NEWS RELEASE

Agrium files definitive proxy materials

Sends letter urging CF stockholders to WITHHOLD votes for CF's board and vote the GREEN proxy card today

April 6, 2009 - ALL AMOUNTS ARE STATED IN U.S.$

CALGARY, Alberta Agrium Inc. (TSX and NYSE: AGU) today announced that it has filed its definitive proxy statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission and is mailing the following letter to CF stockholders urging them to vote the GREEN proxy card and WITHHOLD votes for CF's three director nominees up for election at CF's 2009 Annual Meeting of Stockholders on April 21, 2009.

Mike Wilson, Agrium's President and CEO, said, "Agrium is initiating a withhold vote to allow CF stockholders a say in the future of their company, which CF is intentionally denying them. We strongly urge CF stockholders to send a clear message to the CF Board to engage with Agrium by withholding their votes for the CF nominees at the April 21 Annual Meeting. Given CF's end run around CF stockholders, withholding votes on CF's proposed directors is the way for stockholders to indicate their preference for the future of their company."

The full text of the letter sent today to CF stockholders follows:

CF STOCKHOLDERS: NOW IS THE TIME TO SEND A MESSAGE TO YOUR BOARD AND MANAGEMENT VOTE TO WITHHOLD ON THE GREEN PROXY CARD TODAY!

Dear Fellow CF Industries Stockholder:

As you may know, Agrium Inc. has increased its offer to purchase all of the common stock of CF Industries Holdings, Inc. (CF) to $35.00 in cash plus one Agrium common share for each share of CF common stock. The combination of our two companies is strategically compelling and a superb opportunity to create value for both Agrium and CF stockholders.

Unfortunately, CF's Board of Directors has summarily rejected this offer and refused to engage with us in any discussions ignoring our publicly stated willingness to consider raising our offer further if CF can demonstrate additional value. CF's board has left us with no choice but to take our offer directly to you. We urge you to withhold your votes for the three CF directors who are up for re-election at the CF Annual Meeting on April 21. While this will not ensure that an Agrium/CF transaction will happen CF's takeover defenses effectively require the CF board to approve to any combination with Agrium it will send a strong message to the CF board that they should negotiate a mutually beneficial transaction with Agrium.

AGRIUM'S OFFER PROVIDES A SUBSTANTIAL PREMIUM

AND HAS BEEN WELL RECEIVED BY THE MARKET

We are offering you a substantial premium. Our increased offer provides a 35% premium to CF's closing price on February 24, 2009, the day before we made our initial offer, and a 48% premium to the 30-day volume weighted average price through that date (in both cases, based on Agrium's closing stock price on March 26, 2009, the day before we raised the cash portion of our initial offer by over 10%).

Our cash and stock offer gives CF stockholders the best of both worlds – a substantial cash premium at closing plus the potential for significant long-term value creation through ownership of Agrium shares.

Agrium's offer is not subject to a financing condition. We have sufficient cash resources and committed financing underwritten by Royal Bank of Canada and The Bank of Nova Scotia to fund the cash portion of the offer.

CF'S BOARD AND MANAGEMENT REFUSE

TO ACT IN YOUR BEST INTERESTS

CF recently acted to deny you your rights as a CF stockholder to vote on a major transaction. As required by the rules of the New York Stock Exchange, CF's initial offer for Terra was expressly conditioned on your approval. However, in response to Agrium's offer, CF changed course in midstream, and now proposes a highly unusual structure to acquire Terra, whereby Terra shareholders would receive both non-voting preferred and common stock in the combination. This structure was designed for one purpose only: to take away your right to vote on a CF/Terra combination and thus, by implication, on our offer. We believe that there is only one rational explanation: CF's board and management must know they risk losing a stockholder vote on a CF/Terra combination because the CF stockholders prefer Agrium's proposal.

RiskMetrics (ISS), the leading independent proxy voting advisory and corporate governance services firm, recently said the following about CF's actions:

We believe that CF has advanced a somewhat absurd rationale for its decision to restructure the Terra offer. In effect, CF has disenfranchised its own shareholders to quell the concerns of another company's board, and arguably to thwart an unwelcome bid. (CF Industries (CF): Withhold on a Hostile End Run? – March 25, 2009)

If you are against this end run around CF stockholders, we urge you to WITHHOLD your vote for Stephen A. Furbacher, David R. Harvey, and John D. Johnson, CF's three nominees for reelection as directors at the company's 2009 Annual Meeting on April 21, 2009.

We believe that a significant withhold vote percentage from CF's board nominees – the same people who refuse to talk with Agrium and have circumvented a stockholder vote on CF's proposed acquisition of Terra – will demonstrate that CF stockholders support receiving a premium from Agrium rather than paying one to Terra. CF's board needs a stronger message to get to the negotiating table, and this is your opportunity to send that message.

AN AGRIUM/CF COMBINATION IS STRATEGICALLY COMPELLING AND A SUPERB OPPORTUNITY TO CREATE REAL VALUE

The strategic rationale of combining Agrium and CF is clear – our highly complementary assets will create a global leader in crop nutrient production and distribution with nearly $14 billion in annual revenues. This business logic was readily apparent when we first expressed interest in CF in 2005, and it is even more so today.

A combined Agrium/CF will create a global producer of agricultural inputs with the industry's broadest product offering. Together, we can combine our respective world-class distribution networks, knowledgeable and experienced employees and first-rate production capabilities to more efficiently and effectively serve the increasingly competitive global agribusiness industry. We expect to achieve annual operating synergies of approximately $150 million, in excess of what CF says it can achieve in a combination with Terra.

In addition, our offer provides significantly more value for CF stockholders than CF's proposal to acquire Terra. Since over 50% of the total consideration is Agrium stock, CF stockholders are presented with a unique opportunity for significant long-term value creation while providing liquidity for those wishing to sell their shares at an extremely attractive price. In addition, CF stockholders will have the opportunity to participate in any further upside in fertilizer equities through Agrium stock ownership, and will benefit significantly from the realization of the meaningful synergies associated with the transaction. We believe this is much more compelling for CF stockholders than paying a premium for Terra.

AGRIUM HAS A STRONG RECORD OF GROWTH, SUCCESSFUL INTEGRATION OF ACQUISITIONS AND ATTAINMENT OF SYNERGIES

Contrary to what CF would like you to think, Agrium has a strong record of successfully executing acquisitions, driving growth and exceeding synergy targets. Unlike CF, this is a core strength for Agrium, and one in which we take great pride.

Agrium has been in the fertilizer business for over 60 years and became a publicly traded company, spun out of Cominco Ltd, in 1993. We have averaged one acquisition per year since our IPO, or over 16 acquisitions and other international growth initiatives since 1993 and have gained significant experience from each one. In the past five years alone, Agrium has completed nine acquisitions totaling $3.4 billion, achieving synergies greater than announced. In contrast, CF was formerly a co-operative whose IPO took place in 2005. They have only made a single acquisition of approximately $25 million, have no international operational experience and have no track record of integrating acquisitions or realizing synergies.

USE YOUR GREEN PROXY CARD FOR A VOICE IN YOUR COMPANY'S FUTURE!

We are committed to this compelling combination and urge stockholders to send a message to the CF board to engage in discussions with us by withholding their votes. We strongly urge you to WITHHOLD your vote for the election of directors to CF's board of directors.
