Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On October 12, 2015, Hamilton Bancorp, Inc. (Hamilton Bancorp) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) by and among Hamilton Bancorp, Hamilton Acquisition Corp. II (a wholly owned subsidiary of Hamilton Bancorp) and Fraternity Community Bancorp, Inc. (FCB), pursuant to which, among other things, FCB will merge with and into Hamilton Bancorp, with Hamilton Bancorp as the surviving entity, and immediately thereafter, Fraternity Federal Savings & Loan Association will be merged with and into Hamilton Bank with Hamilton Bank as the surviving bank (collectively, the Merger).

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, stockholders of FCB will receive a cash payment equal to nineteen dollars and twenty-five cents ($19.25) for each share of FCB common stock, or approximately $27 million in the aggregate.

The transaction has been approved by the Board of Directors of each company and is expected to close in the second quarter of 2016. Completion of the Merger is subject to customary closing conditions, including the receipt of required regulatory approvals and the approval of FCB s stockholders.

The directors and executive officers of FCB have agreed to vote their shares in favor of the approval of the Merger Agreement at the stockholders meeting to be held to vote on the proposed transaction. If the Merger is not consummated under certain circumstances, FCB has agreed to pay Hamilton Bancorp a termination fee of $1.22 million.

The Merger Agreement also contains usual and customary representations and warranties that Hamilton Bancorp and FCB made to each other as of specific dates. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties were made solely for purposes of the contract between Hamilton Bancorp and FCB, and may be subject to important qualifications and limitations agreed to by the parties in connection with negotiating its terms. Moreover, the representations and warranties are subject to a contractual standard of materiality that may be different from what may be viewed as material to stockholders, and the representations and warranties may have been used to allocate risk between Hamilton Bancorp and FCB rather than establishing matters as facts.

The foregoing summary of the Merger Agreement is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of such document, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and which is incorporated herein by reference in its entirety.

Forward Looking Statements

This current report on Form 8-K contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such forward-looking statements may be identified by reference to a future period or periods, or by the use of forward-looking terminology, such as may, will, believe, expect, estimate, anticipate, continue, or similar terms or variations on those terms, or the negat those terms. Forward-looking statements are subject to numerous risks and uncertainties, including, but not limited to, those related to the economic environment, particularly in the market areas in which the companies operate, competitive products and pricing, fiscal and monetary policies of the U.S. Government, changes in government regulations affecting financial institutions, including compliance costs and capital requirements, changes in prevailing interest rates, acquisitions and the integration of acquired businesses, credit risk management, asset-liability management, the financial and securities markets and the availability of and costs associated with sources of liquidity.

Readers should not place undue reliance on any such forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date made. Readers are advised that the factors listed above could affect our financial performance and could cause our actual results for future periods to differ materially from any opinions or statements expressed with respect to future periods in any current statements. We do not undertake and specifically decline any obligation to publicly release the result of any revisions that may be made to any forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date of such statements or to reflect the occurrence of anticipated or unanticipated events.
