Resignation of SkyePharma's Chairman

LONDON, UK, 23 January 2006 - SkyePharma PLC (LSE: SKP; Nasdaq: SKYE) announces the resignation of Ian Gowrie-Smith as Chairman of the Company. A new Chairman will be appointed at the Company's next Board meeting, on 1 February. It is also his intention not to stand for re-election as a Director of the Company at SkyePharma's 2006 Annual General Meeting.

Mr Gowrie-Smith, who founded SkyePharma in 1996, stepped down from the role of Executive Chairman to a non-executive Chairmanship in 2004. It has been Mr Gowrie-Smith's intention since early 2005 to continue this process by resigning at an appropriate time, both as Chairman and as a Director. A search for a new Chairman was therefore initiated in 2005, but was put on hold while the Company's Strategic Review and search for a new Chief Executive was ongoing. The search resulted in the identification of a number of excellent candidates for both positions. The Board would like to make clear that it will strenuously oppose any attempts to force a candidate onto the Board.

The Strategic Review of the Company continues and further announcements will be made in due course.

Ian Gowrie-Smith, SkyePharma's Chairman, said: "I have decided to resign in the interest of all shareholders. This expedites a process that was already ongoing and hopefully will bring to an end the recent acrimonious period and spare shareholders and the Company the expense and distraction of an Extraordinary General Meeting. It is unfortunate that the short-term interests of a small group of shareholders can cause such disruption to the development of a company where real achievements are often measured in decades. Building a pharmaceutical company is a long-term business and it is not surprising or unreasonable for investor patience to be tested from time to time. However, in ten years SkyePharma has come a very long way and now faces an exciting future with important products in late-stage development. SkyePharma is already a world leader in drug delivery and has the potential to become a major force in pharmaceuticals. I am very proud of what we have achieved and thank shareholders for their support and employees worldwide for their dedication.

"I have devoted over ten years to establishing and building SkyePharma, and perhaps that is long enough for anyone in such a demanding role. However, since I moved to become non-executive Chairman I have widened my business interests and I look forward to the new challenges they will bring."
