CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED STATEMENTS OF CASH FLOWS

(In thousands)

Nine Months Ended August 31,

Davis' Form 4 filing on February 20, 2014 is very interesting as it shows in a single filing, both a transaction (buying 50,000 shares) that would have taken his ownership above 20%, coinciding with a gift to RSF (30,769)shares) that reduced his holdings sufficiently for Davis to remain below

the 20%

threshold.
   The

and delayed that transaction until after he had reduced his holdings sufficiently (via the gift of 30,769 shares to RSF) to allow for the purchase without going above the 20% threshold.

Nasdaq rules define "parking" as the "Illegal holding of stock by a third party, or the financing of such a stock, in which the third party's sole reason for holding the stock is to conceal ownership or control." Davis did not just transfer shares to RSF when necessary to keep his direct holdings below the 20% threshold, he also financed RSF purchases. The recent filings confirm Meridian's allegations concerning Davis' involvement with RSF's acquisition of a 9.7% block of stock from VitaeLab. Davis acknowledged in his Schedule 13D that when he learned of the existence of the block, he took that information to RSF. Davis also disclosed that "[i]n or about the same time" he provided RSF with the funds RSF used to acquire the 9.7% block. Davis has for years been causing RSF to accumulate shares in Cyanotech while at the same time he has entered into agreements with RSF by which he retains an interest in those shares. Cyanotech's 10-Q reports that, "the shares of Common Stock owned by RSF are held by RSF in an endowment fund for the benefit of Ginungagap Foundation, non-profit corporation" and "Mr. Davis serves as the president of Ginungagap."

Company

The recent SEC filings by Cyanotech and Davis confirm the following:

All of the shares held by RSF are directly traceable to Skywords, a Davis-controlled entity, either as gifts of shares or gifts of cash used by buy shares in a transaction instigated by Davis.

Davis.
The timing of the Davis gifts corresponds with Davis' need to • manage his direct holdings to maintain an ownership level below 20%.
•RSF holds

level below 20%.
RSF holds and serves as the reporting entity for all of the shares it acquired via Davis' actions, but did not spend any of its own capital on the shares and does not hold the shares for its own benefit, but rather for the benefit of Ginungagap. Ginungagap, like Skywords, is a Davis-controlled entity.

Undisclosed "Group"

According to the SEC, a "group" is formed "[w]hen two or more persons agree to act together for the purpose of acquiring, holding, voting or disposing of equity securities" of a public company. When a "group" is present, the "group" must report its combined holdings on the applicable schedule.

Here is what Cyanotech
and Davis
have disclosed
about Davis'
relationship
with RSF:

Agreement relating to the holding of securities: From Cyanotech's Form 10-Q: "the shares of Company Common Stock owned by RSF are held by RSF in an endowment fund for the benefit of Ginungagap Foundation, a non-profit corporation" and ·"Mr. Davis serves as the president of Ginungagap." "The terms of the written agreement between Ginungagap and RSF regarding the endowment permit Ginungagap to make non-binding recommendations to RSF with regards to the investment of the endowment fund". ·Agreement relating to the acquisition of securities: From Davis' Schedule 13D: "In 2011, Davis learned that a significant Cyanotech customer and shareholder wished to sell its shares of Common Stock (approximately 9% of the Issuer). He put the shareholder in touch with RSF. In or about the same time, Skywords donated approximately $2.5 million to RSF with the understanding that RSF may use some or all of the funds to attempt to purchase shares of Common Stock." Agreement relating to the disposal of securities: From Davis' 13D: "The terms of the [agreement] permit Ginungagap to make non-binding recommendations to RSF with regards to the investment of the [endowment] and to request grants from that fund to Ginungagap".

   This
 claim by Davis
  appears

 with the

other recent disclosures made by Davis and Cyanotech (cited above), and with the following:

RSF has never acted with respect to the acquisition or holding of ·Cyanotech stock without the instigation and direct involvement of Davis. RSF has never expended any of its own capital to acquire shares of ·Cyanotech; every share held by RSF was originally acquired or paid for by Davis. ·Other than the $2.5 million provided by Davis that was used by RSF to acquire the 9.7% block, there is no record that Davis has made cash donations to RSF. Other than with respect Cyanotech, RSF has ·never held more than a 5% equity interest in any public company. The transaction in which RSF acquired the 9.7% block – an international, privately-negotiated block trade of nearly 10% of a public company – is unusual for a non-profit and involved not a random company, but a company in which Michael Davis was already ·the largest shareholder, with such transaction resulting in RSF becoming the company's second largest shareholder. Around the same time Davis and RSF collaborated on the purchase of the 9.7% block, Davis became chairman of the board of Cyanotech. · All of RSF's shares are the result of gifts from Davis' Skywords Foundation. All the shares held by RSF are held for the benefit of Ginungagap. Michael Davis is the president of both Skywords and Ginungagap and both Skywords and Ginungagap share office space with Michael Davis in Tiburon, California.
