Nasdaq National Market symbol	SBAC.
Use of proceeds	We will not receive any proceeds from the sale of the shares of our Class A common stock by the selling shareholder.
Risk Factors	Investing in our securities involves risks. THE SELLING SHAREHOLDER

Class A Common Stock

On March 17, 2006, we and our wholly-owned, indirect subsidiary, AAT Acquisition LLC, entered into a stock purchase agreement (the "Stock Purchase Agreement") pursuant to which we, indirectly, agreed to purchase all of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of AAT Communications Corp. from AAT Holdings, LLC II ("AAT Holdings II") for total consideration of $634 million in cash and 17,059,336 newly issued shares of our Class A common stock. On April 27, 2006, we consummated this acquisition and issued an aggregate of 17,059,336 shares of Class A common stock to AAT Holdings II. The shares were issued pursuant to Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), and the rules and regulations thereunder. AAT Holdings, LLC ("AAT Holdings"), the selling shareholder, is the indirect parent of AAT Holdings II and received its shares of our Class A Common Stock upon distribution by AAT Holdings II.

Registration Rights

Pursuant to the Stock Purchase Agreement, we agreed to register for resale all 17,059,336 shares of our Class A common stock issued in the acquisition. In addition, we have agreed to maintain the effectiveness of the registration statement, which includes this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus, until the earlier of:

two years (plus the amount of time that the registration statement or this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus may not be used or are not available from time to time to effect resales of any shares hereunder) from April 27, 2006; or until such earlier date as of which all the shares shall have been disposed of.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, we may suspend the use of this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus during the effectiveness of the registration statement for such period of time as (i) such a suspension is required by the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission, or SEC, as applied to us, (ii) such prospectus ceases to meet the requirements of Section 10 of the Securities Act or (iii) in the good faith determination by our board of directors, offers and sales pursuant to the registration statement should not be made by reason of the existence of material undisclosed circumstances or developments with respect to which the disclosure that would be required in the registration statement would be premature and would have an adverse effect on us. However, any such suspension shall not exceed 60 days in any single instance and shall not exceed 90 days in the aggregate during any twelve month period.

Stock Ownership of Selling Shareholder

The following table sets forth information known to us with respect to the beneficial ownership of our Class A common stock as of April 27, 2006 by the selling shareholder and its affiliates. The number of shares that may actually be sold by the selling shareholder will be determined by the selling shareholder. The selling shareholder may sell some, all or none of these shares. Because the offering contemplated by this prospectus supplement is not currently being underwritten, no estimate can be given as to the number of shares of common stock that will be held by the selling shareholder upon termination of the offering. Information concerning other selling shareholders, if any, will be set forth in prospectus supplements from time to time, if required. In addition, upon receiving notice from the selling shareholder that a donee, pledgee or transferee or other successor-in-interest who receives shares of our Class A common stock offered hereby from the selling shareholder as a gift, pledge, partnership or limited liability company distribution or other non-sale related transfer and who subsequently intends to sell more than 500 shares covered by this prospectus supplement, we will file a supplement to this prospectus supplement pursuant to Rule 424(b) of the Securities Act to identify the non-sale transferee.

The table assumes that the selling shareholder sells as many shares as it can under this prospectus supplement.

		Number	Percent	Number	Percent
AAT Holdings, LLC ⁽²⁾	17,059,336	17,059,336	0	0	0%

⁽¹⁾ We have determined the number and percentage of shares beneficially owned in accordance with Rule 13d-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), and this information does not necessarily indicate beneficial ownership for any other purpose. In determining the number of shares beneficially owned by the selling shareholder and the percentage ownership of the selling shareholder, we included any shares as to which the selling shareholder has sole or shared voting power or investment power, as well as any shares of our Class A common stock subject to options, warrants or other derivative securities held by that selling shareholder that are currently exercisable or exercisable within 60 days after April 27, 2006. Except as indicated by footnote, and subject to community property laws where applicable, the persons named in the table above have sole voting and investment power with respect to all shares of common stock shown as beneficially owned by them. Under the rules of the SEC, more than one person may be deemed a beneficial owner of the same securities and a person may be deemed a beneficial owner of securities as to which he has no economic interest.

⁽²⁾ Decisions with respect to the voting and disposition of the shares by this holder are made by a sub-committee of its management committee. The members of the subcommittee are Jerald L. Kent, Thomas C. Dircks and Michael J. Marocco.

Certain Relationships

In 2003, we sold 784 towers in the Western two-thirds of the United States to AAT Communications Corp. which was a wholly owned subsidiary of AAT Holdings II until we acquired AAT Communications Corp. pursuant to the Stock Purchase Agreement, as discussed above. We have had no other material relationship with AAT Holdings or AAT Holdings II in the past three years.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

We are registering 17,059,336 shares of our Class A common stock to permit the resale of these shares of common stock by the selling shareholder from time to time after the date of this prospectus supplement. We will not receive any of the proceeds from the sale by the selling shareholder of the shares of Class A common stock.

The selling shareholder may sell all or a portion of our Class A common stock beneficially owned by it, and offered hereby, from time to time, on the Nasdaq National Market or any stock exchange, market, quotation service or trading facility on which the shares are traded or in private transactions, directly or through one or more underwriters, broker-dealers or agents. If the Class A common stock is sold through underwriters or broker-dealers, the selling shareholder will be responsible for underwriting discounts or commissions or agent's commissions. The Class A common stock may be sold in one or more transactions at fixed prices, at prevailing market prices at the time of the sale, at varying prices related to such prevailing market prices determined at the time of sale, or at negotiated prices. The selling shareholder may use any one or more of the following methods when selling shares:

Ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker-dealer solicits investors;

Block trades in which the broker-dealer will attempt to sell the shares as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;

Purchases by a broker-dealer as principal and resale by such broker-dealer for its account;

A securities exchange or quotation system sale that complies with the applicable rules of the exchange or quotation system;

Privately negotiated transactions;

To cover short sales made after the date that the registration statement is declared effective by the SEC;

Through the writing of options relating to such shares;

Broker-dealers may agree with the selling shareholder to sell a specified number of such shares at a stipulated price per share;

A combination of any such methods of sale; and

Any other method permitted pursuant to applicable law.

If the selling shareholder effects such transactions by selling shares of Class A common stock to or through underwriters, broker-dealers or agents, such underwriters, broker-dealers or agents may receive commissions in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from the selling shareholder or commissions from purchasers of the shares of Class A common stock for whom they may act as agent or to whom they may sell as principal (which discounts, concessions or commissions as to particular underwriters, broker-dealers or agents may be in excess of those customary in the types of transactions involved). In connection with sales of the Class A common stock or otherwise, the selling shareholder may enter into hedging transactions with third parties, which may in turn engage in short sales of the Class A common stock in the course of hedging the positions they assume. If so, the third parties may use shares pledged by the selling shareholder or borrowed from the selling shareholder or others to settle those sales or to close out related open borrowings of shares and may use shares received from the selling shareholder in settlement of derivatives to close out any related open borrowings of shares. The selling shareholder may also sell shares of Class A common stock short and deliver shares of Class A common stock covered by this prospectus supplement to close out short positions. The selling shareholder may also loan shares of Class A common stock to broker-dealers that in turn may sell such shares.

The selling shareholder may also elect to sell all or a portion of its Class A common stock in open market transactions in reliance upon Rule 144 under the Securities Act, or any other available exemption from required registration under the Securities Act, provided that it meets the criteria and conform to the requirements of such exemption.

The selling shareholder may pledge or grant a security interest in some or all of the shares of common stock owned by it and, if the selling shareholder defaults in the performance of its secured obligations, the pledgees or secured parties may offer and sell the shares of Class A common stock from time to time pursuant to this prospectus supplement or any amendment to this prospectus supplement under Rule 424(b)(3) or other applicable provision of the Securities Act, amending, if necessary, the list of selling shareholders to include the pledgee, transferee or other successors-in-interest as a selling shareholder under this prospectus supplement. The selling shareholder also may transfer and donate shares of Class A common stock in other circumstances in which case the transferees, donees, pledgees or other successors-in-interest will be the selling beneficial owners for purposes of this prospectus supplement.

The selling shareholder and any underwriter, broker-dealer, agent or third party to any derivative transaction participating in the sale of the shares of Class A common stock may be deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of the Securities Act, and any commission paid, or any discounts or concessions allowed, to any such underwriter, broker-dealer or agent, or any profit from the sale by them while acting as principals, may be deemed to be underwriting commissions or discounts under the Securities Act. At the time a particular offering of the shares of Class A common stock is made, a prospectus supplement, if required pursuant to Rule 424(b) under the Securities Act, will be distributed which will set forth the aggregate amount of shares of Class A common stock being offered and the terms of the offering, including the name or names of any broker-dealers or agents, any discounts, commissions and other terms constituting compensation from the selling shareholder and any discounts, commissions or concessions allowed or reallocated or paid to broker-dealers. Any person deemed to be an underwriter will be subject to the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act.

Under the securities laws of some states, the shares of Class A common stock may be sold in such states only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers. In addition, in some states the shares of Class A common stock may not be sold unless the shares have been registered or qualified for sale in the state or an exemption from registration or qualification is available and is complied with.

We have advised the selling shareholder that it may not use shares registered on this registration statement to cover short sales of Class A common stock made prior to the date on which the registration statement was declared effective by the SEC. The selling shareholder, and any other person participating in the distribution of the shares of Class A common stock registered pursuant to the registration statement, will be subject to applicable provisions of the Exchange Act, and the rules and regulations thereunder, including, without limitation, Regulation M of the Exchange Act. Regulation M may limit the timing of purchases and sales of any of the shares of Class A common stock by the selling shareholder and any other participating person. Regulation M may also restrict the ability of any person engaged in the distribution of the shares of Class A common stock to engage in market-making activities with respect to the shares of Class A common stock. All of the foregoing may affect the marketability of the shares of Class A common stock and the ability of any person or entity to engage in market-making activities with respect to the shares of Class A common stock.

The selling shareholder will pay all applicable underwriting discounts and selling commissions, if any. We will pay all expenses of the registration of the shares of Class A common stock pursuant to this prospectus supplement in accordance with the Stock Purchase Agreement, estimated to be $50,000 in total, including, without limitation, Commission filing fees and expenses of compliance with state securities or blue sky laws. In addition, we will split equally with the selling shareholder all costs (other than underwriting discounts and selling commissions, if any) associated with the sales of certain shares pursuant to not more than two marketed secondary offerings in any 365 day period. We will indemnify the selling shareholder against certain liabilities, including under the Securities Act, in accordance with our obligations under the Stock Purchase Agreement. The selling shareholder may agree to indemnify any agent, dealer or broker-dealer that participates in transactions involving sales of the shares of our common stock against civil liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act.

Once sold under the registration statement, which includes this prospectus supplement, the accompanying prospectus and any additional prospectus supplements, if necessary, the shares of Class A common stock will be freely tradable in the hands of persons other than our affiliates.
