Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

Item 2.03. Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off- Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant

On February 28, 2006, we completed the acquisition, through two newly-formed joint ventures, of four senior living communities from affiliates of Cypress Senior Living, Inc. for an aggregate purchase price of $146,286,500 (subject to customary closing adjustments), plus transaction expenses. The communities are located in Arlington, Dallas and Ft. Worth, Texas and Leawood, Kansas.

In order to consummate the acquisition, we assigned our rights in the purchase agreement to two joint venture entities owned 20% by us and 80% by affiliates of CNL Capital Investments Corp. Merrill Lynch Capital, a division of Merrill Lynch Business Financial Services Inc., provided the joint ventures with approximately $95.5 million of first mortgage financing for the acquisition, which is evidenced by two credit and security agreements. The debt has a three year term with two twelve month extension options and requires the payment of interest only at a floating rate based upon one month LIBOR plus 2.10%. The remainder of the purchase price was funded by proportional capital contributions by the joint venturers.

At closing, we also entered into long-term management agreements pursuant to which we agreed to manage the communities.

We will consolidate the operating results of the joint ventures during an interim period until our venture partner completes its syndication of its equity investment. Upon completion of the syndication, we expect to account for our interest in the joint ventures under the equity method of accounting.

Risks Associated with Forward-Looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains certain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the federal securities laws, which are intended to be covered by the safe harbors created thereby. Those forward-looking statements include all statements that are not historical statements of fact and those regarding the intent, belief or expectations of us or our management, including, but not limited to, all statements regarding our expectations concerning the future financial performance or accounting treatment of the acquired communities and their effect on our financial performance. All forward-looking statements may be affected by certain risks and uncertainties, including without limitation the following: (i) our ability to successfully integrate the Cypress portfolio into our operations, (ii) the risk that we will be unable to improve our results of operations, increase cash flow and reduce expenses, (iii) the risks associated with adverse market conditions of the senior housing industry and the United States economy in general, (iv) the risks associated with our debt and lease obligations, and (v) the risk factors described in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005 under the caption "Risk Factors" and in our other filings with the SEC.

Should one or more of those risks materialize, actual results could differ materially from those forecasted or expected. Although we believe that the assumptions underlying the forward-looking statements contained herein are reasonable, any of these assumptions could prove to be inaccurate, and therefore, there can be no assurance that the forward-looking statements included in this Form 8-K will prove to be accurate. In light of the significant
