Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On October 28, 2011, The Fresh Market, Inc. (the Company ) entered into a definitive Renewal Agreement to renew its existing Supply and Service Agreement with Burris Logistics ( Burris ) pursuant to which Burris provides inventory management, warehousing and transportation services to the Company (the Existing Agreement ). The Renewal Agreement provides that the term of the Existing Agreement, which otherwise would have expired by its terms on or around February 5, 2012, will be extended through February 5, 2016. Burris will continue to perform the inventory management, warehousing and transportation services for the Company that it has performed under the Existing Agreement. The Renewal Agreement also provides that Burris may begin to utilize a second distribution center in the mid-Atlantic region in 2012 to service the Company. In addition, the Renewal Agreement provides for revised pricing and other financial terms. The Renewal Agreement supersedes the agreement in principle with respect to the renewal of the Existing Agreement that the Company entered into with Burris on September 30, 2011.
