Appointment of Jerrold H. Abrahams as Member of the Board of Directors

Effective as of February 27, 2012, Mr. Jerrold H. Abrahams has been appointed as a member of the Board of Directors of ARC Wireless Solutions, Inc. (the “Company”). Mr. Abrahams serves as a consultant to variety of businesses in the energy sector including a renewable energy private equity fund. In 1992, Mr. Abrahams joined Citi (then Smith Barney Harris Upham Inc.) where he was to enjoy a 20 year career. For the first stage of his career, Mr. Abrahams specialized in infrastructure finance and developed a specific expertise in transportation project finance and privatization. In 1998, Mr. Abrahams received the Citibank Global Customers Solution Award for his work related to the privatization of Highway 407 in Ontario, Canada. At the time, it was the largest privatization of a transportation asset in North America. In 2000, Mr. Abrahams was recruited to join a nascent financial products initiative in governmental and tax-exempt finance. Over the next eight years, Mr. Abrahams played a senior role in the creation of a $40 billion municipal interest rate swap portfolio, $15 billion reinvest book and $8.0 billion loan portfolio. Mr. Abrahams was the lead financial products banker for some of the largest and most complex transactions of the firm's practice including the New York Jets (MetLife Stadium), the Chicago Skyway and New York City. During this time, Mr. Abrahams was promoted to Managing Director and appointed to the MSD Diversity Committee.

In 2008, Mr. Abrahams was given overall responsibility of the group where he took day-to-day control of risk reduction of the legacy positions. This included the successful work-out of distressed loan and swap assets for real estate, multi-family housing, project finance, health-care and municipal credits. Mr. Abrahams was also the designated syndicate underwriter for new financial instruments created under American Reinvestment and Recovery Act (“ARRA”) including approximately $1.0 billion in tax credit Qualified School Construction Bonds (“QSCBs”) as well as the firm's WINDOWS floating rate product. Mr. Abrahams was also in charge of the successful expansion of TMC (“TheMuniCenter”) electronic trading platform to the firm's primary market underwriting business. This resulted in the first ever use of an electronic trading platform for a primary market issuance in the tax-exempt fixed income markets.

In 2011, Mr. Abrahams helped launch a renewable (e.g., solar, wind) energy practice established to take advantage of tax incentives under American Reinvestment and Recovery Act (“ARRA”). He developed and implemented a strategic plan for energy efficiency financing solutions targeted to higher education and health-care institutions. He led investment efforts for projects that utilized state tax credit incentives as well as being responsible for coordinating marketing efforts with non-commercial 3rd parties such as the Clinton Climate Initiative and Practice Green Health/Health Care without Harm organizations.

Mr. Abrahams has a Bachelors of Science in Economics from Washington University in St Louis, Missouri and a Masters of Business Administration from Columbia University, New York. Mr. Abrahams is an Adjunct Professor at the NYU Robert F. Wagner Graduate School of Public Policy.

Mr. Abrahams' compensation for his services as a member of the Company's Board of Directors shall be $40,000 per annum.
