The transaction is subject to customary closing conditions and requirements. The company has not completed its diligence review and can make no assurance that the transaction will close. Assuming the company's due diligence review is completed without issue, the closing would be expected to occur during the first quarter of 2006. Following the closing, the property would continue to be managed by Starwood Hotels & Resorts Worldwide, Inc.

A copy of the purchase agreement is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this report.

The Le Parc Suite Hotel will continue to be managed by Outrigger Lodging Services, which manages the Company's Le Montrose Suite Hotel and the Grafton on Sunset, each also located in West Hollywood.

On December 8, 2005, the company closed on its previously announced acquisition of the Best Western University Tower Hotel in Seattle, Washington, for $26.4 million, including the company's assumption of a $10.8 million loan secured by the hotel with a fixed annual interest rate of 6.28%. On December 16, 2005, LaSalle Hotel Properties closed on its previously announced acquisition of the Holiday Inn Downtown in Washington, DC for $44.6 million. The company anticipates investing over $21 million in a renovation and repositioning similar to those performed on the company's DC Urban Collection purchased in March 2001. After completion of the renovation and repositioning in early 2007, the hotel will be operated as a luxury, independent hotel. The Holiday Inn affiliation was ended in conjunction with the acquisition.
