Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Effective as of the close of business on March 28, 2008, the separation of Philip Morris International Inc. ( PMI ) from Altria Group, Inc. ( Altria ) and the distribution of 100% of the shares of PMI to Altria's shareholders was completed (the Distribution ). In connection with the Distribution, Altria entered into certain agreements with PMI to define responsibility for obligations arising before and after the Distribution, including, among others, obligations relating to transition services, employees, taxes and intellectual property.

On March 28, 2008, Altria Corporate Services, Inc., a subsidiary of Altria ( ALCS ), entered into a Transition Services Agreement (the Transition Services Agreement ) with PMI pursuant to which ALCS will provide a variety of services to PMI for a period of time following the Distribution not to exceed twenty-four months. The transition services include consulting services related to risk management, benefit administration and information technology as well as the transfer of transaction processing (accounts payable and expense reports) for certain Latin American markets.

On March 28, 2008, Altria entered into an Employee Matters Agreement (the Employee Matters Agreement ) with PMI. The Employee Matters Agreement governs Altria's and PMI's respective obligations with respect to employees, compensation plans, treatment of holders of Altria stock options, restricted stock and deferred stock with respect to PMI, and cooperation between the companies in the sharing of employee information and maintenance of confidentiality.

On March 28, 2008, Altria entered into a Tax Sharing Agreement (the Tax Sharing Agreement ) with PMI. The Tax Sharing Agreement generally governs Altria's and PMI's respective rights, responsibilities and obligations for pre-distribution periods and for potential taxes on the Distribution. With respect to any potential taxes resulting from the Distribution, responsibility for such tax will be allocated to the party that acted (or failed to act) in a manner which resulted in such tax.

Effective as of January 1, 2008, Philip Morris USA Inc., a subsidiary of Altria ( PM USA ), entered into an Intellectual Property Agreement (the Intellectual Property Agreement ) with PMI. The Intellectual Property Agreement governs the ownership of intellectual property between PMI and PM USA. Ownership of the jointly funded intellectual property has been allocated as follows: (i) PMI owns all rights to the jointly funded intellectual property outside the United States, its territories and possessions and (ii) PM USA owns all rights to the jointly funded intellectual property in the United States, its territories and possessions. Ownership of intellectual property related to patent applications and resulting patents based solely on the jointly funded intellectual property, regardless when filed or issued, will be exclusive to PM USA in the United States, its territories and possessions and exclusive to PMI everywhere else in the world. Additionally, the Intellectual Property Agreement contains provisions concerning intellectual property that is independently developed by PMI or PM USA following the Distribution.

The foregoing descriptions of the Transition Services Agreement, the Employee Matters Agreement, the Tax Sharing Agreement and the Intellectual Property Agreement are qualified in their entirety by reference to the complete terms and conditions of these agreements which are attached as Exhibits 10.1-10.4 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and are incorporated herein by reference in their entirety.
