PART II

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Delaware Registrants:

Erickson Incorporated, EAC Acquisition Corporation and Evergreen Unmanned Systems, Inc. are incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware.

Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law provides that a corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful; and further that a corporation may indemnify such person against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with the defense or settlement of action or suit by or in the right of the corporation, if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the Court of Chancery or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the Court of Chancery or such other court shall deem proper. To the extent that a present or former director or officer of a corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any such action described in this paragraph, suit or proceeding, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, such person shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection therewith.

Section 102(b)(7) of the Delaware General Corporation Law allows a corporation to include in its certificate of incorporation a provision to eliminate or limit the personal liability of a director of a corporation to the corporation or to any of its stockholders for monetary damages for a breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except in the case where the director (i) breaches his duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, (ii) fails to act in good faith, engages in intentional misconduct or knowingly violates a law, (iii) authorizes the unlawful payment of a dividend or approves a stock purchase or redemption in violation of Section 174 of the Delaware General Corporation Law or (iv) obtains an improper personal benefit.

Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law further provides that a corporation shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against such person and incurred by such person in any such capacity, or arising out of such person's status as such, whether or not the corporation would otherwise have the power to indemnify such person against such liability under Section 145.

Erickson Incorporated

Erickson Incorporated's Third Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation and Erickson Incorporated's Third Amended and Restated Bylaws each provide for indemnification of the corporation's directors, officers, employees, and other agents to the maximum extent permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law. In addition, Erickson Incorporated has entered into indemnification agreements with its directors, officers, and some employees containing provisions which are in some respects broader than the specific indemnification provisions contained in the Delaware General Corporation Law. The indemnification agreements may require Erickson Incorporated, among other things, to indemnify its directors against certain liabilities that may arise by reason of their status or service as directors and to advance their expenses incurred as a result of any proceeding against them as to which they could be indemnified. Reference is also made to Section 10 of the purchase agreement filed as Exhibit 10.27 hereto, which provides for indemnification by the initial purchasers of the corporation's officers and directors against certain liabilities.

EAC Acquisition Corporation

EAC Acquisition Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation provides that to the fullest extent permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law, a director of EAC Acquisition Corporation shall not be personally liable to EAC Acquisition Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director.

In addition, EAC Acquisition Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation also provides that EAC Acquisition Corporation shall indemnify to the fullest extent permitted by law any person made or threatened to be made a party to an action or proceeding, whether criminal, civil, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that he, his testator or intestate is or was a director or officer of EAC Acquisition Corporation or any predecessor of EAC Acquisition Corporation, or serves or served at any other enterprise as a director or officer at the request of EAC Acquisition Corporation or any predecessor to EAC Acquisition Corporation.

Evergreen Unmanned Systems, Inc.

Evergreen Unmanned Systems, Inc.'s Bylaws provide that Evergreen Unmanned Systems, Inc. shall indemnify any person made or threatened to be made a party to an action or proceeding, whether criminal, civil, administrative or investigative (including those actions by or in the right of Evergreen Unmanned Systems, Inc.), by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director or officer of Evergreen Unmanned Systems, Inc., or serves or served at any other enterprise as a director or officer at the request of Evergreen Unmanned Systems, Inc. if such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of Evergreen Unmanned Systems, Inc., and, with respect to criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe such person's conduct was unlawful. In a derivative action, that is, one by or in the right of the corporation, no indemnification shall be made if such person shall have been adjudged liable to the corporation, unless and only to the extent that the court in which the action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses despite such adjudication of liability.

Oregon Registrant:

Erickson Helicopters, Inc. is incorporated under the laws of the State of Oregon.

Section 60.391 of the Oregon Business Corporation Act authorizes the indemnification of an individual made a party to a proceeding because the individual is or was an officer or director against certain liability incurred in the proceeding if (i) the conduct of the individual was in good faith, (ii) the individual reasonably believed that his or her conduct was in the best interests of the corporation or at least not opposed to its best interests, (iii) in the case of any criminal proceeding, the individual had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful, (iv) in the case of any proceeding by or in the right of the corporation, the individual was not adjudged liable to the corporation, and (v) in connection with any proceeding (other than a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation) charging improper personal benefit to the individual, the individual was not adjudged liable on the basis that he or she improperly received personal benefit.

II-2

Section 60.401 of the Oregon Business Corporation Act also authorizes a court to order indemnification, whether or not the above standards of conduct have been met, if the court determines that the officer or director is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification in view of all the relevant circumstances. In addition, the Oregon Business Corporation Act provides that the indemnification described above is not exclusive of any other rights to which officers or directors may be entitled under the corporation's articles of incorporation or bylaws, or under any agreement, action of its board of directors, vote of shareholders or otherwise.

Section 60.047(2)(d) of the Oregon Business Corporation Act also authorizes a corporation to include in its articles of incorporation a provision eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for conduct as a director, except that such a provision cannot affect the liability of a director (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its shareholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) for any unlawful corporation distribution as defined in the Oregon Business Corporation Act, or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

Erickson Helicopters, Inc.'s By-Laws provide that Erickson Helicopters, Inc. may indemnify any person in connection with or resulting from any action, suit, proceeding or claim by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, agent or employee of Erickson Helicopters, Inc., provided that such indemnification shall not apply with respect to any matter as to which such person shall be finally adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding to have been liable to the company or to have improperly received a personal benefit. Further, Erickson Helicopters, Inc.'s By-Laws provide that in the event a director or officer is wholly successful in the defense of any proceeding to which such person was a party by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director or officer of Erickson Helicopters, Inc., Erickson Helicopters, Inc. must indemnify such person against all reasonable expenses incurred in such proceeding.

Nevada Registrant:

Evergreen Equity, Inc. is incorporated under the laws of the State of Nevada.

Under the Nevada General Corporation Law, as amended, director immunity from liability to a corporation or its stockholders for monetary liabilities applies automatically unless it is specifically limited by a corporation's articles of incorporation. Excepted from that immunity are: (i) a willful failure to deal fairly with the corporation or its stockholders in connection with a matter in which the director has a material conflict of interest, (ii) a violation of criminal law (unless the director had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was lawful or no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful), (iii) a transaction from which the director derived an improper personal profit, and (iv) willful misconduct.

Texas Registrant:

Evergreen Helicopters International, Inc. is incorporated under the laws of the State of Texas.

Under the provisions of Chapter 8 of the Texas Business Organizations Code, a corporation may indemnify its directors, officers, employees and agents and maintain liability insurance for those persons. Section 8.101 of the Texas Business Organizations Code provides that a corporation may indemnify a governing person, or delegate, who was, is or is threatened to be made a named defendant or respondent in a proceeding if it is determined that the person: (i) conducted himself in good faith, (ii) reasonably believed that (a) in the case of conduct in his official capacity that his conduct was in the corporation's best interest and (b) in all other cases, that his conduct was at least not opposed to the corporation's best interest, and (iii) in the case of any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. However, if the person is found liable to the corporation, or if the person is found liable on the basis that he received an improper personal benefit, indemnification under Texas law is limited to the reimbursement of reasonable expenses actually incurred by the person in connection with the proceedings and does not include a judgment, a penalty, a fine, and an excise or similar tax, and no indemnification will be available if the person is found liable for willful or intentional misconduct, breach of the person's duty of loyalty, or an act or omission not committed in good faith that constitutes a breach of a duty owed by the person to the corporation. Under Texas law, indemnification by the corporation is mandatory if the person is wholly successful on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of the proceeding.

Alaska Registrant:

Erickson Transport, Inc. is incorporated in the State of Alaska.

Under Alaska Corporations Code 10.06.490(a), a corporation, under specified circumstances, may indemnify a person who was, is, or is threatened to be made a party to a completed, pending, or threatened action or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, other than an action by or in the right of the corporation, by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise. Indemnification may include reimbursement of expenses, attorney fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with the action or proceeding if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to a criminal action or proceeding, the person had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct was unlawful.

In a derivative action, that is, one by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor, under Alaska Corporations Code 10.06.490(b), a corporation may indemnify a person who was, is, or is threatened to be made a party to a completed, pending, or threatened action by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise. Indemnification may include reimbursement for expenses and attorney fees actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with the defense or settlement of the action if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, except that indemnification may not be made in respect of any claim, issue, or matter as to which the person has been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of the person's duty to the corporation, unless and only to the extent that the court in which the action was brought determines upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability, in view of all of the circumstances of the case, the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for expenses that the court considers proper.

Alaska Corporations Code Section 10.06.490(c) provides for mandatory indemnification of expenses and attorney fees actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense of an action or proceeding referred to above, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter in the action or proceeding, to the extent that a director, officer, employee or agent of a corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise.

Alaska Corporations Code Section 10.06.490(d) provides that any indemnification under Sections 10.06.490(a) and (b) may only be made by the corporation upon a determination that indemnification of the director, officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances because the person has met the applicable standard of conduct set out in Section 10.06.490(a) and (b). Section 10.06.490(e) provides that the corporation may pay or reimburse the reasonable expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action or proceeding in advance of the final disposition if: i) in the case of a director or officer, the director or officer furnishes the corporation with a written affirmation of a good faith belief that the standard of conduct described in Section 10.06.450(b) or Section 10.06.483(e) (generally requiring an officer to perform the duties of the office in good faith and with that degree of care, including reasonable inquiry, that an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would use under similar circumstances) has been met; ii) the director, officer, employee, or agent furnishes the corporation a written unlimited general undertaking, executed personally or on behalf of the individual, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that an applicable standard of conduct was not met; and iii) a determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the Alaska Corporations Code.

II-4

Erickson Transport, Inc.'s By-Laws provide that Erickson Transport, Inc. may indemnify any person in connection with or resulting from any action, suit, proceeding or claim by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, agent or employee of Erickson Transport, Inc., provided that such indemnification shall not apply with respect to any matter as to which such person shall be finally adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding to have been liable to the company or to have improperly received a personal benefit. Further, Erickson Transport, Inc.'s By-Laws provide that in the event a director or officer is wholly successful in the defense of any proceeding to which such person was a party by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director or officer of Erickson Transport, Inc., Erickson Transport, Inc. must indemnify such person against all reasonable expenses incurred in such proceeding.

Item 22. Undertakings.

The undersigned registrants hereby undertake:

1. That, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the registrants' annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in this registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
2. Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrants pursuant to paragraphs (1) (10) of this Item 22, or otherwise, the registrants have been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the new notes being registered, the registrants will, unless in the opinion of their counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
3. To respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11, or 13 of Form S-4, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means.
