On January 6, 2011, Cedar Fair placed the following advertisement in The (Cleveland) Plain Dealer, The Sandusky Register and The Toledo Blade:

Cedar Fair is thriving when others are merely surviving

Cedar Fair is well-positioned for sustained, profitable growth, having successfully navigated a period of unprecedented economic distress, which caused others in the industry to struggle, and even forced one major competitor to seek bankruptcy protection.

2010 Highlights include:

Set an all-time record attendance of 22.8 million visitors

Strengthened the balance sheet to create powerful financial flexibility

Reinstated the quarterly cash distribution for unitholders the 24th consecutive year Cedar Fair has paid a distribution (since the Company went public in 1987, each unit has returned $29.02 in distributions)

Saw its unit price increase 33%, to $15.16 on 12/31/10, compared to $11.41 on 12/31/09

Cedar Fair is focused on *creating value for all unitholders

Contrary to Q's assertion the unit price fell after the distribution was suspended, it in fact has increased, which is reflective of our balanced focus on debt reduction and a sustainable distribution.

The Company has the strategic plan, operational expertise and financial strength to pursue its growth targets:

Growing revenues 10% to 14% by 2015 (2.3% CAGR)

Growing adjusted EBITDA 10% to 14% by 2015 (2.3% CAGR)

Reducing the Consolidated Leverage Ratio to 4.0X in 2013

Providing for a sustainable and growing distribution to unitholders between $1.25 to $1.75 per limited partner unit by 2015, and possibly higher if our future performance exceeds expectations

Don't let Q Investments distract you from the facts

The fact is: Q Investments is looking to weaken Cedar Fair by trying to put unnecessary restrictions on the pool of qualified succession candidates and by preventing the Board from making prudent decisions with the Company's capital.

By weakening your hometown company, this Texas-based hedge fund can meet the short-term cash flow needs of its hedge fund's investors at the expense of the long-term value creation goals of Cedar Fair and its investors.

Keep Cedar Fair strong and VOTE AGAINST

Q Investments' short-sighted Proposals 1 and 2

by using the Company's white proxy card.
