Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Term Loan Credit Agreement

On October 1, 2013 (the Effective Date), Verizon Communications Inc. (Verizon) entered into a $12.0 billion Term Loan Credit Agreement (the Term Loan Credit Agreement) with JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as administrative agent (JPM), and the lenders named therein. The Term Loan Credit Agreement provides Verizon with the ability to borrow up to $12.0 billion to finance, in part, Verizon's previously announced acquisition of the indirect 45% interest of Vodafone Group Plc (Vodafone) in Cellco Partnership d/b/a Verizon Wireless (the Partnership) pursuant to the stock purchase agreement (as amended from time to time, the Stock Purchase Agreement) entered into on September 2, 2013 among Verizon, Vodafone and Vodafone 4 Limited (the Wireless Transaction) and to pay related fees and expenses. The loans under the Term Loan Credit Agreement are available during the period (the Availability Period) beginning on the Effective Date and ending on the earliest of (i) September 2, 2014, (ii) the date immediately following the consummation of the Wireless Transaction, (iii) the termination of the Stock Purchase Agreement and (iv) the termination in full of the commitments pursuant to the Term Loan Credit Agreement. The availability of the loans under the Term Loan Credit Agreement, which have not yet been funded, is subject to the satisfaction (or waiver) of the conditions set forth therein. The date on which such conditions are satisfied (or waived in accordance with the Term Loan Credit Agreement) is the Funding Date. The loans under the Term Loan Credit Agreement are to be made in a single borrowing on the Funding Date. 50% of the loans under the Term Loan Credit Agreement have a maturity of three years (the 3-Year Loans), and 50% of the loans under the Term Loan Credit Agreement have a maturity of five years (the 5-Year Loans). The 5-Year Loans will amortize in an amount equal to (i) 5.0% of the original principal amount of the 5-Year Loans on each of the dates that are three, six, nine and twelve months after the third anniversary of the Funding Date and (ii) 12.5% of the original principal amount of the 5-Year Loans on each of the dates that are three, six and nine months after the fourth anniversary of the Funding Date. Any borrowing under the Term Loan Credit Agreement will be allocated on a pro rata basis between the 3-Year Loans and the 5-Year Loans.

Certain of the lenders under the Term Loan Credit Agreement and their affiliates have performed commercial banking, investment banking or advisory services for Verizon from time to time for which they have received customary fees and reimbursement of expenses. These lenders and their affiliates may, from time to time, engage in transactions with and perform services for Verizon in the ordinary course of its business for which they may receive customary fees and reimbursement of expenses. In addition, some of the lenders under the Term Loan Credit Agreement are lenders, and in some cases agents or managers for the lenders, under other debt facilities through which Verizon may obtain funding.

Interest Rate and Fees

The loans under the Term Loan Credit Agreement will bear interest at a rate equal to, at the option of Verizon, (i) the base rate (defined as the greater of the rate JPM announces publicly as its prime rate or the federal funds rate plus 0.50%, subject to a floor of LIBOR plus 1.00%) or (ii) LIBOR, in each case plus a margin to be determined by reference to Verizon's credit ratings. For 3-Year Loans, the margin ranges from 0.125% to 0.875% in the case of base rate loans and 1.125% to 1.875% in the case of LIBOR loans. For 5-Year Loans, the margin ranges from 0.25% to 1.00% in the case of base rate loans and 1.25% to 2.00% in the case of LIBOR loans.

Verizon will pay a commitment fee on the daily actual unused commitment of each lender for the period from and including the Effective Date through the date on which the commitments are terminated. This fee accrues at a rate equal to 0.10% per annum.

Covenants and Events of Default

The Term Loan Credit Agreement contains certain negative covenants, including a negative pledge covenant, a merger or similar transaction covenant and an accounting changes covenant, and affirmative covenants and events of default that are customary for companies maintaining an investment grade credit rating. An event of default may result in the acceleration of any outstanding loans under the Term Loan Credit Agreement, as applicable. In addition, the Term Loan Credit Agreement requires Verizon to maintain a Leverage Ratio (as such term is defined in the Term Loan Credit Agreement) not in excess of 3.50:1.00, until Verizon's credit ratings reach a certain level.

The foregoing description of the Term Loan Credit Agreement does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the Term Loan Credit Agreement, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and which is incorporated herein by reference.

The Term Loan Credit Agreement has been included to provide investors and security holders with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to be a source of financial, business or operational information, or provide any other factual information, about Verizon or the Partnership or their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Term Loan Credit Agreement are made only for purposes of such agreement and are as of specific dates; are solely for the benefit of the parties thereto (except as specifically set forth therein); may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the parties thereto, instead of establishing these matters as facts; and may be subject to standards of materiality and knowledge applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Investors should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of Verizon or the Partnership or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the date of the Term Loan Credit Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in Verizon's public disclosures or public disclosures concerning the Partnership.

Item 1.02. Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement.

Upon the entry into the Term Loan Credit Agreement, the previously disclosed Bridge Credit Agreement that Verizon entered into on September 2, 2013 with JPM, as administrative agent, and the lenders named therein was terminated in accordance with its terms.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits.
