Enclosure: Partner Communications announces the private issuance of additional unsecured non-convertible Series C
Notes

PARTNER COMMUNICATIONS ANNOUNCES THE
PRIVATE ISSUANCE OF ADDITIONAL UNSECURED
NON-CONVERTIBLE SERIES C NOTES

ROSH HA'AYIN, Israel, February 24, 2011 - Partner Communications Company Ltd. ("Partner" or "the Company") (NASDAQ and TASE: PTNR), a leading Israeli communications operator, today announced that, following the public offering in Israel of unsecured non-convertible Series C Notes of the Company pursuant to a shelf offering report dated April 15, 2010, as amended to date (the "Shelf Offering Report") and in accordance with the Company's shelf prospectus dated September 3, 2009, as amended to date (the "Shelf Prospectus"), it has agreed with classified institutional investors in Israel to issue in a private placement an additional NIS 443,514,739 in principal amount of Series C Notes (approximately USD 122 million) (the "Additional Notes"). The terms of the Additional Notes are identical to the terms of the currently outstanding Series C Notes previously issued to the public pursuant to the Shelf Offering Report and the Shelf Prospectus. For additional information regarding the terms of the Series C Notes, see the Company's press releases dated April 15, 2010 and April 22, 2010.

Pursuant to its agreement with classified institutional investors in Israel, the Additional Notes will be issued to such investors for an aggregate consideration of approximately NIS 462,585,873 (approximately USD 127 million), representing a price of NIS 1.043 per NIS 1 principal amount of the Additional Notes (reflecting approximately 1.8% discount on the market price as of February 23, 2011). The Additional Notes will therefore be issued without discount on their adjusted value ('nikaion').

The proceeds from the issuance will be used to meet the Company's operating needs including repayment or purchase of the Company's Series A Notes and/ or finance of the purchase of 012 Smile Telecom Ltd.

In addition, on February 24, 2011, Standard & Poor's Maalot announced that "it assigned its 'ilAA-' rating to an expansion of bond series C of up to new Israeli shekel (NIS) 500 million par value, to be issued by Partner Communications Company Ltd. (ilAA-/Negative). The proceeds from the issue will be used to meet the company's operating needs including repayment or purchase of Series A bonds or/and financing the purchase of Smile 012. The rating reflects our assessment that the expansion of the bond series does not negatively affect the company's financial risk profile, or/and our ratings on the existing bond issues, assuming that Partner will continue to maintain what we consider as "adequate" liquidity." For further information see Standard & Poors Maalot's announcement on: <http://www.maalot.co.il/reports/495/B24022011.pdf> or its informal English translation attached hereto.

In addition, for further information regarding Standard & Poors Maalot's rating report dated October 19, 2010, see Standard & Poors Maalot's announcement on: <http://www.maalot.co.il/reports/495/RU19102010.pdf> or its informal English translation attached to our Form 6-K furnished to the Securities and Exchange Commission on October 20, 2010.

The issuance and the listing of the Additional Notes is subject to the receipt of the approval of the Tel Aviv Stock Exchange Ltd. for the listing of the Additional Notes for trade on the Tel Aviv Stock Exchange.

The sale and/or transfer of the Additional Notes are subject to the limitations on re-sale of securities set forth in Article 15C of the Israeli Securities Law of 1968 (the "Law") and the Securities Regulations (Details with respect to Articles 15A-15C of the Law) of 2000 applicable to investors of the type specified in the first supplement to the Law.

The Additional Notes have not been, and will not be, registered under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), and may not be offered or sold in the United States or to U.S. Persons (as defined in Regulation S promulgated under the Securities Act) without registration under the Securities Act or an applicable exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act. The offering of the Additional Notes was made in Israel only.

This press release shall not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any securities.

Forward-Looking Statements

This press release includes forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the US Securities Act of 1933, as amended, Section 21E of the US Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the safe harbor provisions of the US Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Words such as "believe", "anticipate", "expect", "intend", "seek", "will", "plan", "could", "may", "project", "goal", "target" and similar expressions often identify forward-looking statements but are not the only way we identify these statements. All statements other than statements of historical fact included in this press release regarding our future performance, plans to increase revenues or margins or preserve or expand market share in existing or new markets, reduce expenses and any statements regarding other future events or our future prospects, are forward-looking statements.

We have based these forward-looking statements on our current knowledge and our present beliefs and expectations regarding possible future events. These forward-looking statements are subject to risks, uncertainties and assumptions about Partner, consumer habits and preferences in cellular telephone usage, trends in the Israeli telecommunications industry in general, the impact of current global economic conditions and possible regulatory and legal developments. On Feb. 24, 2011 Standard & Poor's Maalot announced that it assigned its 'ilAA-' rating to an expansion of bond series C of up to new Israeli shekel (NIS) 500 million par value, to be issued by Partner Communications Company Ltd. (ilAA/Negative).

The proceeds from the issue will be used to meet the company's operating needs including repayment or purchase of Series A bonds or/and financing the purchase of Smile 012. The rating reflects our assessment that the expansion of the bond series does not negatively affect the company's financial risk profile, or/and our ratings on the existing bond issues, assuming that Partner will continue to maintain what we consider as "adequate" liquidity.

For further information on the rationale behind the rating, see our rating report of Oct. 19, 2010.
