NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(Dollars in millions, except per share data)

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

We prepare our unaudited interim consolidated financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States ( US GAAP ). We consistently applied the accounting policies described in our 2008 Annual Report on Form 10-K ( 2008 Form 10-K ) in preparing these unaudited financial statements. In our opinion, we made all adjustments of a normal recurring nature that are necessary for a fair statement of the results for the interim periods. Results for interim periods are not necessarily indicative of results for a full year. You should read these unaudited interim consolidated financial statements in conjunction with our consolidated financial statements contained in our 2008 Form 10-K. When used in these notes, the terms Avon, Company, we or us mean Avon Products, Inc.

For interim consolidated financial statement purposes, we compute our tax provision on the basis of our estimated annual effective income tax rate, and provide for accruals under our various employee benefit plans for each quarter based on one quarter of the estimated annual expense.

New Accounting Standards Implemented

Effective January 1, 2009, we adopted the fair value measurement provisions as required by the Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures Topic of the Financial Accounting Standards Codification ( Codification ), as it relates to non-recurring, nonfinancial assets and liabilities. The adoption of these provisions did not have an impact on our Consolidated Financial Statements.

Effective January 1, 2009, we adopted enhanced disclosures about how and why we use derivative instruments, how they are accounted for, and how they affect our financial performance as required by the Derivatives and Hedging Topic of the Codification. See Note 12, Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities.

Effective January 1, 2009, we adopted the provisions required by the Earnings Per Share ( EPS ) Topic of the Codification. The specific provisions address whether instruments granted in share-based payment awards are participating securities prior to vesting and, therefore, need to be included in the earnings allocation in computing EPS under the two-class method. Prior periods EPS was adjusted retrospectively which caused the nine month ended September 30, 2008 basic EPS to be adjusted from $1.51 to $1.50. See Note 2, Earnings Per Share and Share Repurchases.

Effective January 1, 2009, we adopted the provisions relating to the accounting for business combinations as required by the Business Combinations Topic of the Codification. These provisions will impact our financial statements both on the acquisition date and in subsequent periods and will be applied prospectively. The impact of adopting these provisions will depend on the nature and terms of future acquisitions.

Effective January 1, 2009, we adopted the provisions for the accounting and reporting of noncontrolling interests in a subsidiary in consolidated financial statements as required by the Consolidations Topic of the Codification. These provisions recharacterize minority interests as noncontrolling interests and require noncontrolling interests to be classified as a component of shareholders' equity. These provisions require retroactive adoption of the presentation and disclosure requirements for existing minority interests. As a result of the adoption of these provisions, we reclassified minority interest liabilities of $37.4 from other liabilities to shareholders' equity on the Consolidated Balance Sheet for the year ended December 31, 2008.

Effective June 30, 2009, we adopted the interim disclosure provisions about the fair value of financial instruments as required by the Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures Topic of the Codification. These provisions require disclosures about the fair value of financial instruments, previously only required in annual financial statements, to be included in interim financial statements. See Note 11, Fair Value.

Effective June 30, 2009, we adopted the subsequent event provisions of the Codification. These provisions provide guidance on management's assessment of subsequent events. Management evaluated subsequent events through October 28, 2009, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued. The adoption of these provisions did not have an impact on our Consolidated Financial Statements.

Effective September 30, 2009, we adopted the Codification. The Codification identifies the source of accounting principles and the framework for selecting the principles used in the preparation of financial statements. The adoption of the Codification did not have an impact on our Consolidated Financial Statements.

New Accounting Standards to be Implemented

In December 2008, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ( FASB ) issued provisions related to employer's disclosures about postretirement benefit plan assets. These provisions will require additional disclosures about the major categories of plan assets and concentrations of risk, as well as disclosure of fair value levels. The enhanced disclosures about plan assets must be provided in our 2009 Annual Report on Form 10-K.

2. EARNINGS PER SHARE AND SHARE REPURCHASES

We compute earnings per share using the two-class method, which is an earnings allocation formula that determines earnings per share for common stock and participating securities. Our participating securities are our grants of restricted stock and restricted stock units, which contain non-forfeitable rights to dividend equivalents.

At September 30, 2009 and 2008, we did not include stock options to purchase 20.8 million shares and 8.8 million shares of Avon common stock, respectively, in the calculations of diluted earnings per share because their inclusion would be anti-dilutive.

We purchased approximately 0.4 million shares of Avon common stock for $7.6 during the first nine months of 2009, as compared to approximately 4.6 million shares of Avon common stock for $171.4 during the first nine months of 2008 under our previously announced share repurchase program and through acquisition of stock from employees in connection with tax payments upon the vesting of restricted stock units.

We previously disclosed in our Consolidated Financial Statements for the year ended December 31, 2008, that we expected to contribute approximately $60 to $100 and $20 to $30 to our U.S. and non-U.S. pension plans, respectively, in 2009. As of September 30, 2009, we made approximately $20 and $15 of contributions to the U.S. and non-U.S. pension plans, respectively. We now anticipate contributing approximately $1 to $2 and $5 to $15 to fund our U.S. and non-U.S. pension plans, respectively, during the remainder of 2009. Our funding requirements may be impacted by regulations or interpretations thereof.

In August 2009, we announced changes to our postretirement medical and life insurance benefits offered to U.S. retirees. The changes to the retiree medical benefits reduced the plan's obligations by $36.3. This amount is being amortized as a negative prior service cost over the average future service of active participants which is approximately 12 years. The changes to the retiree life insurance benefits reduced the plan's obligations by $27.7. This amount is being amortized as a negative prior service cost over 40 months, which is the remaining term of the plan.

In 2002, 2003 and 2004, our Brazilian subsidiary received a series of excise tax assessments from the Brazilian tax authorities for alleged tax deficiencies during the years 1997-2001 asserting that the establishment in 1995 of separate manufacturing and distribution companies in that country was done without a valid business purpose and that Avon Brazil did not observe transfer pricing rules to define the taxable basis of excise tax, based on purported market sales data. The structure adopted in 1995 is comparable to that used by other companies in Brazil. We believe that our Brazilian corporate structure is appropriate, both operationally and legally, and that the assessments are unfounded. This matter is being vigorously contested and in the opinion of our outside counsel, the likelihood that the assessments ultimately will be upheld is remote. Management believes that the likelihood that the assessments will have a material impact on our consolidated financial position, results of operations or cash flows is correspondingly remote. As of September 30, 2009, the total assessments related to these remote contingencies, including penalties and accruing interest, amounted to approximately $600 at the exchange rate on September 30, 2009. In the event that assessments are upheld in the earlier stages of review, it may be necessary for us to provide security to pursue further appeals, which, depending on the circumstances, may result in a charge to income. We are currently awaiting decisions at the first administrative level for the 2002 assessment and at the second administrative level for the 2003 and 2004 assessments. It is not possible to make a reasonable estimate of the amount or range of expense that could result from an unfavorable outcome in respect of these or any additional assessments that may be issued for subsequent periods.

We are conducting an internal investigation under the oversight of the Audit Committee and with the assistance of outside independent counsel into compliance with the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA) and related U.S. and foreign laws. The initial focus of the internal investigation has been on certain expenses incurred in connection with our China operations. In order to evaluate our compliance efforts, we are also reviewing our practices relating to FCPA and related U.S. and foreign laws in additional countries. We have voluntarily advised the United States Securities and Exchange Commission and the United States Department of Justice of the internal investigation. Because the internal investigation is ongoing, we cannot predict how the results of the investigation may impact our internal controls, business, and results of operations or financial condition.

Various other lawsuits and claims, arising in the ordinary course of business or related to businesses previously sold, are pending or threatened against Avon. In management's opinion, based on its review of the information available at this time, the total cost of resolving such other contingencies at September 30, 2009, should not have a material adverse effect on our consolidated financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

9. RESTRUCTURING INITIATIVES

2005 Restructuring Program

In November 2005, we announced a multi-year turnaround plan to restore sustainable growth. As part of our turnaround plan, we launched a restructuring program in late 2005 (the 2005 Restructuring Program). Restructuring initiatives under this program include:

enhancement of organizational effectiveness, including efforts to flatten the organization and bring senior management closer to consumers through a substantial organization downsizing;

implementation of a global manufacturing strategy through facilities realignment; implementation of additional supply chain efficiencies in distribution; and streamlining of transactional and other services through outsourcing and moves to lower-cost countries.

We have approved and announced all of the initiatives that are part of our 2005 Restructuring Program. We expect to record total restructuring charges and other costs to implement restructuring initiatives of approximately $530 before taxes. We have recorded total costs to implement, net of adjustments, of $523.8 ($19.6 in the first nine months of 2009, $60.6 in 2008, $158.3 in 2007, $228.8 in 2006, and $56.5 in 2005) for actions associated with our restructuring initiatives.

Restructuring Charges First, Second and Third Quarters of 2009

During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2009, we recorded total costs to implement associated with previously approved initiatives that are part of our 2005 Restructuring Program of $2.6 and $19.6, respectively, and the costs consisted of the following:

net charges of $0.5 and $6.8, respectively, primarily for employee-related costs;

implementation costs of $0.9 and $7.6, respectively, for professional service fees, primarily associated with our initiatives to outsource certain finance processes and realign certain distribution operations; and accelerated depreciation of $1.2 and $5.2, respectively, associated with our initiatives to realign certain distribution operations. Of the total costs to implement, $2.5 and $19.2 were recorded in selling, general and administrative expenses for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2009, respectively, and $.1 and $.4 were recorded in cost of sales for each of the three and nine months ended September 30, 2009, respectively.

Restructuring Charges First, Second and Third Quarters of 2008

Edgar Filing: AVON PRODUCTS INC - Form 10-Q

During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2008, we recorded total costs to implement associated with previously approved initiatives that are part of our 2005 Restructuring Program of $14.4 and $53.2, respectively, and the costs consisted of the following:

net charges of $3.8 and $18.5, respectively, primarily for employee-related costs;

implementation costs of $6.4 and $27.0, respectively, for professional service fees, primarily associated with our initiatives to outsource certain finance and human resource processes; and accelerated depreciation of $4.2 and $7.7, respectively, associated with our initiatives to realign certain distribution operations and close certain manufacturing operations.

Of the total costs to implement, $11.8 and $50.3 were recorded in selling, general and administrative expenses for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2008, respectively, and $2.6 and $2.9 were recorded in cost of sales for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2008, respectively.

In February 2009, we announced a new restructuring program (the 2009 Restructuring Program) which targets increasing levels of efficiency and organizational effectiveness across the Company's global operations. The 2009 Restructuring Program initiatives are expected to include:

restructuring the Company's global supply chain operations;

realigning certain local business support functions to a more regional basis to drive increased efficiencies; and streamlining transaction related services, including selective outsourcing.

We expect to record total restructuring charges and other costs to implement restructuring initiatives in the range of $300 to $400 before taxes over the next several years, with actions to be completed by 2012-2013.

Restructuring Charges First, Second and Third Quarters of 2009

During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2009, we recorded total costs to implement associated with approved initiatives that are part of our 2009 Restructuring Program of $30.9 and $117.8, respectively, and the costs consisted of the following:

net charges of $24.2 and $98.6, respectively, for employee related costs;

implementation costs of $3.5 and $16.0, respectively, for professional service fees, primarily associated with our initiatives to realign certain support functions to a more regional basis and realignment of certain manufacturing facilities; and accelerated depreciation of $3.2 for each of the periods, associated with our initiatives to realign certain distribution operations and close certain manufacturing operations.

Of the total costs to implement, $27.7 and $114.6 were recorded in selling, general and administrative expenses for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2009, respectively, and $3.2 was recorded in cost of sales for each of the three and nine months ended September 30, 2009.

11. FAIR VALUE

We adopted the fair value measurement provisions required by the Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures Topic of the Codification as of January 1, 2008, with the exception of the application to non-recurring, nonfinancial assets and liabilities, which was adopted as of January 1, 2009, with no impact on our Consolidated Financial Statements. The adoption of the fair value measurement provisions did not have a material impact on our fair value measurements. The fair value measurement provisions define fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. In addition, the fair value measurement provisions establish a fair value hierarchy, which prioritizes the inputs used in measuring fair value into three broad levels as follows:

Level 1 Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2 Inputs, other than the quoted prices in active markets, that are observable either directly or indirectly.

Level 3 Unobservable inputs based on our own assumptions.

The following table presents the fair value hierarchy for those assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis as of September 30, 2009:

	Fair Value at September 30, 2009
	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total

The net asset (liability) amounts recorded in the balance sheet (carrying amount) and the estimated fair values of financial instruments at September 30, 2009 and December 31, 2008, consisted of the following:

	2009		2008
	Carrying Amount	Fair Value	Carrying Amount	Fair Value
Cash and cash equivalents	$ 1,293.4	$ 1,293.4	$ 1,104.7	$ 1,104.7

Foreign exchange forward contracts	7.1	7.1	(10.7)	(10.7)
Interest-rate swap agreements	60.5	60.5	87.6	87.6

The methods and assumptions used to estimate fair value are as follows:

Available-for-sale securities The fair values of these investments were based on the quoted market prices for issues listed on securities exchanges.

Debt maturing within one year and long-term debt The fair values of all debt and other financing were determined based on quoted market prices.

Foreign exchange forward contracts The fair values of forward contracts were based on quoted forward foreign exchange prices at the reporting date.

Interest-rate swap agreements The fair values of interest rate swap and treasury lock agreements were estimated based LIBOR yield curves at the reporting date.

12. DERIVATIVE INSTRUMENTS AND HEDGING ACTIVITIES

Derivatives are recognized on the balance sheet at their fair values. The following table presents the fair value of derivative instruments outstanding at September 30, 2009:

	Asset		Liability
	Balance Sheet Classification	Fair Value	Balance Sheet Classification	Fair Value
Derivatives designated as hedges:

Total derivatives not designated as hedges	$ 31.6	$ 20.7
Total derivatives	$ 89.6	$ 22.0

When we become a party to a derivative instrument, we designate, for financial reporting purposes, the instrument as a fair value hedge, a cash flow hedge, a net investment hedge, or a non-hedge.

We assess, both at the hedge's inception and on an ongoing basis, whether the derivatives that are used in hedging transactions are highly effective in offsetting changes in fair values or cash flows of hedged items. The ineffective portion of a derivative's gain or loss, if any, is recorded in earnings in other expense, net on the Consolidated

Statements of Income. When we determine that a derivative is not highly effective as a hedge, hedge accounting is discontinued. When it is probable that a hedged forecasted transaction will not occur, we discontinue hedge accounting for the affected portion of the forecasted transaction, and reclassify gains or losses that were accumulated in accumulated other comprehensive income ( AOCI ) to earnings.

Interest Rate Risk

We use interest-rate swap agreements, which effectively convert the fixed rate on long-term debt to a floating interest rate, to manage our interest rate exposure. These agreements are designated as fair value hedges. At September 30, 2009, we held interest-rate swap agreements that effectively converted approximately 82% of our outstanding long-term, fixed-rate borrowings to a variable interest rate based on LIBOR. Our total exposure to floating interest rates at September 30, 2009, was approximately 78%.

At September 30, 2009, we had interest-rate swap agreements designated as fair value hedges of fixed-rate debt, with notional amounts totaling $1,975. During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2009, we recorded a net gain of $24.6 and a net loss of $30.2, respectively, in interest expense for these interest-rate swap agreements designated as fair value hedges. The impact on interest expense of these interest-rate swap agreements was offset by an equal and offsetting impact in interest expense on our fixed-rate debt.

At times, we may de-designate the hedging relationship of a receive-fixed/pay-variable interest-rate swap agreement. In these cases, we enter into receive-variable/pay-fixed interest-rate swap agreements that are designed to offset the gain or loss on the de-designated contract. At September 30, 2009, we had interest-rate swap agreements that are not designated as hedges with notional amounts totaling $650. During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2009, we recorded a net loss of $1.2 and $2.6 in other expense, net associated with these undesignated interest-rate swap agreements.

Foreign Currency Risk

The primary currencies for which we have net underlying foreign currency exchange rate exposures are the Argentine peso, Brazilian real, British pound, Canadian dollar, Chinese renminbi, Colombian peso, the euro, Japanese yen, Mexican peso, Philippine peso, Polish zloty, Russian ruble, Turkish lira, Ukrainian hryvnia and Venezuelan bolivar. We use foreign exchange forward contracts to manage a portion of our foreign currency exchange rate exposures. At September 30, 2009, we had outstanding foreign exchange forward contracts with notional amounts totaling approximately $274 for the euro, the Hungary forint, the Peru new sol, the Czech Republic koruna, the Romania leu, the Canadian dollar, the Australian dollar, the New Zealand dollar, the Polish zloty and the British pound.

We use foreign exchange forward contracts to hedge portions of our forecasted foreign currency cash flows resulting from intercompany royalties, and other third-party and intercompany foreign currency transactions where there is a high probability that anticipated exposures will materialize. These contracts are designated as cash flow hedges. The effective portion of the gain or loss on the derivative is recorded in AOCI to the extent effective and reclassified into earnings in the same period or periods during which the transaction hedged by that derivative also affects earnings. The ineffective portion of the gain or loss on the derivative is recorded in other expense, net. For the three and nine months ended September 30, 2009, there was no ineffectiveness reported. The effective portion of these hedges resulted in a gain of $0.7 and loss of $2.9 being recognized in AOCI for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2009, respectively. $1.4 and $8.6 of losses were reclassified from AOCI to cost of sales to offset a gain on the item being hedged during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2009, respectively.

We also use foreign exchange forward contracts to manage foreign currency exposure of intercompany loans. These contracts are not designated as hedges for financial reporting purposes. The change in fair value of these contracts is immediately recognized in earnings and substantially offsets the foreign currency impact recognized in earnings relating to the intercompany loans. During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2009, we recorded a gain of $5.7 and $7.7 in other expense, net related to these undesignated foreign exchange forward contracts. During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2009, we recorded a loss of $4.3 and $3.9, respectively, related to the intercompany loans, caused by changes in foreign currency exchange rates.

Edgar Filing: AVON PRODUCTS INC - Form 10-Q

We have used foreign currency-denominated debt to hedge the foreign currency exposure related to the net assets of a foreign subsidiary. A loss of $1.6 on the foreign currency-denominated debt was effective as a hedge of the net assets of the foreign subsidiary and was recorded in AOCI. During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2009, the ineffective portion of the loss was nil and $.3 on the foreign currency-denominated debt and was recorded in other expense, net.

Credit and Market Risk

We attempt to minimize our credit exposure to counterparties by entering into interest rate swap and foreign currency forward rate and option agreements only with major international financial institutions with A or higher credit ratings as issued by Standard & Poor's Corporation. Our foreign currency and interest rate derivatives are comprised of over-the-counter forward contracts, swaps or options with major international financial institutions. Although our theoretical credit risk is the replacement cost at the then estimated fair value of these instruments, we believe that the risk of incurring credit risk losses is remote and that such losses, if any, would not be material.

13. DEBT AND FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

In March 2009, we issued $850.0 principal amount of notes payable in a public offering. $500.0 of the notes bear interest at a per annum coupon rate equal to 5.625%, payable semi-annually, and mature on March 1, 2014 (the 2014 Notes ). $350.0 of the notes bear interest at a per annum coupon rate equal to 6.500%, payable semi-annually, and mature on March 1, 2019. The net proceeds from the offering of $837.6 were used to repay the outstanding indebtedness under our commercial paper program and for general corporate purposes. In connection with the offering of the 2014 Notes, we entered into five-year interest-rate swap agreements with notional amounts totaling $500.0 to effectively convert the fixed interest rate on the 2014 Notes to a variable interest rate, based on LIBOR.

In September 2009, we entered into a financing lease obligation for $60.8. The lease obligation relates to the sale and leaseback of equipment in one of our distribution facilities in North America.

The indentures under which the above notes were issued contain certain covenants, including limits on the incurrence of liens and restrictions on the incurrence of sale/leaseback transactions and transactions involving a merger, consolidation or sale of substantially all of our assets. At September 30, 2009, we were in compliance with all covenants in our indentures.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS
(Dollars in millions, except per share data)

OVERVIEW

We are a global manufacturer and marketer of beauty and related products. Our business is conducted worldwide, primarily in the direct selling channel. We presently have sales operations in 67 countries and territories, including the United States, and distribute products in 43 more. Our reportable segments are based on geographic operations in six regions: Latin America; North America; Central & Eastern Europe; Western Europe, Middle East & Africa; Asia Pacific; and China. We centrally manage global Brand Marketing, Supply Chain and Sales organizations. Product categories include: Beauty, which consists of color cosmetics, fragrances, skin care and personal care; Fashion, which consists of fashion jewelry, watches, apparel, footwear and accessories; and Home, which consists of gift and decorative products, housewares, entertainment and leisure products and children's and nutritional products. Sales from Health and Wellness products and mark., a global cosmetics brand that focuses on the market for young women, are included among these three categories based on product type. Sales are made to the ultimate consumer principally through direct selling by approximately 6.0 million independent Representatives, who are independent contractors and not employees of Avon. The success of our business is highly dependent on recruiting, retaining and servicing our Representatives.

We view the geographic diversity of our businesses as a strategic advantage in part because it allows us to participate in higher growth beauty markets internationally. In developed markets, such as the United States, we seek to achieve growth in line with that of the overall beauty market, while in developing and emerging markets, we seek to achieve higher growth targets. During 2008, approximately 80% of our consolidated revenue was derived from operations outside the U.S.

During the first nine months of 2009, revenues decreased 9%, impacted by unfavorable foreign exchange and the depressed global economy. Local currency revenue increased 5%, with increases in all segments except North America. Sales from products in the Beauty category decreased 9%, due to unfavorable foreign exchange. On a local currency basis, sales of products in the Beauty category increased 6% due to a 3% increase in units and net per unit. Active Representatives increased 9%. The unfavorable impact of foreign exchange lowered operating margin by an estimated 3 points (approximately 2 points from foreign-exchange transactions and approximately 1 point from foreign-exchange translation), year over year. See the Segment Review section of Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations for additional information related to changes in revenue by segment.

We expect that the global economic pressures will continue in the foreseeable future and that 2009 will continue to be a challenging year; however we expect the pressures from foreign exchange to ease in the fourth quarter of 2009. We expect revenue growth in 2009 to be consistent with our long-term revenue growth expectations of mid-single digits, excluding the impact of foreign exchange. We also expect that 2009 full year operating margin will continue to be pressured by the unfavorable impacts of foreign exchange, both foreign currency translation and the impact of transaction losses caused by changes in foreign exchange. Operating margin will also be negatively impacted by restructuring charges during 2009. We believe benefits from our strategic sourcing initiative ( SSI ) program, focusing on manufacturing productivity, changing the sourcing of raw materials and finished goods to help mitigate foreign exchange impacts, and some softening in commodity costs will help to partially offset the negative impact of foreign exchange. We continue to look for ways to transform our cost structure and intend to reduce non-strategic spending during 2009, while continuing our strategies of investing in advertising and our Representatives, which we continue to expect will remain approximately in line as a percent of revenue for the full year on a combined basis. We are focused on innovating our direct selling channel through technological and service model enhancements for our Representatives and assessing new product category opportunities. We also continue to offer an increased assortment of smart value products, which are quality products at affordable price points, and promote our Representative earnings opportunity to a wider audience.

We believe that our operating cash flow and global cash balances of $1.3 billion, coupled with the continuing execution of our turnaround strategies and the competitive advantages of our direct selling business model, will allow us to look beyond the 2009 challenges and continue our focus on long-term sustainable, profitable growth.

Our strategic initiatives include advertising and representative value proposition ( RVP ) investments, the product line simplification program ( PLS ), SSI, enterprise resource planning system, zero-overhead-growth philosophy and sales and operation planning process. We are also implementing restructuring initiatives under our 2005 and 2009 Restructuring Programs. For a description of our key strategic initiatives, please refer to Item 7 of our 2008 Annual Report on Form 10-K ( 2008 Form 10-K ). With regards to our four major initiatives, SSI, PLS and the two restructuring programs, we remain on track with our expectations included in the 2008 Form 10-K. See Note 9, Restructuring Initiatives, of the Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements for more information on our restructuring programs.

Revenue

Total revenue decreased 4% for the three months ended September 30, 2009, with unfavorable foreign exchange accounting for 11 percentage points of the revenue decline. Local currency revenue increased 7%, with increases in all segments except North America and China. Active Representatives increased 10%.

On a category basis, the decrease in revenue for the three months ended September 30, 2009, was driven by a decrease of 3% in both Beauty sales and Fashion sales, as well as a decrease of 5% in Home sales. Within the Beauty category, skincare declined 8%, personal care declined 4%, fragrance declined 4% and color cosmetics increased 4%. Local currency sales of our product categories increased 7%, with the Beauty category increasing 8%. Within the Beauty category, local currency sales of skincare increased 1%, personal care increased 7%, fragrance increased 9% and color cosmetics increased 17%. Local currency sales of Fashion increased 4% and Home increased 3%.

Total revenue decreased 9% for the nine months ended September 30, 2009, with unfavorable foreign exchange accounting for 14 percentage points of the revenue decline. Local currency revenue increased 5%, with increases in all segments except North America. Active Representatives increased 9%.

On a category basis, the decrease in revenue for the nine months ended September 30, 2009 was primarily driven by a decrease of 9% in Beauty sales, with decreases in all sub-categories of Beauty. Within the Beauty category, skincare declined 12%, personal care declined 8%, fragrance declined 8% and color cosmetics declined 5%. Fashion sales decreased 10% and Home sales decreased 8%. Local currency sales of our product categories increased 5%, with the Beauty category increasing 6%. Within the Beauty category, local currency sales of skincare decreased 1%, personal care increased 7%, fragrance increased 9% and color cosmetics increased 11%. Local currency sales of Fashion were flat and Home increased 3%.

Gross Margin

Gross margin for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2009, decreased by 0.5 points and 0.8 points, respectively. We estimate that the unfavorable impact of transaction foreign exchange lowered gross margin by approximately 1 and 2 points for the three- and nine-month periods ended September 30, 2009, respectively. We were able to offset a portion of this negative impact from foreign exchange through strong manufacturing productivity gains, benefits from SSI and improved pricing. During the nine months ended September 30, 2008, gross margin was benefited by approximately $13 of reduced obsolescence as a result of changes in estimates to our disposition plan under our PLS program.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses

Selling, general and administrative expenses for the three- and nine-month periods ended September 30, 2009, decreased $34.6 and $131.9, respectively. The decrease for both the three- and nine-month periods primarily related to lower advertising costs, which decreased by 20% and 16%, respectively, offset by higher costs incurred to implement our restructuring initiatives. We recorded charges under our 2005 and 2009 Restructuring Programs of $30.2 and $133.8 during the three- and nine-month periods ended September 30, 2009, respectively, as compared to $11.8 and $50.3 during the respective periods of 2008. Additionally, as a percentage of revenue, selling, general and administrative expenses for the three- and nine-month periods ended September 30, 2009, increased by 0.5 and 3.0 points, respectively, due to:

the decline in revenues caused by the impact of unfavorable foreign exchange, while selling, general and administrative expenses are disproportionately U.S. dollar based; higher brochure costs due to higher cost of paper, additional flyers and brochure pages to offer smart value products and an increase in the number of brochures due to a larger number of Representatives;

incremental investments of approximately $7 and $31 for the three- and nine-month periods ended September 30, 2009, in our Representatives through RVP by continued implementation of our Sales Leadership program, enhanced incentives, increased sales campaign frequency, improved commissions and new e-business tools;

higher bad debt expense as a percent of revenues caused by an influx of new Representatives, who normally have a higher rate of default than established Representatives, as well as economic conditions; and higher distribution costs as a percent of revenues due to the impact of processing more, smaller orders, particularly during the first half of 2009.

See the Segment Review section of Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations for additional information related to changes in operating margin by segment.

Other Expense

Interest expense for the three- and nine-month periods ended September 30, 2009, increased by 6% and 3%, respectively, due to increased borrowings, partially offset by lower interest rates. At September 30, 2009, we held interest-rate swap agreements that effectively converted approximately 82% of our outstanding long-term, fixed-rate borrowings to a variable interest rate based on LIBOR.

Interest income for the three- and nine-month periods ended September 30, 2009, decreased by 68% and 46%, respectively, primarily due to lower interest rates.

Other expense, net for the three-month period ended September 30, 2009, increased primarily due to higher net foreign exchange losses. Other expense, net for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2009, was a lower expense than the prior year as a result of lower foreign exchange losses.

Effective Tax Rate

The effective tax rate for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2009, was 32.0% and 33.2%, respectively, compared to rates of 19.5% and 28.2%, for the same periods of 2008. The effective tax rate for the nine months ended September 30, 2009, includes the establishment of a valuation allowance against certain deferred tax assets as a result of restructuring activities and a higher tax cost associated with the repatriation of anticipated current year earnings, partially offset by a reduction in a foreign tax liability as a result of a planning strategy. The effective tax rate for the three- and nine-month periods of 2008 include net benefits of 13.6 points and 4.2 points, respectively, resulting from an audit settlement, which was partially offset by the establishment of a valuation allowance against deferred tax assets relating to loss carryforwards.

Revenue increased for the three months ended September 30, 2009, and decreased for the nine months ended September 30, 2009, with both periods impacted by unfavorable foreign exchange. Local currency revenue increased for both the three- and nine-month periods of 2009 reflecting growth in Active Representatives, driven by continued investments in RVP, and a higher average order. Revenue increased 7% in Brazil and declined 18% in Mexico for the three months ended September 30, 2009. Local currency revenue for the three months ended September 30, 2009, benefited from growth in all markets, particularly from increases of 22% in Brazil and 7% in Mexico. Revenue declined rates. Local currency revenue for the nine months ended September 30, 2009, benefited from growth in all markets, particularly from increases of 19% in Brazil and 12% in Mexico. Revenue in Venezuela for the three- and nine-month periods of 2009 grew 24% and 13%, respectively, in both local and U.S. dollars.

Local currency revenue growth for both the three- and nine-month periods of 2009 in Brazil was primarily driven by an increase in Active Representatives, as well as an increase in average order. Local currency revenue growth in Mexico for both the three- and nine-month periods of 2009 was driven by a significant increase in Active Representatives, partially offset by a lower average order. Revenue growth in Venezuela for both the three- and nine-month periods of 2009 reflected increased prices due to inflation, while the three-month period also reflects increased revenues from strong merchandising activities.

The decrease in operating margin for both the three- and nine-month periods of 2009 in Latin America was primarily due to the impact of unfavorable foreign exchange, including the impacts of foreign exchange transactions as well as translation, which negatively impacted operating margin for both periods by an estimated 2 points and 3 points, respectively. Additionally, higher costs to implement restructuring initiatives negatively impacted operating margin for the nine months ended September 30, 2009, by 0.9 points, partially offset by the benefit of higher revenues and fixed overhead expense.

Currency restrictions enacted by the Venezuelan government in 2003 have impacted the ability of our subsidiary in Venezuela ( Avon Venezuela ) to obtain foreign currency at the official rate to pay for imported products. Unless official foreign exchange is made more readily available, Avon Venezuela's operations will continue to be negatively impacted as it will need to obtain more of its foreign currency needs from non-government sources where the exchange rate is unfavorable as compared to the official rate.

At September 30, 2009, Avon Venezuela had cash balances of approximately $135, primarily denominated in bolivars. The last dividends repatriated to the U.S. were during 2007, when Avon Venezuela remitted dividends of approximately $40 at the official exchange rate. Avon Venezuela continues to receive official foreign exchange for some of its imports and other remittances. We continue to use the official rate to translate the financial statements of Avon Venezuela into U.S. dollars. During the first nine months of 2009, Avon Venezuela's revenue and operating profit represented approximately 5% and 11% of Avon's consolidated revenue and Avon's consolidated operating profit, respectively.

Inflation in Venezuela has been at relatively high levels over the past few years and it is likely that Venezuela will be designated as a highly inflationary economy no later than the beginning of our 2010 fiscal year. Avon uses the National Consumer Price Index to determine whether Venezuela is a highly inflationary economy. Gains and losses resulting from the translation of the financial statements of subsidiaries operating in highly inflationary economies are recorded in earnings. If Venezuela is designated as a highly inflationary economy and there is a devaluation of the exchange rate used, earnings will be negatively impacted. For example, based on the balance sheet of Avon Venezuela at September 30, 2009, if Venezuela is designated as a highly inflationary economy and there is a subsequent 20% devaluation, an approximate $50 loss would impact pre-tax earnings. If Venezuela is not considered a highly inflationary economy, under the same 20% devaluation scenario, the approximate $50 pretax loss would be recorded in equity. Additionally, revenue and operating profit on an ongoing basis would be impacted by the devaluation.

Revenue for both the three- and nine-month periods of 2009 was negatively impacted by the continued recessionary pressure. Total revenue decreased for both the three- and nine-month periods of 2009 as a lower average order received from Representatives more than offset an increase in Active Representatives. Average order remains challenging particularly in our non-beauty categories. The growth in Active Representatives for the three- and nine-month periods of 2009 reflects our ongoing recruiting and training efforts. Given the economic environment, we expect continued pressure on our results in North America.

Higher costs to implement restructuring initiatives negatively impacted operating margin for both the three- and nine-month periods of 2009 by 2.0 points and 1.7 points, respectively. During the nine months ended September 30, 2009, lower revenues and fixed overhead expense also lowered operating margin; however, cost containment initiatives benefited operating margin during the three-month period.

Revenue decreased for both the three- and nine-month periods of 2009 as a result of unfavorable foreign exchange. Local currency revenue for both the three- and nine-month periods of 2009 increased despite continued recessionary pressure throughout the region, reflecting growth in Active Representatives, driven by investments in RVP and brochures as well as strong marketing offers. The growth in Active Representatives was partially offset by a lower average order, particularly during the first six months of 2009. While the impact of unfavorable foreign exchange rates drove revenue declines of 9% in Russia and 32% in Ukraine during the three months ended September 30, 2009, local currency revenue grew 18% in Russia and 10% in Ukraine. While the impact of unfavorable foreign exchange rates drove revenue declines of 17% in Russia and 29% in Ukraine for the nine months ended September 30, 2009, local currency revenue for the nine months ended September 30, 2009, grew 12% in Russia and 11% in Ukraine.

Edgar Filing: AVON PRODUCTS INC - Form 10-Q

The local currency revenue increase in Russia for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2009, was primarily due to strong growth in Active Representatives. In late 2008, we completed the roll-out of Sales Leadership and improved the discount structure we offered Representatives in Russia. The local currency revenue increase in Ukraine for the three months ended September 30, 2009, was primarily due to growth in Active Representatives and average order. The local currency revenue increase in Ukraine for the nine months ended September 30, 2009, was primarily due to growth in Active Representatives and average order, partially offset by the negative impact of recent economic conditions.

The decrease in operating margin for both the three and nine-month periods of 2009 was primarily driven by unfavorable foreign exchange, including the impacts of foreign exchange transactions as well as translation, which negatively impacted operating margin for both periods by an estimated 5 points. Operating margin for the three months ended September 30, 2009, benefited from lower advertising costs, which benefited from timing and greater productivity. Higher costs to implement restructuring initiatives negatively impacted operating margin for the nine months ended September 30, 2009, by 1.9 points. Operating margin for the nine months ended September 30, 2009, was also negatively impacted by higher inventory obsolescence expense in 2009, as the 2008 periods benefited from an adjustment to inventory obsolescence reserve due to changes in our estimates to our disposition plan of products reserved for under PLS.

Revenue decreased for both the three- and nine-month periods of 2009 as a result of unfavorable foreign exchange. Local currency revenue increased for both the three- and nine-month periods of 2009 as a result of growth in Active Representatives offset by a lower average order reflecting continued recessionary pressure. Active Representatives growth for both periods of 2009 benefited by one point due to the acquisition of a small distributor in Saudi Arabia during the second quarter of 2009. This acquisition had minimal impact on the financial results. Revenue declined 13% and 22% in the United Kingdom during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2009. Local currency revenue in the United Kingdom increased 2% during the three months ended September 30, 2009, and declined 1% during the nine months ended September 30, 2009, as strong merchandising of smart value products countered the recessionary pressure, particularly benefiting unit growth in the three-month period. Revenue in Turkey declined 12% and 14%, respectively, for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2009, due to the negative impact of foreign currency. Turkey's local currency revenue increased 10% and 12% during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2009, respectively, reflecting an increase in Active Representatives, driven by investments in RVP and Sales Leadership, partially offset by lower average order.

The decrease in operating margin for both the three- and nine-month periods of 2009 was primarily driven by unfavorable foreign exchange, including the impacts of foreign exchange transactions as well as translation, which negatively impacted operating margin for both periods by an estimated 3 points. Revenue in the Philippines for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2009, increased 9% and 1%, respectively, while local currency revenue increased by 16% and 13% for the respective periods, driven by growth in Active Representatives, supported by RVP initiatives. Revenue in Japan for the three months ended September 30, 2009, increased 5% and remained flat for the nine months period. Local currency revenue in Japan declined 9% and 11% for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2009, due to lower revenues from both direct mail and direct selling. We continue to see downward pressure on our results in Japan going forward.

The decrease in operating margin for both the three- and nine-month periods of 2009 was primarily driven by unfavorable foreign exchange, including the impacts of foreign exchange transactions as well as translation, which negatively impacted operating margin for both periods by an estimated 2 points and 3 points, respectively. Additionally, higher costs to implement restructuring initiatives negatively impacted operating margin for both periods by 1.1 and 2.4 points, respectively. Partially offsetting these items were the benefits of growth derived from higher margin markets.

reflecting the continued complex evolution towards direct selling in this hybrid business model, which is unique to this market. Revenue growth from direct selling mirrored Active Representative growth at 7% for the three months ended September 30, 2009. The timing of incentive programs and product launches dampened direct-selling revenue during the three-month period of 2009.

The increase in operating margin for both the three- and nine-month periods ended September 30, 2009, was primarily driven by lower advertising expense and cost saving initiatives. A lower gross margin offset these operating margin benefits for the nine months ended September 30, 2009. Additionally, the 2008 operating margin for both periods was negatively impacted by costs associated with the 2008 earthquake and floods.

For information concerning an internal investigation into our China operations, see Note 5, Contingencies, of the Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

Global Expenses

	Three Months			Nine Months
	Ended September 30,			Ended September 30,
	2009	2008	% Change	2009	2008	% Change
Total Global expenses	$ 145.4	$ 129.4	(12)%	$ 406.4	$ 398.1	(2)%
Allocated to segments	(103.2)	(94.9)	(9)%	(311.9)	(284.4)	(10)%
Net Global expenses	$ 42.2	$ 34.5	(22)%	$ 94.5	$ 113.7	17%

The increase in total Global expenses for both the three- and nine-month periods ended September 30, 2009 was primarily attributable to higher costs associated with restructuring initiatives, higher information technology ( IT ) related and legal costs. The increase in amounts allocated to segments for both periods is a result of a change in the mix of expenses which are allocated to the segments and higher global expenses.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Our principal sources of funds historically have been cash flows from operations, commercial paper and borrowings under lines of credit. We currently believe that existing cash, cash from operations (including the impacts of cash required for restructuring initiatives) and available sources of public and private financing are adequate to meet anticipated requirements for working capital, dividends, capital expenditures, the share repurchase program, possible acquisitions and other cash needs in the short and long term.

We may, from time to time, seek to repurchase our equity or to retire our outstanding debt, in open market purchases, privately negotiated transactions, pursuant to derivative instruments or otherwise.

Retirements of debt will depend on prevailing market conditions, our liquidity requirements, contractual restrictions and other factors, and the amounts involved may be material. We may also elect to incur additional debt or issue equity or convertible securities to finance ongoing operations, acquisitions or to meet our other liquidity needs.

Any issuances of equity securities or convertible securities could have a dilutive effect on the ownership interest of our current shareholders and may adversely impact earnings per share in future periods.

Our liquidity could also be impacted by dividends, capital investments and acquisitions. At any given time, we may be in discussions and negotiations with potential acquisition candidates. Acquisitions may be accretive or dilutive and by their nature, involve numerous risks and uncertainties. See our Cautionary Statement for purposes of the Safe Harbor Statement under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 below.

Cash Flows

Net Cash Provided by Operating Activities

Net cash provided by operating activities during the first nine months of 2009 was $55.6 lower than during the first nine months of 2008, primarily due to lower net income. Partially offsetting this decrease in operating cash flows were favorable comparisons to 2008, which included the timing of payments relating to our restructuring programs, a cash payment of $38.0 upon settlement of treasury lock agreements associated with our 2008 debt issuance, higher incentive based compensation payments related to our 2006-2007 Turnaround Incentive Plan and the impact of advance purchases of paper for brochures in 2008.

(Dollars in millions, except per share data)

Additionally, net cash provided by operating activities in 2009 was negatively impacted by net unfavorable working capital movements in accounts receivable and inventory as compared to 2008.

Net Cash Used by Investing Activities

Net cash used by investing activities during the first nine months of 2009 was $168.8 lower than during the first nine months of 2008, primarily due to the redemption of certain corporate-owned life insurance policies during the first nine months of 2009. Capital expenditures during the first nine months of 2009 were lower than the prior-year period, as a result of the Company's efforts to preserve capital.

Capital expenditures in 2009 are currently expected to be in the range of $300 to $325 and will be funded by cash from operations. In an effort to preserve capital in 2009, the Company continues to defer non strategic investments into 2010 and beyond.

Net Cash Provided (Used) by Financing Activities

Net cash provided by financing activities of $15.6 during the first nine months of 2009, compared favorably to cash used by financing activities of $45.7 during the first nine months of 2008. During the first quarter of 2009, we received proceeds from the $850 debt issuance during March 2009 as compared to a $500 debt issuance during the first quarter of 2008. During 2009, we repaid $654.3 of commercial paper and other debt as compared to $252.2 during 2008. Additionally, during 2008 we repurchased $171.4 of common stock as compared to $7.6 in 2009.

We increased our quarterly dividend payments to $.21 per share in 2009 from $.20 per share in 2008.

Capital Resources

We maintain a $1,000.0 revolving credit and competitive advance facility (the "credit facility"). There were no borrowings under this credit facility as of September 30, 2009.

We also maintain a $1,000.0 commercial paper program, which is supported by the credit facility. There were no amounts outstanding under this program as of September 30, 2009.

In March 2009, we issued $850.0 principal amount of notes payable in a public offering. $500.0 of the notes bear interest at a per annum coupon rate equal to 5.625%, payable semi-annually, and mature on March 1, 2014 (the "2014 Notes"). $350.0 of the notes bear interest at a per annum coupon rate equal to 6.500%, payable semi-annually, and mature on March 1, 2019. The net proceeds from the offering of $837.6 were used to repay the outstanding indebtedness under our commercial paper program and for general corporate purposes. In connection with the offering of the 2014 Notes, we entered into five-year interest-rate swap agreements with notional amounts totaling $500.0 to effectively convert the fixed interest rate on the 2014 Notes to a variable interest rate, based on LIBOR.

In September 2009, we entered into a financing lease obligation for $60.8. The lease obligation relates to the sale and leaseback of equipment in one of our distribution facilities in North America.

FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND RISK MANAGEMENT STRATEGIES

Interest Rate Risk

We use interest-rate swaps, which effectively convert the fixed rate on the long-term debt to a floating interest rate, to manage our interest rate exposure. At September 30, 2009 and December 31, 2008, we held interest-rate swap agreements that effectively converted approximately 82% and 50%, respectively, of our outstanding long-term, fixed-rate borrowings to a variable interest rate based on LIBOR. Our total exposure to floating interest-rates at September 30, 2009, and December 31, 2008, was approximately 78% and 65%, respectively.

Foreign Currency Risk

We operate globally, with operations in various locations around the world. We derive approximately 80% of our consolidated revenue from operations of subsidiaries outside of the U.S. The functional currency for most of our foreign operations is the local currency. We may reduce our exposure to fluctuations in cash flows associated with changes in foreign exchange rates by creating offsetting positions through the use of derivative financial instruments.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT FOR PURPOSES OF THE SAFE HARBOR STATEMENT UNDER THE PRIVATE SECURITIES LITIGATION REFORM ACT OF 1995

Statements in this report that are not historical facts or information are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Words such as estimate, project, forecast, plan, believe, may, expect, anticipate, intend, expectation and similar expressions, or the negative of those expressions, may identify forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements are based on management's reasonable current assumptions and expectations. Such forward-looking statements involve risks, uncertainties and other factors, which may cause the actual results, levels of activity, performance or achievement of Avon to be materially different from any future results expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements, and there can be no assurance that actual results will not differ materially from management's expectations. Such factors include, among others, the following:

our ability to implement the key initiatives of, and realize the gross and operating margins and projected benefits (in the amounts and time schedules we expect) from, our global business strategy, including our multi-year restructuring initiatives, product mix and pricing strategies, enterprise resource planning, customer service initiatives, product line simplification program, sales and operation planning process, strategic sourcing initiative, outsourcing strategies, zero-overhead-growth philosophy, cash flow from operations and cash management, tax, foreign currency hedging and risk management strategies;

our ability to realize the anticipated benefits (including any projections concerning future revenue and operating margin increases) from our multi-year restructuring initiatives or other strategic initiatives on the time schedules or in the amounts that we expect, and our plans to invest these anticipated benefits ahead of future growth;

the possibility of business disruption in connection with our multi-year restructuring initiatives or other strategic initiatives;

our ability to realize sustainable growth from our investments in our brand and the direct-selling channel;

a general economic downturn, a recession globally or in one or more of our geographic regions, such as North America, or sudden disruption in business conditions, and the ability of our broad-based geographic portfolio to withstand such economic downturn, recession or conditions;

the inventory obsolescence and other costs associated with our product line simplification program;

our ability to effectively implement initiatives to reduce inventory levels in the time period and in the amounts we expect;

our ability to achieve growth objectives or maintain rates of growth, particularly in our largest markets and developing and emerging markets;

our ability to successfully identify new business opportunities and identify and analyze acquisition candidates, and our ability to negotiate and consummate acquisitions as well as to successfully integrate or manage any acquired business;

the effect of economic factors, including inflation and fluctuations in interest rates and currency exchange rates, as well as the likely designation of Venezuela as a highly inflationary economy, and the potential effect of such factors on our business, results of operations and financial condition;

our ability to successfully transition our business in China in connection with the resumption of direct selling in that market in 2006, our ability to operate using the direct-selling model permitted in that market and our ability to retain and increase the number of Active Representatives there over a sustained period of time;

the effect of political, legal and regulatory risks imposed on us, our operations or our Representatives, including foreign exchange or other restrictions, changes in direct selling regulations or interpretations thereof, as well as reviews and investigations by government regulators that have occurred or may occur from time to time, including, for example, local regulatory scrutiny in China;

general economic and business conditions in our markets, including social, economic and political uncertainties in the international markets in our portfolio;

any consequences of internal investigations and compliance reviews that we conduct from time to time, including the ongoing investigation of our China operations and the review of our practices relating to the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and related U.S. and foreign laws in additional countries, as well as any business disruption resulting from such investigations, reviews or related measures we may implement from time to time;

information technology systems outages, disruption in our supply chain or manufacturing and distribution operations, or other sudden disruption in business operations beyond our control as a result of events such as acts of terrorism or war, natural disasters, pandemic situations and large scale power outages;

the risk of product or ingredient shortages resulting from our concentration of sourcing in fewer suppliers;

the quality, safety and efficacy of our products;

the success of our research and development activities; our ability to attract and retain key personnel and executives;

competitive uncertainties in our markets, including competition from companies in the cosmetics, fragrances, skin care and toiletries industry, some of which are larger than we are and have greater resources;

our ability to implement our Sales Leadership program globally, to generate Representative activity, to enhance the Representative experience and increase Representative productivity through investments in the direct-selling channel, and to compete with other direct-selling organizations to recruit, retain and service Representatives;

the impact of the seasonal nature of our business, adverse effect of rising energy, commodity and raw material prices, changes in market trends, purchasing habits of our consumers and changes in consumer preferences, particularly given the global nature of our business and the conduct of our business in primarily one channel;

our ability to protect our intellectual property rights;

the risk of an adverse outcome in our material pending and future litigations;

our ratings and our access to financing and ability to secure financing at attractive rates; and

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

There have been no material changes in market risk from the information provided in Item 7A, Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk, of our 2008 Form 10-K.

ITEM 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

As of the end of the period covered by this report, our principal executive and principal financial officers carried out an evaluation of the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures pursuant to Rule 13a-15 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the Exchange Act). In designing and evaluating our disclosure controls and procedures, management recognizes that any controls and procedures, no matter how well designed and operated, can provide only reasonable assurance of achieving the desired control objectives, and management was required to apply its judgment in evaluating and implementing possible controls and procedures. Based upon their evaluation, the principal executive and principal financial officers concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures were effective at September 30, 2009, at the reasonable assurance level. Disclosure controls and procedures are designed to ensure that information relating to Avon (including our consolidated subsidiaries) required to be disclosed by us in the reports we file under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the Securities and Exchange Commission's rules and forms and to ensure that information required to be disclosed is accumulated and communicated to management to allow timely decisions regarding disclosure.

Changes in Internal Control over Financial Reporting

Management has evaluated, with the participation of our principal executive and principal financial officers, whether any changes in our internal control over financial reporting that occurred during our last fiscal quarter have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting. Based on the evaluation we conducted, management has concluded that no such changes have occurred.

We are implementing an enterprise resource planning (ERP) system on a worldwide basis, which is expected to improve the efficiency of our supply chain and financial transaction processes. The gradual implementation is expected to occur in phases over the next several years. The implementation of a worldwide ERP system will likely affect the processes that constitute our internal control over financial reporting and will require testing for effectiveness.

We completed implementation in certain significant markets and will continue to roll-out the ERP system over the next several years. As with any new information technology application we implement, this application, along with the internal controls over financial reporting included in this process, were appropriately tested for effectiveness prior to the implementation in these countries. We concluded, as part of our evaluation described in the above paragraph, that the implementation of ERP in these countries has not materially affected our internal control over financial reporting.
