PART II RULES 12b-25(b) AND (c)

If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. (Check box if appropriate)

- (a) The reasons described in reasonable detail in Part III of this form could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense;

PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

As previously announced in a press release dated July 21, 2003 and a Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on July 22, 2003, the Registrant has reached an agreement in principle with its senior lenders regarding a credit facility amendment. The Registrant is in the process of finalizing the legal documentation related to this amendment, but such documentation is not yet complete nor have all the Registrant's lenders obtained the requisite internal approvals necessary to execute the amendment. The terms of the credit facility amendment will have a material effect on the Company's financial statements and Form 10-K. In particular, if the Registrant were to file a Form 10-K before the credit facility is formally amended, and then were to file an amended Form 10-K after the credit facility amendment takes effect, the Registrant would be required to issue two materially different sets of audited financial statements. Accordingly, without unreasonable effort and expense, the Registrant cannot file the Form 10-K until the credit facility amendment is finalized.
