Item 8.01 Other Events.

On May 4, 2010, an arbitration panel of the American Arbitration Association awarded Louis D. Paolino, the former Chief Executive Officer of Mace Security International, Inc. (“Mace” or the “Company”) the sum of $4,148,912 in connection with Mr. Paolino’s claims against the Company. As previously disclosed in the Company’s filings under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the Company and Mr. Paolino have been waiting for a decision in the Arbitration Proceeding, described in the Company’s Form 10-K for year ended 2009. The arbitration panel found that Mr. Paolino did not engage in willful misconduct, and was therefore entitled to a severance payment under his Employment Agreement upon his termination as Chief Executive Officer of the Company on May 20, 2008.

The award consists of $3,851,000, as the severance payment due under Mr. Paolino’s Employment Agreement, plus interest and a payment of $1,000 for Mr. Paolino’s defamation claim. The panel dismissed Mr. Paolino’s claim for additional stock options having the value of $322,606, but directed the Company to rescind the cancellation of 1,769,682 options which were cancelled by the Company upon Mr. Paolino’s termination. Mr. Paolino was given until July 10, 2010 to exercise these restored options. The panel also denied the Company’s counterclaim for conversion of its property by Mr. Paolino and held that there was no basis for imposition of punitive damages.

The Company is reviewing the Arbitration Award and is considering its options. The Company has the cash available to pay the Arbitration Award without disrupting its business.

The Press Release issued by the Company is attached as an Exhibit to this Form 8-K.
