Successor to chairmanship of the Swisscom Board of Directors

At the General Meeting of Shareholders in April 2005, the Swisscom Board of Directors is to propose the appointment of a new Board member in the person of Anton Scherrer. In 2006 Scherrer will take over as Chairman of the Board.

In 2006 Markus Rauh, the current Chairman of the Swisscom Board of Directors, will complete the maximum 8-year term of office laid down by the Articles of Incorporation. To ensure a continuum, Swisscom intends next year to prepare the way for a successor.

The Board of Directors has decided to propose to the General Meeting of Shareholders on 26 April 2005 the appointment of Anton Scherrer to the Swisscom Board, with a view to proposing his appointment as Chairman in the following year. After Anton Scherrer has joined the Swisscom Board, the intention is to appoint him as Deputy Chairman for his first year of office.

61-year-old Anton Scherrer has headed the Migros Genossenschaftsbund (Migros Cooperative Federation) since 2001, and has been President of the Executive Board since 2003. He has an extensive track record in large companies in the consumer goods and retail sectors. Mr Scherrer graduated in microbiology from the Swiss Federal Institute of Technology in Zurich. During his time at Migros he has, among other things, headed the Industry and Logistics Department and implemented the Group's restructuring. Anton Scherrer will stand down from the Migros boards on 30 June 2005.
