The following are excerpts from the transcript of the Macquarie Infrastructure Company LLC First Quarter 2015 Earnings Call held on May 5, 2015:

James Hooke, Chief Executive Officer

C-Corp conversion. As many of you will have seen, we are proceeding with efforts to convert MIC from an LLC to a regular corporation and we'll conduct a special meeting of shareholders to vote on the matter on May 15. We commenced distribution of the proxy related to the meeting immediately thereafter. Holders of record on March 25 will be eligible to vote at the special meeting.

As a reminder, there are two principal matters being put to a vote on the 15th. First, shareholders will be asked to approve the conversion of the Company from a Delaware-limited liability company to a Delaware corporation. Included in the proposal are provisions to select Delaware as the venue of choice, for adjudication of lawsuits that may be brought against the Company and the issuance of 100 shares of Class B shares to MIC's manager. Those shares will have the right to appoint the Chairman of the Board of MIC attached to them, the same right as the manager has today under the existing LLC agreement.

We believe the conversion will do two things. First, it will open the Company up to potential inclusion in various mainstream stock indices. As an LLC, MIC is not eligible for inclusion in, for example, the Russell indices. Second, by changing from an LLC, we avoid the potential confusion in the market amongst investors who may look at MIC and wrongly conclude that the Company is a pass-through entity, even though MIC has not been treated as a pass-through entity since 2006. Both of these have the potential to increase the level of interest in our shares.

The Board of Directors has recommended a vote in favor of the conversion and related provisions.

With the second proposal, shareholders are asked to approve an authorization for the Company to issue, from time to time, up to 100 million shares in preferred stock. Our Board has represented that it would not approve issuing or using preferred stock for defensive or anti-takeover measures unless approved by shareholders in advance. Proposal Number 2 will only become effective if proposal Number 1, the conversion to a corporation, is passed as well.

Again, the Board of Directors has recommended a vote in favor of the authorization to issue preferred shares.

I encourage you to make your views known by voting on these proposals at your earliest convenience. If you have questions regarding these matters, please contact Jay Davis or our proxy solicitor, Okapi Partners, here in New York.

Please note that these matters are part of the special meeting that will be held on May 15. You will also have received a separate proxy related to our Annual General Meeting that will be held on May 20. I would encourage you to vote on the matters put forth in that document as well.
