BARCLAYS BANK PLC AND THOMAS COOK UK LTD TO FORM JOINT VENTURE

Barclays Bank PLC ("Barclays") and Thomas Cook UK Ltd ("Thomas Cook") have today announced that they have signed a Shareholders' Agreement to form a 50/50 joint venture to provide a new Thomas Cook credit card and other financial services products.

The joint venture encompasses Thomas Cook's 600 UK shops serving approximately 3.5 million customers.

Each party has made an initial de minimis capital contribution to the joint venture. The Shareholders' Agreement is conditional on agreement of the terms of a Services Agreement to be entered into between Thomas Cook, Barclays and the joint venture company and on regulatory approvals. This is expected to happen later this year.

The move underlines Barclays strategy to grow its UK lending business with a growing contribution from partnership business and follows previous, similar deals with Sky, Argos and House of Fraser.

FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENT

This document contains certain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 21E of the US Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Section 27A of the US Securities Act of 1933, as amended, with respect to certain of the Group's plans and its current goals and expectations relating to its future financial condition and performance. These forward-looking statements can be identified by the fact that they do not relate only to historical or current facts. Forward-looking statements sometimes use words such as 'aim', 'anticipate', 'target', 'expect', 'estimate', 'intend', 'plan', 'goal', 'believe', or other words of similar meaning. Examples of forward-looking statements include, among others, statements regarding the Group's future financial position, income growth, impairment charges, business strategy, projected levels of growth in the banking and financial markets, projected costs, estimates of capital expenditures, and plans and objectives for future operations.

By their nature, forward-looking statements involve risk and uncertainty because they relate to future events and circumstances, including, but not limited to, the further development of standards and interpretations under IFRS applicable to past, current and future periods, evolving practices with regard to the interpretation and application of standards under IFRS, as well as UK domestic and global economic and business conditions, market related risks such as changes in interest rates and exchange rates, the policies and actions of governmental and regulatory authorities, changes in legislation, progress in the integration of Absa into the Group's business and the achievement of synergy targets related to Absa, the outcome of pending and future litigation, and the impact of competition - a number of which factors are beyond the Group's control. As a result, the Group's actual future results may differ materially from the plans, goals, and expectations set forth in the Group's forward-looking statements. Any forward-looking statements made by or on behalf of Barclays speak only as of the date they are made. Barclays does not undertake to update forward-looking statements to reflect any changes in Barclays expectations with regard thereto or any changes in events, conditions or circumstances on which any such statement is based. The reader should, however, consult any additional disclosures that Barclays has made or may make in documents it has filed or may file with the SEC.
