The Registrant hereby amends Item 7 of its Current Report on Form 8-K filed January 13, 2004, amended on February 5, 2004 and March 22, 2004, as follows:

Item 7. Financial Statements, Pro Forma Financial Information and Exhibits.

(a) Financial Statements of Businesses Acquired.

On July 7, 2004 Cell Therapeutics, Inc. (CTI) received a letter from KPMG S.p.A. (KPMG) in which KPMG informed CTI that it believes that KPMG was not independent from Novuspharma S.p.A. (Novuspharma) for the purposes of U.S. generally accepted auditing standards during the periods covered by its reports dated (i) March 12, 2004 with respect to the balance sheets of Novuspharma as of December 31, 2003 and 2002, and the related statements of operations, shareholders equity, and cash flows for each of the years in the three year period ended December 31, 2003 and for the period from January 1, 1999 (inception) to December 31, 2003 and (ii) dated June 23, 2003 (reissued on August 6, 2003) with respect to the balance sheets of Novuspharma as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, and the related statements of operations, shareholders equity, and cash flows for each of the years in the three year period ended December 31, 2002 and for the period from January 1, 1999 (inception) to December 31, 2002.

In its letter to CTI, KPMG has asked CTI to inform investors and others that they should not rely on the KPMG reports to the extent that these reports state or imply that KPMG was independent of Novuspharma within the meaning of U.S. generally accepted auditing standards. Investors and others should no longer rely on the KPMG reports to the extent that they state or imply that KPMG was independent of Novuspharma within the meaning of U.S. generally accepted auditing standards during the periods covered by the KPMG reports.

CTI has asked Reconta Ernst & Young S.p.A. (Ernst & Young), to reaudit Novuspharma s financial statements. CTI filed a Form 8-K on July 13, 2004, which includes those financial statements and Ernst & Young s unqualified independent auditors report thereon.

(c) Exhibits.
