ITEM 8.01 OTHER EVENTS.

The board of directors of Fox Entertainment Group, Inc. (Fox) received today a letter from its parent, News Corporation, stating that News Corporation is commencing an exchange offer today, January 10, 2005, to acquire all of the shares of Fox Class A common stock that News Corporation does not already own. According to the description of the terms of the exchange offer in News Corporation's letter, holders of Fox Class A common stock will receive 1.90 shares of News Corporation Class A common stock in exchange for each outstanding share of Fox Class A common stock validly tendered and not withdrawn in the exchange offer.

News Corporation filed offering materials with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) today which describe the proposed transaction in more detail.

On January 10, 2005, the Fox board formed a special committee of Fox directors that are not directors or executive officers of News Corporation to consider News Corporation's proposal and make a recommendation to the Fox stockholders regarding the proposal. The special committee consists of Messrs. Peter J. Powers and Christos M. Cotsakos. The special committee also intends to hire its own independent legal and financial advisors.

Also on January 10, 2005, complaints relating to a number of purported class actions were filed in Chancery Court in the State of Delaware naming Fox, members of the Fox board of directors and News Corporation as defendants. The complaints generally allege, among other things, that members of the Fox board of directors and News Corporation have breached fiduciary duties to the public stockholders of Fox.

A copy of News Corporation's proposal letter, which was delivered to the Fox board today, is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.
