Section 5 Corporate Governance and Management

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

Election of Director

On July 29, 2008, the Exelon Corporation (Exelon) board of directors appointed John A. Canning, Jr., as a director, filling a vacancy created by the expansion in the size of the board of directors to fifteen. Mr. Canning's appointment is effective as of August 1, 2008. Mr. Canning has not yet been appointed to any committees.

Second Amended and Restated Employment Agreement with John W. Rowe

On July 29, 2008, Exelon Corporation approved an amendment to its existing employment agreement with John W. Rowe, its Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and President. The purposes of the amendment were to reflect Mr. Rowe's agreement to remain at Exelon through July 1, 2011, and to conform the agreement to recent regulatory guidance governing the federal income taxation of certain deferred compensation and the corporate income tax deductibility of certain performance-based compensation. The amendment:

extends the retirement date provided under the existing agreement from March 16, 2010 to July 1, 2011;

modifies the existing agreement's severance provisions, under which the severance pay available during the three-year period preceding the retirement date is progressively reduced, to reflect the new retirement date and to provide a minimum severance pay period of one year upon a qualifying termination occurring prior to the new retirement date while retaining Exelon's right to terminate Mr. Rowe on or after the new retirement date without triggering a severance payment; conforms the agreement to final guidance issued under section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code by subjecting severance payments and deferred compensation which may be payable to Mr. Rowe upon his retirement or other termination of employment to a six-month waiting period and providing a single form of payment (lump sum) for any severance payments;

conforms the agreement to recent guidance issued under section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code by:

limiting the amount of the annual incentive award payable for the year in which Mr. Rowe retires or otherwise terminates employment to no more than the maximum amount that could be paid for such year based on the actual achievement of the applicable performance goals under Exelon's annual incentive program for senior executives; and determining the amount of the pro-rated performance share unit award payable for the year in which Mr. Rowe retires or otherwise terminates employment based on the actual achievement of the applicable performance goals under Exelon's long term incentive plan rather than the target performance level;

modifies a limitation applicable to a supplemental executive retirement plan benefit available to Mr. Rowe under the existing agreement upon a termination of his employment, which currently provides that the portion of the benefit accrued after March 16, 2006 is forfeited upon a termination for cause, to provide that the benefit is non-forfeitable upon a termination occurring on or after March 16, 2010 (the retirement date referenced under the existing agreement);

eliminates, consistent with Exelon's treatment of other executives and employees, a provision that would provide for a forfeiture of retiree welfare benefits upon a termination for cause; and modifies certain post-employment obligations of the parties. Upon Mr. Rowe's retirement or other termination of employment other than for cause, the existing agreement requires him to provide certain transition and consulting services on an unpaid basis for a period of three years during which Exelon will provide an office and personal secretary, and the amended agreement requires him to provide similar unpaid services, and Exelon to provide an office and secretary, for five years.

Edgar Filing: EXELON CORP - Form 8-K

A copy of the agreement is attached as Exhibit 99.1.

Restricted Stock Unit Awards to Named Executive Officers

On July 28 and 29, 2008, the Exelon Compensation Committee and the Exelon Board of Directors approved grants of restricted stock units under the company's 2006 Long Term Incentive Plan. Such grants are effective as of August 1, 2008 and vest on the anniversaries of the effective date, as listed in the table below.
