Item 8.01. Other Events.

On July 20, 2016, the board of directors of Landmark Bancorp, Inc. (the “Company”) adopted new stock ownership guidelines to more closely align the interests of its directors and certain officers with those of its stockholders.

Under the stock ownership guidelines, the Company has established certain minimum amounts of Company common stock to be held by the Company’s directors and certain officers. Specifically, the minimum ownership requirements established by the stock ownership guidelines are as follows:

Position	Target ownership level
Chief Executive Officer	4 times annual base salary
Chief Financial Officer	3 times annual base salary
Credit Risk Manager	3 times annual base salary
Executive or Senior Officers – Participating in Tier 3 of the 2015 Stock Incentive Plan	2 times annual base salary
Executive or Senior Officers – Participating in Tier 4 of the 2015 Stock Incentive Plan	1 times annual base salary
Directors	4 times annual retainer fees

Directors and officers subject to the guidelines have up to three years and five years, respectively, to comply with the ownership requirements. New directors will have three years from the date of their initial election to the board to meet these guidelines, and new officers will have five years following the date of such officer’s hire or promotion to a covered officer position to meet these guidelines.

Until the expiration of such grace period, each director and officer will be required to hold at least 50% of all shares acquired, on a net after-tax basis, under any Company equity compensation program until the ownership requirements have been satisfied. Following the expiration of the grace period, any director or officer not satisfying the ownership requirements will continue to be required to hold at least 50% of all shares acquired, on a net after-tax basis, under any Company equity compensation program until the ownership requirements have been satisfied. Additionally, in such circumstances, the Company shall pay 25% of annual cash bonuses for officers and 50% of director fees for directors in Company stock.
