filing: PARKERVISION INC - Form PREM14A

The following is a summary of the financial analyses performed by Wells Fargo Securities in connection with its oral opinion and the preparation of its written opinion, which represent all of the financial analyses considered by Wells Fargo Securities in arriving at its opinion. Some of these summaries of financial analyses include information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand the financial analyses used by Wells Fargo Securities, the tables must be read together with the text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses.

Comparable Company Trading Analysis. Wells Fargo Securities compared certain publicly available financial information for ParkerVision and four companies were selected. The four comparable companies were:

- o Avid Technology Inc.
- o Harris Corp.
- o Pinnacle Systems Inc.
- o Thomson

Wells Fargo Securities then analyzed the ratio of aggregate value, defined as market capitalization plus total debt less cash and cash equivalents, for each of these companies to trailing twelve months revenues. This analysis showed the following:

COMPANY	AGGREGATE VALUE TO TRAILING TWELVE MONTHS REVENUE
Avid Technology Inc.	2.2x
Harris Corp.	1.3x
Pinnacle Systems Inc.	1.3x
Thomson	0.7x
Mean:	1.4x
Median:	1.3x

No company utilized in the comparable company analysis is identical to the Video Division. In evaluating the comparable companies, Wells Fargo Securities made judgments and assumptions with regard to industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of ParkerVision. Mathematical analysis, such as determining the average or median, is not in itself a meaningful method of using comparable company data.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. Wells Fargo Securities attempted to calculate equity values for the Video Division based on a discounted cash flow analysis, but deemed the resulting equity values as immaterial due to the lack of information and pertinent projections.

Analysis of Purchase Price as a Multiple of Revenue. Wells Fargo Securities compared publicly available statistics for 20 selected transactions announced between January 1, 1998 and December 31, 2003 involving public companies in the broadcasting equipment industry and in which transaction values ranged up to $250 million. Of these transactions, there were five in which the transactions were most comparable to the Video Division Sale. The transactions reviewed were:

DATE ANNOUNCED -----	ACQUIROR -----	TARGET -----
12/14/01	Thomson Multimedia	Grass Valley Group
01/26/01	Dielectric Communications	TCI International
11/30/99	Harris Corp.	Louth Automation
09/05/00	Leitch Technology	Digital Processing Systems
09/05/00	Unique Broadband Systems	ProTeleVision Technology

For each of these transactions, Wells Fargo Securities analyzed the purchase price as a multiple of trailing twelve months revenues. Wells Fargo Securities then applied the results from this analysis to the relevant financial statistic for the Video Division.

REFERRAL MULTIPLES -----	RELEVANT MULTIPLE RANGES -----	MEDIAN -----	MEAN -----
Transaction value to last twelve month revenue	0.5x - 3.1x	1.3x	1.7x

No company or transaction utilized in the analysis of the purchase price in the Video Division Sale as a multiple of revenue is identical to the Video Division or the Video Division Sale. In evaluating the purchase price in the Video Division Sale as a multiple of revenue, Wells Fargo Securities made judgments and assumptions with regard to general business, market and financial conditions and other matters, which are beyond the control of ParkerVision and which could affect the public trading value of the companies and the aggregate value of the transactions to which they are being compared.

Wells Fargo Securities conducted the analyses described above solely as part of its analysis of the fairness to ParkerVision from a financial point of view of the purchase price to be paid for the Video Division and in connection with the delivery of its opinion to ParkerVision's board of directors. These analyses do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which shares of common stock of ParkerVision might actually trade.

The purchase price to be paid for the Video Division was determined through arm's-length negotiations between ParkerVision and Purchasers and was approved by ParkerVision's board of directors. Wells Fargo Securities provided advice to ParkerVision during these negotiations. Wells Fargo Securities did not, however, recommend any specific purchase price to ParkerVision.

In addition, as described elsewhere in this document, Wells Fargo Securities' opinion and its presentation to ParkerVision's board of directors was one of many factors taken into consideration by ParkerVision's board of directors in deciding to approve the Purchase. Consequently, the analyses as described above should not be viewed as determinative of the opinion of ParkerVision's board of directors.

Under the engagement letter, ParkerVision paid Wells Fargo Securities an initial retainer of $75,000 upon signing of the letter. ParkerVision also agreed to pay Wells Fargo Securities a fee for its services equal to 2% of the value of any sales transaction introduced to ParkerVision by Wells Fargo Securities. In connection with the Video Division Sale, this fee will be between $250,000 if there is no upward adjustment to the purchase price, and $305,000 if the maximum upward adjustment is applied. This fee will be paid upon closing of the Video Division Sale. In addition, ParkerVision paid Wells Fargo Securities $150,000 for the fairness opinion. ParkerVision has also agreed to reimburse Wells Fargo Securities for its expenses incurred in performing its services. ParkerVision will indemnify Wells Fargo Securities and its affiliates, their respective directors, officers, agents and employees and each person, if any, controlling Wells Fargo Securities or any of its affiliates against certain liabilities and expenses, including certain liabilities under the federal securities laws, related to or arising out of Wells Fargo Securities' engagement.

USE OF PROCEEDS

If the Video Division Sale is approved and consummated, the net proceeds received by ParkerVision will be used for working capital in the Wireless Division and general corporate purposes. No distributions of the purchase price proceeds to the shareholders of ParkerVision are contemplated.

ABSENCE OF APPRAISAL RIGHTS

Under Chapter 607, Florida Statutes, ParkerVision's shareholders will have no rights in connection with the Video Division Sale to seek appraisal for the fair value of their shares of common stock.

ACCOUNTING TREATMENT OF PROPOSED TRANSACTION

Following approval of the Video Division Sale by the shareholders, the Video Division will be accounted for "as a discontinued operation" in accordance with SFAS No. 144, "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets" during the quarter in which the closing occurs.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDATION

AFTER CAREFUL CONSIDERATION, PARKERVISION'S BOARD HAS DETERMINED THAT THE ASSET PURCHASE AGREEMENT IS ADVISABLE, FAIR TO, AND IN THE BEST INTERESTS OF, PARKERVISION AND ITS SHAREHOLDERS. ACCORDINGLY, OUR BOARD APPROVED THE ASSET PURCHASE AGREEMENT AND THE VIDEO DIVISION SALE, AND RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE "FOR" APPROVAL OF THE ASSET PURCHASE AGREEMENT AND THE VIDEO DIVISION SALE.

RISK FACTORS RELATING TO THE PROPOSED TRANSACTION AND OUR CONTINUING BUSINESS

You are urged to read the following risk factors relating to the Video Division Sale and the continued operation of, and focus on, our Wireless Division following the consummation of the Video Division Sale.

WE HAVE A HISTORY OF LOSSES THAT WE MAY NOT BE ABLE TO REVERSE.

ParkerVision has had losses in each year since our inception in 1989. For the fiscal years 2001, 2002 and 2003, our losses were approximately $16.6 million, $17.3 million and $22.0 million, respectively. We had an accumulated deficit of approximately $95.7 million at December 31, 2003. Our recent operating losses resulted from declining revenues of our video products and insufficient sales of our wireless products. Our expenditures are likely to continue to outpace our revenues in the near term and we may never be able to generate sufficient revenues to support operations.

THE RISK THAT WE WILL CONTINUE TO EXPERIENCE LOSSES COULD BE EXACERBATED BY THE DISCONTINUATION OF OUR VIDEO DIVISION REVENUE STREAM.

After the sale of our Video Division, we will no longer generate revenues from the sale of our video products and will rely solely on our ability to generate revenues through the commercialization of our D2D technology to support our operations. Revenues from our Wireless Division have been nominal to date, while expenditures for such division have been, and likely will continue to be, significant. We may never be able to generate revenues through our Wireless Division that are sufficient to cover operational expenses or which result in net profits.

IF WE REQUIRE ADDITIONAL CAPITAL IN THE FUTURE AND CANNOT RAISE IT, WE WILL NOT BE ABLE TO IMPLEMENT OUR CURRENT BUSINESS PLAN.

We anticipate that we will continue to operate at a loss in the near term and to make significant expenditures for research and development, patent protection, manufacturing, marketing and general operations. We believe that our existing resources, together with the net proceeds from the Video Division Sale, will be sufficient to fund our business plan for 2004. After such time, if revenues generated by our Wireless Division are not sufficient to support our operations, we will be required to obtain financing. Financing, if any, may be in the form of loans, additional sales of equity securities or one or more joint ventures. A loan, the sale of preferred stock or a joint venture may result in the imposition of operational limitations and other covenants and payment obligations, any of which may be burdensome to ParkerVision. The sale of any of our equity securities will result in dilution to our then existing shareholders. ParkerVision does not have any plans or arrangements for additional financing at this time.

OUR WIRELESS DIVISION HAS NO MEANINGFUL COMMERCIAL HISTORY ON WHICH TO EVALUATE ITS PROSPECTS.

Our first wireless products were introduced in late 2003 and revenues for our Wireless Division have been insignificant to date. There is no long-term business history on which you can evaluate our Wireless Division and its prospects. Our Wireless Division must therefore be evaluated in light of the risks, uncertainties, expenses and difficulties frequently encountered by companies in development, particularly companies in the technology industries. These risks include:

- o limited or no proven market acceptance of our existing and future products;
- o our need to develop sales and support organizations for newly introduced products and technologies;
- o competition from numerous sources, the substantial majority of which have greater resources than ParkerVision;
- o our need to manage changing operations in an efficient and timely manner; and

- o our likely need to rely on strategic relationships for the exploitation of our technology and distribution of our products.

OUR D2D TECHNOLOGY REPRESENTS A RADICAL CHANGE FROM PREVIOUSLY ACCEPTED TECHNOLOGIES AND MAY MEET WITH RESISTANCE OR NONACCEPTANCE IN THE INDUSTRY.

Our wireless technology represents a significant change in the circuit design of wireless radio-frequency communications. To achieve market acceptance, we will need to prove to the marketplace that our technology can be utilized to produce products and solutions that are desirable or superior alternatives to existing products and solutions. We may not be able to do this, and we cannot predict the ultimate competitive, operational or economic benefits, if any, that our technology would provide. If we are not able to establish our D2D technology in the market place as a desirable or superior alternative to current, traditional solutions in wireless communications, our business and financial condition will be adversely affected.

IF WE CANNOT KEEP PACE WITH RAPID CHANGES IN TECHNOLOGY, WE WILL BE AT A COMPETITIVE DISADVANTAGE AND COULD LOSE IMPORTANT MARKET OPPORTUNITIES.

The microelectronics industry in which our D2D technology applies is characterized by rapid technological developments, changes and demand shifts. We must continually dedicate substantial resources to the development and improvement of our technology and must regularly introduce new products and related technologies to stay ahead or apace with these changes. For example, in fiscal year 2003, we spent approximately $13 million on wireless research and development, and in the coming year, we expect to spend a significant additional amount. If other companies offer better products or technologies than those offered by ParkerVision or our own product and technology development lags or fails to produce viable products and solutions, our competitive position will be compromised and we may not be able to capitalize on important market opportunities as they arise.

IF OUR PRODUCTS ARE NOT COMMERCIALY ACCEPTED, OUR RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT INVESTMENT WILL BE LOST AND OUR ABILITY TO CONTINUE OPERATIONS WILL BE IMPAIRED.

There can be no assurance that our Wireless Division's technology can be harnessed to create commercially viable or desirable products. If new products are not developed by us or by third parties under license to us, or such products are not commercially accepted, the funds we have expended and will continue to expend on research and development will not be recoverable, and our competitive and financial position will be adversely affected.

IF OUR PATENTS DO NOT PROVIDE US WITH THE PROTECTION WE ANTICIPATE, OUR COMPETITIVE POSITION, BUSINESS AND PROSPECTS WILL BE IMPAIRED.

We have been awarded 29 United States and foreign patents and have more than 90 patent applications pending relating to our D2D technologies. We rely on these to provide us with competitive advantage and to protect us from theft of our intellectual property. We believe that many of these patents are for entirely new technologies. If the pending patents are not issued, or issued patents are later shown not to be as broad as currently believed or otherwise challenged such that some or all of the protection is lost, any competitive advantage that we possess will be diminished or lost and our ability to offer unique products and technologies could be substantially harmed.

Edgar Filing: PARKERVISION INC - Form PREM14A

OUR D2D TECHNOLOGY WILL COMPETE WITH THE TECHNOLOGIES OF NUMEROUS OTHER COMPANIES.

Our technology, and the products and solutions based on such technology, will necessarily be judged against, and will compete with, the technologies of other companies in our industry. We face competition from chip suppliers, such as Philips, Texas Instruments, Analog Devices and Broadcom, as well as from finished products suppliers, such as Netgear, Cisco, Proxim and D.Link. It also is likely that we will face competition from entities such as Qualcomm, Nokia, Panasonic, Sony and Samsung, as well as other existing and future companies that are developing or which will develop other technologies. Many of our competitors have far greater resources and more established brand names than we do and may be able to use such resources and brand identity to capture significant market share, even in circumstances where their technology is inferior to ours.

WE OBTAIN CRITICAL PRODUCTION COMPONENTS FROM VARIOUS SUPPLIERS WHO MAY NOT BE ABLE TO FULFILL OUR REQUIREMENTS AS AND WHEN NEEDED OR WHO MAY IMPLEMENT PRICE INCREASES THAT WE CANNOT PASS ON TO OUR CUSTOMERS.

We obtain critical components from various suppliers, some of which are single sources. We may not obtain components on a timely basis or at all as a result of lack of capacity, parts shortages and other disruptions at these sources or in the overall marketplace. To date, we have not experienced any significant problems with sources of components that have affected our ability to fulfill our obligations in a timely fashion. In addition, we have never ended or had terminated any supply arrangements for critical components where an alternative has not been readily available. Notwithstanding this history, if we are unable to obtain components from current sources as and when needed, our business could be disrupted, and we would have to expend some of our resources to modify our products or find new suppliers and work with them to develop appropriate components. Although we have been able to pass on price increases we have encountered to date, we have no control over the level or timing of future price increases and may not always be able to pass on such increases, which could have an adverse effect on our financial condition.

WE WILL SEEK TO ESTABLISH RELATIONSHIPS WITH THIRD PARTIES FOR THE COMMERCIALIZATION OF OUR D2D TECHNOLOGY AND MAY NOT BE ABLE TO ACHIEVE MARKET ACCEPTANCE WITHOUT THEM.

To achieve wide market awareness and acceptance of our D2D technology, we will seek to enter into business relationships with third parties by which our D2D technology would be incorporated into their products under license or by which our own products would be marketed through their marketing channels. From time to time, we have had discussions for OEM and other types of arrangements, but to date, none have been successfully concluded. The successful commercialization of our D2D technology will depend in part on our ability to enter into, and then meet our obligations under, such agreements.

OUR LIMITED EXPERIENCE IN THE COMMERCIAL DESIGN OF ELECTRONIC CHIPS AND NEED TO OUT-SOURCE THEIR PRODUCTION COULD RESULT IN DESIGN ERRORS, PRODUCTION DELAYS AND PRODUCT REJECTIONS.

We have limited experience in the commercial design and manufacture of electronic chips. Our inexperience in chip design could result in fundamental design or manufacturing flaws. Our chips are manufactured through a foundry relationship with Texas Instruments. Since we do not control the actual manufacturing process, there could be deficiencies or delays in manufacturing that are outside of our control and which we may not be able to identify or remedy on a timely basis. Design errors, manufacturing deficiencies or production delays could lead to the rejection of finished product by our end customers.

WE ARE HIGHLY DEPENDENT ON JEFFREY PARKER, OUR CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER AND CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD.

Because of Mr. Parker's position in the company and the respect he has garnered in the industries in which we operate and the investment community, the loss of his services would likely impede our ability to execute our business plan, establish and maintain relationships in our industries and obtain future financing if needed. Mr. Parker has an employment agreement that expires in September 2005. ParkerVision maintains key-man life insurance for its benefit on Mr. Parker.

WE ARE DEPENDENT ON HIRING HIGHLY SKILLED EMPLOYEES.

Our Wireless Division is very specialized and we are dependent on having skilled and specialized employees to conduct our research and development, manufacturing, marketing and support activities. There tends to be relatively few persons available that meet our requirements. ParkerVision encounters intense competition from other telecommunications, electronics and technically orientated companies for these employees. We are often required to fashion superior compensation packages and to develop a working environment conducive to attracting the kinds of person the company needs. We also have to pay recruiting fees. The inability to obtain appropriately skilled employees on a commercially reasonable basis would have an adverse impact on our business and development.

CERTAIN FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE PROPOSED TRANSACTION

The Video Division Sale will have no immediate direct income tax consequences to ParkerVision's shareholders. The Video Division Sale will be reported by ParkerVision as a sale of assets for federal and state income tax purposes in 2004.

To the extent that the purchase price allocated to an asset exceeds its tax basis, we will recognize gain. To the extent that the purchase price allocated to an asset is less than our tax basis in that asset, we will recognize a loss. We should be able to offset taxable gain arising from the sale of the assets with operating losses, expenses and net operating loss carry-forwards. The asset sale may also result in state or local income, franchise, sales, use or other tax liabilities to ParkerVision in states or local tax jurisdictions in which we file tax returns. Overall, we do not expect the tax obligations of the Company to be significant.

Holders of our common stock will not recognize any gain or loss solely as a result of the Video Division Sale. Our shareholders may be taxed on subsequent distributions (i.e., dividends) of the proceeds of the Video Division Sale, if any. Such distributions are not contemplated.

1.6 Non-Assignable Assets.

(a) Non-Assignable Assets. Notwithstanding Section 1.1 and Section 1.2, if any Contract, Governmental Approval or other Acquired Asset is not assignable or transferable (each, a "Non-Assignable Asset") without the Consent of a third party (each, an "Assignment Consent"), as a result either of the provisions thereof or of applicable Legal Requirements, and any such Assignment Consent is not obtained by Seller on or prior to the Closing Date, Purchasers may prior to or after Closing elect (on an Asset-by-Asset basis) to either (i) have Seller permanently retain such Non-Assignable Asset and all Liabilities relating thereto (in which case such Non-Assignable Asset shall be an Excluded Asset and all related Liabilities shall be Excluded Liabilities) or (ii) have Seller continue its efforts (at Seller's expense) to obtain the Assignment Consent, in form and substance reasonably acceptable to Purchasers, after Closing. In either case, this Agreement and the related instruments of transfer shall not constitute an assignment or transfer of such Non-Assignable Asset, and Purchasers shall not assume Seller's rights or obligations under such Non-Assignable Asset unless and until the applicable Assignment Consent has been obtained. Unless Purchasers elect for Seller to retain a Non-Assignable Asset, and without limiting Seller's obligations under Section 6.8, Seller shall use all commercially reasonable efforts, at Purchasers' reasonable direction, to obtain all applicable Assignment Consents as soon as reasonably possible after the Closing. In such case, upon the receipt of an Assignment Consent in accordance with this section, the applicable Non-Assignable Asset shall be deemed an Acquired Asset for purposes of this Agreement and shall be automatically assigned to such Purchaser as designated by Purchasers, without any further action on the part of any party. Seller shall consult with Purchasers, and keep Purchasers updated, with respect to all material developments relating to Assignment Consents and Non-Assignable Assets and shall seek Purchasers' consent, not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed, before taking any material action related thereto. Schedule 1.6(a) lists all applicable Assignment Consents.

(b) Alternative Arrangements. After the Closing (unless and to the extent Purchasers have elected for Seller to retain any Non-Assignable Assets), Seller shall, at Seller's expense and until such time as the applicable Assignment Consent has been obtained, follow Purchasers' reasonable instructions with respect to the applicable Non-Assignable Asset and take all steps reasonably necessary to preserve such Non-Assignable Asset for the benefit of Purchasers and to allow performance under the Contracts included in the Non-Assignable Assets, including: (i) not assigning, transferring or encumbering such Non-Assignable Asset; (ii) cooperating with Purchasers in any lawful and commercially reasonable arrangement to provide that the applicable Purchaser shall receive Seller's interest in the benefits under the Non-Assignable Asset; (iii) enforcing Seller's rights with respect to such Non-Assignable Asset; (iv) paying over to the applicable Purchaser all monies or other assets collected by or paid to Seller in respect of such Non-Assignable Asset with respect to the post-Closing period; and (v) not amending or altering any Non-Assignable Asset in any material way without Purchasers' prior written consent. For avoidance of doubt and without limiting the foregoing, this Section 1.6(b) shall apply with respect to customer Contracts and supply Contracts that are Non-Assignable Assets (unless and to the extent Purchasers have elected for Seller to retain any such Non-Assignable Assets) in accordance with this Section 1.6.

(c) Obligations. The applicable Purchaser shall undertake to perform the obligations of Seller under the Non-Assignable Assets that Purchasers have not elected for Seller to retain and that arise in the Ordinary Course of Business during the post-Closing period and, if such obligations are related to Contracts, that would be Assumed Liabilities if the applicable Contract were assigned to the applicable Purchaser in accordance herewith.

(d) Consents. Notwithstanding any other provision hereof, (i) unless Purchasers elect for Seller to retain any Non-Assignable Asset pursuant to Section 1.6(a), Seller shall obtain all necessary Consents to assign the Non-Assignable Assets within ninety (90) days of the Closing Date and (ii) all Non-Assignable Assets shall be deemed to be Acquired Assets (and in particular, in the case of Contracts, a Material Contract) for the purposes of the representations and warranties hereof.

(e) Closing Conditions. This Section 1.6 shall at all times remain subject to Article 9 (Conditions to Closing) and shall not affect Purchasers' conditions to closing set forth therein.

ARTICLE 2

PAYMENT AND RELATED MATTERS

2.1 Purchase Price. The purchase price of the Acquired Assets and the Business shall be Twelve Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($12,500,000) (the "Fixed Purchase Price"), as adjusted pursuant to Section 2.5(c) (the "Purchase Price"). At Closing, Purchasers shall deliver to Seller, in accordance with Section 2.3, ninety percent (90%) of the Fixed Purchase Price, equal to Eleven Million Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($11,250,000). Edgar Filing: PARKERVISION INC - Form PREM14A equal to One Million Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($1,250,000) (the "Holdback Amount"), shall be withheld by Purchasers at Closing as security for the indemnification obligations of Seller set forth in Article 11. Subject to the remainder of this Section 2.2, on the first anniversary of the Closing Date (or, if such date is not a Business Day, the first Business Day thereafter), Purchasers shall deliver, in accordance with Section 2.3, the Holdback Amount to Seller. Purchasers may withhold from such delivery the equivalent of any amount then in dispute related to Seller's indemnification obligations arising pursuant to Article 11 or for which Purchasers have notified Seller of an indemnification Claim pursuant to Section 11.6. Any such withheld Holdback Amount, to the extent not ultimately applied by Purchasers in satisfaction of such indemnification obligations, shall be paid to Seller promptly upon resolution of any such dispute or Claim. Nothing in this section shall be construed as limiting the liability of Seller for indemnification claims or otherwise to the Holdback Amount, nor shall payments from the Holdback Amount be considered as liquidated damages for any breach under this Agreement or any other Transaction Agreement. Purchasers shall pay interest on the amount of the Holdback Amount delivered to Seller as set forth above from and including the Closing Date but excluding the date of such delivery at the prime rate published in the "Money Rates" table of The Wall Street Journal, as that rate may vary from time to time, or if no longer published, a comparable rate, and computed on the basis of a 365/366-day year. Interest shall be paid together with payment of the applicable Holdback Amount and in accordance with Section 2.3.

2.3 Payment Mechanics. Unless otherwise agreed in writing by Purchasers and Seller, and subject to the terms and conditions hereof, the Fixed Purchase Price, the Holdback Amount and any adjustment to the Fixed Purchase Price pursuant to Section 2.5(c) shall be paid in immediately available funds by wire transfer to such U.S. bank account or accounts reasonably designated in advance by the receiving party to the transferring party.

2.4 Currency. The Fixed Purchase Price, the Holdback Amount, any amount of adjustment to the Fixed Purchase Price pursuant to Section 2.5(c), and all other amounts required to be paid or calculated hereunder or pursuant to another Transaction Agreement shall be in U.S. dollars and in immediately available funds unless otherwise stated herein or in such other Transaction Agreement.

2.5 Purchase Price Adjustment.

(a) As promptly as practicable, but in no event later than forty-five (45) days following the Closing Date, Purchasers shall cause the following to be prepared and delivered to Seller (the "Certified Closing Report"): (i) a balance sheet of the Non-Patent Assets and the Assumed Liabilities as of the Closing Date (the "Closing Balance Sheet") certified by an executive officer of Lead Purchaser and setting forth the actual Net Assets transferred to Lead Purchaser at Closing ("Reported Net Assets"), (ii) a statement based on such balance sheet which sets forth a reasonably detailed supporting calculation of Net Assets and (iii) a statement of the proposed adjustment to the Fixed Purchase Price calculated in accordance with this Section 2.5. The Certified Closing Report and related calculations shall be prepared independently by Lead Purchaser based on its own review of the financial information of the Business, in good faith and in accordance with GAAP. If Seller delivers a Certified Closing Report Dispute Notice to Purchasers, Purchasers and Seller, together with their accountants, shall attempt to reconcile such parties' differences, and any resolution by them approved in writing by all parties hereto as to any disputed amounts shall be final, binding and conclusive on such parties. If the parties hereto are unable to reach a resolution within forty-five (45) days after the delivery of any Certified Closing Report Dispute Notice, such parties shall submit their respective determinations and calculations and the items remaining in dispute for resolution to Deloitte & Touche LLP, unless one or more of the parties have developed a material relationship with such accounting firm, in which case the parties hereto shall select within five (5) days another mutually acceptable independent accounting firm of national or international reputation which does not have a material relationship with any party ("Independent Accounting Firm"). The parties shall cause the Independent Accounting Firm to submit a report to Purchasers and Seller, based on the submissions of the parties hereto and any additional examination deemed reasonably necessary by the Independent Accounting Firm, with a determination regarding the disputed items, within twenty (20) days after submission of the matter, and such report shall be final, binding and conclusive on Purchasers and Seller. The fees, costs and expenses of the Independent Accounting Firm shall be shared equally by Seller, on one hand, and Purchasers, on the other hand. As finally determined pursuant to Section 2.5(a) or this Section 2.5(b), Reported Net Assets shall be "Final Net Assets".

(i) Conduct the Business in the Ordinary Course of Business;

(ii) Pay all of its Liabilities and Taxes with respect to the Business when due;

(iii) Maintain insurance coverage in amounts adequate to cover the reasonably anticipated risks of Seller in connection with the Business consistent with past practice; and

6.2 Interim Operations. From the Effective Date until the Closing, Seller shall not, and shall cause its officers, directors, employees, consultants and advisors not to (in each case without the written consent of Purchasers, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld), (i) take any action that would constitute a breach of the representations and warranties of Seller set forth in Section 4.21 (Subsequent Operations of Business) or otherwise herein or in another Transaction Agreement, regardless of whether such action is or would be disclosed on Seller's Disclosure Schedule (the operation of this section shall in no way impair or affect the representations and warranties in Section 4.21 or elsewhere hereunder), (ii) take any other action material to the Business other than in the Ordinary Course of Business, (iii) except as may be permitted pursuant to Section 6.3 hereof, take any action that would prevent it from performing or cause it not to perform its covenants hereunder or under the other Transaction Agreements or (iv) enter into any Contract to or otherwise agree to, in writing or otherwise, take any of the actions described above. Seller shall use all commercially reasonable efforts, to the extent reasonably requested by Purchasers, to educate, train, cooperate with and otherwise assist Purchasers and their designated employees and representatives in understanding all aspects of the Business (including relationships with third parties) and preparing for the transition of the Business to Purchasers' ownership following Closing.

6.3 Acquisition Proposals. From the Effective Date until Closing, Seller agrees that neither it nor any of its Subsidiaries nor any of the officers and directors of it or its Subsidiaries shall, and that it shall direct and cause its and its Subsidiaries' employees, agents and representatives (including any investment banker, attorney or accountant retained by it or any of its Subsidiaries) not to, directly or indirectly, initiate or solicit or take any action designed to encourage or facilitate (including by way of furnishing information) any inquiries or the making of any proposal or offer with respect to (i) a sale or issuance of stock involving a change or acquisition of control of Seller, a merger, reorganization, share exchange, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution, or similar transaction involving Seller or any of its Subsidiaries, or (ii) any purchase or sale (or exclusive license) of all or any significant portion of the Business or the Acquired Assets (any such proposal or offer being hereinafter referred to as an "Acquisition Proposal"). Seller further agrees that, except as may be permitted pursuant to the following sentence, neither it nor any of its Subsidiaries nor any of the officers and directors of it or its Subsidiaries shall, and that it shall direct and cause its and its Subsidiaries' employees, agents and representatives (including any investment banker, attorney or accountant retained by it or any of its Subsidiaries) not to, directly or indirectly, have any discussion with or provide any Confidential Information or data to any Person relating to an Acquisition Proposal, or engage in any negotiations concerning an Acquisition Proposal. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Seller or its board of directors or any committee thereof shall be permitted (A) to the extent applicable, to comply with Rule 14e-2(a) promulgated under the Exchange Act with regard to an Acquisition Proposal, and (B) to engage in any discussions or negotiations with, or provide any information to, any Person in response to an unsolicited bona fide written Acquisition Proposal by any such Person, if and only to the extent that, in the case of the actions referred to in clause (B), (i) the board of directors or any committee thereof of Seller concludes in good faith, after having received the advice of counsel, that the provision of such information or the engaging in such negotiations or discussions is obligated by the directors' fiduciary duties in accordance with Florida law, (ii) the board of directors of Seller determines in good faith that the Acquisition Proposal in question constitutes a Superior Proposal (as defined below), (iii) prior to providing any information or data to any Person in connection with an Acquisition Proposal by any such Person, the board of directors or any board committee thereof of Seller receives from such Person an executed confidentiality agreement containing customary terms and provisions and (iv) prior to providing any information or data to any Person or entering into discussions or negotiations with any Person, the board of directors or any committee thereof notifies Purchasers promptly of such inquiries, proposals or offers received by, any such information requested from, or any such discussions or negotiations sought to be initiated or continued with, any of its representatives indicating, in connection with such notice, the name of such Person and the material terms and conditions of any proposals or offers. "Superior Proposal" means any bona fide written proposal, not solicited, initiated or encouraged in violation of this Section 6.3, made by a third Person with respect to an Acquisition Proposal, for consideration consisting of cash, if and only if the board of directors of Seller reasonably determines (after consultation with its financial advisor and outside counsel) (x) that the proposed transaction would be more favorable from a financial point of view to Seller or its stockholders than the Transaction, taking into account at the time of determination any changes to the terms of this Agreement that as of that time had been proposed by Purchasers, and (y) that the Person making such Superior Proposal is capable of consummating such Acquisition Proposal (based upon, among other things, the availability of financing and the degree of certainty of obtaining financing, the expectation of obtaining required regulatory approvals and the identity and background of such Person). Seller agrees that it will immediately cease and cause to be terminated any existing activities, discussions or negotiations with any parties conducted heretofore with respect to any Acquisition Proposal or similar transaction or arrangement and will not waive any rights under any confidentiality agreements entered into with such parties. Seller agrees that it will take the necessary steps to promptly inform the individuals and Entities referred to in the first sentence of this Section 6.3 of their obligations under this Section 6.3.

(iii) breach of any covenant or obligation of Seller hereunder; or

(iv) circumstance or event that results in, or could reasonably be expected to result in, the failure of Seller to timely satisfy any of the closing conditions in Article 9 of this Agreement.

6.5 Updating the Seller's Disclosure Schedule. From the Effective Date until the Closing, if any event, condition, fact or circumstance that is required to be disclosed pursuant to Section 6.4 would require a change to the Seller's Disclosure Schedule if the Seller's Disclosure Schedule were dated as of the date of the occurrence, existence or discovery of such event, condition, fact or circumstance, then Seller shall promptly deliver to Purchasers an update to the Seller's Disclosure Schedule specifying such change and shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to remedy same, as applicable; provided, however, that no such update (nor any information provided to Purchasers by Seller pursuant to Section 6.4) shall be deemed to supplement or amend the Seller's Disclosure Schedule for the purpose of (i) determining the accuracy of any of the representations and warranties made by Seller in this Agreement or (ii) determining whether any of the closing conditions set forth in Article 9 have been satisfied.

6.6 Access to Information. From the Effective Date until the Closing, Seller shall (i) provide Purchasers and their Representatives with prompt and reasonable access during regular business hours, and in a manner so as not to interfere with the normal business operations of Seller, to all premises, properties, key personnel, Persons having business relationships with Seller (including suppliers, licensees, customers and distributors), books, records (including Tax records), contracts, and documents of or pertaining to the Business; (ii) furnish Purchasers with all financial, operating and other data and information related to the Business (including copies thereof), as Purchasers may reasonably request; and (iii) otherwise cooperate and assist, to the extent reasonably requested by Purchasers, with Purchasers' investigation of the Business, the Acquired Assets and the Assumed Liabilities. 43

6.7 All Commercially Reasonable Efforts. From the Effective Date until the earlier of the Closing or termination of this Agreement pursuant to Article 10, each of Seller and Purchasers shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to cause to be fulfilled and satisfied all of the other party's conditions to Closing set forth in Article 9.

6.8 Consents. As promptly as possible after the Effective Date, Seller shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to obtain all Assignment Consents and any other Consents necessary or appropriate to consummate the Transaction on the terms and conditions hereof with respect to Seller and the Business, and Purchasers shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to obtain any Consents and make and deliver all filings and notices to consummate the transaction on the terms and conditions hereof that apply to Purchasers (for the avoidance of doubt, not including any Assignment Consent or other Consent necessary to transfer the Business or which Seller is otherwise obligated to obtain hereunder). Purchasers shall not be required to, as a condition to Seller's obtaining any Consent, (i) agree to any material changes in, or the imposition of any material condition to the transfer to the applicable Purchaser of, any Material Contract, Non-Assignable Asset, Governmental Approval or other Acquired Asset, (ii) dispose of or make any changes to the Business, or (iii) expend any funds or incur any burden.

6.10 Interim Pro Forma Financial Information. Within thirty (30) days after each monthly anniversary of the date of the Pro Forma Balance Sheet (unless the parties agree in writing on other date(s)) (each such anniversary date or date agreed by the parties, an "Interim Reporting Date") that occurs between the Effective Date and the Closing Date, Seller shall provide to Purchasers, certified by an executive officer of Seller, an updated version of (i) the Pro Forma Balance Sheet as at such Interim Reporting Date and (ii) the Pro Forma Income Statement as of and for the period beginning on the date following the date of the Pro Forma Balance Sheet or the last Interim Reporting Date, as the case may be, and ending on such Interim Reporting Date. Collectively all information provided above pursuant to this Section 6.10 shall be the "Interim Pro Forma Financial Information." Seller shall also use commercially reasonable efforts to provide the select financial information set forth on Schedule 6.10 to Purchasers within five (5) Business Days after the end of each month that ends between the Effective Date and the Closing Date, it being understood that Seller shall prepare such information in good faith but shall make no other representations and warranties with respect to such financial information.

The Seller shall provide Purchasers and their counsel the opportunity to review the Proxy Statement, including all amendments and supplements thereto, prior to its being filed with the SEC and shall give Purchasers and their counsel the opportunity to review all responses to requests for additional information and replies to comments prior to their being filed with, or sent to, the SEC. Each of the Seller, on one hand, and the Purchasers, on the other, agrees to use all commercially reasonable efforts, after consultation with the other parties hereto, to respond promptly to all such comments of and requests by the SEC. "Prohibited Activity" means any of the following: (A) the design, development, production, manufacture, marketing, sales, service or support of any hardware, software or integrated systems Products and Services for (y) live news or other broadcast or video program production (including automated program production, television programming and any video programming broadcasted over the Internet) or (z) automated or other video camera control; (B) the design, development, production, manufacture, marketing, sales, service or support of any consumer or commercial video camera (or component thereof other than auxiliary add-on components that are not themselves items covered under (A) above or (C) below); (C) any material Product and Service of the Business not described above, or such other operation or aspect of the Business as conducted at or prior to Closing, or as Proposed to be Conducted by Seller, that is not described above; (D) any Product and Service that incorporates a Product and Service that is, or that is similar to, a Product and Service covered under items (A), (B) or (C) above; and (E) any training, support, service or other activity related to any of the foregoing.

(b) Covenants. The covenants contained in subsection (a) above shall be construed as a series of identical (except for geographic coverage) separate covenants, one for each city, county, state and country throughout the world. If, in any Proceeding, a court refuses to enforce any of such separate covenants (or any part thereof), then such unenforceable covenant (or such part) shall be eliminated from this Agreement to the extent necessary to permit the remaining separate covenants (or portions thereof) to be enforced. In the event that the provisions of subsection (a) are deemed to exceed the time, geographic or scope limitations permitted by applicable Legal Requirements, then such provisions shall be reformed to the maximum time, geographic or scope limitations, as the case may be, permitted by applicable Legal Requirements.

(c) Acknowledgements. Seller acknowledges that (i) the goodwill associated with the Acquired Assets and customer relationships prior to the Transaction is an integral component of the value of the Acquired Assets and the Business to Purchasers and is reflected in the consideration for the Acquired Assets and the Business paid by Purchasers and (ii) Seller's agreement as set forth in this Section 7.1 is necessary to preserve the value of the Business, including its goodwill and customer relationships, for Purchasers following the Closing. Seller also acknowledges and agrees that (A) that the limitations of time, geographic scope and scope of activity agreed to in this Section 7.1 are reasonable because, among other things, (y) Seller is engaged in a highly competitive industry and (z) Seller has unique access to the trade secrets, know-how and information related to the Business and (B) that Purchasers shall be entitled to specific performance and other injunctive relief for any breach by Seller of this Section 7.1.

7.2 Non-Solicitation. After the Closing, Seller shall not directly or indirectly, and shall cause its controlled Affiliates not to, either for themselves or for any other Person, for a period of five (5) years following the Closing, (i) induce or attempt to induce any Transferred Employee to leave the employ of Purchasers or their respective successors, assigns and Affiliates or (ii) in any way knowingly interfere with the relationship between any Purchaser and its Affiliates and any employee of such Person; provided, however, that general solicitations of employment published in a journal, newspaper, web site or other publication of general circulation shall not be deemed a violation of the foregoing provisions; provided, further, that nothing herein shall prohibit Seller or its Affiliates from employing any employee of Purchasers or their Affiliates at any time where there has not been a violation of this Section 7.2.

7.3 Confidentiality.

(a) Confidential Information of the Business. Seller acknowledges that, following Closing, all Confidential Information related to the Business (except as it may pertain to the Excluded Assets or the Excluded Liabilities) shall be owned by the applicable Purchaser by virtue of the transfer of the Acquired Assets set forth herein and, following Closing, Seller shall treat all such Confidential Information as the Confidential Information of Purchasers. Following Closing Seller shall (i) not disclose any such Confidential Information to any third party, other than to its employees, Affiliates, agents, consultants, accountants, counsel and other representatives who have a clearly demonstrable need to know such information and who agree to comply with disclosure obligations comparable to and no less restrictive than those provided herein, (ii) not use any such Confidential Information for any purpose, and (iii) not knowingly retain any document, database or other media embodying any such Confidential Information. The obligations in this Section 7.3(a) shall not apply with respect to any Confidential Information to the extent such Confidential Information (x) is or becomes publicly known through no wrongful act or omission of Seller or (y) becomes rightfully known to Seller without confidential or proprietary restriction from a source other than Purchasers that does not owe a duty of confidentiality with respect to such Confidential Information.

(b) Other Confidential Information. Subject to Section 7.3(a), without the prior written consent of Seller, in the case of Purchasers, and Purchasers, in the case of Seller, (i) Seller shall not disclose or use any Confidential Information of Purchasers, and (ii) Purchasers shall not disclose or use the Confidential Information of Seller, in each case except as reasonably required in connection with this Agreement and the Transaction. Each of Seller, on one hand, and Purchasers, on the other, shall use no less than reasonable care in protecting any such Confidential Information received. Information shall not be deemed Confidential Information under this Section 7.3(b) if it: (w) is or becomes publicly known through no wrongful act or omission of the receiving party; (x) was rightfully known by the recipient before receipt from the disclosing party; (y) becomes rightfully known to the receiving party without confidential or proprietary restriction from a source other than the disclosing party that does not owe a duty of confidentiality to the disclosing party with respect to such Confidential Information; or (z) is independently developed by the receiving party without the use of or reference to the Confidential Information of the disclosing party. This Section 7.3(b) shall not apply to the Confidential Information of the Business covered by Section 7.3(a) above.

(c) Remedies. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, Purchasers and Seller shall be entitled to seek equitable relief to protect their interest in any of their Confidential Information, including injunctive relief.

(d) Required Disclosure. Notwithstanding subsections (a) and (b) above, in the event a party is required to disclose the Confidential Information of another party (in such event, such party is a "Nondisclosing Party" and the party required to disclose is the "Disclosing Party") pursuant to Legal Requirements or an Order, and would otherwise be prohibited from doing so under this Section 7.3, the Disclosing Party shall: (i) promptly notify the Nondisclosing Party of the existence, terms and circumstances surrounding such requirement; (ii) consult with the Nondisclosing Party on the advisability of taking legally available steps to resist or narrow such request; and (iii) if disclosure of such Confidential Information is required, furnish only that portion of the Confidential Information which the Disclosing Party is legally compelled to disclose and advise the Nondisclosing Party reasonably in advance of such disclosure so that the Nondisclosing Party may seek an appropriate protective order or other reliable assurance that confidential treatment will be accorded such Confidential Information. The Disclosing Party shall not oppose actions by the Nondisclosing Party to obtain an appropriate protective order or other reliable assurance that confidential treatment will be accorded such Confidential Information.

(e) Residual Information. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, if this Agreement terminates without a Closing, no party shall be restricted from, or have any liability for, inadvertently using the Residual Information of another party. "Residual Information" shall mean any Confidential Information or other information that is retained in the unaided memory of a person after access to the tangible embodiment of the other party's Confidential Information. For purposes of this Section 7.3(e), a person's memory is unaided if such person has not intentionally memorized the Confidential Information for the purpose of retaining and subsequently using or disclosing it.

7.4 Acquired Intellectual Property.

(a) Use. Seller agrees that, from and after the Closing, it shall not, and it shall cause its Representatives and employees not to, use any Acquired Intellectual Property Rights. If Seller or any assignee of Seller owns or has any right or interest in any Acquired Intellectual Property Rights that cannot be, or for any reason is not, assigned to the applicable Purchaser at the Closing, Seller shall grant or cause to be granted to such Purchaser, at the Closing, a worldwide, royalty-free, fully paid-up, perpetual, irrevocable, transferable, sublicensable, and exclusive license to exercise all rights in and to such Acquired Intellectual Property Rights.

(b) Enforcement. If any Purchaser is unable to enforce its Intellectual Property Rights acquired hereunder or under another Transaction Agreement against a third party as a result of any Legal Requirement that prohibits enforcement of such rights by a transferee of such rights, Seller agrees to assign to such Purchaser such rights as may be required by such Purchaser to enforce its Intellectual Property Rights in its own name. If such assignment still does not permit such Purchaser to enforce its Intellectual Property Rights against the third party, Seller agrees, to the extent requested by such Purchaser, to initiate and maintain proceedings against such third party in Seller's name; provided, however, that such Purchaser shall be entitled to participate in and control such proceedings, and provided, further, that such Purchaser shall be responsible for the reasonable costs and expenses of Seller related to such proceedings to the extent such enforcement inability is not related to any breach of representation, warranty or obligation of Seller hereunder or under another Transaction Agreement.

7.5 Further Assurances. After the Closing, Seller shall: (i) upon the request of Purchasers, execute and deliver any and all further materials, documents and instruments of conveyance, transfer or assignment as may reasonably be requested by Purchasers to effect, record or verify the transfer to, and vesting in, the applicable Purchaser of Seller's right, title and interest in and to the Acquired Assets, free and clear of all Encumbrances, in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and the Transaction Agreements; (ii) upon the request of Purchasers, cooperate with Purchasers, at Purchasers' expense and direction, to enforce the terms of any Material Contracts including terms relating to confidentiality and Intellectual Property Rights (provided Purchasers shall not be responsible for any expense for which Seller is obligated to indemnify Purchasers); (iii) upon the reasonable request of Purchasers and at Purchasers' expense, use all commercially reasonable efforts to cooperate with Purchasers in their efforts to continue and maintain for the benefit of Purchasers those business relationships of Seller existing prior to the Closing and relating to the Business to be operated by Purchasers after the Closing; (iv) satisfy any applicable Excluded Liabilities in a manner that is not detrimental to any of such relationships; (v) refer to Purchasers all inquiries relating to the Business; (vi) promptly deliver to Purchasers (A) any mail, packages and other communications addressed to Seller relating to the Business and (B) any property that Seller receives and that properly belongs to Purchasers as an Acquired Asset. Neither Seller nor any of its officers, employees or agents shall take any action that would tend to diminish the value of the Acquired Assets after the Closing or that would interfere with the business of Purchasers to be engaged in after the Closing, including disparaging the name or business of Purchasers; (vii) upon the reasonable request of Purchasers, cooperate with Purchasers in obtaining for Lead Purchaser or its designated Affiliates the FCC or other Governmental Approvals necessary or appropriate for Lead Purchaser to manufacture, market and sell the Products and Services of the Business (including with respect to the preparation and submission of the documentation necessary for Lead Purchaser or a designated Affiliate to obtain the FCC certifications, authorizations, identifier numbers, and other Government Approvals). In the event that any retesting of the Products and Services of the Business is required in order for Lead Purchaser or any designated Affiliate to obtain any FCC-related Governmental Approvals for those Products and Services held by Seller prior to Closing to Lead Purchaser, Lead Purchaser shall notify Seller in writing, and at Seller's written request provided to Lead Purchaser within five (5) Business Days of such notification, attempt to utilize the services of the same certification and testing service providers that Seller utilized prior to Closing with respect to the applicable Products and Services; provided (i) Seller shall pay the testing, certification and related costs of such service providers, (ii) such providers provide the services without delay, and on competitive terms and conditions, and (iii) Purchasers do not reasonably determine that utilizing such providers will materially hinder or delay the required testing, authorization, certification and related matters. For the avoidance of doubt, the preceding sentence shall not restrict Lead Purchaser in otherwise having the Products and Services of the Business tested, authorized, certified or similarly treated, nor limit Seller's representations, warranties and covenants hereunder.

7.6 Records and Documents. For a period of five (5) years after the Closing, at Purchasers' request, Seller shall provide Purchasers and their Representatives and employees with access to and the right to make copies of any records and documents related to the Business, possession of which is retained by Seller, as may be necessary or useful in connection with Purchasers' conduct of the Business after the Closing. If during such period or thereafter Seller elects to dispose of such records and documents, Seller shall give Purchasers sixty (60) days' prior written notice, during which period Purchasers shall have the right to take such records and documents without further consideration.

7.7 Insurance and Warranty Claims. For a period of one (1) year after the Closing, Seller shall maintain in full force and effect product liability insurance on all of Seller's Products and Services provided prior to the Closing Date with respect to the Business, in a form and with such limits as maintained by Seller in the Ordinary Course of Business prior to Closing. Such policy(ies) shall name Lead Purchaser as an additional named insured and provide that it may not be cancelled without prior notice to Lead Purchaser. Seller shall provide, at Purchasers' request, reasonably satisfactory evidence that such insurance policy continues to be in effect and that all premiums have been paid.

7.8 Customer Retention. To the extent reasonably requested by Purchasers, Seller shall use all commercially reasonable efforts, for a period of six (6) months following Closing and at Purchasers' expense (with respect to the out-of-pocket expenses of Seller), to assist Purchasers in transitioning the customer, supplier and other third-party relationships of the Business to Lead Purchaser.

7.9 Public Announcements. From and including the Effective Date, Seller and Purchasers shall cooperate in good faith to jointly prepare all press releases and public announcements pertaining to this Agreement and the Transaction (including the initial respective press releases of Seller and Purchasers), and neither Seller nor its Affiliates, nor Purchasers nor their Affiliates, shall issue or otherwise make any public announcement or communication pertaining to this Agreement or the Transaction without the prior consent of Purchasers (in the case of Seller and its Affiliates) or Seller (in the case of any Purchasers and their Affiliates), except as required by Legal Requirements or by the rules and regulations of, or pursuant to any agreement with, any stock exchange. Each party shall not unreasonably withhold approval from the others with respect to any such press release or public announcement. If any party determines, with the advice of counsel, that it is required by any Legal Requirement to make this Agreement, the other Transaction Agreements or any terms hereof or thereof public or otherwise issue a press release or make a similar public disclosure with respect thereto, it shall, at a reasonable time before making any public disclosure, consult with the other party regarding such disclosure, seek such confidential treatment for such terms or portions of this Agreement or the other Transaction Agreements as may be reasonably requested by the other party and disclose only such information as is legally compelled to be disclosed. For the avoidance of doubt, the restrictions set forth in this section shall not apply to communications by any party to customers, potential customers and other third parties of the Business in connection with performance of this Agreement and the Transaction Agreements and other communications that are communications in the Ordinary Course of Business and are not generally made to the public.

7.10 Receivables Collection. Seller shall collect any Receivables related to the Business and included in Excluded Assets in the Ordinary Course of Business and will consult with Purchasers in advance prior to taking or threatening any collection Proceeding with respect thereto. If Purchasers should receive any payment of Receivables included in Excluded Assets, Purchasers shall promptly notify Seller and remit the amount paid to Seller.

7.11 Enforcement of Confidentiality and Similar Agreements. Seller shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to enforce, at Purchasers' request, direction and expense, any Seller rights applicable to the Business under any confidentiality, non-disclosure, invention assignment or similar Contracts that are not Acquired Assets and that are between Seller and any current or former employee or consultant of Seller or its Affiliates.

7.12 Removal and Delivery of Acquired Assets. Following Closing, Seller shall, within ten (10) days of Closing (or, with respect to manufacturing equipment necessary for Seller to perform its obligations pursuant to the Transition Services Agreement, promptly following the time when such equipment is no longer needed by Seller to so perform) and at Purchasers' reasonable direction, (i) remove and package for shipment any Acquired Assets designated by Purchaser and (ii) remove all data included in Acquired Records from all retained information technology systems and provide such data to Purchasers in an electronic or tangible medium and in a manner that is well organized and easily readable. Damage to the Acquired Assets related to Seller's foregoing obligations (including inadequate packaging) shall be the responsibility of Seller. Purchasers shall be responsible for shipping any Acquired Assets removed and packaged by Seller pursuant to this Section 7.12.

7.13 Covenant Not to Sue.

(a) Covenant Not to Sue. From and after the Closing, Seller agrees, on behalf of itself and its Affiliates, that neither Seller nor any of its Affiliates will assert, or assist in the assertion of, any claim or action before any federal, state, local or foreign judicial, arbitration, administrative, executive or other type of body or tribunal against Purchasers or their Affiliates that is based in whole or in part on the infringement or misappropriation (whether direct, contributory, induced or otherwise) of any Intellectual Property Right in the Excluded Assets in connection with (i) the making, having made, using, selling, offering to sell, leasing, offering for lease, importing, deploying, distributing, or otherwise commercializing or disposing of throughout the world, any Currently Commercially Available PVTV Product and Service, Currently Commercially Available CameraMan Product and Service or other Currently Commercially Available Product and Service marketed, sold, serviced or supported by the Video Division, or any component thereof, or (ii) otherwise conducting any aspect of the Business that was conducted at any time prior to Closing or that is within the scope of the Business as Proposed to be Conducted by Seller.

(b) Application of Immunity. The grants of immunity set forth in this Section 7.13: (i) are irrevocable; (ii) shall survive indefinitely; (iii) shall inure to the benefit of direct and indirect distributors, resellers, manufacturers, suppliers, customers and other users and (iv) with respect to such distributors, resellers, manufacturers, suppliers, customers and other users, include an immunity from suit based on claims of infringement or misappropriation (whether direct, contributory, induced or otherwise) of Intellectual Property Rights in the Excluded Assets in connection with any Product and Service (or portion thereof) made, sold or otherwise disposed of or provided by or for Purchasers or any of their Affiliates where such Product and Service or portion thereof was a Currently Commercially Available PVTV Product and Service, CameraMan Product or Service, or other Currently Commercially Available Product or Service marketed, sold, serviced or supported by the Video Division, or a component of any of the foregoing.

(c) Nature of Immunities. The immunities set forth above in this Section 7.13 shall apply to and be binding on any assignees, licensees or other transferees of Seller's Intellectual Property Rights.

(d) Currently Commercially Available Definition. In this Section 7.13, "Currently Commercially Available" means commercially available from the Video Division as of or at any time prior to Closing.

7.14 Tax Audits and Investigations. For the avoidance of doubt, Seller shall be responsible for any audits, investigations or other Proceedings related to sales, use or other Taxes to the extent related to the pre-Closing period or the Transaction, as well as the administration and payment of any sales, use or other Taxes to the extent related to the pre-Closing period or the Transaction.

Edgar Filing: PARKERVISION INC - Form PREM14A

7.15 FCC Matters. Seller authorizes Lead Purchaser to manufacture, market, lease, sell, and distribute the Products and Services of the Business as they exist prior to or at Closing or as developed in the conduct of the Business following Closing as Proposed to be Conducted by Seller (including existing Inventory and Products and Services produced following Closing) under the FCC identifiers (as defined under the FCC's rules and regulations) ("FCC IDs") applicable to those Products as of Closing and Seller shall remain responsible to the FCC for those Products and Services and take all related action reasonably necessary with respect thereto. These obligations of Seller shall terminate after a reasonable period of time during which Lead Purchaser shall apply for and receive new FCC IDs for such Products and Services. Upon Purchasers' receipt of new FCC IDs, Lead Purchaser shall discontinue its use of the existing Seller FCC IDs with respect to newly manufactured Products and Services, but may continue marketing, leasing, selling, and distributing Products and Services of the Business that have already been manufactured and labeled using the existing FCC IDs. Seller shall by Closing have obtained all necessary FCC Governmental Approvals with respect to the Seller Product and Service to which the disclosure on Section 4.17 of Seller's Disclosure Schedule applies.

ARTICLE 8

EMPLOYEES

8.1 Transferred Employees. Lead Purchaser may, but shall have no obligation to, offer employment, to be effective as of the Closing Date and contingent upon the Closing, to each employee of Seller (and the one independent contractor of Seller) set forth on Schedule 8.1 (collectively, the "Transferred Employees"); provided that Lead Purchaser shall extend offers of employment to at least eighty percent (80%) of the Transferred Employees. Lead Purchaser may elect to offer employment to each Transferred Employee on an individual basis. The offers extended by Lead Purchaser shall include a salary (excluding bonuses) no less than that set forth on Schedule 4.10(a)(i) for each applicable Transferred Employee, benefits in the aggregate no less favorable than those that are standard or generally made available to similarly situated existing employees of Lead Purchaser (as reasonably determined by Lead Purchaser) and with vacation and service credits in the aggregate no less favorable than those Lead Purchaser is obligated to provide pursuant to Section 8.2(b). No other Seller personnel will be transferred in connection with the Business. Seller shall (at its own cost and expense and in compliance with all applicable Legal Requirements) terminate the employment, to be effective as of the Closing Date, of all Transferred Employees to whom Lead Purchaser extends an offer of employment and who accept such offer. Seller shall use all commercially reasonable efforts (i) to encourage the Transferred Employees to whom Lead Purchaser extends an offer of employment to continue their employment with Seller until Closing and thereupon to accept employment with Lead Purchaser, (ii) to assist Lead Purchaser in extending offers of employment to such Transferred Employees, (iii) to reasonably assist in transitioning such Transferred Employees to employment with Lead Purchaser and (iv) to take any action reasonably necessary with respect to any joint-employer of the Transferred Employees to effectuate the employment by Lead Purchaser (and any related provision of benefits by Lead Purchaser) of the Transferred Employees to whom Lead Purchaser extends offers of employment and who accept such offers. Seller shall not offer any financial or other incentives or take any other action to discourage any Transferred Employee from accepting an offer of employment from Lead Purchaser. For the avoidance of doubt, Patent Purchaser shall not at Closing hire any Transferred Employee or other employee of Seller in connection with the Transaction and shall not assume any Liability with respect to such employees or any related matter.

8.2 Employee Benefit Arrangements.

(a) In order to secure an orderly and effective transition of employee benefits for the Transferred Employees and their respective beneficiaries and dependents, Seller and Purchasers shall cooperate, both before and after the Closing Date, to exchange information related to the Transferred Employees, all to the extent reasonably requested by Purchasers and in compliance with any applicable Legal Requirements.

(b) Lead Purchaser shall recognize prior employment service completed by the Transferred Employees from their initial date of hire with Seller for the purposes of: (i) accrual of vacation under Lead Purchaser's vacation policy; (ii) eligibility for severance benefits which may be provided from time to time by Lead Purchaser; (iii) vesting under the applicable Lead Purchaser benefits plans as reasonably designated by Lead Purchaser; and (iv) eligibility for coverage under the Lead Purchaser's applicable retirement and health and welfare plans. For the avoidance of doubt, such prior service credit shall include periods of service with Seller and with any PEO that employed (jointly or otherwise) any of the Transferred Employees.

(c) In connection with its employment of the Transferred Employees, Lead Purchaser agrees that, with the approval of the plan administrator of the applicable Lead Purchaser 401(k) plan (the "Purchaser 401(k) Plan"), which approval will not be unreasonably withheld, the Purchaser 401(k) Plan will accept direct or indirect rollovers of "eligible rollover distributions" within the meaning of Section 402(c) of the Code made from the applicable Seller 401(k) Plan with respect to electing Transferred Employees by reason of their "severance from employment" (within the meaning of Section 401(k)(2)(B)(i)(I) of the Code) with Seller.

(d) For the avoidance of doubt, Seller (or the applicable PEO) shall retain the obligation to provide the notice required by Section 4980B(f)(6) of the Code to all "M&A Qualified Beneficiaries" (as defined in Section 54.4980B-9 Q&A-4(a) of the Treasury Regulations) and shall make available to such individuals continuation coverage under its group health plan in accordance with Section 54.4980B-9 Q&A-7 of the Treasury Regulations.

(e) As soon as practicable, but in no event more than thirty (30) days after the Closing Date, Seller shall pay all retention or "stay" bonuses accrued or earned by the Transferred Employees as of the Closing Date.

(f) As soon as practicable, but in no event more than thirty (30) days after the Closing Date, Seller shall pay out the accrued vacation credited to each of the Transferred Employees as of the Closing Date up to a maximum of eighty (80) hours. Any accrued vacation credited to a Transferred Employee in excess of eighty (80) hours shall be forfeited with respect to the Seller as of the Closing Date, but Lead Purchaser shall credit each applicable employee with the amount of hours in excess of eighty (80) hours properly listed on Section 4.10(a)(i) of Seller's Disclosure Schedule or properly accrued between the Effective Date and Closing Date by each such Transferred Employee in a manner consistent with Seller's past practices and policies.

(g) With respect to any bona fide customer orders procured by a Transferred Employee prior to the Closing Date but which are shipped on or after the Closing Date (and with respect to which Seller has not received payment or generated a Receivable included in the Excluded Assets), Lead Purchaser shall pay any properly due and owing sales commission to such Transferred Employee pursuant to the terms of any applicable Seller's sales commission plans as in effect on the Closing Date in the Ordinary Course of Business and to the extent such commissions are payable according to the commission plans described on Schedule 4.10(b)(i). Seller shall be responsible for, and shall pay, all other sales and similar commissions related to the pre-Closing period. Following the Closing, Lead Purchaser shall pay sales commissions, if any, in its sole discretion.

8.3 Compliance with Legal Requirements and Other Obligations. At its sole cost and expense, Seller shall take all actions necessary to comply with all appropriate Legal Requirements in connection with Seller's employment of its employees, including any Legal Requirements under the WARN Act (and any similar state Legal Requirements). Seller shall be solely responsible, before and after the Closing, for the payment of any amounts required to be paid under any Legal Requirement, including the WARN Act and any similar state Legal Requirements, and further including with respect to any accrued vacation and any other accrued compensation or benefits, as a result of the termination or layoff by Seller of any Transferred Employee or any other employee of Seller who is not a Transferred Employee but is terminated by Seller or laid off by Seller in connection with this Transaction. Seller shall perform all of its contractual and other obligations in connection with the employment of the Transferred Employees and other employees in connection with the Transaction.

8.4 No Benefit to Seller's Employees Intended. This Article 8 is not intended to, and does not, create any rights or obligations to or for the benefit of anyone other than Purchasers and Seller. Nothing herein shall be construed to entitle any Transferred Employee to continue his or her employment with Lead Purchaser for any period of time, nor to interfere with the rights of Lead Purchaser or Seller to discharge or discipline any Transferred Employee, to change the terms of any Transferred Employee's employment, or to amend or terminate any employee benefit plans at any time.

ARTICLE 9

No Governmental Authority shall have issued, promulgated, enforced or enacted any Legal Requirement or Order that is then in effect or pending and has, or would have, the effect of making the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or any of the other Transaction Agreements illegal or otherwise prohibit consummation of such transactions, would materially modify or restrain such transactions, or otherwise materially adversely affects the right or ability of the applicable Purchaser to own, operate or control the Business in whole or material part.

55

(j) Material Adverse Effect. Purchasers may terminate this Agreement if pursuant to Section 6.4 or Section 6.5 they receive notice of a Material Adverse Effect or if Purchasers otherwise become aware of a Material Adverse Effect; provided, if such a Material Adverse Effect is reasonably susceptible of cure within thirty (30) days, Seller shall have thirty (30) days from the time Seller's learn of such Material Adverse Effect or receive notice from Purchasers that they intend to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this section to cure such Material Adverse Effect.

58

10.3 Cash Fee. Seller shall pay Purchasers a fee of One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) in cash in immediately available funds by wire transfer to an account designated by Purchasers (i) within one (1) Business Day after receiving Purchasers' notice of termination in accordance herewith pursuant to Section 10.1(g) (Directors' Recommendation) or pursuant to Section 10.1(d) (Orders) in connection with a Designated Order or (ii) simultaneously with any termination by Seller pursuant to Section 10.1(h) (Superior Proposal) or Section 10.1(d) (Orders) in connection with a Designated Order.

10.4 Cash or Stock Fee.

(a) Cash or Stock Payment. In the event of any termination of this Agreement by Seller pursuant to Section 10.1(e) (Deadline) or by Purchasers pursuant to Section 10.1(f) (Shareholder Approval), Seller shall, at its option, comply with either clause (i) or (ii) below:

(i)

(A) if Seller has elected to terminate pursuant to Section 10.1(e), Seller shall pay Purchasers simultaneously with and as a condition to such termination a fee of One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) (the "Cash Amount") in cash in immediately available funds by wire transfer to an account designated by Purchasers, or

(B) if Purchasers have elected to terminate pursuant to Section 10.1(f), Seller shall pay the Cash Amount to Purchasers within one (1) Business Day after receiving Purchasers' notice of termination in accordance herewith, or

(ii)

(A) if Seller has elected to terminate pursuant to Section 10.1(e), Seller shall, simultaneously with and as a condition to such termination, (y) provide Purchasers with written notice of Seller's election to pay the Cash Amount by issuing Seller Common Stock in accordance with this

Edgar Filing: PARKERVISION INC - Form PREM14A

Section 10.4 (the "Stock Payment Notice") and (z) issue and deliver the Initial Shares (as defined below) to Lead Purchaser, or

(B) if Purchasers have elected to terminate pursuant to Section 10.1(f), Seller shall within two (2) Business Days after receiving Purchasers' notice of termination in accordance herewith (y) provide Purchasers with the Stock Payment Notice and (z) issue the Initial Shares to Lead Purchaser.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any Seller shareholder approval or other Consent is necessary pursuant to NASDAQ Market listing requirements or otherwise in order to issue Seller Common Stock to Lead Purchaser as contemplated by this Section 10.4(a) (or if for any other reason Seller is unable to issue such stock to Lead Purchaser in accordance herewith), Seller shall comply with clause (i) above.

(b) Initial Shares. In the event that Seller elects pursuant to Section 10.4(a) to pay the Cash Amount by issuing Seller Common Stock, the number of shares of Seller Common Stock to be initially issued to Lead Purchaser pursuant to Section 10.4(a)(ii) shall equal (i) the Cash Amount divided by (ii) the average of the last sale price of a share of Seller Common Stock on the Nasdaq Market on the ten (10) trading days immediately preceding the date of the Stock Payment Notice (the "Initial Shares"). Seller will in advance of such issuance prepare and deliver instructions to its transfer agent for the issuance of the Initial Shares to Lead Purchaser.

(c) Adjustment to Number of Initial Shares. Three (3) days prior to the effectiveness of the Registration Statement (as defined below), the parties will determine the number of shares of Seller Common Stock equal to (i) the Cash Amount divided by (ii) the average of the last sale price of a share of Seller Common Stock on the Nasdaq Market on the ten (10) trading days immediately preceding the fourth Business Day preceding the effective date of the Registration Statement. If the number determined by the preceding sentence is greater than the number of Initial Shares previously issued to Lead Purchaser, then Seller will issue additional shares of Seller Common Stock to Lead Purchaser equal to such difference and amend the Registration Statement to include such additional shares of Seller Common Stock. If the number determined by the first sentence of this Section 10.4(c) is less than the number of Initial Shares issued hereunder to Lead Purchaser, then Lead Purchaser will surrender to Seller that number of Initial Shares equal to the difference for cancellation, and the Seller will amend the Registration Statement to reduce the number of Initial Shares being registered. As adjusted pursuant to this section, the Initial Shares are the "Shares."

(d) Legends. Purchasers understand that the Seller will instruct its transfer agent to place a stop transfer order with respect to the certificates representing the Shares and that such certificates will bear the following legends:

(i) "The shares represented by this certificate have been acquired for investment and have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the 'Securities Act'). Transfer of these shares is prohibited except pursuant to registration under the Securities Act or pursuant to an available exemption from registration."

(ii) "The shares represented by this certificate are subject to resale limitations set forth in Section 10.4(f) of the Asset Purchase Agreement dated _____, 2004."

Edgar Filing: PARKERVISION INC - Form PREM14A

Following the expiration of the public resale limitation in Section 10.4(f), Seller shall cause its transfer agent to promptly remove the legend in clause (ii) above if Lead Purchaser still holds Shares and Lead Purchaser so requests.

(e) Registration. The Seller shall file a registration statement under the Securities Act ("Registration Statement") with the SEC registering the Shares for re-offer and re-sale as soon as practicable, but in no event later than the thirtieth day after the date on which Seller provides the Stock Payment Notice, and shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to have the Registration Statement declared effective as soon as possible. Once the Registration Statement is declared effective, Seller shall keep the Registration Statement effective and current until all the securities registered thereunder are sold or may be sold freely by Lead Purchaser in any 90-day period without registration under an appropriate exemption under the Securities Act. Seller shall bear all fees and expenses attendant to registering the Shares, including all underwriting expenses (it being understood that Purchasers shall not initiate an underwritten offering). Promptly upon request, Seller will provide to Lead Purchaser such number of copies of the prospectus forming a part of the Registration Statement as are reasonably requested by Lead Purchaser, and all supplements to such prospectus. Seller will promptly notify Lead Purchaser at any time if the Registration Statement or the prospectus may not be used either due to any change in the material information contained therein or due to the omission of material information therefrom or upon the receipt by the Seller of a cease-and-desist or stop order of the SEC. The Seller will use all commercially reasonable efforts to amend or supplement the Registration Statement to permit its continued use by Lead Purchaser.

(f) Public Resale Limitation. During the period beginning on the effective date of the Registration Statement and ending on the date which is the later of (A) one hundred twenty (120) days from the effective date of the Registration Statement and (B) thirty (30) days from the date on which Lead Purchaser would be able to sell all of the Shares in accordance with the restrictions set forth in this Section 10.4(f) if Lead Purchaser sold the maximum number of Shares permitted pursuant to such restrictions on each trading day (the "Resale Limitation Period"), Purchasers agree that on any one trading day Lead Purchaser will sell no more than the greater of (x) 2,500 of the Shares or (y) that number of Shares equal to five percent (5%) of the reported average daily trading volume of the Seller Common Stock for the immediately preceding ten (10) trading days.

(g) Net Proceeds. If Lead Purchaser (A) sells all the Shares within the Resale Limitation Period, (B) attempts to sell all of the Shares on the Nasdaq Market (or any other market where the Shares may be publicly traded) in accordance with Section 10.4(f) utilizing customary trading practices but such sales cannot be accomplished or (C) is unable to sell in compliance with securities laws and any other applicable Legal Requirements for any reason (including due to any inability of Lead Purchaser to comply with Section 10.4(p) or for any representation and warranty of Lead Purchaser set forth in such section to not be true and correct), and in any case if the net proceeds, if any, of such sales or attempted sales (being any sales price less customary commissions, selling costs and taxes ("Net Proceeds")) are less than the Cash Amount, then upon written request by Lead Purchaser to the Seller, which request must be made by Lead Purchaser no later than the tenth (10th) Business Day after the end of the Resale Limitation Period, and in exchange for return by Lead Purchaser to Seller of any unsold Shares, or Initial Shares, as the case may be, Seller shall promptly pay to Lead Purchaser, in cash in immediately available funds by wire transfer to an account designated by Lead Purchaser, the difference between the Net Proceeds actually realized by Lead Purchaser and the Cash Amount (the "Additional Cash Amount"). Lead Purchaser shall provide such supporting documentation of the Net Proceeds amount as may be reasonably requested by Seller.

(h) Failure to Make the Registration Statement Effective. In the event that, for whatever reason, the Registration Statement is not made effective within ninety (90) days of the Stock Payment Notice, Seller shall pay Lead Purchaser, in exchange for return by Lead Purchaser to Seller of the Shares, or the Initial Shares, as the case may be, and within two (2) Business Days of Lead Purchaser's written demand to Seller made within the later of One Hundred Ten (110) days of the date the Stock Payment Notice is delivered to Lead Purchaser or twenty (20) days following any extension of the ninety (90) day period above that may be agreed by Purchasers and Seller, the Cash Amount in cash by wire transfer in immediately available funds to a bank account designated by Lead Purchaser.

(i) Nasdaq Market. Seller undertakes to use commercially reasonable efforts to maintain the listing of the Seller Common Stock on the Nasdaq Market until completion of the sale by Lead Purchaser of the Shares within the Resale Limitation Period.

(j) Rule 144. With a view to making available to the Lead Purchaser the benefits of Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act ("Rule 144"), so long as Lead Investor or any Affiliate holds any Shares, the Seller agrees to:

(i) comply with the provisions of paragraph (c)(1) of Rule 144; and

(ii) file with the SEC in a timely manner all reports and other documents required to be filed with the SEC pursuant to Section 13 or 15(d) under the Exchange Act by companies subject to either of such sections, irrespective of whether Seller is then subject to such reporting requirements.

(k) Full Satisfaction. The Cash Amount, or the Shares issued pursuant to this Section 10.4 and the Additional Cash Amount, if any, as the case may be, will be in full satisfaction of the fee due to Purchasers pursuant to this Section 10.4. The parties acknowledge and agree that, except for any adjustment in the number of Shares as provided in this Section 10.4, if the value of the Shares increases after the date of receipt of the Shares by the Purchasers, Seller will not have any right to credit or otherwise set off the amount of such increase against any other payment or amount Seller owes Purchasers under this Agreement, the other Transaction Agreements, or otherwise. The parties further acknowledge and agree that, if the value of the Shares decreases after the date of receipt of the Shares by Lead Purchaser, except for any adjustment in the number of Shares (and any payment of the Cash Amount and the Additional Cash Amount, if any) as provided in this Section 10.4, Purchasers will not have any right of further payment in cash or shares of Seller Common Stock in respect of the amount due under this Section 10.4.

(l) Seller Indemnification. The Seller agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless Purchasers, their respective directors and officers and each Person, if any, who controls a Purchaser within the meaning of the Securities Act or the Exchange Act, against any Damages, joint or several, to which Purchasers or such person may become subject, under the Securities Act, Exchange Act or otherwise, insofar as such Damages relate to (i) any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in any prospectus or registration statement for the Shares, (ii) the omission or alleged omission by the Seller to state in any prospectus or registration statement for the Shares a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, or (iii) any violation by the Seller of the Securities Act, the Exchange Act, any rule or regulation promulgated thereunder or any other applicable Legal Requirement relating to any action or inaction by the Seller in connection with the issuance or registration of the Shares; provided, however, that the Seller will not be liable in any such case to the extent that any such Damages arise out of or are based upon an untrue material statement or material omission made by Seller in reasonable reliance upon and in conformity with written information regarding Lead Purchaser which is furnished in writing to the Seller by Lead Purchaser or its representatives specifically for inclusion in any registration statement for the Shares ("Non-Indemnity Events").

(m) Lead Purchaser Indemnification. Lead Purchaser agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Seller, each officer and director of the Seller, and each person, if any, who controls the Seller within the meaning of the Securities Act or the Exchange Act against any Damages, joint or several, to which the Seller or such person may become subject, under the Securities Act, Exchange Act or otherwise insofar as such Damages arise out of or are based upon any Non-Indemnity Event; provided that the maximum aggregate indemnification obligation by Lead Purchaser shall not exceed the Net Proceeds resulting from Shares sold by Lead Purchaser pursuant to this Section 10.4 (the "Lead Purchaser Stock Indemnification and Contribution Cap").

(n) Indemnification Procedure. Claims for indemnification pursuant to Section 10.4(l) or (m) above relating to claims by third parties shall be governed by Section 11.7.

(o) Contribution. If the indemnification provided for in this Section 10.4 is unavailable to any indemnified party in respect of any Damages referred to therein, then the indemnifying party, in lieu of indemnifying such indemnified party, will contribute to the amount paid or payable by such indemnified party as a result of such Damages in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative fault of the Seller on the one hand, and of the Lead Purchaser on the other hand, in connection with the statements or omissions which resulted in such Damages as well as any other relevant equitable considerations. The relative fault of the Seller on the one hand, and the Lead Purchaser on the other hand, will be determined with reference to, among other things, whether the untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact or the omission to state a material fact relates to information supplied by a party, and such party's relative intent, knowledge, access to information and opportunity to correct or prevent such statement or omission. Seller and Lead Purchaser agree that it would not be just and equitable if contribution pursuant to this Section 10.4(o) were determined by pro rata allocation or by any other method of allocation which does not take into account the equitable considerations referred to in the immediately preceding paragraph. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the aggregate amount for which Lead Purchaser shall be liable for contribution pursuant to this Section 10.4(o) and for indemnification obligations pursuant to Section 10.4(m) shall not exceed the Lead Purchaser Stock Indemnification and Contribution Cap.

(p) Purchasers Representations. Lead Purchaser represents and warrants to, and covenants with, Seller that: (i) Lead Purchaser is an "accredited investor" as defined in Regulation D under the Securities Act and knowledgeable, sophisticated and experienced in making, and is qualified to make decisions with respect to investments similar to that of the Shares, and has reviewed and considered such information it deems relevant in making an informed decision; (ii) Lead Purchaser is acquiring the Shares for its own account, and, except for sales of Shares as contemplated by Section 10.4, with no present intention of distributing any such Shares or pursuant to any arrangement or understanding with any other persons regarding the distribution of such Shares; (iii) Lead Purchaser will not, directly or indirectly, offer, sell, pledge, transfer or otherwise dispose of (or solicit any offers to buy, purchase or otherwise acquire or take a pledge of) any of the Shares except in compliance with the Securities Act and Exchange Act, applicable state securities laws and the respective rules and regulations promulgated thereunder; (iv) the Lead Purchaser upon request, will expeditiously answer all reasonable questions on an investor questionnaire typically requested of a selling shareholder for use in preparation of any registration statement relating to the Shares and the answers thereto will be materially true, correct and complete as of the date thereof; (v) Lead Purchaser will notify the Seller promptly of any material change in any of such information in the questionnaire until such time as Lead Purchaser has sold all of the Shares or until the Seller is no longer required to keep the registration statement effective. The Lead Purchaser understands that (until the Registration Statement is filed) its acquisition of the Shares has not been registered under the Securities Act or registered or qualified under any state securities law in reliance on specific exemptions therefrom. Lead Purchaser hereby covenants (except for sales contemplated by and in accordance with Section 10.4) with the Seller not to make any sale of the Shares without complying with the provisions of this Agreement and the Exchange Act and without causing the prospectus delivery requirement under the Securities Act to be satisfied (whether by delivery of the Prospectus or pursuant to and in compliance with an exemption from such requirement). The parties acknowledge and agree that Lead Purchaser is making the representations and warranties, and entering into the covenants, set forth in this Section 10.4(q) in order to facilitate the sale of the Shares pursuant to this Section 10.4, and that if any representation and warranty of Lead Purchaser set forth in this Section 10.4 is untrue, or if Lead Purchaser cannot in good faith comply with its obligations in this Section 10.4(q) or otherwise sell any or all of the Shares in compliance with securities laws and any other applicable Legal Requirements, Lead Purchaser shall not be required to sell any Shares (and shall be entitled, upon return to Seller of any Shares or Initial Shares issued to Lead Purchaser to the Cash Amount minus the amount of any Net Proceeds received by Lead Purchaser.

10.5 Right of First Refusal. In the event of termination pursuant to (i) Section 10.1(h) (Superior Proposal), (ii) Section 10.1(g) (Directors' Recommendation), (iii) Section 10.1(f) (Shareholder Approval), (iv) Section 10.1(e) (Deadline), but only in case of termination by Seller, or (v) Section 10.1(d) (Orders) in connection with a Designated Order, Purchasers shall have a right of first refusal as set forth in this Section 10.5.

(a) If in the twelve-month period beginning on the date of termination hereof, Seller (or any of its Subsidiaries, or any employees, officers or directors of Seller or of any Subsidiary of Seller, or any Representatives of Seller or any of its Subsidiaries) receives any written proposal from a third party concerning the sale of the Business or the Acquired Assets or a material portion thereof (or an exclusive license of the Acquired Intellectual Property Rights or a significant portion thereof) (each, a "Competing Transaction", and any of the foregoing communications, an "Acquisition Contact"), Seller shall promptly (in any event within three (3) business days of the first Acquisition Contact) inform Purchasers in writing and in reasonable detail regarding such Acquisition Contact, including any subsequent oral or written communications.

(b) Seller shall not enter into any agreement concerning a Competing

Edgar Filing: PARKERVISION INC - Form PREM14A

Transaction nor otherwise consummate any Competing Transaction unless Seller first offers to enter into a transaction with Purchasers (or any Affiliate reasonably designated by Purchasers) on substantially the same terms and conditions as such Competing Transaction by sending Purchasers (i) written notice of the proposed Competing Transaction and the terms and conditions thereof (the "Seller Offer") and (ii) evidence reasonably satisfactory to Purchasers (A) that the third party has a genuine interest in entering into such Competing Transaction on such terms and conditions and possesses the financial resources to do so and (B) that consummation of the Competing Transaction by Seller or the third party is not prohibited or restricted by any legal requirement.

(c) If Purchasers (or any designated Affiliate), within twenty (20) days of receiving such notice from Seller, accept the Seller Offer by sending Seller written notice to such effect, then Seller, as soon as possible and subject only to such closing conditions as are set forth in the Seller Offer, shall sell the portion of the Business and the Acquired Assets, or as the case may be, license the Acquired Intellectual Property Rights, covered by the Seller Offer in accordance with such offer (and provide any other consideration, including the performance of any covenants of Seller in the terms of the Competing Transaction) to Purchasers in return for the consideration set forth in the Seller Offer. Purchasers and Seller shall select a closing to be held for this purpose at a time and place to be reasonably agreed to by the parties in accordance herewith and enter into any agreements reasonably necessary to effectuate the transaction on reasonable and customary terms and conditions.

(d) If any of the Purchasers (or any designated Affiliate) does not, within twenty (20) days of receiving the notice from Seller, accept the Seller Offer by sending Seller written notice to such effect, then (A) Seller may proceed with the Competing Transaction on the same terms and conditions described in the Seller Offer. If the terms of the Competing Transaction are materially changed (it being understood that, without limiting the interpretation of material, any change in price will be material) in a manner favorable to the Person extending the Seller Offer, following provision of the notice to Purchasers, Seller shall send Purchasers another notice describing such changed terms in reasonable detail and Purchasers shall have twenty (20) days to accept or decline to enter into the competing transaction in accordance herewith.

(e) The right of first refusal in this Section 10.5 (i) shall terminate upon the consummation by Seller of a Competing Transaction with a third Person made in compliance with this Section 10.5 and (ii) for the avoidance of doubt, shall not apply to any Superior Transaction which causes Seller to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 10.1(h) (Superior Proposal).

ARTICLE 11

(xi) any Seller breach of Section 4.32 (Seller Common Stock).

(b) Purchasers Special Indemnification. Notwithstanding Section 11.3 and Section 11.5, Purchasers shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless, without regard to any limitations or any materiality, Knowledge or other qualifications in the representations and warranties or in Purchasers' Disclosure Schedule, if any, the Seller Indemnified Parties from and against (i) any and all Damages, whether or not involving a third-party claim, including reasonable attorneys' fees, arising out of, relating to or resulting from a breach of Section 1.4 (Assumed Liabilities) by Lead Purchaser, (ii) the amount of any portion of the Holdback Amount (and any applicable interest pursuant to Section 2.2) not paid by Purchasers in violation of Section 2.2, (iii) any amount of any adjustment to the Fixed Purchase Price which Purchasers are obligated to pay Seller pursuant to Section 2.5(c) and which is not paid to Seller, in violation of Section 2.5, (iv) the amount of any indemnification payment pursuant to Section 10.4(m) or contribution payment pursuant to Section 10.4(o), up to, in the aggregate, the amount of the Lead Purchaser Stock Indemnification and Contribution Cap and (v) any material breach by Lead Purchaser of the Transition Services Agreement.

(c) Survival. The special indemnities in this Section 11.4 shall not terminate or expire, shall survive for an unlimited period, and for the avoidance of doubt shall not be subject to the limitations set forth in Section 11.5.

11.5 Indemnification Limits.

(a) Threshold. Seller shall not be obligated to indemnify the Purchasers Indemnified Parties pursuant to Section 11.2 (Indemnification by Seller), and Purchasers shall not be obligated to indemnify the Seller Indemnified Parties pursuant to Section 11.3 (Indemnification by Purchasers), unless in each case the aggregate of all Purchasers Damages or Seller Damages, respectively, exceeds One Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($150,000) (the "Indemnification Threshold"), in which case the Seller Indemnified Parties or the Purchasers Indemnified Parties, as the case may be, shall be entitled to recover all of their Seller Damages or Purchasers Damages, as the case may be, including the amount of the Indemnification Threshold. For the purposes of determining whether a representation, warranty, covenant or agreement has been breached and for determining the Indemnification Threshold, qualifications to any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement regarding "material," "materiality," "Material Adverse Effect," or words of similar import shall be disregarded and have no effect.

(b) Seller's General Indemnification Cap. The maximum aggregate Liability of Seller pursuant to Section 11.2 shall not exceed Four Million Dollars ($4,000,000) (the "General Indemnification Cap"); provided that this limitation shall not apply with respect to (i) fraud or intentional misrepresentation by Seller, (ii) willful breaches of covenants or (iii) breaches of Section 4.9 (Intellectual Property).

(c) Intellectual Property Representations Cap. The maximum aggregate

Edgar Filing: PARKERVISION INC - Form PREM14A

Liability of Seller pursuant to Section 4.9 (Intellectual Property) shall not exceed Five Million Dollars ($5,000,000) (the "Intellectual Property Rights Representation Cap"); provided that this limitation shall not apply with respect to fraud or intentional misrepresentation by Seller; and provided, further, that Purchasers shall not be entitled to additional indemnification for breach of Section 4.9 (Intellectual Property) under the General Indemnification Cap.

(d) Purchasers' Indemnification Cap. The maximum aggregate Liability of Purchasers pursuant to Section 11.3 shall not exceed Four Million Dollars ($4,000,000); provided that this limitation shall not apply with respect to (i) fraud or intentional misrepresentation by Purchasers or (ii) willful breaches of covenants.

(e) Final Net Assets. For the avoidance of doubt, Purchasers' remedy for any difference between (A) the value of the Acquired Assets included in the Net Assets calculation pursuant to Section 2.5(c) as stated on the Pro Forma Balance Sheet and in Seller's other financial information and (B) the final amount of Net Assets as determined pursuant to Section 2.5 shall be the adjustment to the Fixed Purchase Price set forth in Section 2.5(c).

(f) Injunctive Relief. For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 11.5 shall not be deemed to limit the right of any party to seek specific performance or other injunctive relief.

11.6 Procedures for Indemnification. Promptly after receipt by a party entitled to indemnification hereunder (the "Indemnitee") of written notice of the assertion or the commencement of any Proceeding by a third party with respect to any matter for which indemnification may be sought hereunder, the Indemnitee shall give written notice thereof to the party obligated to indemnify the Indemnitee (the "Indemnitor"), and thereafter shall keep the Indemnitor reasonably informed with respect thereto in accordance with Section 11.7; provided, however, that failure of the Indemnitee to give the Indemnitor notice as provided herein shall not relieve the Indemnitor of its obligations hereunder except to the extent that the Indemnitor is prejudiced thereby. A claim for indemnification for any matter not involving a third-party Proceeding may be asserted by notice to the party from whom indemnification is sought and shall be paid promptly after such notice. Disputes shall be governed by Section 12.16 hereof.

11.7 Defense by Indemnitor. In connection with any claim giving rise to indemnity hereunder or resulting from or arising out of any Claim by a Person who is not a party to this Agreement, the Indemnitor at its sole cost and expense may, upon written notice to the Indemnitee, assume the defense of any such claim if the Indemnitor acknowledges to the Indemnitee in writing Indemnitee's obligation to indemnify the Indemnitee with respect to all elements of such claim, and thereafter diligently conducts the defense thereof with counsel of recognized standing reasonably acceptable to the Indemnitee. The Indemnitee shall be entitled to employ counsel separate from counsel employed by the Indemnitor in any such action and to participate therein, but the fees and expenses of such counsel employed by the Indemnitee shall be at its expense (unless the Indemnitee reasonably determines there is a conflict between the Indemnitee and Indemnitor with respect to such action, in which case such fees and expenses shall be at the Indemnitor's expense), and the Indemnitor shall retain control of such defense. Without the consent of the Indemnitee, not to be unreasonably withheld, Indemnitor shall not consent to the entry of any judgment or enter into any settlement in each case including anything other than monetary damages which does not include as an unconditional term thereof the giving by the claimant or plaintiff to all Indemnitees a release from all Liability with respect to such claims. Except as set forth in this Section 11.7, Indemnitor shall have no Liability for any settlement entered into by any Indemnitee without the prior written consent of the Indemnitor so long as the Indemnitor is reasonably complying with its obligations under this Section 11.7. If the Indemnitor does not assume the defense of such claim within thirty (30) days after written notice thereof from the Indemnitee or does not thereafter diligently conduct such defense, the Indemnitee may defend against such claim at the sole cost and expense of the Indemnitor. Notwithstanding the foregoing terms of this Section 11.7, if there is any threat of a temporary, preliminary or permanent injunction in any claim, action or proceeding for which indemnification may be sought with respect to Acquired Intellectual Property Rights, Purchasers shall have the option to control the defense and settlement of such claim, action or proceeding.

11.8 Exclusive Remedy. Unless otherwise set forth in another Transaction Agreement, and without limiting any rights of any party to (i) make claims based upon fraud or intentional misrepresentation or (ii) bring an action for specific performance or other injunctive relief, the rights of the parties to assert indemnification claims and to be indemnified, defended and held harmless pursuant to this Article 11 will be the sole and exclusive right and remedy exercisable by Purchasers Indemnified Parties and Seller Indemnified Parties with respect to any breach by Purchasers, on the one hand, or Seller, on the other hand, of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained in this Agreement or in the other Transaction Agreements.

11.9 Holdback Amount. Purchasers may apply all or a portion of the Holdback Amount to satisfy any Claim for indemnification pursuant to this Article 11; provided that Purchasers shall provide Seller with notice of such Claim and such application of the Holdback Amount in accordance with Section 11.6; and provided, further, that if Seller provides Purchasers with a written notice of dispute within fifteen (15) days after receiving Purchasers' notice, Purchasers shall not apply such portion of the Holdback Amount until resolution of such dispute. Purchasers shall continue to hold the applicable portion of the Holdback Amount until resolution of such dispute. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as limiting the liability of Seller for indemnification claims or otherwise to the Holdback Amount, nor shall payments from the Holdback Amount be considered as liquidated damages for any breach under this Agreement or any other Transaction Agreement.

In rendering its fairness opinion, Wells Fargo Securities has assumed and relied upon, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of all the financial information, analyses and other information that was publicly available or otherwise furnished to, reviewed by or discussed with us, and we do not assume any responsibility or liability therefore. We did not make an independent evaluation or appraisal of the specific assets or the liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of the Video Division nor have we been furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. With respect to financial forecasts and other information and data provided to or otherwise reviewed by or discussed with us, we have been advised by the management of the Company that such forecasts and other information and data were reasonably prepared based on the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of the Company as to the future financial performance of the Video Division and have assumed that such performances will be achieved. We express no opinion as to such financial projections or the assumptions on which they are based. We have also assumed that there has been no material change in the Video Division's assets, results of operations, financial condition, business or prospects since the date of the last financial statements made available to us. We have assumed, that all of the representations and warranties contained in the Draft Agreement and all related agreements are true and correct, that each party to such agreements will perform all of the covenants required to be performed by such party under such agreements and that the conditions precedent in the Draft Agreement are not waived. We have further assumed that the Purchase will be completed in a timely fashion and that the final terms will not vary materially from the Draft Agreement.

Our opinion is necessarily based on economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. Events occurring after the date hereof could materially affect this opinion. We were not requested to consider, and our opinion does not address, the relative merits of the Purchase as compared to any alternative business strategies that might exist for the Company. Our opinion is, in any event, limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Consideration in the Purchase and does not address the Company's underlying business decision to effect the Purchase. We have not undertaken to update, revise or reaffirm this opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring after the date hereof. We are expressing no opinion herein as to what the likely trading range of ParkerVision's common stock subsequent to the completion of the Purchase.

Wells Fargo Securities, as part of its investment banking business, is customarily engaged in the valuation of businesses, including financial institutions, and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, and other corporate transactions. We have acted as ParkerVision's financial advisor in connection with the Purchase and will receive a fee for our services, a significant portion of which is contingent upon consummation of the Purchase. In the past, we have also provided, and may in the future provide, certain other investment banking services to ParkerVision and have received, and will receive, compensation for such services.

In the ordinary course of our business, we may actively trade the equity securities of ParkerVision for our own account and for the accounts of our customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities.

This fairness opinion is directed to the Board of Directors of ParkerVision in connection with its consideration of the Purchase and does not constitute a recommendation of the Purchase to the Company. Neither this Opinion nor any
