Item 1. Business.

GENERAL

Renaissance Capital Growth & Income Fund III, Inc., (the “Fund” or the “Registrant”) is a non-diversified, closed-end fund that has elected to be treated as a business development company (a “BDC”) under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the “1940 Act”). The Fund, a Texas corporation, was organized and commenced operations in 1994.

The investment objective of the Fund is to provide its shareholders long-term capital appreciation by investing primarily in privately placed convertible securities and equity securities of emerging growth companies.

RENN Capital Group, Inc. (“RENN Group” or the “Investment Adviser”), a Texas corporation, serves as the investment adviser to the Fund. In this capacity, RENN Group is primarily responsible for the selection, evaluation, structure, valuation, and administration of the Fund’s investment portfolio. RENN Group is a registered investment adviser under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended (the “Advisers Act”).

Our Internet website address is www.rencapital.com. You can review the filings we have made with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”), free of charge, by linking to the Electronic Data Gathering, Analysis, and Retrieval System of the SEC (“EDGAR”) at www.sec.gov. From EDGAR, you should be able to access our annual reports on Form 10-K, quarterly reports on Form 10-Q, current reports on Form 8-K and amendments to those reports filed or furnished pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Generally, investments are, and will continue to be, in companies that have their common stock registered for public trading under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “1934 Act”), or companies that in the opinion of the Investment Adviser have the ability to effect a public offering within three to five years. The Fund generally invests in privately placed preferred stock or debentures of a company to be held in the Fund’s portfolio (“Portfolio Company”). These securities typically are convertible into, or exchangeable for, the common stock of the Portfolio Company. While such common stock of the Portfolio Company may be publicly traded, the common stock acquired by the Fund is often unregistered. Therefore, such securities are restricted from distribution or sale to the public except in compliance with certain holding periods and exemptions under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “1933 Act”), or after registration pursuant to the 1933 Act. The Fund also purchases shares of small and micro cap issuers in the open markets. These shares are freely tradable and have no restrictions on resale.

From inception through December 31, 2006, the Fund had made investments in seventy-five (75) different Portfolio Companies having an aggregate cost of $96,818,111. At December 31, 2006, the Fund had active investments in thirty (30) Portfolio Companies. The Fund does not focus on particular industry segments. Instead, the Fund makes investment decisions using a bottom-up analysis of the potential Portfolio Company, with no predetermined industry bias.

Under the provisions of the 1940 Act, a Business Development Company generally is required to invest at least 70% of its assets directly in “Eligible Portfolio Companies” and temporary investments in “cash items” pending other investments. The term Eligible Portfolio Company generally includes any issuer that (1) is organized under the laws of, and has its principal place of business in, any U.S. state or states; (2) is not an investment company and (3) does not have any class of securities listed on a national securities exchange. The Fund determines whether any prospective investment is in an Eligible Portfolio Company at the time the investment is made, and the calculation of the requisite percentage is also made at that time and is based on the most recent valuation of the Fund’s assets. Under the 1940 Act, a Business Development Company may invest up to 30% of its funds in companies that do not qualify as Eligible Portfolio Companies. In the event the Fund has less than 70% of its assets in the securities of Eligible Portfolio Companies, then the Fund will be prohibited from making investments in companies that are not Eligible Portfolio Companies until such time as the percentage of eligible investments again are at least equal to the 70% threshold.

Pending investment in securities of Eligible Portfolio Companies or other Portfolio Companies, the Registrant’s funds are invested in short-term investments consisting primarily of cash or U.S. Government and agency obligations.

At December 31, 2006, the Fund’s investment assets were classified by amount as follows:

Classification	Value	Percentage of Assets
Investments in Eligible Portfolio Companies (including cash and cash equivalents, net of liabilities)	$ 30,958,459	64.0%
Other Portfolio Investments	17,408,983	36.0%
	$ 48,367,442	100.0%

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE

The investment objective of the Fund is to provide its shareholders with long-term capital appreciation by investing primarily in privately placed convertible debt and equity securities of emerging growth public companies. The Fund seeks to provide returns to shareholders through cash dividends of net investment income and through distributions of realized gains.

The Fund has elected the special income tax treatment available to a regulated investment company (“RIC”) under Subchapter M of the Internal Revenue Code in order to be relieved of federal income tax on that part of its net investment income and realized capital gains that it distributes to shareholders. If a RIC meets certain diversification and distribution requirements under the Internal Revenue Code, the RIC qualifies for pass-through tax treatment. The Fund would be unable to qualify for pass-through tax treatment if it were unable to comply with these requirements. Failure to qualify as a RIC would subject the Fund to federal income tax as if the Fund were an ordinary corporation, which could result in a substantial reduction in both the Fund’s net assets and the amount of income available for distribution to shareholders.

GENERAL INVESTMENT POLICIES

The Fund invests in the securities of emerging growth companies that are generally not available to the public and which typically require substantial financial commitment. An emerging growth company is generally considered to have the following attributes: (1) either a publicly held company with a relatively small market capitalization or a privately held company; (2) an established operating history but of a limited period so as to not have fully developed its market potential for the products or services offered; and (3) a provider of a new or unique product or service that allows the company an opportunity for exceptional growth. Emerging growth companies typically require non-conventional sources of financing because the extent and nature of the market for their products or services is not fully known. Consequently, there is uncertainty as to the rate and extent of growth and also uncertainty as to the capital and human resources required to achieve the goals sought.

With respect to investments in emerging growth companies, the Fund emphasizes investing in convertible debentures or convertible preferred stock of publicly held companies that the Fund anticipates will be converted into common stock and registered for public sale within three to five years after the private placement. In addition, the Fund will invest in privately placed common stock of publicly traded issuers that are initially restricted from trading. To a lesser extent, the Fund may participate in bridge financings in the form of loans or other preferred securities which are convertible into common stock of the issuer or issued together with equity participation, or both, for companies which the Fund anticipates will complete a stock offering or other financing within a year from the date of the investment. The Fund may also make bridge loans, either secured or unsecured, intended to carry the borrower to a private placement or an initial public offering, or to a merger, acquisition, or other strategic transaction.

Generally, the securities of Portfolio Companies have an initial fixed term of five to seven years, with no amortization of the principal amount for the initial two to three years. Further, privately-placed investments in Portfolio Companies will be individually negotiated, non-registered for public trading, and will be subject to legal and contractual investment restrictions. Accordingly, the Fund’s securities of Portfolio Companies are generally considered non-liquid.

The Fund has no fixed policy concerning the types of businesses or industry groups in which it may invest or as to the amount of funds that it will invest in any one issuer. However, the Fund will generally seek to limit its investment in securities of any single Portfolio Company to approximately 15% of the Portfolio Company's net assets at the time of the investment.

In the event the Fund elects to participate as a member of the Portfolio Company's Board of Directors, either through advisory or full membership, the Fund's nominee to the board will generally be selected from among the officers of RENN Group. When, at the discretion of RENN Group, a suitable nominee is not available from among its officers, RENN Group will select, as alternate nominees, outside consultants who have prior experience as an independent outside director of a public company. At December 31, 2006, officers of the Fund served as directors of six of the Fund's portfolio companies. The Fund makes available significant managerial assistance to its portfolio companies through participating in discussions with management and review of various management reports.

Although the Fund has no intent to change its current investment objectives, they may be changed without a vote of the holders of a majority of the Fund's common stock.

It is the policy of the Fund not to structure off-balance-sheet arrangements.

REGULATION UNDER THE INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT OF 1940

The 1940 Act was enacted to regulate investment companies. In 1980, the 1940 Act was amended by the adoption of the Small Business Investment Incentive Act. The purpose of the amendment was to remove regulatory burdens on professionally managed investment companies engaged in providing capital to smaller companies. The Small Business Investment Incentive Act established a new type of investment company specifically identified as a Business Development Company as a way to encourage financial institutions and other major investors to provide a new source of capital for small developing businesses.

BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT COMPANY

A business development company ("BDC") is a closed-end management investment company that generally makes 70% or more of its investments in "Eligible Portfolio Companies" and "cash items" pending other investment. Under the 1940 Act, only certain companies may qualify as "Eligible Portfolio Companies." To be an "Eligible Portfolio Company," the company must satisfy the following:

- it must be organized under the laws of, and have its principal place of business in, any state or states of the United States of America;
- it is neither an investment company as defined in Section 3 of the 1940 Act (other than a small business investment company which is licensed by the Small Business Administration to operate under the Small Business Investment Act of 1958 and which is a wholly-owned subsidiary of the business development company) nor a company which would be an investment company under the 1940 Act except for the exclusion from the definition of investment company in Section 3(c) of the 1940 Act; and

· it does not have any class of securities listed on a national securities exchange.

Therefore, the Investment Adviser believes that “Eligible Portfolio Companies” are, generally, those companies that, while being publicly held, may not have or do not have a broad based market for their securities, or the securities that they wish to offer are restricted from public trading until registered. Further, while the 1940 Act allows a BDC to “control” a Portfolio Company, it is not the general policy of the Fund to acquire a controlling position in its portfolio companies. The Fund only provides managerial assistance, and in certain circumstances seeks to limit its “control” position by contracting for the right to have a designee of the Fund be elected to the board of directors of the Portfolio Company, or be selected an advisory director. While these are the Fund’s general policies, the application of these policies, of necessity, varies with each investment situation.

1940 ACT REQUIREMENTS

The BDC election exempts the Fund from some provisions of the 1940 Act. However, except for those specific provisions, the Fund will continue to be subject to all provisions of the 1940 Act not exempted, including the following:

· restrictions on the Fund from changing the nature of business so as to cease to be, or to withdraw its election as, a BDC without the majority vote of the shares outstanding;

· restrictions against certain transactions between the Fund and affiliated persons;

· restrictions on issuance of senior securities, such not being prohibited by the 1940 Act but being restricted as a percentage of capital;

· compliance with accounting rules and conditions as established by the SEC, including annual audits by independent accountants;

· compliance with fiduciary obligations imposed under the 1940 Act; and · requirement that the shareholders ratify the selection of the Fund’s independent public accountants and the approval of the Fund’s Advisory Agreement with the Investment Adviser or similar contracts and amendments thereto.

CO-INVESTMENTS WITH ADVISOR AFFILIATED FUNDS

In accordance with the conditions of an exemptive order of the SEC permitting co-investments (the “Co-investment Order”), many of the Fund’s acquisitions and dispositions of investments are made in joint participation with funds that are also advised or managed by RENN Group (“Advisor Affiliated Funds”).

The Co-investment Order provides that the Investment Adviser will review private placement investment opportunities on behalf of the Fund, including investments being considered on behalf of its Advisor Affiliated Funds. If the Investment Adviser determines that any such investment is an eligible co-investment opportunity, the Fund must be offered the opportunity to invest in such investment in an amount recommended by the Adviser. Securities purchased by the Fund in a co-investment transaction with Advisor Affiliated Funds will consist of the same class of securities and will have the same rights, price, terms and conditions. Any such co-investment transaction must be approved by the Fund’s Board of Directors, including a majority of its independent directors. The Fund will not make any direct investment in the securities of any issuers in which the Advisor Affiliated Funds, but not the Fund, has previously made a private placement, except for follow-on investments that meet the same requirements. To the extent that the amount of a follow-on investment opportunity is not based on the amount of the Fund’s and the Advisor Affiliated Funds’ initial investments, the relative amount of investment by the Advisor Affiliated Funds and the Fund will be based on the ratio of the Fund’s remaining funds available for investment to the aggregate of the Fund’s and the Advisor Affiliated Funds’ remaining funds available for investment. The Co-investment Order also provides that the Fund will have the opportunity to dispose of any securities in which the Fund and the Advisor Affiliated Funds have invested at the same price, terms and conditions. The Fund will participate in any such disposition to the extent that a majority of its independent directors believe it is in its best interest. The Fund will bear no more than its own transaction costs.

INVESTMENT ADVISERS ACT OF 1940 AND THE ADVISORY AGREEMENT

RENN Group is the investment adviser to the Fund pursuant to the Advisory Agreement (the “Advisory Agreement”). RENN Group is registered as an investment adviser under the Advisers Act and is subject to its filing and other requirements. The Advisers Act also provides restrictions on the activities of registered advisers in order to protect clients from manipulative or deceptive practices.

The Advisory Agreement is further subject to the 1940 Act, which requires that the Advisory Agreement, in addition to having to be initially ratified by the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the Fund, must precisely describe all compensation to be paid to RENN Group, must be approved annually by a majority vote of the Board of Directors of the Fund, may be terminated without penalty on not more than 60 days notice by a vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the Fund, and must automatically terminate in the event of assignment.

Pursuant to the Advisory Agreement, RENN Group receives a management fee equal to a quarterly rate of 0.4375% of the Fund’s net assets, as determined at the end of such quarter with each such payment to be due on the last day of the calendar quarter. In addition, under the Advisory Agreement, RENN Group receives an incentive fee in an amount equal to 20% of the Fund’s realized capital gains in excess of realized capital losses of the Fund after allowance for any unrealized capital losses in the portfolio investments of the Fund. The incentive fee is calculated and paid on an annual basis.

VALUATION OF INVESTMENTS

On a quarterly basis, RENN Group prepares a valuation of the assets of the Fund, subject to the approval of the Board of Directors of the Fund. The valuation principles are described below.

vThe common stock of companies listed on an exchange, Nasdaq or in the over-the-counter market is valued at the closing price on the date of valuation.

vThe unlisted preferred stock of companies with common stock listed on an exchange, Nasdaq or in the over-the-counter market is valued at the closing price of the common stock into which the preferred stock is convertible on the date of valuation. If the preferred stock is redeemable, the preferred stock is valued at the greater of cost or market.

vDebt securities are valued at the greater of (i) cost or (ii) the market value of the underlying common stock into which the debt instrument is convertible. In cases where the debt instrument is in default or the company is in bankruptcy, the value will be (i) the value of the underlying common stock, (ii) the value of the collateral, if secured, or (iii) zero, if the common stock has no value and there is no collateral.

vThe unlisted in-the-money options or warrants of companies with the underlying common stock listed on an exchange, Nasdaq or in the over-the-counter market are valued at the positive difference between the closing price of the underlying common stock and the strike price of the warrant or option. An out-of-the money warrant or option has no intrinsic value; thus, we assign no value to it.

vIf there is no independent and objective pricing authority (i.e. a public market) for investments in privately held entities, the latest sale of equity securities to independent third parties by the entity governs the value of that enterprise. This valuation method causes the Fund's initial investment in the private entity to be valued at cost. Thereafter, new issuances or offers of equity or equity-linked securities by the portfolio company to new investors will be used to determine enterprise value as they will provide the most objective and independent basis for determining the worth of the issuer. Where a private entity does not have an independent value established over an extended period of time, then the Investment Adviser will determine fair value on the basis of appraisal procedures established in good faith and approved by the Board of Directors.

COMPETITION FOR INVESTMENTS

The Fund has significant competition for investment proposals. Competitive sources for growth capital for the industry include insurance companies, banks, equipment leasing firms, investment bankers, venture capital and private equity funds, money managers, hedge funds, and private investors. Many of these sources have substantially greater financial resources than are available to the Fund. Therefore, the Fund will have to compete for investment opportunities based on its ability to respond to the needs of the prospective portfolio company and its willingness to provide management assistance. In some instances, the Fund's requirements that the Fund provide management assistance will cause the Fund to be non-competitive.

PERSONNEL

The Fund has no employees, but instead has contracted RENN Group pursuant to the Advisory Agreement to provide all management and operating activities. RENN Group currently has eleven employees who are engaged in performing the duties and functions required by the Fund. At the present time, a substantial portion of RENN Group's staff time is devoted to activities of the Fund. However, because of the diversity of skills required, the Fund cannot afford to employ all these persons solely for its own needs, and therefore, these employees are not engaged solely in activities of the Fund.

No accurate data or estimate is available as to the percentage of time, individually or as a group, that will be devoted to the affairs of the Fund. The officers and employees have and will devote such time as is required, in their sole discretion, for the conduct of business, including the provision of management services to Portfolio Companies.

The Fund and RENN Group have adopted a Code of Ethics pursuant to Rule 17j-1 under the 1940 Act applicable to all of their respective officers and employees. Item 1A. Risk Factors.

You should carefully consider the risks described below and all other information contained in this annual report on Form 10-K, including our consolidated financial statements and the related notes thereto before making a decision to purchase our common stock. The risks and uncertainties described below are not the only ones facing us. Additional risks and uncertainties not presently known to us, or not presently deemed material by us, may also impair our operations and performance. If any of the following risks actually occur, our business, financial condition or results of operations could be materially adversely affected. If that happens, the trading price of our common stock could decline, and you may lose all or part of your investment.

Failure to Meet Listing Standards. In July 2004, due to our inability to complete our audit and file our Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2003 in a timely manner, the Fund's common stock was delisted from Nasdaq. We have now become current in our SEC filings, and we are attempting to list our common stock on the American Stock Exchange. However, there can be no assurance that we will meet the American Stock Exchange listing standards or any other listing standards.

Our Growth is Dependent on Investing in Quality Transactions. Sustaining growth depends on our ability to identify, evaluate, finance, and invest in companies that meet our investment criteria. Accomplishing such results on a cost-effective basis is a function of our marketing capabilities and skillful management of the investment process. Failure to achieve future growth could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

Failure to Invest Capital Effectively May Decrease Our Stock Price. If we fail to invest our capital effectively, our return on equity may be decreased, which could reduce the price of the shares of our common stock.

Highly Competitive Market for Investments. We compete with a number of private equity funds, other investment entities and individuals for investment opportunities. Some of these competitors are substantially larger and have greater financial resources, and some are subject to different and frequently less stringent regulation. As a result of this competition, we may not be able to take advantage of attractive investment opportunities from time to time and there can be no assurance that we will be able to identify and make investments that satisfy our objectives.

Lack of Publicly Available Information on Certain Portfolio Companies. Some of the securities in our portfolio are issued by privately held companies. There is generally little or no publicly available information about such companies, and we must rely on the diligence of our management to obtain the information necessary for our decision to invest. There can be no assurance that such diligence efforts will uncover all material information necessary to make fully informed investment decisions.

Dependence on Key Management. Selecting, structuring and closing our investments depends upon the diligence and skill of our management, which is responsible for identifying, evaluating, negotiating, monitoring and disposing of our investments. Our management's capabilities will significantly impact our results of operations. If we lose any member of our management team and he/she cannot be promptly replaced with an equally capable team member, our results of operations could be significantly impacted.

Failure to Deploy Capital may Lower Returns. Our failure to successfully deploy sufficient capital may reduce our return on equity.

Results May Fluctuate. Our operating results may fluctuate materially due to a number of factors including, among others, variations in and the timing of the recognition of realized and unrealized gains or losses, the degree to which we encounter competition in our portfolio companies' markets, the ability to find and close suitable investments, and general economic conditions. As a result of these factors, results for any period should not be relied upon as being indicative of performance in future periods.

Uncertain Value of Certain Restricted Securities. Our net asset value is based on the values assigned to the various investments in our portfolio, determined in good faith by our board of directors. Because of the inherent uncertainty of the valuation of portfolio securities which do not have readily ascertainable market values, our fair value determinations may differ materially from the values which would be applicable to unrestricted securities having a public market.

Illiquid Securities May Adversely Affect Our Business. Our portfolio contains securities which are subject to restrictions on sale because they were acquired from issuers in "private placement" transactions or because we are deemed to be an affiliate of the issuer. Unless an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933 is available, we will not be able to sell these securities publicly without the expense and time required to register the securities under applicable federal and state securities laws. In addition, contractual or practical limitations may restrict our ability to liquidate our securities in portfolio companies, because we may own a relatively large percentage of the issuer's outstanding securities. Sales may also be limited by unfavorable market conditions. The illiquidity of our investments may preclude or delay the disposition of such securities, which may make it difficult for us to obtain cash equal to the value at which we record our investments.

Regulated Industry. Publicly traded investment funds are highly regulated. Changes in securities laws or regulations governing our operations or our failure to comply with those laws or regulations may adversely affect our business.

Failure to Qualify for Favorable Tax Treatment. We may not qualify for conduit tax treatment as a Regulated Investment Company ("RIC") if we are unable to comply with the requirements of Subchapter M of the Internal Revenue Code. If we fail to satisfy such requirements and cease to qualify for conduit tax treatment, we will be subject to federal taxes on our net investment income. The loss of this pass-through tax treatment could have a material adverse effect on the total return, if any, obtainable from an investment in our common stock.

Highly Leveraged Portfolio Companies. Some of our portfolio companies could incur substantial indebtedness in relation to their overall capital base. Such indebtedness often has a term that will require the balance of the loan to be refinanced when it matures. If portfolio companies cannot generate adequate cash flow to meet the principal and interest payments on their indebtedness, the value of our investments could be reduced or eliminated through foreclosure on the portfolio company's assets or by the portfolio company's reorganization or bankruptcy.

Our Common Stock Often Trades at a Discount. Our common stock often trades at a discount from net asset value. Our common stock is traded over-the-counter in the pink sheets. Stockholders desiring liquidity may sell their shares at current market value, which has often been below net asset value. Shares of closed-end investment companies frequently trade at discounts from net asset value, which is a risk separate and distinct from the risk that a fund's performance will cause its net asset value to decrease.

Nature of Investment in Our Common Stock. Our stock is intended for investors seeking long-term capital appreciation. Our investments in portfolio securities generally require some time to reach maturity, and such investments generally are illiquid. An investment in our shares should not be considered a complete investment program. Each prospective purchaser should take into account his or her investment objectives as well as his or her other investments when considering the purchase of our shares.

Our Stock Price May Fluctuate Significantly. The market price of our common stock may fluctuate significantly. The market price and marketability of shares of our common stock may from time to time be significantly affected by numerous factors, including our investment results, market conditions, and other influences and events over which we have no control and that may not be directly related to us.

We May be Unable to Participate in Certain Investment Opportunities. As a Business Development Company, we are required to invest at least 70% of our assets directly in Eligible Portfolio Companies. Currently less than 70% of our assets are in Eligible Portfolio Companies and therefore we will be unable to make new investments in companies that are not considered Eligible Portfolio Companies until we are above the 70% threshold.

TRADING

The Fund's common stock was previously traded on the Nasdaq National Market System ("NMS") under the trading symbol RENN. As a result of the Fund's inability to complete the audit of its financial statements and file its Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003 in a timely manner, in July 2004 the Fund's common stock was delisted from NMS and is currently trading over-the-counter in the pink sheets. The Fund has applied to list its common stock on the American Stock Exchange.

NUMBER OF HOLDERS

As of December 31, 2006, there were approximately 707 record holders of the Fund's common stock. This total does not include shareholders with shares held under beneficial ownership in nominee name or within clearinghouse positions of brokerage firms or banks.

DIVIDENDS

In the past, the Fund has provided returns to shareholders through cash dividends of net investment income and of realized gains. At December 31, 2006, the Fund had declared a total of $13.81 per share in cash dividends to its shareholders since inception in 1994.

On November 9, 2006, the Board of Directors of the Fund voted to suspend the Fund's policy of declaring regular quarterly dividends, and adopted a dividend policy subject to review by the Board of Directors to consider a declaration of a cash dividend or a deemed dividend. Upon declaration of a deemed dividend by the Board instead of a cash dividend, the Fund's net capital gains will be retained by the Fund and deemed as having been paid to shareholders on the last day of the calendar year, and the Fund pays a 35% tax on such retained capital gains on behalf of the shareholders. The Fund's shareholders are deemed to have received the dividend as a capital gain dividend and are deemed to have paid the tax actually paid by the Fund.

Shareholders receive a tax credit that they can use to offset their tax on the deemed dividend, or for other purposes. The shareholders also increase their cost basis in their shares in the Fund by the amount of the deemed dividend, net of taxes paid by the Fund and deemed paid by the shareholder.

The Fund has no fixed dividend policy regarding realized capital gains or unrealized capital appreciation earned by the Fund. The Fund's Board of Directors will review the declaration of either a cash dividend, a deemed dividend, or the retention of any such realized capital gains from time to time.

During the year ended December 31, 2006, the Fund realized taxable long-term gains of $19,793,605, or $4.43 per share. From these capital gains, cash dividends of $0.40 per share were distributed. In addition to the cash dividend, the Fund elected to retain an estimated $18,008,018 of capital gains and designated this amount as a deemed dividend paid to shareholders of record on December 31, 2006. The Fund paid federal income taxes on behalf of shareholders of 35% of the deemed dividend amount, equivalent to $6,302,806 or $1.41 per share. The net asset value of the Fund was adjusted downward by $1.41 per share as of December 31, 2006 to account for the federal tax on the deemed dividend.

DIVIDEND REINVESTMENT PLAN

Pursuant to the Dividend Reinvestment Plan (the "Reinvestment Plan") any shareholders whose shares are registered in their own names will be deemed to have elected to have all dividends and distributions automatically reinvested in Fund shares pursuant to the Reinvestment Plan unless and except for each such shareholder who individually elects to receive such on a current basis in lieu of reinvestment. In the case of shareholders such as banks, brokers or nominees that hold shares for others who are beneficial owners ("Nominee Shareholders"), the Plan Agent, American Stock Transfer & Trust Co. (the "Plan Agent") will administer the Reinvestment Plan on the basis of the number of shares certified by such Nominee Shareholders as registered for shareholders that have not elected to receive dividends and distributions in cash.

Investors that own shares registered in the name of a Nominee Shareholder should consult with such nominee as to participation or withdrawal from such plan.

Participants also have the option, commencing on January 1 of each year, of making additional annual cash payments to the Reinvestment Plan in any amount of $1,000 or more up to $10,000. Larger amounts may be accepted with the prior approval of the Fund.

All communications regarding the Reinvestment Plan should be directed to the Plan Agent.

Since the Board has suspended the Fund's policy of declaring regular quarterly dividends, there will be no quarterly cash dividends unless declared by the Board of Directors, and therefore no contributions under the Reinvestment Plan are currently anticipated.

Item 7. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

GENERAL

The primary purpose of the Fund is to provide capital to emerging growth public companies whose ability to service the securities is sufficient to provide income to the Fund and whose growth potential is sufficient to provide opportunity for long-term capital appreciation.

AMENDMENT TO ADVISORY AGREEMENT

On March 1, 2007, the Fund and RENN Group entered into an amendment to the Advisory Agreement. The amendment clarifies that the Fund will pay RENN Group an incentive fee in an amount equal to 20% of all net realized capital gains, if any, computed net of all realized capital losses and unrealized capital depreciation of the Fund. The calculation of the incentive fee will not incorporate any offset of unrealized capital depreciation by unrealized capital appreciation. The effect of the use of this method to calculate the incentive fee is that each year, the cumulative performance of the Fund since its inception will provide the basis for the calculation of the incentive fee.

The Agreement also clarifies that the base management fee paid to RENN Group will be assessed following the assessment of the incentive fee. Thus, the base management fee will be calculated net of any incentive fee payable.

SOURCES OF OPERATING INCOME

The operating income for the Fund is investment income, either in the form of interest on debentures, dividends on stock, or interest on securities held pending investment in portfolio companies. The Fund also generates income through capital gains. Further, the Fund in some cases receives due diligence, commitment, and closing fees, as well as other similar types of revenue. Director's compensation received by RENN Group (or its personnel) for services to a Portfolio Company on behalf of the Fund, is paid to the Fund.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

During the year ended December 31, 2006, the Fund invested $2,178,000 in five (5) new portfolio investments and invested an additional $1,938,806 in follow-on investments in twelve (12) portfolio companies. Cash distributions declared to investors in 2006 amounted to $1,785,588 or $0.40 per share, which was capital gain. In addition to the cash distributions, the Fund elected to retain $18,008,018 of capital gains and has designated them as a deemed dividend paid to shareholders of record on December 31, 2006. The Fund paid the federal income taxes on the undistributed realized gains at a rate of 35%, equivalent to $6,302,806 or $1.41 per share on behalf of the shareholders of record as of December 31, 2006. During 2006, gains were realized from the sale of securities of Laserscope, Metasolv, Inc., Digital Learning Management Corp., and Advanced Refractive Technologies, Inc. (formerly VisiJet, Inc.) and from recoveries related to bankruptcy distributions from Daisytex International Corp. and Dexterity Surgical, Inc., offset by a realized loss taken on an investment in PhotoMedex, Inc. Net loss for 2006 was $4,035,913 and net cash provided by operating activities was $12,370,722. The Fund did not issue any new shares pursuant to the dividend reinvestment plan during the year ended December 31, 2006. However, 48,301 shares utilized in the dividend reinvestment plan were purchased in the open market.

At December 31, 2006, the Fund had $14,835,500 in cash and cash equivalents, and $10,282,113 in liabilities. RENN Group believes that current cash and securities levels are sufficient to pay expenses as they come due and to make investments.

The majority of the Fund's investments in Portfolio Companies are individually negotiated, non-registered for public trading, and are subject to legal and contractual investment restrictions. Accordingly, many of the Portfolio Investments are considered non-liquid. This lack of liquidity primarily affects the ability to make new investments.

From time to time, funds or securities are deposited in margin accounts and invested in government securities. Government securities used as cash equivalents typically consist of U. S. Treasury securities or other U. S. Government and Agency obligations having slightly higher yields and maturity dates of three months or less when purchased. These investments qualify for investment as permitted in Section 55(a)(1) through (5) of the 1940 Act. These securities are generally valued at market price as market prices are generally available for these securities.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

2006 Compared to 2005

During the year ended December 31, 2006, the Fund made additional portfolio investments aggregating $4,116,806 compared to $5,038,466 in 2005. The Fund realized proceeds from the sale of investments in the amount of $20,932,760 compared to $13,632,705 in 2005. The Fund's 2006 net loss of $4,035,913 is due to a combination of a net investment loss of $4,188,705, net decrease in unrealized appreciation on investments of $13,339,923, and net realized gain on investments (net of income tax paid on behalf of the shareholders of $6,302,806) of $13,492,715.

Interest income increased 79.5%, from $189,496 in 2005 to $340,145 in 2006. During 2006 the Fund made new debt investments, and in 2005 the Fund realized a loss on interest receivable for Digital Learning Management Corporation and Advanced Refractive Technologies, Inc. (formerly VisiJet). Dividend income during 2006 was $584,139 compared to $193,402 for 2005. The increase was primarily due to dividends earned on higher cash equivalent balances from proceeds from the sale of Laserscope common stock. Commitment and other fee income decreased to $27,684 in 2006 from $255,146 in 2005.

On December 6, 2005, Renn Group entered into a settlement agreement with the SEC with respect to the calculation of the advisory fees paid by the Fund under the Advisory Agreement (the "SEC Settlement"). Fee income for 2005 was greater than for 2006 primarily due to a penalty payment of $100,000 to the Fund by Renn Group under the SEC Settlement, a late filing fee paid to the Fund by Gaming & Entertainment Group, Inc., and a refund of advisory fees previously paid to Renn Group for prior periods.

Legal and professional fees increased 120.7%, from $295,305 in 2005 to $651,701 for 2006, primarily due to an increase in accounting and consulting fees as we completed our 2003 thru 2005 audits during 2006, offset by a decrease in legal fees and insurance expense. Incentive fees increased 159.6%, to $3,157,367 in 2006 compared to $1,216,467 in 2005 primarily due to greater net realized capital gains achieved on investments during 2006, primarily from the sale of Laserscope. Management fees decreased to $935,776 in 2006 from $1,112,927 in 2005, a decrease of 15.9% due to lower portfolio market values.

Net loss of $16,023,666 in 2005 decreased to a net loss of $4,035,913 in 2006. The Fund had a net realized gain on investments (net of income tax paid on behalf of the shareholders of $6,302,806) of $13,492,715 in 2006, compared to $5,931,321 in 2005. The Fund experienced a decrease in net decrease in unrealized appreciation on investments of $19,537,884 in 2005, compared to a net decrease in unrealized appreciation on investments in 2006 of $13,339,923. The variance is due to lower portfolio market values on investments held at year end.

2005 Compared to 2004

During the year ended December 31, 2005, the Fund made additional portfolio investments aggregating $5,038,466 compared to $9,786,957 in 2004. The Fund realized proceeds from the sale of investments in the amount of $13,632,705 compared to $19,289,611 in 2004. The Fund's 2005 net loss of $16,023,666 is due to a combination of a net investment loss of $2,417,103, net decrease in unrealized depreciation on investments of $19,537,884, and net realized gain on investments of $5,931,321.

Interest income decreased 46.2% for the year in comparison to 2004. In 2005, the Fund realized a loss on interest receivable for Digital Learning Management Corporation and Advanced Refractive Technologies, Inc. and there were fewer debt investments than in 2004. Dividend income during 2005 was $193,402 compared to $184,522 for 2004. Commitment and other fee income increased to $255,146 in 2005 from $126,326 in 2004 primarily as a result of the SEC Settlement Order with affiliate.

General and administrative expenses, including interest expense and legal fees, but excluding incentive and management fees, decreased 26.2%, from $983,616 in 2004 to $725,753 for 2005. Incentive fees decreased 51.3%, $1,216,467 in 2005 compared to $2,497,422 in 2004 because there were greater net realized capital gains achieved on investments during 2004. Management fees decreased to $1,112,927 in 2005 from $1,460,218 in 2004, a decrease of 23.8% due to lower portfolio values.

Net income of $18,971,481 in 2004 decreased to a net loss of $16,023,666 in 2005. In 2005, the Fund had a net realized gain on investments of $5,931,321, compared to $13,852,016 in 2004. The Fund experienced a decrease in net unrealized appreciation on investments from $9,397,996 in 2004, compared to a decrease in net unrealized appreciation on investments in 2005 of $19,537,884.

CONTRACTUAL OBLIGATIONS

The Fund has a contract for the purchase of services under which it will have future commitments: the Advisory Agreement, pursuant to which RENN Group has agreed to serve as the Fund's investment adviser. Such agreement has contractual obligations with fees which are based on values of the portfolio investments which the Fund owns. For further information regarding the Fund's obligations under the investment advisory agreement see Note 4 of the Financial Statements.

Because the Fund does not enter into other long-term debt obligations, capital lease obligations, operating lease obligations, or purchase obligations that would otherwise be reflected on the Fund's Statement of Assets and Liabilities, a table of contractual obligations has not been presented.

Item 7A. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosure About Market Risk

The Fund is subject to financial market risks, including changes in market interest rates as well as changes in marketable equity security prices. The Fund does not use derivative financial instruments to mitigate any of these risks. The return on the Fund's investments is generally not affected by foreign currency fluctuations.

A majority of the Fund's net assets consists of common stocks and warrants and options to purchase common stock in publicly traded companies. These investments are directly exposed to equity price risk, in that a percentage change in these equity prices would result in a similar percentage change in the fair value of these securities.

A lesser percentage of the Fund's net assets consist of fixed rate convertible debentures and other debt instruments as well as convertible preferred securities. Since these instruments are generally priced at a fixed rate, changes in market interest rates do not directly impact interest income, although they could impact the Fund's yield on future investments in debt instruments. In addition, changes in market interest rates are not typically a significant factor in the Fund's determination of fair value of its debt instruments, as it is generally assumed they will be held to maturity, and their fair values are determined on the basis of the terms of the particular instrument and the financial condition of the issuer.

A small percentage of the Fund's net assets consist of equity investments in private companies. The Fund would anticipate no impact on these investments from modest changes in public market equity prices. However, should significant changes in market prices occur, there could be a longer-term effect on valuations of private companies which could affect the carrying value and the amount and timing of proceeds realized on these investments.

Item 8. Financial Statements and Supplementary Data.

The financial statements filed as part of this report are listed in "Index to Financial Statements" on page F-1 hereof.

Item 9. Changes in and Disagreements with Accountants on Accounting and Financial Disclosure.

On January 19, 2006, the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors dismissed Ernst & Young LLP ("E&Y") as the Fund's independent registered public accounting firm because E&Y advised the Audit Committee that E&Y would not be able to begin the audit engagement until May 2006.

The audit reports of E&Y on the financial statements of the Fund for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001 did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles. E&Y did not complete the audit of the Fund's financial statements for fiscal years ended after December 31, 2002.

E&Y declined to issue a report on the Fund's financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2003 unless E&Y received an opinion of legal counsel to the effect that the possibility of a material adverse effect to the Fund as a result of a comment received from the SEC staff that the Advisory Agreement might be invalid would be "remote" as defined in an accounting pronouncement that the Fund and E&Y agreed was not applicable. The Fund and E&Y were unable to agree on proposed legal opinion language.

On December 6, 2005, the Investment Adviser entered into the SEC Settlement, which related to the calculation of advisory fees under the Advisory Agreement. As a result of the SEC Settlement, the disagreement noted above has been rendered moot. The Fund has authorized E&Y to respond fully to the inquiries of the successor accountant named below concerning this subject.

Other than as described in the two preceding paragraphs, during the fiscal years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004 and the period from January 1, 2006 through January 19, 2006, there were no disagreements with E&Y on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements if not resolved to the satisfaction of E&Y, would have caused E&Y to make reference to such disagreements in its reports on the financial statements for such periods.

On January 19, 2006, the Audit Committee of Board of Directors of the Fund approved the engagement of KBA Group LLP ("KBA") to serve as the Fund's independent registered public accounting firm. KBA has completed audits for the Fund's fiscal years ended December 31, 2003, 2004, and 2005.

Item 9A. Controls and Procedures.

The Fund has in place systems relating to disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) of the 1934 Act). Our principal executive officer and principal financial officer evaluated the effectiveness of these disclosure controls and procedures as of the end of our fiscal year ended December 31, 2006 in connection with the preparation of this report. They concluded that the controls and procedures were effective and adequate at that time. There were no significant changes in the Fund's internal control over financial reporting during the fourth quarter of fiscal 2006 that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect the Fund's control over financial reporting.

Item 9B. Other Information.

None.

-31-

Part III

Item 10. Directors and Executive Officers of Registrant.

Directors

Pursuant to the Fund's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws, the Board of Directors consists of five directors and is divided into three classes. Each class serves for a three-year term. The term of office of the Class One director will expire at the 2007 annual meeting of shareholders, the term of office of the Class Two directors will expire at the 2008 annual meeting of shareholders, and the term of office of the Class Three directors will expire at the 2009 annual meeting of shareholders.

Because the Board of Directors is divided into classes, only those directors in a single class may be changed in any one year. Consequently, changing a majority of the Board of Directors would require two years (although under Texas law, procedures exist to remove directors, even if they are not then standing for reelection and, under SEC regulations, procedures exist for including appropriate shareholder proposals in the annual proxy statement). Having a classified Board of Directors, which may be regarded as an "anti-takeover" provision, may make it more difficult for shareholders of the Fund to change the majority of directors, thus having the effect of maintaining the continuity of management.

Class One Directors - Term expires at the 2007 Annual Meeting

SECTION 16(A) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, requires the Fund's officers and directors and persons who own more than 10% of a registered class of the Fund's equity securities to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the SEC. Officers, directors, and greater than 10% beneficial owners are required by SEC regulations to furnish the Fund with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file. A Form 3 was not filed for J. Philip McCormick upon his election to the Board, but has been subsequently filed. The Fund believes that during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006, all other Section 16(a) filings relating to the Fund's Common Stock applicable to its officers, directors, and greater than 10% beneficial owners were timely filed.

The Fund has never issued options or warrants to officers or directors of the Fund. Renaissance Capital Growth & Income Fund III, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying statements of assets and liabilities of Renaissance Capital Growth & Income Fund III, Inc. (the "Fund") including the schedules of investments as of December 31, 2006 and 2005 and the related statements of operations, changes in net assets and cash flows for the years ended December 31, 2006, 2005 and 2004 and financial highlights for the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements and financial highlights based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements and financial highlights are free of material misstatement. The Fund is not required to have nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of their internal control over financial reporting. Our audits included consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Fund's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements and financial highlights referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Renaissance Capital Growth & Income Fund III, Inc. as of December 31, 2006 and 2005 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years ended December 31, 2006, 2005 and 2004 and the financial highlights for the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Renaissance Capital Growth & Income Fund III, Inc.
Notes to Financial Statements
December 2006, 2005 and 2004

(1) Organization and Business Purpose

Renaissance Capital Growth & Income Fund III, Inc. (the “Fund”), a Texas corporation, was formed on January 20, 1994. The Fund seeks to achieve current income and capital appreciation potential by investing primarily in unregistered equity investments and convertible issues of small and medium size companies which are in need of capital and which RENN Capital Group, Inc. (the “Investment Adviser”) believes offers the opportunity for growth. The Fund is a non-diversified closed-end fund and has elected to be treated as a business development company under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (1940 Act).

(2) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Valuation of Investments

Portfolio investments are stated at quoted market or fair value as determined by the Investment Adviser (Note 6). The securities held by the Fund are primarily unregistered and their value does not necessarily represent the amounts that may be realized from their immediate sale or disposition.

(b) Other

The Fund follows industry practice and records security transactions on the trade date. Dividend income is recorded on the record date. Interest income is recorded as earned on the accrual basis.

(c) Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Fund considers all highly liquid debt instruments with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

(d) Federal Income Taxes

The Fund has elected the special income tax treatment available to “regulated investment companies” (“RIC”) under Subchapter M of the Internal Revenue Code (“IRC”) in order to be relieved of federal income tax on that part of its net investment income and realized capital gains that it pays out to its shareholders. The Fund’s policy is to comply with the requirements of the IRC that are applicable to regulated investment companies. Such requirements include, but are not limited to certain qualifying income tests, asset diversification tests and distribution of substantially all of the Fund’s taxable investment income to its shareholders. It is the intent of management to comply with all IRC requirements as they pertain to a RIC.

Renaissance Capital Growth & Income Fund III, Inc.

Failure to qualify as a RIC would subject the Fund to federal income tax as if the Fund were an ordinary corporation, which could result in a substantial reduction in the Fund's net assets as well as the amount of cash available for distribution to shareholders. Continued qualification as a RIC requires management to satisfy certain investment diversification requirements in future years. There can be no assurance that the Fund will qualify as a RIC in subsequent years.

Federal income taxes payable on behalf of stockholders on realized gains that the Fund elects to retain are reflected as tax expense paid on behalf of stockholders.

(e) Net income per share

Net income (loss) per share is based on the weighted average number of shares outstanding of 4,463,967 during 2006, 4,454,613 during 2005, and 4,351,718 during 2004.

(f) Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions as to the valuation of investments that effect the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

(3) Due to Broker

The Fund conducts business with various brokers for its investment activities. The clearing and depository operations for the investment activities are performed pursuant to agreements with these brokers. Due to broker represents a margin loan payable to one of these brokers, which is secured by investments in securities maintained with the lending broker. Cash and cash equivalents related to the margin loan payable are held by the lending broker. The Fund is subject to credit risk to the extent the brokers are unable to deliver cash balances or securities, or clear security transactions on the Fund's behalf. The Investment Adviser actively monitors the Fund's exposure to these brokers and believes the likelihood of loss under those circumstances is remote.

(4) Management and Incentive Fees and Reimbursement

The Investment Adviser for the Fund is registered as an investment adviser under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (the Advisors Act). Pursuant to an Advisory Agreement (the "Agreement"), the Investment Adviser performs certain services, including certain management, investment advisory and administrative services necessary for the operation of the Fund. In addition, under the Agreement, the Investment Adviser is reimbursed by the Fund for certain directly allocable administrative expenses. A summary of fees and reimbursements paid by the Fund under the Agreement, the prospectus and the original offering document are as follows:

• The Investment Adviser receives a management fee equal to a quarterly rate of 0.4375% of the Fund's Net Assets, as determined at the end of such quarter with each such payment to be due as of the last day of the calendar quarter. The Fund incurred $935,776, $1,112,927, and $1,460,218 for 2006, 2005, and 2004, respectively, for such management fees.

• The Investment Adviser receives an incentive fee in an amount equal to 20% of the Fund's cumulative realized capital gains in excess of cumulative realized capital losses of the Fund after allowance for any unrealized capital depreciation on the portfolio investments of the Fund at the end of the period being calculated less cumulative incentive fees previously accrued. Unrealized capital depreciation equals net unrealized capital losses on each class of security without netting net unrealized gains on other classes of securities. The incentive fee is calculated, accrued, and paid on an annual basis as of year end. The Fund incurred, $3,157,367, $1,216,467 and $2,497,422 during the years ended 2006, 2005, and 2004, respectively, for such incentive fees.

• The Investment Adviser was reimbursed by the Fund for directly allocable administrative expenses paid by the Investment Adviser on behalf of the Fund. Such reimbursements were $347,736, $386,809, and $176,856, for 2006, 2005, and 2004, respectively.

As of December 31, 2006 and 2005, the Fund had an account payable of $3,810,462 and $2,050,989, respectively, for the amount due for the fees and expense reimbursements disclosed above.

As explained in Note 10, the Investment Advisor resolved a dispute with the staff of the Securities and Exchange Commission involving the appropriate interpretation of section 205(b)(3) of the Advisors Act. As part of the settlement, the Investment Advisor agreed to pay $2,851,362 as a reduction of incentive fees for the period from inception through December 31, 2003. The actual incentive fee that would have been calculated under the agreed methodology for incentive fee from inception through December 31, 2003, was $3,388,269. The difference of $536,907 was reflected as a settlement offer expense of $488,087 and $48,819 in 2003 and 2001, respectively. Because of the cumulative nature of the agreed methodology, the $536,907 served to reduce incentive fees during 2005, the year of settlement. In accordance with Section 205(b)(3), the fees are not subject to repayment in a subsequent period and therefore recorded as additional expenses during 2003 and 2001 due to the uncertainty of incurring future incentive fees to be offset.

(5) Eligible Portfolio Companies and Investments

(a) Eligible Portfolio Companies

The Fund invests primarily in convertible securities and equity investments of companies that qualify as Eligible Portfolio Companies as defined in Section 2(a)(46) of the 1940 Act or in securities that otherwise qualify for investment as permitted in Section 55(a)(1) through (5). Under the provisions of the 1940 Act at least 70% of the Fund's assets, as defined under the 1940 Act, must be invested in Eligible Portfolio Companies. In the event the Fund has less than 70% of its assets invested in Eligible Portfolio Investments, then it will be prohibited from making non-eligible investments until such time as the percentage of eligible investments again exceeds the 70% threshold. The Fund was in compliance with these provisions at December 31, 2006 and 2005.

(b) Investments

Investments are carried in the statements of assets and liabilities as of December 31, 2006 and 2005, at fair value, as determined in good faith by the Investment Adviser, subject to the approval of the Fund's Board of Directors. The convertible debt securities held by the Fund generally have maturities between five and seven years and are convertible into the common stock of the issuer at a set conversion price at the discretion of the Fund. The common stock underlying these securities is generally unregistered and thinly to moderately traded but is not otherwise restricted. The Fund may register and sell such securities at any time with the Fund paying the costs of registration. Interest on the convertible securities is generally payable monthly.

Renaissance Capital Growth & Income Fund III, Inc.

The convertible debt securities generally contain embedded call options giving the issuer the right to call the underlying issue. In these instances, the Fund has the right of redemption or conversion. The embedded call option will generally not vest until certain conditions are achieved by the issuer. Such conditions may require that minimum thresholds be met relating to underlying market prices, liquidity, and other factors.

(6) Valuation of Investments

On a quarterly basis, the Investment Adviser prepares a valuation of the assets of the Fund subject to the approval of the Fund's Board of Directors. The valuation principles are as follows:

• The common stock of companies listed on an exchange, Nasdaq or in the over-the-counter market is valued at the closing price on the date of valuation.

• The unlisted preferred stock of companies with common stock listed on an exchange, Nasdaq or in the over-the-counter market is valued at the closing price of the common stock into which the preferred stock is convertible on the date of valuation. If the preferred stock is redeemable, the preferred stock is valued at the greater of cost or market.

• The unlisted in-the-money options or warrants of companies with the underlying common stock listed on an exchange, Nasdaq or in the over-the-counter market are valued at the positive difference between the closing price of the underlying common stock and the strike price of the warrant or option. An out-of-the money warrant or option has no intrinsic value; thus, we assign no value to it.

• Debt securities are valued at the greater of (i) cost or (ii) the market value of the underlying common stock into which the debt instrument is convertible. In cases where the debt instrument is in default or the company is in bankruptcy, the value will be (i) the value of the underlying common stock, (ii) the value of the collateral, if secured, or (ii) zero, if the common stock has no value and there is no collateral.

Renaissance Capital Growth & Income Fund III, Inc.

If there is no independent and objective pricing authority (i.e. a public market) for investments in privately held entities, the latest sale of equity securities to independent third parties by the entity governs the value of that enterprise. This valuation method causes the Fund's initial investment in the private entity to be valued at cost. Thereafter, new issuance or offers of equity or equity-linked securities by the portfolio company to new investors will be used to determine enterprise value as they will provide the most objective and independent basis for determining the worth of the issuer. Where a private entity does not have an independent value established over an extended period of time, then the Investment Adviser will determine fair value on the basis of appraisal procedures established in good faith and approved by the Board.

As of December 31, 2006 and December 31, 2005, the net unrealized appreciation associated with investments held by the Fund was $5,229,097 and $18,569,019, respectively. For 2006, the Fund had gross unrealized gains of $18,216,541 and gross unrealized losses of $(12,987,444) for book and federal income tax purposes. For 2005, the Fund had gross unrealized gains of $28,008,507 and gross unrealized losses of $(9,439,488) for book and federal income tax purposes.

(7) Restricted Securities

As indicated on the schedule of investments as of December 31, 2006, and December 31, 2005, the Fund holds investments in shares of common stock, the sale of which is restricted. These securities have been valued by the Investment Adviser after considering certain pertinent factors relevant to the individual securities (Note 6).

(8) Purchase of Additional Shares

The Fund sold no shares in 2006 under the dividend reinvestment plan. During 2005 the Fund issued 112,249 new shares pursuant to the dividend reimbursement plan in receipt of $1,561,383.

(9) Distributions to Shareholders

The tax character of distributions paid by the Fund was as follows:

2006 - Capital gain	$ 1,785,588
2005 - Capital gain	$ 5,931,273
2004 - Capital gain	$ 13,794,946

Renaissance Capital Growth & Income Fund III, Inc.
Notes to Financial Statements

(10) Settlement with the Investment Advisor

During 2004, the staff (“Staff”) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) informed the Fund’s counsel of significant potential regulatory issues in connection with the Staff’s review of a registration statement for a proposed rights offering. On December 1, 2005, the Investment Adviser consented, without admitting or denying the findings, to the entry of an order by the SEC instituting public administrative and cease and desist proceedings and imposing remedial sanctions (the “Order”).

In summary, the dispute concerned the definition of the wording of the incentive fee calculation in with the Investment Adviser’s Act of 1940 (the “Advisers Act”). Under Section 205(b)(3) of the Advisers Act, a performance fee may be earned. The Investment Adviser, for many years, believed the word “capital” referred to the Fund’s shareholders equity as a whole. In 2004, the SEC informed the Investment Adviser that capital depreciation in the formula referred only to unrealized capital losses on marketable securities in the portfolio and therefore the calculations in previous years were incorrect.

In the Order, the SEC states that in calculating a performance-based fee under Section 205(b)(3), an Investment Adviser must account for its client’s assets on a security-by-security basis and may not take into consideration unrealized capital appreciation on any individual security or the portfolio as a whole. Section 205(b)(3) does not require that fees earned in one period be subject to repayment based upon performance in a subsequent period. If the performance fee is calculated on a cumulative basis and is based on the period since inception, the unrealized capital depreciation may be calculated for each calculation period by subtracting each security’s valuation at the end of the applicable calculation period from the original cost, as adjusted, of purchasing that security. In practice, the Investment Adviser also took into account unrealized capital appreciation, which offset unrealized capital depreciation, to calculate its performance-based fee. Thus, beginning in fiscal year 1996, the first period in which the Fund realized capital gains, the Investment Adviser’s formula for calculating that fee was not consistent with the agreed formula permitted under Section 205(b)(3).

As part of the settlement of the SEC proceedings, the Investment Adviser agreed to pay $2,851,362 for adjustments in the incentive fee from the inception through December 31, 2004, plus prejudgment interest of $924,509 and a penalty of $100,000 to the Fund.

The Investment Adviser satisfied this obligation in full as of December 8, 2005.

The effect of the SEC settlement was reflected retroactively. As such the effect of the adjustments in incentive fees were reported in prior years as though the agreed methodology had been in place since inception. Interest received by the fund upon settlement was allocated to the years in which it was earned. The penalty received upon settlement was reflected in the year settlement was reached (2005).

Renaissance Capital Growth & Income Fund III, Inc.

(11) Income Taxes

Through December 31, 2005, management followed a policy of distributing all of the Fund's taxable investment income and realized capital gains within the defined period under the IRC to assure that any Federal income tax on such income, if any, is paid by the Fund's stockholders. For this reason, no income tax was reflected by the Fund.

As management has not determined a distribution policy with regard to the unrealized appreciation on investments of $5,229,097 at December 31, 2006 if ultimately realized, no provision for deferred taxes on that appreciation has been reflected.

During December 2006, the Board of Directors, in accordance with rules under subchapter M of the IRC, declared a designated undistributed capital gain dividend ("Deemed Distribution") for 2006 on net taxable long-term capital gains of $18,008,018. To the extent that the Fund retains capital gains and declares a Deemed Distribution, the distribution is taxable to the stockholders. The Fund pays the tax on behalf of the stockholders, at the corporate rate, on the distribution, and the stockholders receive a tax credit equal to their proportionate share of the tax paid. The Fund recorded a tax payable of $6,302,806 on its statements of assets and liabilities for taxes payable on behalf of its stockholders. This amount was also recorded as income tax expense paid on behalf of stockholders in the statements of operations for 2006.

Stockholders of record at December 31, 2006, will receive a tax credit of $1.41 per share. The balance of $11,705,212 was retained by the Fund.

(12) Commitments and Contingencies

As disclosed in Note 4, the Fund is obligated to pay to the Investment Advisor an incentive fee equal to 20% of the funds cumulative realized capital gains in excess of cumulative capital losses of the Fund after allowance for any capital depreciation on the portfolio investments of the Fund. As incentive fees on capital gains are not due to the Investment Advisor until the capital gains are realized, any obligations for incentive fees based on unrealized capital gains are not reflected in the accompanying financial statements as there is no assurance that the unrealized gains as of the end of any period will ultimately become realized. Had an incentive fee been accrued as a liability based on all unrealized capital gains, net assets of the Fund would have been reduced by $3,643,308 and $5,509,555 as of December 31, 2006 and 2005, respectively.
