PRESS STATEMENT

Paris, France and Amstelveen, The Netherlands April 27, 2004

Air France and KLM have noted that the VEB has commenced proceedings to require Air France and KLM to modify the announced timetable for Air France's exchange offer for KLM shares, as a result of which the expiration of the exchange offer would be considerably delayed. Air France and KLM believe that the VEB position is without any foundation. KLM's extraordinary meeting of shareholders of April 19 has in anticipation of the completion of the exchange offer resolved to amend the KLM articles of association necessary to effect the combination with an overwhelming majority.

The VEB has unsuccessfully issued a similar request to the AFM.

Air France and KLM do not believe that there is any reason to delay the completion of the exchange offer. In accordance with the announced timetable, the exchange offer is scheduled to expire on May 3, 2004.
