EXPLANATORY NOTE

This Amendment No. 1 to the Annual Report on Form 10-K (this “Amendment No. 1”) of First Reliance Bancshares, Inc. (the “Registrant”) amends the Registrant’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2011 that was originally filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) on March 29, 2012 (the “Original Form 10-K”).

This Amendment No. 1 is being filed solely to include the information required in Part III (Items 10, 11, 12, 13 and 14) of Form 10-K that was previously omitted from the Original Form 10-K in reliance upon General Instruction G(3) to Form 10-K. General Instruction G(3) to Form 10-K allows such omitted information to be filed as an amendment to the Original Form 10-K or incorporated by reference from the Registrant’s definitive proxy statement which involves the election of directors not later than 120 days after the end of the fiscal year covered by the Original Form 10-K.

Because the Registrant’s definitive Proxy Statement for the 2012 Annual Meeting of Stockholders was unexpectedly not filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission within 120 days after the end of the fiscal year ended December 31, 2011, the information required by Part III of Form 10-K cannot be incorporated by reference and therefore must be included as part of the Original Form 10-K. Accordingly, the Registrant is filing this Amendment No. 1 to include such omitted information as part of the Original Form 10-K.

Except as described in this explanatory note, no other information in the Original Form 10-K is being modified or amended by this Amendment No. 1, and this Amendment No. 1 does not otherwise reflect events occurring after March 29, 2012, which is the filing date of the Original Form 10-K. Accordingly, this Amendment No. 1 should be read in conjunction with the Original Form 10-K and the Registrant’s other filings with the SEC. This Amendment No. 1 consists solely of the preceding cover page, this explanatory note, Part III (Items 10, 11, 12, 13 and 14), the signature page and the certifications required to be filed as exhibits to this Amendment No. 1.

PART IIIItem 10. Directors, Executive Officers and Corporate Governance*Information About Directors

First Reliance believes that its Board as a whole should encompass a range of talent, skill and expertise enabling it to provide sound guidance with respect to First Reliance's operations and interests. In addition to considering a candidate's background and accomplishments, candidates are reviewed in the context of the current composition of the Board and the evolving needs of our business.

The nominating committee seeks directors with strong reputations and experience in areas relevant to the strategy and operations of First Reliance's business. Each director identified below holds or has held senior executive positions in relevant organizations and has operating experience that meets this objective, as described below. In these positions, they have also gained experience in core management skills, such as strategic and financial planning, corporate governance, risk management, and leadership development. Our nominating committee further believes that each of the directors has other key attributes that are important to an effective board: integrity and demonstrated high ethical standards; sound judgment; analytical skills; the ability to engage management and each other in a constructive and collaborative fashion; and the commitment to devote significant time and energy to service on the Board.

The table below shows the members of the Board of Directors of First Security as of May 4, 2012, their ages as of December 31, 2011, the year they first became a director and their business experience during the past five years. Director Andrew G. Kampiziones has announced his retirement from active service on the Company's Board of Directors as of the Company's upcoming Annual Meeting, which is to be held on Thursday, June 21, 2012; at that time, he will serve the Company as a Director Emeritus.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires First Reliance's directors and executive officers, and persons who own more than 10% of First Reliance common stock, to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership of common stock and other equity securities of First Reliance. Directors, executive officers and greater than 10% shareholders are required by regulation to furnish First Reliance with copies of all Section 16(a) reports they file. To our knowledge, based solely on a review of these reports and representations from our directors and officers, our directors and officers filed all reports required by Section 16(a), except for Director Parris, who was late filing a Form 3. In regard to beneficial owners of more than 10% of outstanding shares of common stock, we not aware that any person beneficially owns more than 10% of our common stock.

Code of Business Conduct and Ethics

The Company has adopted a Code of Ethics that applies to its principal executive, financial and accounting officers. The Code of Ethics has been posted to the Company's website at www.firstreliance.com. A copy may also be obtained, without charge, upon written request addressed to First Reliance Bancshares, Inc., 2170 West Palmetto Street, Florence, South Carolina 29501, Attention: Corporate Secretary. The request may be delivered by letter to the address set forth above or by fax to the attention of the Company's Corporate Secretary at (843) 656-3045.

Shareholder Proposals

To be included in First Reliance's annual proxy statement, shareholder proposals not relating to the election of directors must also be received by the Company at least 120 days before the one-year anniversary of the mailing date for the prior year's proxy statement. The Company's Bylaws require that the shareholder's proposal notice describe:

- the proposal and the reason it is being brought before the meeting;
- the shareholder's name and address and the number of shares he or she beneficially owns; and
- any material interest of the shareholder in the proposal.

Rule 14a-8 promulgated by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") provides additional information regarding the content and procedure applicable to the submission of shareholder proposals to be included in the Company's proxy statement for its next annual meeting. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Board of Directors have the discretion to determine whether a shareholder's proposal is a proper business matter. Accordingly, the Board may, if warranted under the circumstances, deny the shareholder's request upon written notice to the shareholder stating its reason for such denial.

Audit/Corporate Governance Committee.

The Company's Audit Committee consists of Leonard A. Hoogenboom, Andrew G. Kampiziones, James R. Lingle, Jr., J. Munford Scott, Jr., and C. Dale Lusk. The committee met five times in 2011. The Audit Committee recommends to the Bank's and the Company's Board of Directors the independent public accountants to be selected to audit the Bank's and the Company's annual financial statements and determines that all audits and exams required by law are performed fully, properly and in a timely fashion. The Audit Committee also evaluates internal accounting controls, reviews the adequacy of the internal audit budget, personnel and audit plan. The Board has determined that Mr. Hoogenboom is an "audit committee financial expert" as that term is defined in SEC regulations, and Mr. Hoogenboom has been determined to be an "independent" director by the Company's Board of Directors. The Company's and the Bank's Board of Directors has adopted a written charter for the Audit Committee, which is available on our website, www.firstreliance.com.

Executive Agreements

F.R. Saunders, Jr. and Jeffrey A. Paolucci. On November 24, 2006, First Reliance Bancshares, Inc. and its wholly-owned subsidiary, First Reliance Bank, entered into new employment agreements with F.R. Saunders, Jr., President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company and the Bank, and Jeffrey A. Paolucci, who is now the Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Company and the Bank. The Bank also entered salary continuation agreements with Messrs. Saunders and Paolucci.

Each of the employment agreements provides for an initial three year term, which is automatically extended at the end of each month for one additional month unless the Bank's Board of Directors determines that the term will not be extended. Once the Bank's Board determines that the term will not be extended, the term is fixed at three years with no additional renewals. The employment agreements provided for an initial base salary for Mr. Saunders of $275,000 and for Mr. Paolucci of $165,000. Each executive's salary is to be reviewed annually by the Company's Board of Directors or the Board's Compensation Committee, and will be increased to reflect cost of living increases and may be increased otherwise. As of December 31, 2010, Mr. Saunders's and Mr. Paolucci's annual base salaries remained unchanged from 2009. Please see the Summary Compensation Table appearing above for current salary information for each of Mr. Saunders and Mr. Paolucci.

The employment agreements provide that the Company will reimburse the executive for disability insurance that he maintains and will pay an additional amount to the executive to cover any state or federal income taxes associated with such reimbursement. The Company will also pay any initiation and membership assessments and dues in civic and social clubs of the executive's choice, although the executive remains responsible for personal expenses for use of such clubs. The agreement with Mr. Saunders also provides that the Company will provide the use of an automobile for business and personal use. The agreements with the executives also provide that the Company will maintain a long-term care insurance policy for each executive that will be fully paid up by the time the executive turns age 65.

If an executive is terminated without Cause or the executive terminates employment for Good Reason (as both terms are defined in the agreements), the executive is entitled to continue to receive for the unexpired term of his agreement (a) his base salary in effect at employment termination and (b) an annual bonus equal to the bonus earned for the calendar year ended immediately before the year in which the employment termination occurs. Additionally, the Company will continue to provide the executive with medical benefits and continue to reimburse the executive for his disability insurance (including amounts to cover income taxes) until the earliest of (a) the executive becoming employed by the Company or another entity; (b) the executive turning 65; (c) the executive's death; or (d) the remaining term of the agreement. The Company will also continue to pay the premiums on the long-term care insurance until the policy for the executive is fully paid up. At the Company's option, it may pay a lump sum equal to the discounted cost of medical, disability, and long-term care (if applicable) coverage in lieu of continuing those benefits.

If an executive is terminated for Cause or the executive terminates employment other than for Good Reason, the executive is entitled to receive his base salary through the effective date of termination and any other benefits to which the executive may be entitled under the Company's benefit plans and policies in effect on the date of termination.

If the executive's employment is terminated because of disability, the executive is entitled to receive his base salary through the effective date of termination, any unpaid bonus or incentive compensation due to the executive for the preceding calendar year, any payments the executive is entitled to receive under the Company's disability insurance program, and any other benefits to which the executive may be entitled under the Company's benefit plans and policies in effect on the date of termination. Additionally, the Company will continue to provide the executive with medical benefits and continue to reimburse the executive for his disability insurance (including the additional amounts to cover income taxes) until the earliest of (a) the executive becoming employed by the Company or another entity; (b) the executive turning 65; (c) the executive's death; or (d) the remaining term of the agreement. For Mr. Saunders and Mr. Paolucci, the Company will also continue to pay the premiums on the long-term care insurance until the policy for the executive is fully paid up. At the Company's option, it may pay a lump sum equal to the discounted cost of medical, disability, and long-term care (if applicable) coverage in lieu of continuing those benefits.

Upon a Change in Control (as that term is defined in the agreement) of the Company, the Company will pay the executive a lump-sum payment in cash equal to three times the executive's annual compensation, consisting of base salary as of the date of the Change in Control plus any bonus or incentive compensation earned in the prior calendar year. In addition, the executive will become fully vested in any non-qualified plan, program or arrangement in which the executive participates if the plan, program or arrangement does not address the effect of a change in control.

The Company will further be obligated to make a “gross-up” payment to cover any excise tax obligations under Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code for excess parachute payments that arise as a result of the employment agreement and any other plan or agreement that applies to the executive. This gross-up payment includes an initial amount to cover the excise tax that will apply to the excess parachute payments, as well as the income and excise taxes that apply to the payment of the initial amount.

The employment agreements also provide, for a period of one year after termination of employment, a covenant not to solicit employees and not to compete within a 15-mile radius of any office of the Company. These obligations survive any termination of the agreements, but are waived upon a Change in Control of the Company. The agreements provide for the reimbursement of legal fees, if any, paid by the executives for the enforcement of the employment agreements after a Change in Control. The employment agreements also allow the executive to select a law firm of his choice to represent him.

The salary continuation agreements provide that each executive will be entitled, upon reaching age 65, to an annual benefit for Mr. Saunders of $321,842 and for Mr. Paolucci of $225,308. If the executive is terminated for Cause, the executive will not be entitled to any benefit under the salary continuation agreement. In the event the executive’s employment is terminated (other than for Cause) prior to reaching age 65 (including by reason of disability), the executive is entitled to receive the amount that fully amortizes the accrued balance existing immediately before the month in which the separation of service occurs beginning at age 65 for 15 years. If the executive dies prior to payment of all benefits, the executive’s beneficiary is entitled to a lump sum in cash equal to the accrued balance existing at the executive’s death.

In the event of a Change in Control of the Company prior to the executive reaching 65 or other separation of service, each executive is entitled to a lump sum payment equal to the expected accrual balance at age 65, not discounted to present value, of $3,144,289 for Mr. Saunders and $2,201,184 for Mr. Paolucci. If the Change in Control occurs during the payment of normal retirement age benefits, early termination benefits or a disability benefits, the executive is entitled to a lump-sum payment of any remaining salary continuation benefit.

The Company will further be obligated to make a “gross-up” payment to cover any excise tax obligations under Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code for excess parachute payments that arise as a result of the salary continuation agreement and any other plan or agreement that applies to the executive. This gross-up payment includes an initial amount to cover the excise tax that will apply to the excess parachute payments, as well as the income and excise taxes that apply to the payment of the initial amount.

The salary continuation agreements provide for the reimbursement of legal fees, if any, paid by the executives for the enforcement of the salary continuation agreements after a Change in Control. The salary continuation agreements also allow the executive to select a law firm of his choice to represent him.

If the executive dies before separation of service, the executive is entitled to any benefits under the endorsement split dollar agreement with that executive. The endorsement split dollar agreement provides the executive with a benefit equal to the death benefit under the life insurance policy or policies maintained by the Company on the life of the executive, less the cash surrender value of the policy or policies.

Thomas C. Ewart, Sr. Thomas C. Ewart, Sr. has an employment agreement with the Bank providing for his employment by the Bank for a term of three years commencing on April 23, 2003, except that the agreement will be extended automatically for additional one-year periods unless a party gives the other party proper non-renewal notice. The employment agreement provided Mr. Ewart with an initial annual salary of $135,000, which has increased to $161,500 as of 2011, insurance coverage in the amount of at least two-times Mr. Ewart's base salary, reimbursement of certain membership dues, a $25,000 unsecured line of credit, a secured $67,025 loan, stock options equal to at least $41,639 (which are subject to a pre-determined vesting schedule) and eligibility for annual bonus compensation to be set by the Bank.

Mr. Ewart's employment agreement also provides that the Bank or Mr. Ewart may terminate the agreement at any time and for any reason. For a period of one-year after termination, Mr. Ewart will be subject to various non-solicitation and non-compete provisions of his agreement.

Participation in TARP Capital Purchase Program

On March 6, 2009, the Company issued 15,349 shares of our Series A Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock, and a warrant, which was immediately exercised for a nominal exercise price, to purchase up 767 shares of the Company's Series B Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock to Treasury, as part of the CPP enacted as part of TARP, which was established by the Emergency Economic Stabilization Act of 2008 ("EESA"). The Company issued the shares of Series A Preferred Stock and the warrant for an aggregate purchase price of $15,349,000 in cash.

Pursuant to the Company's participation in the CPP, the Company is required to comply with all EESA provisions, which include taking all necessary actions to ensure that its benefit plans with respect to its Senior Executive Officers comply with Section 111 of EESA. As of December 31, 2011, the Company's Senior Executive Officers, which are defined by EESA to include the five most-highly compensated employees of the Company, are F.R. Saunders, Jr., President and Chief Executive Officer; Jeffrey A. Paolucci, Chief Financial Officer; Thomas C. Ewart, Chief Banking Officer; and George B. Brazell, Market President, and Richard N. McIntyre, Market President.

The American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 (the "ARRA") retroactively amended the executive compensation provisions applicable to participants in the CPP. The ARRA executive compensation standards remain in effect during the period in which any obligation, arising from financial assistance provided under the CPP remains outstanding, excluding any period during which the Treasury holds only the warrant to purchase common shares of the Company (the "CPP Period").

The executive compensation regulations, to which we are required to adhere as a result of our participation in the CPP, include, but are not limited to, the following:

- prohibitions on payment or accrual of bonuses, retention awards and other incentive compensation to the Company's most highly-compensated employee, excluding grants of restricted stock that do not fully vest during the CPP Period and do not have a value which exceeds one-third of the individual's total annual compensation;

- prohibitions on payments to our Senior Executive Officers and the next five most highly compensated employees for a departure from the Company, except for payments for services performed or benefits accrued;

- recovery ("clawback") of bonuses, retention awards and incentive compensation if the payment was based on materially inaccurate statements of earnings, revenues, gains or other criteria;

- prohibition on compensation plans that encourage manipulation of reported earnings;

implementation of a company-wide policy regarding “excessive or luxury expenditures”;

retroactive review of bonuses, retention awards and other compensation previously paid to Senior Executive Officers, if such compensation is found by Treasury to be inconsistent with the purposes of TARP or otherwise contrary to public interest; and a requirement that CPP recipients include in their proxy statements for annual shareholder meetings a non-binding “Say on Pay” shareholder vote on the compensation of executives as disclosed in the proxy statement.

The Company is currently in compliance with all TARP executive compensation standards promulgated by Treasury. In addition, Messrs. Saunders and Paolucci must certify to the Company’s compliance with such standards throughout 2011. The certification was delivered to Treasury and was filed as an exhibit to our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2011, which was filed with the SEC on March 29, 2012. Such certification is required annually during the CPP Period no later than ninety days after the completion of our fiscal year. The Company intends to comply with all TARP executive compensation standards, and will work with its Senior Executive Officers to take such steps as it deems necessary to continue to comply with the standards and adopt policies and procedures consistent with the foregoing.

⁽³⁾ Mr. Parris joined the Company's Board of Directors on October 27, 2011; as such, he received limited compensation for his service during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2011.

Director Fees. In 2011, the Company paid its directors an annual retainer fee of $3,500 ($8,500 for the Chairman of the Board) and an annual board member fee of $2,750. Audit and Loan Committee members were paid $3,000 each for the year, with the respective Chairmen receiving an additional $3,000 as retainer. Finance, Compensation, and Budget and Planning Committee members were paid $1,500 each for the year, with the respective Chairmen receiving an additional $1,500 as retainer. Members of other committees were paid $300 per meeting attended. Director fees are paid to both management and non-management directors. A total of $127,188 was paid in director fees during 2011.

Director Retirement Agreements. On December 19, 2006, the Bank entered into director retirement agreements with Messrs. Hoogenboom, Jebaily, Kampiziones, Lusk, Porter and Willis. Pursuant to the terms of the director retirement agreements, each director will be entitled to receive an annual benefit of $12,000 ($18,000 for Mr. Hoogenboom) if the director remains in active service to the Bank for seven years from the effective date of the agreements. If a director terminates service to the Bank prior to the vesting of his benefit under the director retirement agreements, the director is entitled to a lump sum cash payment equal to the accrued liability balance on the Bank's books. Pursuant to an amendment to the Director Retirement Agreement, adopted by First Reliance Bank and Messrs. Hoogenboom, Jebaily, Kampiziones, Lusk, Porter and Willis, respectively, on April 15, 2010, each of the parties agreed that as of October 1, 2009, the Bank would have no further obligation to accrue for benefits payable to the Director. As a result of this amendment, the benefits payable to the Director pursuant to the retirement agreements are fixed as of September 30, 2009; pursuant to the amendment, Messrs. Jebaily, Kampiziones, Lusk, and Porter will be entitled to receive an annual benefit of $3,320 ($4,980 for Mr. Hoogenboom) upon the event of their respective retirements.

On December 19, 2006, the Bank also entered into endorsement split dollar agreements with Messrs. Hoogenboom, Jebaily, Kampiziones, Lusk and Porter, in connection with bank-owned life insurance, whereby each director may name a beneficiary who will be entitled to receive the lesser of (i) $50,000 or (ii) the total death proceeds of the insurance policy less its cash surrender value.

Company Vehicle. In January 2006, the Company agreed to provide the Chairman of the Board with the use of a company vehicle.

Compensation-Related Governance and Role of the Compensation Committee

The Company's Compensation Committee consists of Andrew G. Kampiziones, Leonard A. Hoogenboom, John M. Jebaily and J. Munford Scott, Jr. None of these individuals is or has served as an executive officer of the Company. The committee met five times in 2011. The primary purpose of the Compensation Committee is to aid the Board of Directors in discharging its responsibilities relating to the compensation of the Company's executive officers, including the Chief Executive Officer. The committee has overall responsibility for evaluating and approving the Company's compensation plans, policies and programs. The committee (i) reviews and determines the annual compensation, including salary, bonus, incentive and other compensation of the Chief Executive Officer; (ii) approves corporate goals and objectives relevant to compensation of the Chief Executive Officer; (iii) evaluates performance in light of these goals and objectives, approves compensation in accordance therewith and provides a report thereon to the Board; (iv) reviews and makes recommendations to the Board with respect to incentive based compensation plans and equity based plans; (v) establishes criteria for the terms of awards granted to participants under such plans; (vi) recommends to the Board the compensation for directors (including retainer, committee and committee chair fees, stock options and other similar items, as appropriate); (vii) establishes and approves policies on employment agreements, severance arrangements and change in control agreements and provisions, as well as any special supplemental benefits; and (viii) retains outside counsel and other advisors as the committee may deem appropriate in its sole discretion.

The Committee frequently requests the Chief Executive Officer to be present at Committee meetings to discuss executive compensation and evaluate company and individual performance. Occasionally, other executives may attend a Committee meeting to provide pertinent financial or legal information. Executives in attendance may provide their insights and suggestions, but only the non-executive officers that compose the Committee may vote on decisions regarding changes in executive compensation. Although the Compensation Committee did consult with legal counsel during 2011 regarding its compensation plans, it did not utilize the services of dedicated compensation consultant in 2011.

Pursuant to First Reliance's participation in the United States Department of the Treasury's ("Treasury") Troubled Asset Relief Program ("TARP"), Capital Purchase Program ("CPP"), the Compensation Committee must be comprised entirely of independent directors and is required to perform, at least every six months, a review of our incentive compensation programs with senior risk officers to (i) ensure that the programs do not encourage Senior Executive Officers (as defined in the CPP) to take unnecessary and excessive risks that threaten the value of the Company and (ii) identify and implement means of limiting such risks. The Compensation Committee is also required to discuss, evaluate and review, at least every six months, employee compensation plans to ensure that such plans do not encourage the manipulation of First Reliance's reported earnings. Finally, the Compensation Committee is required to submit to Treasury and our primary federal regulator a narrative description of how such compensation plans do not encourage, among other items, behavior focused on short-term results rather than long-term value creation.

The Company's and the Bank's Board of Directors has adopted a written charter for the Compensation Committee. A copy of the Compensation Committee charter is available on our website, www.firstreliance.com.

Item 12. Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management and Related Stockholder MattersBeneficial Ownership

The following table sets forth information regarding the beneficial ownership of our common stock as of May 4, 2012 by (1) each of our current directors and director nominees; (2) each of our named executive officers; (3) all of our present executive officers and directors as a group; and (4) each person or entity known to us to be the beneficial owner of more than five percent of our outstanding common stock, based on the most recent filings with the SEC and the information contained in those filings. Equity Compensation Plans

The following table provides information regarding compensation plans under which equity securities of the Company are authorized for issuance. All data is presented as of December 31, 2011.

Equity Compensation Plan Table

Plan category	(a) Number of securities to be issued upon exercise of outstanding options, warrants and rights	(b) Weighted-average exercise price of outstanding options, warrants and rights	(c) Number of securities remaining available for future issuance under equity compensation plans (excluding securities reflected in column (a))
Equity compensation plans approved by security holders	-	-	-
Equity compensation plans not approved by security holders	313,582	$ 4.02	602,453
Total	313,582	$ 4.02	602,453

Based on current economic conditions, the board and management agreed to cancel all remaining non-qualified option grants that had been previously granted to six employees in exchange for issuance of 67,081 restricted stock grants to these same six employees. These grants do not vest until April 15, 2013.

On January 19, 2006, the Board of Directors approved the First Reliance Bancshares, Inc. 2006 Equity Incentive Plan (the "2006 Plan"). The 2006 Plan provides that the Company may grant stock incentives to participants in the form of nonqualified stock options, dividend equivalent rights, phantom shares, stock appreciation rights, stock awards, and performance unit awards (each a "Stock Incentive"). The Company reserved up to 350,000 shares of the Company's common stock for issuance pursuant to awards granted under the Plan. The 2006 Plan was amended in 2010 to increase the number of shares reserved for issuance thereunder to 950,000. This number of shares may change in the event of future stock dividends, stock splits, recapitalizations and similar events. If a Stock Incentive expires or terminates without being paid, exercised or otherwise settled, the shares subject to that Stock Incentive may again be available for awards under the 2006 Plan.

Item 13. Certain Relationships and Related Transactions, and Director Independence

The Company and the Bank have banking and other business transactions in the ordinary course of business with directors and officers of the Company and the Bank and their affiliates, including members of their families, corporations, partnerships or other organizations in which such directors and officers have a controlling interest. These transactions take place on substantially the same terms as those prevailing at the same time for comparable transactions with unrelated parties.

The Company recognizes that related party transactions can present potential or actual conflicts of interest and create the appearance that the Company's decisions are based on considerations other than the Company's and its shareholders' best interests. Therefore, the Board of Directors has adopted the following practices and procedures with respect to related party transactions.

For the purpose of the procedures, a "related party transaction" is a transaction in which the Company or the Bank participates and in which any related party has a direct or indirect material interest, other than transactions available to all employees or customers generally.

Under the Company's procedures, any related party transaction must be reported to the Board of Directors and may be consummated or may continue only (i) if the Board of Directors approves or ratifies such transaction and if the transaction is on terms comparable to those that could be obtained in arms'-length dealings with an unrelated third party, (ii) if the transaction involves compensation that has been approved by Compensation Committee, or (iii) if the transaction has been approved by the disinterested members of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may approve or ratify the related party transaction only if the Board determines that, under all of the circumstances, the transaction is in the best interests of the Company.

The Bank has employed certain employees who are related to the Company's Executive Officers and/or Directors. These individuals are compensated in accordance with the Bank's policies that apply to all employees.

From time to time, the Bank will make loans to the directors and officers of the Company and the Bank and their affiliates. None of these loans are currently on nonaccrual, past due, restructured or potential problem loans. All such loans were: (i) made in the ordinary course of business; (ii) made on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable loans with persons not related to the Bank; and (iii) did not involve more than the normal risk of collectability or present other unfavorable features.

Director Independence

The Board of Directors has determined that the following directors are independent pursuant to the independence standards of the Nasdaq Stock Market:

- Leonard A. Hoogenboom · John M. Jebaily
- James R. Lingle, Jr. · C. Dale Lusk, MD
- Julius G. Parris · J. Munford Scott, Jr.

In determining that each director could exercise independent judgment in carrying out his or her responsibilities, the Board of Directors considered any transactions, relationships and arrangements between the Company or the Bank and the director and his family.

Item 14. Principal Accountant Fees and Services

The following table shows the amounts paid by the Company to Elliott Davis, LLC for the last two fiscal years.

Audit fees ⁽¹⁾	86,170	88,500
Audit-related fees ⁽²⁾	33,000	36,040
Tax fees ⁽³⁾	15,035	15,435
All other fees ⁽⁴⁾
Total Fees	134,205	139,975

Audit fees consisted primarily of the audit of the Company’s annual consolidated financial statements, for reviews of ⁽¹⁾the condensed consolidated financial statements included in the Company’s quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and for comfort letter procedures. These fees include amounts paid or expected to be paid for each respective year’s audit.

Audit-related fees consist primarily of limited consultations in assisting with the planning and documentation ⁽²⁾requirements for the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, for consultations regarding TARP Capital Purchase Program and for audit of the Company’s ESOP and Welfare Plans.

⁽⁴⁾All other fees include preparation of Forms 5500.

The services provided by the Elliott Davis, LLC were pre-approved by the Audit Committee to the extent required under applicable law. The Audit Committee pre-approves all audit and allowable non-audit services, but does not have a specific pre-approval policy. The Audit Committee has determined that the rendering of non-audit professional services, as identified above, is compatible with maintaining the independence of the Company’s auditors.
