Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On January 29, 2008, PECO II, Inc. (the "Company"), its wholly-owned subsidiary, PECO II Global Services, Inc., and John G. Heindel, the Company's Chairman of the Board, President, Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer, entered into an employment agreement (the "Employment Agreement"). The terms and conditions of the Employment Agreement include, but are not limited to, the following:

The Employment Agreement has an initial term ending on December 31, 2009, and automatically renews for successive one-year periods, unless either party gives 90 days' prior written notice to the other party of its intent not to renew the Employment Agreement.

Mr. Heindel will receive an annual base salary of $260,000, which will be reviewed and may be increased subject to the approval of the Compensation/Nominating Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Committee").

Provided that the Agreement is in effect on such dates, the Company shall grant Mr. Heindel such number of shares of restricted stock under the Company's Amended 2000 Performance Plan, or any successor plan, equal to (i) $40,000 divided by (ii) the closing price of PECO's common stock on the date of grant, on each of January 29, 2008 and January 2, 2009. The grants of restricted stock will vest on December 31, 2008 and December 31, 2009, respectively.

Mr. Heindel will be eligible to participate in any cash bonus plan which is established from time to time in an amount determined by the Committee, and Mr. Heindel will be eligible for awards granted under the Company's Amended 2000 Performance Plan, at the discretion of the Committee.

Mr. Heindel is entitled to a car allowance of $750 per month during the term of the Employment Agreement.

The Company agreed to obtain a life insurance policy for a duration of not less than the term of the Employment Agreement upon the life of Mr. Heindel in the amount of $1,000,000, which policy shall be payable $500,000 together with gross-up of premiums to the beneficiaries of the Employee and any balance to the Company.

In the event of a termination due to the death or Disability (as defined in the Employment Agreement) of Mr. Heindel, Mr. Heindel's employment will be deemed terminated as of the end of the month in which such death occurs or Disability is determined and the Company will pay to Mr. Heindel, or his beneficiary, base salary and benefits for a period of 90 days from the deemed termination date. In addition, Mr. Heindel's stock options will immediately vest 100% upon his death or Disability and may be exercised for 90 days from the deemed termination date.

In the event of a termination of Mr. Heindel for Cause (as defined in the Employment Agreement), all obligations of the Company to Mr. Heindel shall cease.

If a change of control (as defined in the Employment Agreement) occurs at any time during the term of the Employment Agreement, and within six months of the date of the change of control either (i) Mr. Heindel terminates his employment for any reason or (ii) the Company terminates Mr. Heindel's employment for any reason other than for Cause, then Mr. Heindel is entitled to the following: 2.0 times the sum of (x) Mr. Heindel's annual salary in effect on the date of termination, (y) any accrued cash bonuses (which are accrued at the time of termination) and (z) the continuing payment of Employee's Family COBRA Health Insurance coverage for a maximum of 18 months from the date of termination. In addition, Mr. Heindel's stock options will immediately vest 100% and may be exercised for a period of 12 months from the termination date.

In the event of a termination without Cause upon not less than 90 days advance written notice, the Company will pay to Mr. Heindel: (i) base salary for an additional 12 months in accordance with normal payroll practices and (ii) an amount equal to any accrued cash bonuses (that are accrued at the time of termination) in a lump sum within three months after such termination. The Company may accelerate the effective date of the termination without Cause, if the Company increases the amount payable to Mr. Heindel to an amount equal to the amount Mr. Heindel would receive following termination within six months of a change of control, as described above. In addition, Mr. Heindel's stock options will immediately vest 100% upon termination and may be exercised for 90 days from the termination date.

In the event of a termination by Mr. Heindel without Good Reason (as defined in the Employment Agreement) upon not less than 90 days advance written notice to the Company, the Company shall pay to Mr. Heindel base salary and benefits for a period of 90 days from the date of such notice. In addition, Mr. Heindel's stock options may be exercised for 90 days from the termination date.

In the event of a termination by Mr. Heindel with Good Reason, the Company shall pay to Mr. Heindel an amount equal to the amount Mr. Heindel would receive following termination within six months of a change of control, as described above. In addition, Mr. Heindel's stock options will immediately vest 100% and may be exercised for 90 days from the termination date.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Mr. Heindel is a specified employee as defined in Internal Revenue Code Section 409A, any payments made upon Mr. Heindel's termination will be made at a time and in a manner that will not subject Mr. Heindel to the excise tax under Section 409A.

Under the Employment Agreement, Mr. Heindel also agreed not to compete against the Company for a period of one year following any termination of Mr. Heindel's employment with the Company.

The Employment Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated herein by reference. The description of the Employment Agreements contained herein is qualified in its entirety by the full text of Employment Agreement in Exhibit 10.1.
