Item 2.01. Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

Item 2.05. Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities.

On June 6, 2006, Boston Properties, Inc.'s Operating Partnership, Boston Properties Limited Partnership (the Company), through one of its wholly owned subsidiaries, completed the sale of the Company's property located at 280 Park Avenue in New York City for approximately $1.2 billion in cash. The property was sold to an affiliate of Istithmar PJSC (Istithmar), which is a private investment holding company based in Dubai. 280 Park Avenue is a Class A office tower that contains approximately 1,179,000 net rentable square feet. The property is currently 100% leased. The Company estimates net proceeds from the sale of approximately $850 million, after legal defeasance of indebtedness secured by the property (consisting of approximately $254.4 million of principal indebtedness and approximately $28.4 million of related defeasance costs) and the payment of transfer taxes, broker's fees, revenue support payments to Istithmar that are described below and other customary closing costs that the Company is responsible for paying under the terms of the purchase and sale agreement.

Pursuant to the purchase and sale agreement, the Company entered into a master lease agreement with Istithmar at closing. Under the master lease agreement, the Company has guaranteed that Istithmar will receive at least a minimum amount of base rent from approximately 74,340 square feet of space during the ten-year period following the expiration of the current leases for this space. The current leases for this space are scheduled to expire at various times between June 2006 and October 2007. The aggregate amount of base rent guaranteed by the Company over the entire period from 2006 to 2017 is approximately $67.3 million. The Company's guarantee obligations, which are in the form of base rent payments to Istithmar, will be reduced by the amount of base rent payable, whether or not actually paid, under qualifying leases for this space that are obtained by the Company from prospective tenants. The Company will remain responsible for any free rent periods. Istithmar will bear all customary leasing costs for this space, including tenant improvements and leasing commissions.

Under the purchase and sale agreement, the Company has also agreed to provide to Istithmar fixed monthly revenue support from the closing date until December 31, 2008. The aggregate amount of the revenue support payments will be approximately $22.5 million.

As part of the transaction, Istithmar has engaged the Company as the property manager and leasing agent for 280 Park Avenue for a one-year term that renews automatically. Either party has the right to terminate this relationship at any time after the termination or expiration of the master lease agreement described above.
