RISK FACTORS

Our business is subject to uncertainties and risks. You should carefully consider and evaluate all of the information included and incorporated by reference in this prospectus, including the risk factors incorporated by reference from OceanFirst's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015 under the section entitled "Item 1A. Risk Factors," and from time to time in other filings with the SEC. We encourage you to read these risk factors in their entirety. In addition to these risks, other risks and uncertainties not presently known to us or that we currently deem immaterial may also adversely affect our business operations and financial condition. Such risks could cause actual results to differ materially from anticipated results. This could cause the trading price of our common stock to decline, perhaps significantly, and you may lose part or all of your investment.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This prospectus contains forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements may include: any statements of the plans and objectives of management for future operations, products or services, including the execution of integration plans relating to the Integrated Mergers and OceanFirst's recently completed acquisition of Cape and Ocean Shore; any statements of expectation or belief; projections related to certain financial metrics; and any statements of assumptions underlying any of the foregoing. Forward-looking statements are typically identified by words such as believe, expect, anticipate, intend, outlook, estimate, forecast, project and other similar words and expressions. Forward-looking statements are subject to numerous assumptions, risks and uncertainties, which change over time and are beyond our control. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made. OceanFirst does not assume any duty and does not undertake to update forward-looking statements. Because forward-looking statements are subject to assumptions and uncertainties, actual results or future events could differ, possibly materially, from those that OceanFirst anticipated in its forward-looking statements and future results could differ materially from historical performance. Factors that could cause or contribute to such differences include, but are not limited to, those included under Item 1A "Risk Factors" in OceanFirst's Annual Report on Form 10-K, those disclosed in OceanFirst's other periodic reports filed with the SEC, as well as the possibility that expected benefits of the Integrated Mergers and the Cape acquisition may not materialize in the timeframe expected or at all, or may be more costly to achieve; that OceanFirst is unable to successfully implement integration strategies relating to the Integrated Mergers or the Cape acquisition; reputational risks and the reaction of the companies' customers, employees and other constituents to the Transactions; and diversion of management time on merger-related matters. For any forward-looking statements made in this joint proxy statement/prospectus or in any documents, OceanFirst claims the protection of the safe harbor for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We will not receive any proceeds from the sale of the shares of our common stock covered by this prospectus other than proceeds from the exercise of the OceanFirst options whose underlying shares of common stock are covered by this prospectus. We have no plans for the application of any of these proceeds other than for general corporate purposes. We have no assurance that any of the OceanFirst options will be exercised.

DESCRIPTION OF EQUITY INCENTIVE PLANS

Ocean Shore Holding Co. 2005 Equity Incentive Plan

Types of Awards

The Ocean Shore Holding Co. 2005 Equity Incentive Plan (the "2005 Plan") provided for the grant of: (i) non-statutory stock options ("NSOs"), (ii) incentive stock options ("ISOs") and (iii) restricted stock awards.

Transferability of Awards

The holder may not transfer, assign, or dispose of an option granted under the 2005 Plan in any manner, other than by will or the laws of intestate succession. The holder may, however, transfer NSOs granted under the 2005 Plan if the transfer is for valid estate planning purposes and is permitted under applicable tax and securities laws. With respect to restricted stock awards, the holder may not sell, transfer, assign, or pledge shares subject to the grant until full vesting has occurred. The holder may, however, transfer restricted stock awards by will or the laws of descent and distribution upon the holder's death.

Voting Rights

The holder has no voting rights with respect to shares covered by options until the holder exercises the options and takes ownership of the shares. The holder is entitled to vote or direct the 2005 Plan trustee to vote all shares subject to the holder's restricted stock awards, regardless of vesting.

Adjustments

Under the 2005 Plan, if OceanFirst (Ocean Shore's successor) issues additional securities to raise more capital, or there is a stock split, stock dividend or similar change in Ocean Shore's capital structure without receipt of consideration by Ocean Shore, the committee in charge of administering employment plans (the "Committee") may proportionately adjust the number of shares subject to options and restricted stock awards and, in the case of options, the exercise price, as necessary to preserve the holder's rights under the 2005 Plan.

Changes to the 2005 Plan

Subject to the terms and conditions of the 2005 Plan and applicable law, the Board of Directors of OceanFirst (the "Board") may modify or amend the 2005 Plan at any time. Subject to the terms of the 2005 Plan, the Committee may also amend any individual award agreement provided that it does not, without the holder's written consent, adversely affect the holder's vested rights to a previously granted award. In no event shall the Board, without shareholder approval, amend the 2005 Plan in any manner that will allow any option to be granted with an exercise price below the fair market value of the granted common stock on the day of grant, or allows the exercise price of any option to be reduced after the date of grant.

Table of Contents

Ocean Shore Holding Co. 2010 Equity Incentive Plan

Types of Awards Granted under the 2010 Plan

The Ocean Shore Holding Co. 2010 Equity Incentive Plan (the "2010 Plan") provided for the grant of: (i) NSOs, (ii) ISOs, (iii) restricted stock awards and (iv) performance awards.

Transferability

Unless otherwise determined by the Committee, the holder may not transfer his or her stock options in any manner, other than by will or if an optionee dies without a will pursuant to the laws of the state governing the optionee's estate. The Committee may, however, in its sole discretion, permit a transfer or assignment of an NSO, if it determines that the transfer is being made for valid estate planning purposes and is permitted under applicable tax and securities laws. Unless the Committee determines otherwise or unless required pursuant to a domestic relations order, the holder may not transfer unvested shares of a restricted stock award during the holder's lifetime.

Adjustments

Under the 2010 Plan, if OceanFirst (Ocean Shore's successor) issues additional securities to raise more capital, or if there is a stock dividend, stock split or similar change in Ocean Shore's capital structure without receipt of consideration by Ocean Shore, the Committee will adjust the number or kind of shares that underlie future awards under the 2010 Plan, the number or kind of shares underlying previous awards, and, in the case of stock options, the exercise price of outstanding stock options, as necessary to preserve the holder's rights under the 2010 Plan. The Committee will not, however, make adjustments that materially change the value of benefits available to the recipient of a previously granted award.

Table of Contents

Voting Rights

The holder of options granted under the 2010 Plan has no voting rights with respect to shares covered by options until the exercise of the stock options. The holder is entitled to vote the unvested shares of common stock subject to his or her restricted stock award and/or performance award.

Dividends

The holder is not entitled to dividends or other distributions until he or she exercises the stock options and takes ownership of the shares. With respect to restricted stock awards and performance awards, the holder may be entitled to receive dividends or other distributions paid by Ocean Shore on the shares subject to the awards. The timing of the payment of dividends paid on the awards will be determined by the Committee.

Changes to the 2010 Plan

The Board may amend, modify, suspend or terminate the 2010 Plan at any time, and the Committee may amend any individual award agreement, prospectively or retroactively. However, amendments to ISO provisions will be submitted for stockholder approval to the extent required by law, regulation or otherwise. In addition, no change to an individual award agreement will affect the holder's vested rights under the 2010 Plan, without the holder's written consent.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

We are registering 69,602 shares of our common stock issuable upon the exercise of the OceanFirst options.

Pursuant to the terms of the applicable options, shares of our common stock will be issued to those option holders who elect to exercise and provide payment of the exercise price. We do not know if or when the OceanFirst options will be exercised. We also do not know whether any of the shares of common stock acquired upon exercise of any options will subsequently be resold.

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

Provided, however, that paragraphs (1)(i), (1)(ii) and (1)(iii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the registrant pursuant to section 13 or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement, or is contained in a form of prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) that is part of the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4) That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser, each prospectus filed by a registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b) as part of a registration statement relating to an offering, other than registration statements relying on Rule 430B or other than prospectuses filed in reliance on Rule 430A, shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the date it is first used after effectiveness.

Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such effective date, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such date of first use.

(5) That, for the purpose of determining liability of the registrant under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities, the undersigned registrant undertakes that in a primary offering of securities of the undersigned registrant pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the undersigned registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:

(i) Any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424;

(ii) Any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant or used or referred to by the undersigned registrant;

(iii) The portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant; and

(iv) Any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned registrant to the purchaser.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
